BY THE NUMBERS

10

The Islanders' win on Saturday afternoon in Game Four was the tenth time in club history that the Islanders played at least 21 minutes of extra time in the postseason. It was also the Islanders' first double overtime victory since May 24, 2021 in Pittsburgh (Josh Bailey, Game Five).

Islanders defenseman Robert Bortuzzo recorded the primary assist on Mathew Barzal's game-winning goal Saturday, his first point as an Islander (regular or postseason) and his first playoff point since May 9, 2016.

MATHEW BARZAL #13

Islanders forward Mathew Barzal recorded his first career multi-goal game in the postseason on Saturday afternoon in Game Four. The 26-year-old scored the game-winning goal in double overtime, his second career playoff overtime goal and first since August 16, 2020. A native of Coquitlam, BC, Barzal enters tonight's matchup with 17 career playoff goals, second-most amongst active Islanders skaters (Nelson). He is the 10th player in club history to score goals in both regulation and overtime of an Islanders playoff game.

JAKE GUENTZEL #59

Carolina forward Jake Guentzel has recorded points in his last three straight games (one goal, three assists), and recorded his 27th career postseason assist in Game Four on Saturday. The 29-year-old has 62 points (35 goals, 27 assists) in 62 career playoff games, one of 15 active NHLers with a point-per-game average or higher in their postseason careers. Including the end of the regular season, the Omaha, NE native has tallied 10 points (four goals, six assists) in his last seven games at PNC Arena.
