MEDIA INFORMATION

On behalf of the Anaheim Ducks, welcome to the 2017-18 National Hockey League (NHL) season. We hope to make your job covering the Ducks as easy and pleasant as possible. In order to help you achieve your goals in the most efficient manner, we have a few procedural guidelines of which you should be aware.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the press entrance off Douglass Avenue (Northeast corner of the building). The press entrance and press will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to all games. Credentials are non-transferable, and unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Honda Center and result in a loss of credential privileges.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations as well as websites affiliated with major broadcast outlets. Requests for credentials must be made on company letterhead. Credentials will be distributed on an individual basis. Season pass holders must notify the communications office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested in writing through the communications department (e-mail or fax) a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday or Sunday contests. You can email requests to agilchrist@anaheimducks.com, or fax to 714-940-2925. Pre-arranged passes must be picked up at the press entrance located inside the northeast entrance. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, press dining room and both locker rooms. We suggest coming to the morning skate if you need an interview before the game. Both teams' locker rooms will open five minutes after the last player has left the ice, following the game's conclusion. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIODS.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation can be arranged by contacting the Ducks communications department. This includes all live television interviews for pre and post-game.

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as other passes, with camera positions assigned by team photographer Debora Robinson; photographers should check in with Debora in the press dining room prior to game time.

Telephones for the working media should be ordered through Shelly Baker with Honda Center at (714) 704-2408.

Facsimile and photocopy services are available by contacting the Ducks communications department prior to the game.

On game days when the Ducks choose to practice, they will take the ice at 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. The visiting team's practice usually starts at 11:30 a.m. Please call the Ducks communications department if there is a question regarding either team's practice schedule. ALL requests for in-between period interviews must be made by the time of the Ducks' skate that morning.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Ducks and the National Hockey League at Honda Center for the 2017-18 season. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you need any additional assistance. We look forward to working with you this season.

Sincerely,

Alex Gilchrist
Director, Media & Communications

CONGRATULATIONS!

HENRY & SUSAN SAMUELI

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC & ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

Susan Samuelli was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. She earned a B.S. in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, CA, and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in alternative health care. She developed an active consulting practice in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs, and subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samuelli was born in Buffalo, NY and grew up in Los Angeles, CA. He earned a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980-1985, he worked in the defense industry and held various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW Inc. in Redondo Beach, CA. Since 1985 Dr. Samuelli has been a professor in the Electrical Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications and took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 to be at Broadcom full-time. In 2016 Broadcom Corporation was acquired by Avago Technologies Limited and renamed Broadcom Limited. Dr. Samuelli continues to serve as Chief Technical Officer of Broadcom Limited. He was elected a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) in 2000, a member of the National Academy of Engineering in 2003, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2004.

In December 2003 Susan and Henry purchased the management contract for the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue, creating Anaheim Arena Management, LLC, to oversee all operations of the arena, and in June 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League club, Honda Center's largest tenant. In 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship. Henry serves on the Executive Committee of the NHL Board of Governors.

The success of Broadcom Corporation has also provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom's initial public offering in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation, and to date have gifted over $300 million primarily in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education, Integrative Health, Youth Services, and Jewish Culture. In 2003 and 2004, Susan and Henry were listed among BusinessWeek's 50 Most Generous Philanthropists in the nation. In 2012, they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Since relocating to Orange County, CA in 1995, Susan and Henry have become very active in the community. Susan is on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Samueli Academy, a public Charter High School in Santa Ana for community, underserved and foster teens. She serves on the Board of the Susan Samueli Center for Integrative Medicine at UC Irvine's College of Medicine, which she and Henry established in 2001. In 2000, Susan was honored with the UC Irvine Medal. In 2002, she received the Ellen Cooperman Angel Award from the John Wayne Cancer Institute. In 2005, she received the General William Lyon Crystal Vision Philanthropy Award from the Orangewood Children's Foundation, and in 2012 she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate in Humanities from the Southern California University of Health Sciences.

Henry serves on the Dean's Advisory Board of both the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science at UCLA and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering at UC Irvine. In 2000 he was awarded the University of California Presidential Medal, the UC Irvine Medal, the UCLA School of Engineering and Applied Science Alumnus of the Year, and the IEEE Circuits and Systems Society Industrial Pioneer Award. In 2005 he was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology and the Edward A. Dickson Alumnus of the Year from UCLA. In 2006 he received the IEEE Communications Society Distinguished Industry Leaders Award. In 2010 he received the UCLA Medal. In 2011, he received the Global Semiconductor Alliance Dr. Morris Chang Exemplary Leadership Award, and in 2012, he was awarded the Marconi Society Prize and Fellowship.

MICHAEL SCHULMAN

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC
MANAGING DIRECTOR, H&S VENTURES, LLC

Michael Schulman serves as Chairman of the Board of Anaheim Arena Management (AAM), Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club (ADHC), Chairman of the Board of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and serves on the board of NHL Enterprises. He is also an Alternate Governor for the NHL Board of Governors.

Schulman is Chief Executive Officer of the San Diego Gulls Hockey Club (SDG) and the Alternate Governor for the AHL Board of Governors. In addition, he is Managing Director of H&S Ventures, the entity that manages the Samueli Family Office. Schulman reports directly to owners Dr. Henry Samueli and Susan Samueli, and is responsible for managing and long-term planning of their profit and nonprofit entities.

Schulman was the lead negotiator on behalf of the Samueli family in the acquisition of the Honda Center management agreement from the bankruptcy court and the City of Anaheim. He acts as liaison between the Samueli family and AAM management and supervises all financial, legal and charitable decisions of the arena. He also acts as liaison with the other partners of AAM and the City of Anaheim. In addition, Schulman oversees all long-term capital projects, including the 57 Freeway Marquee, two 360° LED rings, revamping of the video room, new scoreboard and sound system, and remodeling of the company offices and locker rooms.

Schulman also represented the Samueli family in purchase negotiations with Disney for the Anaheim Ducks, and in qualifying the Samueli family for the purchase of the team with the NHL.

Schulman was also involved with the family in changing the team name and logo, and forming the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Schulman led the negotiation with the American Hockey League (AHL) in forming the new AHL Pacific Division along with four other NHL teams. He was the lead negotiator in purchasing the Norfolk AHL team and moving the team to San Diego. He also formed the San Diego Gulls Foundation.

He is responsible for developing additional ice and inline rinks in the Orange County area and was instrumental in the purchase of several ice and inline rinks, including Irvine, Corona and Huntington Beach inline rinks, and Westminster, Yorba Linda and Lakewood ice rinks. Schulman is the Chairman of THE RINKS Program and oversees its development, including the advancement of the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League, California State Championship and the Learn to Play Hockey Program. Schulman spent over 10 years working with the City of Irvine in developing the Irvine Ice & Sports Complex and forming the Irvine Ice Foundation, which will be responsible for the building of the complex.

Schulman's role at H&S Ventures is multi-faceted. He is the Managing Director of the family office, which oversees all of the family's profit and nonprofit operations. H&S Ventures serves as the manager of AAM, ADHC, SDG as well as a number of other business entities in which the Samuelis are involved. Schulman was a founding member, and is a past board member, of the Santa Clara Institute of Sports Law and Ethics and the USC Sports Business Institute (SBI) Advisory Council.

Schulman serves on the boards of AAM, ADHC, Anaheim Sports Holdings, Anaheim Ducks Foundation, HS Hockey Development, San Diego Gulls Hockey Club and ECH 2101. He is also a current member of the board of the Telluride Ski and Golf Company.

Schulman also serves on many nonprofit boards. He has been a member of the University of California, Irvine Foundation Board since 1991. He was one of the founding members and past chair of the UCI Planned Giving Leadership Council. Schulman serves on the boards of the Samueli Foundation, Samueli Institute, the Orange County Jewish Campus, Anaheim Ducks Foundation and San Diego Gulls Foundation.

After earning his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from University of California, Berkeley, Schulman went on to the University of Santa Clara Law School. In addition, Schulman studied economics for one year at the University of Leeds in England.

Following law school, he was hired as a full-time law professor at the University of Southern California, after which he was a practicing attorney for a number of years and a partner with the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery.

A native of California, Michael and his wife, Sherry, reside in Laguna Beach and have four children: Annie, Danielle, Bryant and Natasha.

BOB MURRAY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Bob Murray enters his 43rd consecutive year in the National Hockey League, his 10th as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks. He won the NHL General Manager of the Year award in 2013-14 and has been a finalist for the honor in three of the last five seasons. He also served as an Assistant General Manager for Team Canada during the 2016 World Cup of Hockey. Murray played in 1,008 NHL games and has been a General Manager for an additional 875 games (188 with Chicago, 687 with Anaheim).

Under Murray's guidance, the Ducks have claimed the last five Pacific Division titles, including four consecutive years with 100+ standings points. The 2016-17 Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles and the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94. Anaheim defeated Calgary and Edmonton in the first two rounds of the Stanley Cup Playoffs before falling to Nashville in the Conference Final. It was Anaheim's fourth trip to the Conference Final since Murray joined the team in 2006 (only Chicago, 5, and Pittsburgh, 4, have made as many appearances).

The 2015-16 club went 46-25-11 for 103 points, fourth in the Western Conference. In 2014-15, Anaheim finished with the best record in the Western Conference (51-24-7, 109 points), becoming the first team since 2011-12 (Vancouver) to post consecutive 50+ win seasons. Anaheim defeated Winnipeg and Calgary in the first two rounds of the postseason before falling in the Conference Final to Chicago (seven games). The 2013-14 team finished with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in franchise history. Anaheim posted the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in club history that season, setting season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707), while also leading the league in goals (263). The 2012-13 club finished the regular season with the third-best record in the NHL (30-12-6, second in the West).

Murray was named to his current position on Nov. 12, 2008 after spending the previous three-plus seasons as the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations. In that role, much of Murray's work behind the scenes led directly to many successful trades and other player transactions by Anaheim. During that three-year period, the Ducks won a Stanley Cup (2007), a Pacific Division title (2007), and qualified for the playoffs each season. Murray was the General Manager of the Portland Pirates (Anaheim's AHL affiliate) from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Pirates went to the Conference Finals twice (2006 & 2008), appearing in six playoff rounds. Between 2005 and 2008 (three seasons), Anaheim and Portland combined to win 10 and appear in 14 playoff rounds, both the most of any organization in hockey.

Prior to joining the Ducks in July 2005, Murray worked as a Professional Scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999-05. Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point seasons two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup Playoffs four seasons in a row (2001-04). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a Scouting Consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as General Manager from 1997-99. He was named the sixth General Manager in team history on July 3, 1997. He was promoted to the post after serving as Assistant General Manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper-management, Murray was named the Director of Player Personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's NHL Entry Draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau in 1989-90. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup Playoffs. In all, Murray scored 132-382=514 points and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawks defensemen (15th overall in club history). He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a Professional Scout following his retirement in 1990.

Bob and his wife, Betsy, have four children: Kevin, Amanda, Andrew and Katie; and four grandchildren: Mikayla, Aisley, Lily and Kaden.

TIM RYAN

PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC,
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Tim Ryan is in his 13th season as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for the Anaheim Ducks. Over the last 12 years, he has successfully led the Ducks business efforts to record growth, while initiating numerous community, fan-friendly and youth hockey programs that have increased the popularity of the sport in the Southern California market.

Ryan has served more than 25 years at Honda Center and has more than 39 years in arena management and event creation experience. In addition to his duties with the NHL club, he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (AAM), the management company of Honda Center. In his role, Ryan oversees one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the world. Over the years, Honda Center has repeatedly ranked among the top 10 arenas in the world for annual live entertainment.

Ryan has also led significant efforts to upgrade Honda Center, assuring it remains one of the world's top-of-the-line sports and entertainment venues, while continuing to elevate the live game experience. Over the past few years, the venue debuted a new state-of-the-art scoreboard, in addition to multi-million dollar upgrades to the Terrace (400) and Pacific Premier Bank Club Levels (300), the 15,000-square-foot indoor/outdoor Shock Top Terrace and Anaheim Ducks Team Store. Season passes to the Shock Top Terrace have been sold out since its inception, while the new team store has helped move Anaheim Ducks merchandise into one of the league's top 10 sellers.

Ryan's philosophy of continual venue upgrades continues this season with a newly expanded concourse. This area adds thousands of square feet to the building's south entrance and connects the Anaheim Ducks Team Store with innovative food & beverage concepts. Also new for 2017-18 is a state-of-the-art LED sports lighting system with custom optics.

Through strategic planning, creative business development and event production, Ryan ensures Honda Center is consistently booked with the world's top names in live entertainment and world-class sporting events. The venue recently hosted its seventh UFC event, one of the most anticipated fight cards in MMA history, UFC 214: Cormier vs. Jones 2. In 2017 alone, the venue has hosted exemplary acts such as Twenty One Pilots, J. Cole, Brad Paisley, BTS, Ariana Grande, Kendrick Lamar, Dierks Bentley, John Mayer and more. Since 1993, more than 38 million people have been entertained at Honda Center, enjoying more than 3,600 events.

As Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer of the Anaheim Ducks, Ryan oversees all business operations of the professional hockey team. He assumed his current dual roles on June 20, 2005 when the Ducks were purchased by Dr. Henry and Susan Samuelli, owners of AAM.

The Ducks have continually been recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its annual "Ultimate Standings" edition for successes both on and off the ice. The magazine has recognized the Ducks as a top franchise among 122 professional sports teams (NHL, NFL, MLB & NBA), ranking in the top eight in three of the last four years. In August 2016, J.D. Power also recognized the Ducks as the top franchise in Southern California with respect to overall customer satisfaction.

Ryan has spearheaded several initiatives in conjunction with the Samuellis, including charitable programs that support approximately 500 nonprofit organizations annually, a team foundation that supports the community in the areas of education, youth hockey and health and wellness, and an expanded grassroots marketing program. The Ducks launched THE RINKS development program in 2009, which supports and promotes youth ice and roller hockey in Southern California. The club also launched the first-ever Orange County high school hockey league in 2008 (named the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League). The league now has 49 teams for the 2017-18 season. Funded by the Anaheim Ducks Foundation, S.C.O.R.E. (Scholastic Curriculum of Recreation and Education), the club's education-based youth hockey program has reached more than 300,000 local school children since 2005. The Ducks also have a 7,000-member Kids Club, the largest in the NHL (among all U.S.-based teams).

In 1992, after a long career at the Long Beach Arena, Ryan joined the then-Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim (operated by Ogden Facility Management) as Assistant General Manager. He was promoted to General Manager in 1998 and was named Pollstar Magazine "Facility Executive of the Year" for 2001. During that time, Ryan was also charged with overseeing a number of other Ogden facilities and served as a consultant on various major entertainment projects. Near the end of 2003, the management contract for the arena was purchased by AAM, and Ryan was named President/CEO of both the company and the arena.

Ryan is active in both the entertainment industry and in the local community. He serves on the boards of several nonprofit groups, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County, Orange County Sports Council, Los Angeles Sports Council, Orangewood Children's Foundation, and the Stars and Stripes Tournament.

Ryan graduated from California State University, Long Beach in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in Finance. He lives with his wife, Michele, in Huntington Beach and enjoys golf, fly-fishing and travel.

DAVID McNAB

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

An original member of the Ducks, David McNab is now in his 39th consecutive year in the NHL and 24th with Anaheim. McNab served as Anaheim's Assistant General Manager for 14 seasons before being promoted to his current position in 2008. His duties include overseeing all aspects of player development, having an expertise on the new Collective Bargaining Agreement and its relationship to the salary cap in the NHL, contract and arbitration negotiation, player evaluation and scouting.

McNab's impact on the Ducks is significant. He has been part of Anaheim's run to two Stanley Cup Finals (2003 & 2007), including a championship in 2007. The club advanced to the Conference Finals in 2006 and 2015, and the Conference Semifinals in 2009. During his tenure, McNab has scouted and signed numerous collegiate free agents who have made major contributions to the success of the club.

Prior to being named as the Ducks' Assistant General Manager in December of 1995, the 60-year-old McNab was the club's first Director of Player Personnel and was largely responsible for the team's selections in the 1994-96 NHL Entry and Supplemental Drafts. McNab has also held the position as General Manager of the Ducks' top farm team in the American Hockey League for six seasons (the Baltimore Bandits during the 1996-97 season and the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks from 1997-2002) while also working on the AHL's competition committee for many of those years.

Considered to be one of the hardest working and knowledgeable scouts in the National Hockey League, McNab began his professional scouting career in 1978 with the Washington Capitals, where he spent four seasons. In 1982, McNab was signed by the Hartford Whalers, where he spent seven seasons as a scout, the last two as the Director of Player Recruitment. He then joined the New York Rangers in 1989, where he worked for four seasons before leaving to join the Disney-owned Ducks in 1993. His work with the Rangers helped the club to the 1994 Stanley Cup championship.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin in 1978 with a degree in Communication Arts, McNab was also a goaltender on one of the greatest college hockey teams of all-time, the 1977 University of Wisconsin Badgers' NCAA championship team. He was drafted by the St. Louis Blues in the ninth round of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft (151st overall). McNab has worked on numerous occasions for USA Hockey, both as an Assistant General Manager for the United States in the World Championships on three different occasions, as well as serving as a consultant for the 1984, 1988 and 1992 United States Olympic Teams. He has also been a three-time member of the selection committee that votes for the Hobey Baker Award, college hockey's version of the Heisman Trophy.

A member of one of the most respected families in the NHL, McNab is the son of the late Max McNab and brother of Peter McNab. Max played on the 1950 Stanley Cup champion Detroit Red Wings and was a former general manager with the Washington Capitals and New Jersey Devils. He was also a recipient of the 1998 Lester Patrick Award given annually for "outstanding service to hockey in the United States." Peter played in 954 NHL games, scoring 363 goals and 813 points in a 14-year career. Peter is currently a broadcaster with the Colorado Avalanche.

David McNab was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, but grew up in San Diego, California and graduated from Point Loma High School in San Diego in 1973. He became a U.S. citizen in 1983. He and his wife, Kari, were married in Minneapolis, Minnesota in 1989 and have two daughters, Ali (25) and Erica (24). The McNab family resides in Yorba Linda, California.

RICK PATERSON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Rick Paterson is in his 12th season with the Ducks, his eighth as Director of Player Personnel. He originally joined Anaheim on July 20, 2005 as Director of Professional Scouting. Paterson's responsibilities include extensive knowledge of all NHL personnel and depth charts, along with assisting in the evaluation of junior and college prospects. In addition, he aides Bob Murray in the procurement of players via free agency, trade or the NHL Draft.

Paterson has over 37 years of experience as a player, coach and scout, and has won the Stanley Cup four times. Along with his Stanley Cup championship with the Ducks in 2007, he won the title with Tampa Bay (2004) and Pittsburgh (1991 & 1992).

Prior to joining the Ducks, Paterson spent seven years with the Tampa Bay Lightning, winning the Stanley Cup in 2004 as the club's Chief Professional Scout. He was inducted into the Kingston & District Sports Hall of Fame (Ontario) on May 4, 2012.

As a player, Paterson spent 10 years in the Chicago Blackhawks organization from 1978-1988. He was drafted by the club in the third round (46th overall) in the 1978 NHL Entry Draft. He appeared in 430 NHL games, scoring 50-43=93 points. Paterson also appeared in the Stanley Cup playoffs eight times with Chicago, scoring 7-10=17 points in 63 games. Primarily known as a defensive specialist and top penalty killer, Paterson set a Blackhawks record for the fastest two short-handed goals when he scored twice in 2:30 against Winnipeg on Jan. 16, 1985.

At age 15, Paterson was considered one of the top hockey players in Ontario. He played with the Cornwall Royals of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL) from 1973-78, scoring 128-237=365 points in 342 games. In his final year in Cornwall (1977-78), he exploded with 58-80=138 points in 71 games. Paterson was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame in 2002. In addition, he won the Bronze Medal at the 1978 World Junior Championships with Team Canada.

After retiring from the NHL as a player, Paterson joined the Pittsburgh Penguins as an Assistant Coach from 1988-93, winning the Stanley Cup in 1991 and 1992. He coached the Penguins' International Hockey League affiliate in Cleveland from 1993-97 and joined the Tampa Bay Lightning as Assistant Coach in 1997-98. Paterson remained in that role until being named a Professional Scout prior to the start of the 1999-00 season.

Paterson and his wife, Kathy, reside in Anaheim Hills and have twins: son, David, and daughter, Ashley. He also has a daughter, Brittany, a 2009 graduate of McGill University in Montreal, Quebec.

KEVIN STARKEY

VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

Kevin Starkey is the Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for Anaheim Arena Management (AAM). He oversees all arena-specific departments, including venue operations, event services, marketing, public relations and the box office. In addition, Starkey oversees the entire food and beverage division for Honda Center, including each of the arena's three full-service restaurants, dozens of concessions concepts and catering operations.

Starkey's career in public facilities and arena management has spanned 29 years. He is responsible for many of the company's large-scale operations successes. Last year, he led the installation and project management responsibilities of Honda Center's new state-of-the-art scoreboard, sound system, control room and video edit suites. In addition, he was intricately involved in the construction and logistical aspects of the San Diego Gulls move to Southern California, overseeing the construction of their locker room at Valley View Casino Center and highly acclaimed athlete training and performance facility in Poway.

Starkey recently has been overseeing the concourse expansion project. The project adds thousands of feet to the venue's south entrance and connects the Anaheim Ducks Team Store with inspired food & beverage concepts. He also oversaw construction the most extensive single upgrade in the venue's 20-year history, the Grand Terrace Project. It features the 15,000 square foot indoor/outdoor Shock Top Terrace and the Anaheim Ducks Team Store. Past projects under Starkey's direction include the venue's installation and implementation of Cisco StadiumVision, a highly successful $13 million renovation in 2006, a 95-foot marquee located adjacent to the 57 Freeway, a completely remodeled club level restaurant (Jack Daniel's Old No. 7), and a second in-arena LED ring. Starkey also manages on-going renovations to Honda Center's 84 luxury suites, and is involved in booking contracts and event creation.

Starkey, hired at the arena in 1993, has also been instrumental in all facets of the building's day-to-day operational efforts, including all beautification, maintenance, changeover and capital improvements.

Prior to joining AAM, Starkey worked at the Great Western Forum, then home to the National Basketball Association's Los Angeles Lakers and National Hockey League's Los Angeles Kings.

A native of Torrance, California, Starkey graduated from California State University, Long Beach where he played quarterback for the school from 1979-80. Starkey played three seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Ottawa Rough Riders and the Montreal Concorde, highlighted by an appearance in the 1981 Grey Cup against Warren Moon and the Edmonton Eskimos (26-23 loss). He also played two seasons in the United States Football League with the Oakland Invaders and Portland Breakers.

Kevin and his wife, Christine, reside in Murrieta. He has three children: Sean, Alyssa and Christian.

AARON TEATS

VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Aaron Teats is now in his 24th year with the Anaheim Ducks, his fifth as Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer. In his current role, Teats oversees business intelligence, broadcasting, communications, community relations, entertainment, fan development, marketing, merchandising, publications/new media and social networking. He is also responsible for overseeing agreements for all television and radio rightsholders, as well as the contracts of all club announcers. In the summer of 2016, J.D. Power awarded the Ducks the Highest Ranked Fan Experience in the Los Angeles market in their inaugural J.D. Power 2016 Fan Experience Study. In addition, the club ranked No. 1 in ESPN's 2015 Ultimate Standings in the "Bang for the Buck" category.

Teats joined the Ducks' broadcasting department in 1994. He was both a producer and director of the Ducks' television and radio broadcasts from 1997-2007 and won an Emmy as producer in best live sports coverage category during the Anaheim's 2003 playoff run. He was named the club's director of broadcasting in 2004 and also assumed the responsibility of the publications/new media and entertainment departments in 2008-09.

A native of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Teats is a graduate of Cal State Fullerton. He began his career in the entertainment/production department for the then California Angels in 1992.

Teats is on the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Club of Anaheim and the Advisory Council of the Orange County and Inland Empire chapter of the Make-a-Wish Foundation. Aaron and his wife, Justine, have two sons: Nolan and Colin. The family has lived in Anaheim Hills for the last 22 years.

A native of Illinois, Schneider has lived in Orange County for over 50 years. He and his wife, Janet Keller, live in Laguna Beach. They have five children, Michael, Katherine, Heather, Brad and Matt, who live in New York, California and Switzerland. Schneider enjoys reading, skiing, public policy and his family.

RANDY CARLYLE

HEAD COACH

The winningest coach in Ducks history, Randy Carlyle is now in his ninth season as the head coach of the Ducks (2005-2012 seasons & 2016-present). Last season in his return to Anaheim, he led the club to its fifth straight Pacific Division title with a 46-23-13 record, 105 standings points and a .640 winning percentage. Carlyle then led Anaheim to the conference finals for the third time (2006, 2007 & 2017) in his Ducks tenure. He also led the team to their first-ever Stanley Cup Championship in 2007. The Ducks have qualified for the playoffs in six of seven of Carlyle's full seasons with the team. He has a 46-33 postseason record with Anaheim, and is 27th all-time in playoff wins as a head coach with 49.

He owns an all-time record of 410-283-93 record with Anaheim and Toronto (2011-15). He became the 36th NHL head coach all-time to reach the 400-win milestone on Mar. 12, 2017 vs. Washington. Carlyle went on to earn his 410th career NHL win on Apr. 9 vs. Los Angeles to surpass Jacques Demers (409-468-130) for sole spot of 33rd place all-time among NHL coaches.

Carlyle (1,055 games played/786 games coached) and Bob Pulford (1,079 GP/829 GC) are the only two people in NHL history to play 1,000 career NHL games and serve as head coach for 750 career contests. A native of Sudbury, Ontario, Carlyle was originally named the seventh head coach in team history on Aug. 1, 2005.

Carlyle led the Ducks to a franchise-record fourth consecutive playoff appearance in 2008-09 with a 42-33-7 record for 92 points. With a 4-2 series win over San Jose in the Western Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks became the fifth team to upset the NHL's best regular season team (by standings points) in the first round since the Expansion Era began (1967-68).

In his second season as an NHL head coach, Carlyle led the Ducks to their first ever Stanley Cup championship. He also led the Ducks to their first Pacific Division championship in 2006-07, compiling a regular-season record of 48-20-14 for 110 points. The club set franchise records in most major statistical categories, including wins, standings points and goals (254), eclipsing marks the team set the previous season.

Carlyle guided the Ducks in his debut season as an NHL head coach to playoff series wins vs. Calgary (seven games) and Colorado (four games) before the club fell in the Conference

HEAD COACH

Finals to Edmonton (five games) in 2005-06.

On Mar. 2, 2012, Carlyle was named the 28th head coach in Toronto Maple Leafs history, becoming the 16th individual to play and serve as head coach for the franchise. After completing the 2011-12 season behind the Toronto bench, Carlyle's Leafs posted a 26-17-5 record and a berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs in 2012-13. He recorded his 300th career NHL win in the same season on Apr. 6, 2013 at New Jersey.

Carlyle spent six seasons (1996-01 & 2004-05) as Head Coach in Manitoba (both in the International and American Hockey Leagues), earning a career mark of 222-159-52-7 with the franchise. He had the additional duties of General Manager of the Moose from 1996-00, adding the title of club President for the 2001-02 season. The Sudbury, Ontario native helped the Moose to a 47-21-14 record for 108 points in 1998-99, for which he was named the IHL's General Manager of the Year.

Following the 2001-02 season, Carlyle joined the coaching staff of the Washington Capitals. He served as an Assistant Coach with Washington for two years (2002-04), helping the organization return to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in his first season before rejoining Manitoba in 2004-05.

Carlyle played 17 seasons in the NHL with Toronto, Pittsburgh and Winnipeg. He appeared in 1,055 games and earned 148-499=647 points. Known as a fiery, tough-nosed defenseman, he was selected to play in four NHL All-Star Games and won the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman in 1981. He set a career high with 82 points in 1980-81, appearing in 76 games with Pittsburgh that season. In all, Carlyle had five seasons in which he topped the 50-point plateau. He appeared in 69 NHL postseason games as a player, earning 9-24=33 points.

At the conclusion of his playing career in 1993, Carlyle remained with the Winnipeg organization's hockey operations staff, eventually becoming an Assistant Coach for the 1995-96 season.

Randy and his wife, Corey, have three children: sons Craig and Derek, and daughter, Alexis. The family resides in Anaheim Hills.

TRENT YAWNEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Trent Yawney is in his fourth season as Assistant Coach for the Ducks. Yawney helped guide the club to a 46-23-13 record in 2016-17, the top record in the Pacific Division for the fifth year in a row.

Yawney previously served as Head Coach of the Norfolk Admirals, Anaheim's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League. Yawney led the Admirals to a 40-26-10 record and a berth in the 2014 Calder Cup Playoffs during the 2013-14 season. Norfolk upset the top-seeded Manchester Monarchs to advance to the 2014 Eastern Conference Semifinals before falling to the St. John's IceCaps in six games.

Yawney joined the Ducks' 2011-12 AHL affiliate in Syracuse as Associate Head Coach on Jan. 10, 2012 and helped guide the team to a 2012 Calder Cup Playoff appearance. It marked his second AHL coaching assignment after originally guiding Norfolk to the Calder Cup Playoffs in each of the team's first five AHL seasons (2000-05) under the Chicago Blackhawks. Yawney led Norfolk to a 189-144-42-25 record in those first five seasons and back-to-back South Division titles in 2001-02 and 2002-03. He was named "Minor Pro Coach of the Year" by The Hockey News following the 2003-04 campaign.

A native of Hudson Bay, Saskatchewan, Yawney previously served two stints with the Ducks as a professional scout in 2007-08 and 2011-12. He also spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks from 2008-11. During his tenure in San Jose, the Sharks captured the Presidents' Trophy in 2009 and made two Western Conference Final appearances in 2010 and 2011. Prior to his first stint with the Ducks, Yawney spent 14 seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks organization, most recently as the club's 35th head coach in franchise history from 2005-06.

Yawney played 593 career NHL games over 12 seasons with Chicago, Calgary and St. Louis. The defenseman collected 27-102=129 points with 783 PIM and also appeared in 60 postseason contests, helping the Blackhawks to the Western Conference Final in both 1989 and 1990. Yawney also served as captain for Team Canada at the 1988 Olympic Winter Games in Calgary. He was originally drafted by the Blackhawks in the third round (45th overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft.

Trent and his wife, Char, have two children: daughter, Ashley and son, Conor.

STEVE KONOWALCHUK

ASSISTANT COACH

Steve Konowalchuk is in the midst of his first season as Assistant Coach for the Ducks. A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, Konowalchuk previously served as Head Coach of the Seattle Thunderbirds of the Western Hockey League (2011-17) and as an assistant coach for the Colorado Avalanche (2009-11).

This past season, Konowalchuk led the Thunderbirds to the first WHL Championship in franchise history. In his six seasons as Head Coach of Seattle, Konowalchuk posted a 219-176-22-15 record, tallying the second-most wins by a coach in the club's history.

After his retirement from the NHL, Konowalchuk remained within the Colorado Avalanche organization and served as an assistant coach to Joe Sacco during the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons as well as serving in the Player Development department during 2007-08.

Konowalchuk was selected by the Washington Capitals in the third round of the 1991 NHL Draft (58th overall). Konowalchuk appeared in 790 games over 14 NHL seasons with Washington and Colorado, recording 171-225=396 points. In 2002-03, he was announced as the 10th full-time captain in Capitals history, holding the position until he was traded to Colorado. Konowalchuk was the first player born and raised in Utah to reach the NHL.

Steve and his wife, Leah, have two children: daughter, Cara and son, Cole.

RICH PRESTON

ASSISTANT COACH

Rich Preston is in his third season as Assistant Coach for the Anaheim Ducks in 2017-18. Preston was a member of an Anaheim coaching staff that led the club to a Pacific Division title and a 46-23-13 record during last year's regular season.

A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Preston previously served as an NHL assistant coach with Chicago (1991-95), Calgary (1997-00 & 2003-09), and San Jose (2000-03). He was the Head Coach of his hometown Regina Pats (WHL) from 1995-97 and the General Manager/Head Coach of Lethbridge (WHL) from 2009-13. With the Pats, Preston helped the team to a franchise-record 27-game home undefeated streak during the 1996-97 season.

Preston played in the NHL from 1979-87, appearing with the Chicago Blackhawks and New Jersey Devils. He appeared in 580 NHL games, scoring 127-164=291 points.

He also played in the World Hockey Association, winning championships with the Houston Aeros (1974-75) and Winnipeg Jets (1978-79). Preston was also named the 1979 WHL Playoff MVP with the Jets.

Preston and his wife, Laura, have three boys, Troy, Lucas and Thomas, and reside in Calgary.

COACHING STAFF

MARK MORRISON

ASSISTANT COACH

Mark Morrison is in his first season as Assistant Coach for the Ducks in 2017-18. A native of Prince George, British Columbia, Morrison was previously with the Winnipeg Jets organization as an assistant coach for the AHL Manitoba Moose (2015-17) and St. John's IceCaps (2011-15).

Prior to St. John's, Morrison served as Head Coach and General Manager of the Victoria Salmon Kings of the ECHL, where he spent four years. He also coached and played with the Fife Flyers of the British National League, winning Coach of the Year honors three times.

Morrison played 10 games in the NHL with the Rangers from 1981-84, won the Adams Cup with the CHL's Tulsa Oilers and was named Most Sportsmanlike Player in the 1980-81 Memorial Cup. He also represented Canada at World Junior Championships in 1982 (gold medal) and 1983.

Morrison has three children: son, Lance, and daughters, Nicole and Tara.

SUDARSHAN MAHARAJ

GOALTENDING COACH

Sudarshan "Sudsie" Maharaj (Sud-DARE-shun MAH-ha-raj) is in his second season as Goaltending Coach for the Anaheim Ducks. Maharaj joined the Ducks organization prior to the 2013-14 season in a consultant role focused on the club's AHL affiliate in Norfolk, VA. Maharaj continued in the role throughout the team's transition to San Diego for the 2015-16 season, where he helped Gulls goaltenders to a 39-23-8 record, 2.87 GAA, .906 SV% and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs.

A native of Trinidad, Maharaj spent eight seasons with the New York Islanders from 2003-06 (goaltending coach) and 2009-12 (goaltending consultant). He also helped develop the National Goaltending Development Program for Hockey Canada from 2005-07. Raised in Toronto from the age of six, Maharaj was a member of the 1984-85 National Hockey Championship York University team and played six seasons of pro hockey in Sweden.

Sudarshan and his wife, Yvonne, have two daughters, Alexandra (16) and Katherine (13).

JOE PISCOTTY

VIDEO COACH

Joe Piscotty is in his seventh season as the Anaheim Ducks Video Coach. Piscotty originally joined the Ducks prior to the 2010-11 season as a video scouting analyst, assisting Hockey Operations with special projects before moving to his current role as Video Coach.

Piscotty worked with the University of Michigan's hockey team from 2006-08, serving as a graduate student manager under Head Coach Red Berenson. He was with the Wolverines when the club advanced to the Frozen Four in 2008. While at Michigan, Piscotty also earned a Master's in Sports Management.

In addition, Piscotty served as a hockey operations assistant for the University of Denver's men's squad from 2008-10. He completed his time at Denver with a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA). A native of Huntington Beach, Piscotty earned his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Las Vegas, Nevada in 2006.

Joe and his wife, Carrie, reside in Huntington Beach with daughters Kadence and Lea.

DAVE NONIS

CONSULTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dave Nonis is in his third season with the Anaheim Ducks as Consultant to the General Manager. Nonis most recently served as the Toronto Maple Leafs' General Manager and Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations. Before joining Toronto in 2008, Nonis spent four years as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Vancouver Canucks. He joined the Canucks in 1998 as Senior Vice President, Director of Hockey Operations after serving four seasons as the National Hockey League's Manager of Hockey Operations. With the NHL, Nonis helped craft the 1994 Collective Bargaining Agreement and worked with the league's arbitration team, assisting clubs in preparing for arbitration, researching salaries and interpreting contract language.

A native of Burnaby, British Columbia, Nonis played hockey for the University of Maine where he served as captain for two seasons, leading his team to back-to-back NCAA championship tournaments and graduating with a B.A. in 1988. He played one season professionally in Denmark before returning to Maine in 1989 to serve on the coaching staff of his alma mater. He earned his M.B.A. from Maine in 1990 before joining the Canucks staff that year working with corporate contracts, computer scouting and team services. Nonis became the Canucks' chief negotiator of player contracts and assumed responsibility for Vancouver's minor league affiliate agreement with the Manitoba Moose of the American Hockey League. He directed all areas of the Canucks' hockey operations department before being tapped as the ninth, and youngest-ever, general manager of the club on May 6, 2004.

TODD MARCHANT

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Todd Marchant is in his seventh season as Director of Player Development for the Ducks. He joined the front office staff in 2011-12 following six seasons with the Ducks and an 18-year NHL career. Marchant won his first Stanley Cup with the club in 2007. In his role as Director of Player Development, Marchant prepares and educates Anaheim prospects on succeeding in professional hockey.

A native of Buffalo, NY, Marchant appeared in 1,195 career NHL contests with the New York Rangers, Edmonton, Columbus and Anaheim, collecting 186-312=498 points with 774 PIM. He became the 31st U.S.-born player to appear in 1,000 NHL games on Dec. 22, 2008 at Vancouver. His final 421 contests were played in an Anaheim uniform from 2005-11 (38-74=112 points). He currently ranks tied for third all-time in franchise short-handed goals (8). Including the 2007 Stanley Cup championship season, Marchant helped the Ducks reach the Stanley Cup Playoffs in five of his six seasons with the club. He scored the triple overtime-winning goal in the Ducks' 2-1 victory in Game 2 of the Conference Semifinals on May 3, 2009 at Detroit. Another postseason career highlight includes scoring his game-winning overtime goal for Edmonton in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals on Apr. 19, 1997 at Dallas. Marchant retired from professional hockey on June 29, 2011.

Selected by the Rangers in the seventh round (164th overall) of the 1993 NHL Entry Draft, Marchant played two years of college hockey at Clarkson University before turning pro. He began his NHL career with the Rangers before being traded to Edmonton for Craig MacTavish on Mar. 21, 1994. Following nine seasons with Edmonton, he signed as a free agent with Columbus on July 3, 2003 and was claimed on waivers by Anaheim on Nov. 21, 2005. Marchant also had the honor of representing Team USA at the 1994 Olympic Winter Games in Lillehammer, Norway.

Todd and his wife, Caroline, have four children: daughters Lillian and Ashley, and sons Timothy and Bradley. The family resides in Tustin, CA.

SCOTT NIEDERMAYER

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT, OFF-ICE

Scott Niedermayer is in the midst of his sixth season on the Anaheim Ducks Hockey Operations staff, his second season focused on Player Development, Off-Ice. Niedermayer has remained with the Ducks in several coaching and Hockey Operations capacities since retiring from the NHL on June 22, 2010.

Niedermayer was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Player Category on July 9, 2013 (inducted on Nov. 11, 2013), becoming the third Anaheim Duck player to be elected and the first to play more than a single season (Jari Kurri and Adam Oates were the other Ducks to be inducted at the time). Signed as a free agent by Anaheim on Aug. 4, 2005 and named the sixth captain in club history on Oct. 3, 2005, Niedermayer helped the Ducks become the first team from California to win hockey's ultimate prize in 2007. He was presented with the Conn Smythe Trophy as the Most Valuable Player of the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Niedermayer appeared in his final 371 regular season NHL contests in an Anaheim uniform, scoring 60-204=264 points with 306 penalty minutes. Niedermayer is the Ducks' all-time leader in goals, assists, points and power-play goals (39) among club defensemen.

In 18 NHL seasons with the Ducks and New Jersey Devils, Niedermayer appeared in 1,263 games, collecting 172-568=740 points with a +167 rating. Thirteen of his 39 career game-winning goals came in overtime, the most by a defenseman in NHL history. Niedermayer is the all-time leading scorer among defensemen for both the Ducks and Devils.

Niedermayer also won three Stanley Cups during his tenure with New Jersey (1995, 2000 and 2003). He was named a finalist for the James Norris Memorial Trophy as the NHL's top defenseman in three straight seasons (2004, 2006 and 2007) and won the award following the 2003-04 season. He was also named an NHL All-Star six times during his NHL career (1998, 2001, 2004, 2007, 2008 and 2009).

A native of Cranbrook, British Columbia, Niedermayer won his first Olympic gold medal at the 2002 Winter Games in Salt Lake City and again in 2010 in Vancouver. In international competition, Niedermayer also won gold with Canada at the 1991 World Junior Championship, the 2004 World Cup and the 2004 World Championship.

DAVE BASEGGIO

PROFESSIONAL SCOUT

Dave Baseggio is in the midst of his 10th season with the Ducks, originally joining the team as a professional scout for the 2008-09 season.

With over 16 years of experience in professional hockey management, Baseggio joined Anaheim after serving as Head Coach of the AHL's Peoria Rivermen (2006-08). Originally from Niagara Falls, Ontario, Baseggio also spent five seasons with the New York Islanders organization as an Assistant and Head Coach for Bridgeport (AHL). While holding the post of Assistant Coach from 2001-05, Baseggio saw the club advance to the Calder Cup Finals in 2002 and finish first overall in the regular season standings that year. During the 2003-04 season, the Sound Tigers broke the AHL goals-against average record and had a franchise-record 22-game unbeaten streak. Baseggio assumed the title of Head Coach in 2005-06 and was named a finalist for the AHL's Coach of the Year. Baseggio began his coaching/management career with the Charlotte Checkers of the ECHL for the 2000-01 season, serving as Assistant Coach and Assistant Director of Hockey Operations.

A graduate of Yale University in 1989 with a B.A. in Economics, Baseggio played four years of college hockey with the Bulldogs as a defenseman and was elected team captain in 1988-89. He earned ECAC All-Star honors in his final three collegiate seasons. Following college, he played professionally for 12 seasons in the AHL and IHL, and was a two-time IHL All-Star (1997 and 1999).

Dave and his wife, Sondra, are parents to son, Michael (16) and daughter, Katherine (13). The family resides in Guilford, CT.

MIKE STAPLETON

PROFESSIONAL SCOUT

Mike Stapleton opens his fourth year with the Ducks as a full-time professional scout. Stapleton previously worked with the Anaheim scouting department on a part-time basis and also served as Assistant Coach for organization's primary development affiliate in the American Hockey League in 2010-11 (Syracuse). Stapleton also served as Head Coach for Sault Ste. Marie of the Ontario Hockey League from 2011-13.

Prior to initially joining the Anaheim organization in 2010, Stapleton spent four seasons as an assistant and associate coach in the OHL with Sault Ste. Marie (2008-10) and Erie (2006-08).

Originally selected by Chicago in the seventh round (132nd overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, Stapleton played 14 NHL seasons from 1986-2001 with seven different teams (Chicago, Pittsburgh, Edmonton, Winnipeg/Phoenix, Atlanta, NY Islanders and Vancouver). He appeared in 697 career NHL games, collecting 71-111=182 points with 342 PIM. Stapleton also skated in 34 career Stanley Cup Playoff games, recording 1-0=1 point and 39 PIM.

Stapleton is the son of former NHL defenseman and 1972 Summit Series Team Canada member Pat Stapleton. Mike and his wife, Laura, have two sons, Luke and Nick.

MARTIN MADDEN

DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL/AMATEUR SCOUTING

Martin Madden is in his 10th season with the Ducks, his fourth as Director of Professional/Amateur Scouting. In his role, Madden evaluates top prospects throughout North America and attends all major European junior tournaments. He also plays a key role in producing the final prospect list leading up to the 2018 NHL Draft.

A native of Quebec City, Madden spent four years as an amateur scout for Carolina, winning the Stanley Cup with the Hurricanes in 2006. Prior to his time in Carolina, he served as a scout for the New York Rangers for seven seasons. Martin received his first scouting position with the Halifax

Mooseheads of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League while completing his M.B.A. in Finance at HEC Montreal.

Madden played hockey as a youth until Midget AAA. He walked on as a freshman for the McGill University hockey team but stopped playing to concentrate on his studies, completing a degree in engineering.

Madden currently resides in Quebec City with his girlfriend, Catherine, and their child, Alex (1). He racks up countless kilometers cycling around different areas of the province and is also passionate about golf, tennis, NFL football, wine and music.

BRUCE FRANKLIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER EVALUATION

Bruce Franklin begins his second season with the Ducks as Director of Player Evaluation. Franklin previously spent 23 years with the Chicago Blackhawks, most recently working as the club's Chief Amateur Scout. The Winnipeg native brings 35 years of scouting experience at both the National Hockey League and Western Hockey League levels.

Prior to joining the Blackhawks organization, Franklin spent 12 seasons scouting in the WHL. He was part of two Memorial Cup championships: one as a Scout with the Prince Albert Raiders (1985) and the other as Director of Player Personnel with the Swift Current Broncos (1989). He also worked as a part-time scout with the Montreal Canadiens from 1986 to 1992.

Franklin resides in Regina, Saskatchewan, with his wife, Sherie, and their two daughters, Breanna and Sarah.

JAN-ÅKE DANIELSON

HEAD EUROPEAN SCOUT

Jan-Åke Danielson has been a member of the Ducks scouting staff for 20 seasons and is in the midst of his fourth season as Head European Scout. He is primarily responsible for scouting amateur prospects in Europe.

Prior to joining the Anaheim organization, Danielson worked as a full-time coach in Sweden from 1987-98. During that time, he coached Sweden's World Jr. Championship team five times. In addition, he was also a part-time scout for the Florida Panthers for three years before joining the Ducks organization.

Danielson played five years in the Swedish Elite League prior to attending the University of Wisconsin, where he was a member of the school's 1983 National Championship team. He graduated from Wisconsin in 1986 with a degree in Physical Education and enjoys spending at least part of his summer vacationing in the United States.

Danielson resides in Gothenburg, Sweden with his wife, Regina. The couple has two daughters; Gabriella (24) attends University of Gothenburg, while Cecilia (20) is competitive in horse jumping and a member of the Swedish young rider national team. Cecilia is currently attending medical school at the University of Lund in Sweden.

GLEN COCHRANE

AMATEUR SCOUT

Glen Cochrane is in his 11th season with the Ducks, responsible for amateur scouting across Western Canada, the United States Hockey League and Minnesota high school hockey.

A Cranbrook, British Columbia native, Cochrane played 411 NHL games with Philadelphia, Vancouver, Chicago and Edmonton from 1978-89, collecting 17-72=89 points with 1,556 PIM as a defenseman. Following his professional career, Cochrane joined the WHL ranks in 1995 as an assistant coach for the Kelowna Rockets. He continued his coaching career for the next 10 years at both the junior and minor league levels. Cochrane previously served as an amateur scout for the Colorado Avalanche from 2001-07.

Glen and his wife, Joan, have three daughters, Shelby (31), Paige (29) and Tegan (25), as well as five grandchildren, Neyla, twins Everly and Paisley, plus the newest additions, William and Wyatt. The family resides in Kelowna, British Columbia. In his spare time, Cochrane enjoys golf, playing soccer, fishing, cycling and traveling with his family.

JIM SANDLAK

AMATEUR SCOUT

Jim Sandlak enters his 10th season with the Ducks as an amateur scout. His main responsibilities include scouting the Ontario Hockey League, Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and USA Hockey's Under-18 development program.

A veteran of 703 NHL games, Sandlak spent 11 seasons with the Vancouver Canucks and Hartford Whalers. He collected 110-119=229 career NHL points while also appearing in 33 Stanley Cup Playoff contests. Sandlak also won the gold medal with Team Canada at the 1985 World Juniors before winning silver as team captain the following year. After his playing career, Sandlak worked in the grocery industry, owned his own construction company and most recently served as an assistant coach for the Sarnia Sting (OHL).

Jim and his wife, Susan, have two sons, Patrick (26) and Carter (24). Patrick is working as a sales representative, covering the regions from London, Ontario to Windsor, Ontario. Carter is playing with the Greenville Swamp Rabbits in the ECHL. The family vacations at their Northern Ontario cottage during the summer, enjoying recreational activities such as boating and fishing.

KEVIN MURRAY

AMATEUR SCOUT

Kevin Murray is in the midst of his 10th season with the Ducks as an amateur scout. Since joining the club during the 2008-09 season, Murray's role has expanded to encompass all USA amateur leagues, which include the high school, junior and collegiate levels.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Murray coached at both the Bantam Major AA and AAA levels in the Chicago area for two years. He played junior hockey with the Chicago Freeze and Danville Wings of the North American Hockey League before moving to Quinnipiac University, where he played one year of Division 1 college hockey. He also played two years of club hockey with University of Miami (Ohio) as part of the American Club Hockey Association.

A native of Chicago, IL, Murray received his Bachelor's of Arts in History from the University of Miami (Ohio) in 2003 and his Master's of Arts in Education from DePaul University in 2005. He taught two years of special education and three years of seventh-grade math, both within the Chicago public school system.

STÉPHANE PILOTTE

AMATEUR SCOUT

Stéphane Pilotte is in his fourth year as a full-time scout with the Ducks. Pilotte previously worked with Anaheim's scouting department on a part-time basis and is responsible for amateur scouting in the Eastern Canada region.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Pilotte served as Assistant General Manager of the Blainville-Boisbriand Armada (2011-14), Montreal Juniors (2008-11) and Gatineau Olympiques (2007-08) in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. He also served as General Manager of the Val-d'Or Foreurs in the QMJHL from 1999-07. Before Val-d'Or, Pilotte was the Chief Scout and Assistant General Manager of the Shawinigan Cataractes from 1992-99. He also worked as a part-time scout with the Chicago Blackhawks from 1994-98. Pilotte's first scouting assignment was with the Drummondville Voltigeurs from 1989-91.

Stéphane and his wife, Nathalie, have a daughter, Catherine (24) and son, Etienne (20). The family resides in Montreal, Quebec.

STEVE LYONS

AMATEUR SCOUT

Steve Lyons enters his seventh season scouting with the Ducks. He is responsible for amateur scouting across the United States and concentrates on the NCAA, junior and high school levels to find potential draft prospects.

Lyons is in the midst of his 31st year as an NHL scout. He spent the first 12 seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks (1986-98), serving as their United States Scout. Following his stint with the Blackhawks, Lyons spent the next five years with the Colorado Avalanche (1998-03), covering North America and Europe while serving as an amateur scout for the 2001 Stanley Cup Champions. Following his time with the Avalanche, Lyons worked with the Phoenix Coyotes scouting department from 2003-11 and served as the Assistant Director of Amateur Scouting from 2008-11.

Prior to scouting, Lyons played professionally in both the Atlantic Coast Hockey League (Mohawk Valley - Virginia) and the International Hockey League (Indianapolis Checkers).

Steve and his wife, Debbie, reside in Easton, MA and have three children (Kevin, Greg and Kelly) and three granddaughters (Brooke, Kendall and Hadley).

DOUG SHEARER

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Doug Shearer enters his 11th season with the Anaheim Ducks, his 34th in the National Hockey League.

Shearer joined the Ducks after serving as Head Equipment Manager for the Washington Capitals from 1983-07. While with the Capitals, Shearer saw the club advance to the Stanley Cup Final during the 1997-98 season. He joined the Capitals organization at the start of the 1981-82 season, serving as the head trainer for the Hershey Bears, Washington's primary affiliate of the American Hockey League.

Shearer also had the privilege to join Team USA on several occasions as the head equipment manager, including the 2003 World Championship in the Czech Republic, the 2002 Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City and the 1997 World Championship in Finland. In addition, he served as equipment manager for the 1999 NHL All-Star Game in Tampa, following Washington's appearance in the Stanley Cup Final.

A native of Salisbury, NC, Shearer is a graduate of West Chester State College and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education. In his spare time, Doug enjoys hunting and fishing. Shearer and his wife, Carrie, have two children: son, Zach and daughter, Amy. The family resides in Maryland.

CHRIS ALDRICH

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Chris Aldrich is in the midst of his ninth season as the Anaheim Ducks' Assistant Equipment Manager and his 11th with the organization.

Aldrich has more than 28 years of experience in professional hockey, including serving as the equipment manager of previous Anaheim affiliates in Iowa (AHL, 2008-09) and Portland (AHL, 2007-08).

Prior to joining the Ducks organization in 2007, he spent 10 seasons as Assistant Equipment Manager of the Boston Bruins. Aldrich also had AHL stints with Providence and Maine from 1990 to 1992. In addition to his time with Ducks and Bruins, Aldrich served as an equipment manager for Team USA at the 2010 IIHF World Championship in Germany.

A native of Windham, ME, Aldrich attended Rhode Island College and majored in history. When away from the rink, he enjoys playing tennis and following NASCAR. Aldrich is also an avid runner, having completed the Boston Marathon on three separate occasions. Aldrich and his wife, Susan, reside in Yorba Linda with their son, Andrew (10).

MATT BRAYFIELD

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Matt Brayfield begins his first season as an Anaheim Ducks Assistant Equipment Manager. Previously, Brayfield served as an equipment manager with Anaheim's AHL affiliates in San Diego (2015-17), Norfolk (2012-15) and Syracuse (2010-12). A native of Peoria, IL, Brayfield began his career with the Laredo Bucks (CHL), Huntsville Havoc and Peoria Rivermen (SPHL), and Springfield Junior Blues (NAHL).

Matt, his wife, Larcy, and two children, reside in Anaheim Hills, CA.

TRAINING STAFF

JEFF TYNI

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Jeff Tyni enters his 13th season with the Ducks and his first season as Assistant Equipment Manager. Tyni is responsible for assisting Equipment Manager Doug Shearer and handling equipment transfers for visiting teams at Honda Center and THE RINKS - Anaheim ICE. Tyni previously worked with the Ducks as a Locker Room Assistant from 2005-15.

The Orange County native played in the Southern Professional Hockey League (Fayetteville) and served as a backup goaltender for several teams in the NHL (St. Louis) and ECHL (Fresno, Stockton, Long Beach). Before joining Anaheim's Hockey Operations staff, Tyni worked at Anaheim ICE as a Zamboni driver and at Honda Center on the Event Crew. Tyni received his Bachelor's Degree from California State University, Fullerton.

Away from the rink, Tyni enjoys playing golf, traveling to Canada and spending time with his family. He is a dual citizen of both the United States & Canada. Tyni resides in Orange, CA with his wife, Mira, and son, Blake (2).

JOE HUFF

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Joe Huff enters his fifth season as Head Athletic Trainer with the Anaheim Ducks, having been a member of the organization since 2008. He served as Head Athletic Trainer for the club's American Hockey League affiliates in his previous role.

A graduate of Iowa State University (1998) with an Exercise & Sports Science degree, Huff is a Certified Athletic Trainer through the NATA's Board of Certification. He began his career with the Central Hockey League's Macon Whoopie (1998-99). Following a season with Macon, Huff became the Head Athletic Trainer for the Des Moines Buccaneers (USHL), where he spent the next six seasons. He then moved on to the ECHL, taking on the head trainer position with the Augusta Lynx in 2005. Huff joined the Ducks' then-AHL affiliate in Iowa for the 2008-09 season and then moved on to Syracuse with the club for the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons. During the 2012-13 season, Huff worked with the Norfolk Admirals, Anaheim's first year of affiliation with the AHL squad.

Joe and his wife, Lisa, along with their two daughters, Macy (15) and Marin (12), reside in Anaheim Hills. When away from the rink, Huff enjoys spending as much time outdoors as possible.

MIKE HANNEGAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mike Hannegan begins his sixth season as the Anaheim Ducks' Assistant Athletic Trainer. An Orange County native, Hannegan joined the organization in 2012 after a three-year stint in St. Louis as the Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Blues (2009-12). His resume includes over 16 years of experience in hockey athletic training.

Hannegan previously served as Head Athletic Trainer for the Peoria Rivermen in the American Hockey League from 2007-09. He has also been head athletic trainer for clubs in both the ECHL and Central Hockey Leagues (Richmond, Las Vegas, Macon). He was selected in 2006 to represent the National Conference at the ECHL All-Star Game. Hannegan's international experience includes serving as the athletic trainer for Team USA at the 2000 IIHF World Inline Hockey Championships in the Czech Republic.

Hannegan received his B.S. in Athletic Training/Exercise Physiology from Chapman University and went on to complete his Master's of Science degree in Athletic Training from California University of Pennsylvania. He is a Certified Athletic Trainer with the National Athletic Trainers' Association and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist with the National Strength Coach's Association.

Mike resides in Tustin with his wife, Kelly, and their son, Aiden (11). He is a graduate of Foothill High School in Santa Ana and worked at both THE RINKS - Anaheim ICE and Honda Center as a Zamboni driver before leaving Southern California to pursue higher education.

MARK FITZGERALD

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Mark Fitzgerald enters his third season with the Ducks as the team's Strength and Conditioning Coach. Fitzgerald previously worked with the Canadian Hockey League as the Head of Performance and Nutrition, where he oversaw the combine development program and implemented many unique nutritional and educational programs. Fitzgerald also served as the Strength Coach for the American Hockey League's Toronto Marlies from 2009-14. In addition, he owns Elite Training Systems, a high-performance training center that caters to athletes from all sports.

Mark resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Danielle, son, Kane (5), and twins Molly (3) and Cal (3).

CHRIS MARTIN

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Chris Martin begins his first season as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Anaheim Ducks. Previously, Martin served as the Strength and Conditioning Coach with Anaheim's American Hockey League affiliate in San Diego.

Martin has worked in hockey for over 19 years and is actively involved in the training community, regularly attending lectures, seminars and conferences across the country. He also runs his own personal training business, Mettle Strength and Conditioning in Yorba Linda, CA at THE RINKS – Yorba Linda ICE and regularly trains local professional hockey players. Martin received a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from Arizona State University and is a Conditioning and Strength Coaching Specialist (CSCS). Martin resides in Laguna Beach, CA.

MIKE GRIEBEL

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Mike Griebel enters his first season as Massage Therapist of the Anaheim Ducks. Griebel previously served as Manual Therapist for the Arizona Coyotes for seven seasons. He joined the Coyotes from the Tampa Bay Lightning, where he spent 10 years, including Tampa Bay's 2004 Stanley Cup championship season.

Prior to joining the Lightning, Griebel served six years as resident massage therapist for Gold's Gym of Venice, CA.

A graduate of the Nova Institute of Health and Technology and the Southern California Sports Massage Clinic, Griebel is a specialist in the Hemme approach to soft tissue and certified in the Mattes method of active isolated stretching. Griebel and his wife, Lauri, have four children: Kristina, Jessica, Soren and Trevor.

KEVIN TAYLOR

PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Kevin Taylor is in his third season as Physical Therapist for the Anaheim Ducks. Taylor has practiced physical therapy in Orange and Los Angeles counties since 1992, working with a variety of high school, college and professional athletes in hockey and other sports.

A board certified clinical specialist in orthopedic physical therapy, Taylor earned a Bachelor of Arts from California State University, Fullerton in 1986 and a Master's in Physical Therapy from Chapman University in 1992.

An Orange County native, Taylor helps out at Select Physical Therapy during the offseason. He lives in Anaheim Hills with wife and three children, and enjoys mountain bike riding and fishing.

HONDA CENTER AND THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

ANAHEIM DUCKS COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

The Anaheim Ducks take pride in serving the Southern California community through a variety of charitable fundraisers, educational programs and outreach activities, as well as the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Together, the Anaheim Ducks and Honda Center strive to be actively involved in the local community. This commitment ranges from in-kind donations, charity tickets, recreational and educational programs, and the dedicated involvement of players, coaches, broadcasters, staff and mascot.

ANAHEIM DUCKS FOUNDATION

The mission of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation is to facilitate and support programs that produce positive change for children and families throughout Southern California by providing educational opportunities, broadening access to the sport of hockey and addressing the health and wellness needs of our community.

S.C.O.R.E. (SCHOLASTIC CURRICULUM OF RECREATION & EDUCATION)

The Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program offers free educational standards-based curriculum to over 300 schools in five counties, reaching over 40,000 unique students annually. Impacting over 300,000 students since its inception in 2005, the award-winning S.C.O.R.E. program was developed for Southern California students to address healthy living habits, academic excellence and the importance of integrating these two practices into their daily routine. Ducks S.C.O.R.E. also uses hockey to teach educational themes, reinforce the importance of positive character building and reward youth for their dedication to pursuing academic excellence.

LEARN TO PLAY

The Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play powered by Ryan Getzlaf & Corey Perry offers first-time hockey players the chance to get on the rink in full hockey equipment for free. Players receive instruction on the basics of hockey and skating. Participants in Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play are provided with an equipment bag, helmet, shin guards, hockey pants, elbow pads, shoulder pads, gloves and a jersey to use for the four-week session in order to be fully protected on the rink. In addition, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry generously sponsor a program where any child who completes a RINKS Learn to Play program and signs-up to participate in a RINKS in-house league will receive a complimentary first set of gear to start their hockey career.

TOP FLIGHT

The Top Flight Street Hockey League is designed for participants with special needs and is open to players of all ages and abilities. The league runs group practices and clinics as well as games weekly. Group practices focus on helping participants establish basic hockey skills like shooting, passing and stickhandling.

ANAHEIM DUCKS ANNUAL GOLF CLASSIC

The annual Anaheim Ducks Golf Classic presented by Honda features Anaheim Ducks players as the celebrity fifth player for a round of golf alongside Ducks fans and supporters. The Golf Classic raises funds to benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

The Anaheim Ducks Golf Classic presented by Honda offers on-course contests, along with a pre-shotgun program where event sponsors draft the Anaheim Ducks player who joins their foursome for an exciting afternoon of golf.

ANAHEIM DUCKS CENTER ICE PARTY

The Anaheim Ducks Center Ice Party stands as the team's annual themed cocktail party which gives Ducks fans and Orangewood Foundation supporters the chance to mix and mingle, dance and dine alongside Ducks players, coaches and personnel. Guests also have the opportunity to bid on an assortment of silent auction items, as well as enter to win a variety of unique prizes in the evening's opportunity drawings.

Proceeds from the Anaheim Ducks annual Center Ice Party assist 44 Women for Orangewood, an auxiliary of Orangewood Foundation, to support college scholarships and Peer Mentor programs for former foster care youth. The mission of the Orangewood Foundation is to prepare foster youth and community youth to reach their greatest potential.

LA CASA GARCIA'S WE GIVE THANKS

Honda Center and the Anaheim Ducks are proud to host We Give Thanks each Thanksgiving Day with local nonprofit partner We Give Thanks, Inc., and La Casa Garcia restaurant. This annual event at Honda Center provides a complimentary Thanksgiving dinner for local residents who might go without a meal during the holiday. For over 20 years, We Give Thanks has been serving meals to people in need, with more than 200,000 free meals being donated to the community.

More than 15,000 local residents fill the Honda Center parking lot to enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving meal and entertainment throughout the day. Ducks players, coaches and front office staff participate with their families to serve meals and give thanks on this special Thanksgiving holiday.

DUX IN TUX

Dux in Tux presented by Honda is an Anaheim Ducks signature event where players take on the role as celebrity sous chefs, joining Orange County's finest chefs to provide guests an evening of fabulous food and fun - all to benefit a great cause. Proceeds from Dux in Tux presented by Honda benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

The evening includes a silent auction, opportunity drawing and live auction filled with Ducks memorabilia and unique player experiences. Dux in Tux presented by Honda is the ideal night for Ducks fans to interact with their favorite Ducks players, all while enjoying a night of fine dining, quality service and exceptional cuisine.

ANAHEIM LADY DUCKS FASHION SHOW LUNCHEON

In the spring, the Anaheim Lady Ducks - wives and significant others of players, coaches and executive management - show off their fashion sense by hosting the Anaheim Lady Ducks Fashion Show Luncheon benefiting Children's Hospital of Orange County (CHOC Children's).

The event gives attendees the chance to spend the afternoon enjoying lunch with Ducks players and a fashion show featuring members of the team, their wives/significant others and CHOC Children's ambassadors walking the runway as they show off the latest spring fashion trends from Bloomingdale's,

South Coast Plaza. The Fashion Show Luncheon includes a VIP reception, as well as a silent and live auction, jam-packed with Ducks and other sports memorabilia, fantastic vacation packages and beautiful jewelry.

POWER PLAY!

Each season, the staff, Season Ticket Holders and corporate partners of the Anaheim Ducks and Honda Center team up to volunteer for a day of beautification projects at local S.C.O.R.E. elementary schools. From installing a street hockey rink, painting murals and planting trees, the Power PLAY! is a great day for the volunteers to give back to the community.

STAFF VOLUNTEERING

The Anaheim Ducks are committed to making an impact in the community at all levels of the organization. The Ducks, Honda Center and THE RINKS employees are dedicated to volunteering their time to a variety of local nonprofit organizations. Ducks, Honda Center and THE RINKS staff have participated in activities such as ice skating parties with Boys & Girls Clubs of Anaheim, assisting The Friendly Center and their local food pantry, blood drives for the American Red Cross, clothing drives for Goodwill of Orange County and back to school backpack assembling with Share Our Selves and many more.

The Ducks, Honda Center and THE RINKS employees share the Anaheim Ducks commitment to the community and throughout the year and are actively engaged in assisting the community through volunteer service.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

ANAHEIM LADY DUCKS

The Anaheim Ducks Wives and Significant Others group, the Lady Ducks, are committed to assisting the local Southern California community through fundraising and volunteerism. Through their dedication to the community, they have assisted such organizations as CHOC Children's, The Wooden Floor and OC Animal Care. In addition to hosting the annual Fashion Show Luncheon, the Lady Ducks have also assisted in game-night activities including the Holiday Spark of Love Toy Drive; OC Animal Care pet supply drive for the local animal shelter and the NHL Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night at Honda Center.

ANAHEIM DUCKS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Anaheim Ducks Alumni Association is composed of a group of former Ducks players who are actively involved in the Anaheim Ducks community initiatives. Ducks Alumni members have participated in charitable events such as the San Manuel Rivalry Hold'em Poker Challenge, Ducks Alumni charity hockey games, serving as sous chefs at Dux in Tux and THE RINKS Holiday Skate. The alumni are an enthusiastic group, looking to contribute to the community goals of the organization and provide a great way for fans to interact with some of their favorite Ducks of the past.

VISITS AND APPEARANCES

Each season, the Anaheim Ducks appear at a variety of community events. The Ducks make regular visits to CHOC Children's, visit local schools as part of the team's S.C.O.R.E. program, attend youth hockey clinics and rinks outreach efforts, and appear at local youth organizations, special events, charitable fundraisers and much more.

DONATIONS

The Anaheim Ducks are dedicated to assisting charitable organizations throughout Southern California to raise funds by providing auction items for local events. Organizations interested in requesting a donation must be a 501(c)(3) agency located in Southern California. Requests must be submitted at least eight weeks prior to the date of the event online through the Ducks website: www.AnahaimDucks.com/donationrequests.

GAME NIGHT ACTIVITIES

Anaheim Ducks games are a great opportunity to feature local nonprofit organizations and highlight the needs in the community. Each season, the Ducks host a variety of activities at home games, including awareness nights for the NHL initiatives Hockey Fights Cancer and Hockey is for Everyone, Military Appreciation Night presented by Pacific Premier Bank, S.C.O.R.E. Night and CHOC Night. In addition, the Ducks hold toy drives throughout the month of December, a pet adoption event for OC Animal Care, as well as in-game Ducks memorabilia auctions to benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and numerous other nonprofits.

50/50 RAFFLE

The 50/50 Raffle is an exciting chance for fans to win a cash prize while also helping the Anaheim Ducks Foundation continue to expand the reach of its community programs throughout Southern California. 50/50 raffle sellers are located throughout Honda Center each game selling raffle tickets. One lucky fan will receive half of the jackpot total from the game's raffle ticket sales that day and the other half will benefit the Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

SURPRISE PUCK FUNDRAISER

Each season, the Anaheim Ducks Foundation sells a commemorative series Surprise Puck Set, featuring four limited edition pucks with proceeds benefiting the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. Fans pick an individually wrapped puck at random and receive either a Ducks player-autographed commemorative puck or one of 23 surprise orange pucks. The lucky winners of the commemorative Surprise Puck Fundraiser win a variety of great Ducks prizes.

ANAHEIM DUCKS CHARITY TICKET PROGRAM

Through the donations of Anaheim Ducks players, management and fans, the Ducks are able to provide tickets throughout the season to 501(c)(3) charitable organizations in Orange County and surrounding areas. The 2017-18 season marked the debut of the Antis Roofing Community Corner. Thanks to the generous support of corporate partner Antis Roofing, a designated section of Honda Center will give families and children from local nonprofit organizations the opportunity to experience all of the fun of Ducks hockey. For more information on the Anaheim Ducks Charity Ticket Program, please call 877-WILDWING.

PRIME TICKET™

Prime Ticket and FOX Sports San Diego are the destinations for the most local, comprehensive coverage of the Anaheim Ducks. In its 25th season as a telecast partner, Prime Ticket features Brian Hayward in the booth for his 25th season as the Ducks analyst while John Ahlers returns for his 16th season as play-by-play announcer. Kent French will again serve as a reporter throughout the season.

“Ducks Live” will supply pregame and postgame coverage for all games on Prime Ticket as French alternates at the host position with Ahlers. Also returning to the set is analyst Guy Hebert, providing unique insight and analysis all season long from Honda Center, while Ahlers hosts from the road. Connected original, fast-paced and fun, “Ducks Live” brings fans closer to the team with player and coach interviews, game analysis and much more.

In addition to telecast coverage, all Ducks games produced by the regional sports network will also be available on FOX Sports GO. The FOX Sports GO app is currently available for iOS, Apple TV, Android, Android TV, Fire tablets and Fire phones, Roku players and Roku TV, select Windows devices, and online at FOXSportsGO.com. Fans can download the mobile app for free from the iTunes App Store, Google Play, Amazon App Store and Windows Store.

Airing on Friday nights throughout the regular season on Prime Ticket and FOX Sports San Diego, “Ducks Weekly” will again take fans inside the Ducks organization. Hosted by French, “Ducks Weekly” goes behind the scenes with player interviews, exclusive features and unmatched access to the team.

Together, Prime Ticket, FOX Sports San Diego and FOX Sports West present more live, local sports programming than any other network or broadcast system in the market. Serving sports fans in Southern California, Nevada and Hawaii, the regional networks produce nearly 900 live sporting events and telecast over 3,500 hours of live and original programming every year. For complete regional sports news, original features and more, visit www.FOXSportsWest.com and www.FOXSportsSanDiego.com.

JOHN AHLERS

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

John Ahlers is in the midst of his 16th season as the Anaheim Ducks' play-by-play voice on Fox Sports Prime Ticket. He has called 984 regular-season Ducks games since joining the club prior to the 2002-03 season along with numerous NHL games for NBC Sports Network over the previous eight seasons.

Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team-building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance to work effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers was with the Tampa Bay Lightning organization. While in Tampa Bay, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice from 1999-02. A 29-year broadcast veteran with 2,192 games behind the microphone (including 1,343 in the NHL), he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995 and 1998. With Anaheim, Ahlers won an Emmy in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Ahlers has the call for NFL and NCAA college football games on SportsUSA Radio Network for the sixth consecutive season in 2017. He has also served as the voice of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles (IHL) and the Louisville IceHawks (ECHL), as well as Michigan State and Colorado College hockey.

John and his wife, Cindi, were married in the summer of 2008. The couple resides in Trabuco Canyon, CA.

BRIAN HAYWARD

TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

The original television analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, Brian Hayward is in his 25th season with the club. He has called 1,469 regular-season Ducks games since joining the team and celebrated his 1,000th Ducks broadcast on Jan. 16, 2011 vs. Edmonton. Over the past 24 years, he has earned a reputation as one of hockey's most articulate and informative analysts. Hayward has also been an active member of the Orange County community since joining the Ducks, participating in numerous charitable events on behalf of the club.

Hayward has previously called national games for NBC, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and CBC. He appeared as an analyst for the "NHL on NBC," which included work at the 2014 Stadium Series Game at Dodger Stadium and the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. He also served as color commentator for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey on ESPN's telecasts of the event. In 1998, he was a roving reporter during the Stanley Cup Final for ESPN, where he had the distinction of interviewing President Bill Clinton during a game in Washington.

After earning All-American honors as a goaltender at Cornell in 1982, Hayward went on to play in the NHL with the Winnipeg Jets, Montreal Canadiens, Minnesota North Stars and San Jose Sharks. In 1984-85, Hayward established a franchise record by winning 33 games with the Jets.

In Montreal, he teamed with Patrick Roy to win the William M. Jennings Trophy three consecutive years (1987-89) as the team allowing the fewest goals over the course of the regular season. Hayward also appeared in the Stanley Cup Final in 1986 with Montreal and 1991 with Minnesota.

A member of the inaugural San Jose Sharks in 1991-92, Hayward gained experience as an analyst on select Sharks games while sidelined with injuries. When a back injury forced a premature end to his playing career, he became a full-time broadcaster with the Ducks.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Hayward holds a degree in business management from Cornell. He resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Angela. His daughter, Courtney, and her husband currently live in Los Angeles, CA.

STEVE CARROLL

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Steve Carroll is in the midst of his 19th season as radio play-by-play voice of the Anaheim Ducks, having called 1,354 regular-season games since joining the club. A veteran of 42 years as a play-by-play announcer, Carroll joined the Ducks in 1999-00 and celebrated his 1,000th regular-season broadcast with Anaheim on Mar. 2, 2013 vs. Phoenix.

After landing his first play-by-play job as voice of the Mineral Area Junior College Men's Basketball Team (Flat River, Missouri) in 1976, Carroll has gone on to broadcast in several sports at both the college and professional levels. The long list of baseball teams includes the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, the Nashville Sounds (Triple-A), Huntsville Stars (Double-A) and Iowa Cubs (Triple-A). He has been employed in nine states and has called action in every state with the exception of Alaska and Idaho. At one point in the mid-1990s, Carroll was in Nashville broadcasting for five teams in three sports while freelancing for a newspaper. His work included covering the Nashville Knights of the ECHL and Vanderbilt University basketball and football (radio and television).

Carroll joined the Ducks after spending the previous two seasons handling the radio play-by-play duties for the New Orleans Brass of the ECHL, including serving in the communications, media relations and corporate sales departments. He also called games for the New Orleans Zephyrs, a Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros, from 1996-98. In addition, he handled play-by-play for the New Orleans Storm professional soccer team.

Carroll has previous NHL broadcasting experience with the Philadelphia Flyers, serving as radio play-by-play announcer for the 1995-96 season. He also called action for the New Haven Nighthawks of the AHL during the 1985-86 season and the Des Moines Buccaneers (USHL) from 1981-85.

A native of St. Louis, MO, Carroll is also a contributor to AnaheimDucks.com, the club's official team website. On behalf of the team, he has served as an emcee at several charity events during the regular season and in the summer months. Along with his work with the Angels in 2011 as co-host of "Angels Today," Carroll also co-hosted "This Week in Angels Baseball" for two years on Adelphia Cable in Southern California.

Steve and his wife, Rhonda, reside in Ladera Ranch, CA with their two dogs, Sam and Dixie.

DAN WOOD

RADIO COLOR ANALYST

Dan Wood is in his ninth season as radio color analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, having called 622 consecutive regular-season games. Wood, who was named to his position on Aug. 24, 2009, joins Steve Carroll in the Ducks radio broadcast booth for all preseason, regular season and postseason games, led by flagship station AM 830 KLA. In addition to his duties as radio color analyst, Wood also contributes to AnaheimDucks.com.

A 19-year veteran writer of NHL hockey, Wood covered the Ducks for the Orange County Register from 2000-09, including the club's run to the 2007 Stanley Cup championship. Prior to joining the Register, Wood covered the San Jose Sharks for the Contra Costa Times from the team's inception in 1991 until 2000.

A professional sportswriter since June 1980, Wood previously covered Stanford University football, men's and women's basketball, Bay Area college baseball and St. Mary's College basketball, as well as high school and local sports.

Born in Ely, NV, Wood grew up in Livermore, CA, in the East Bay portion of the San Francisco Bay Area. He graduated from Livermore High School in 1976 and San Jose State University in 1980 (journalism major, sociology minor). He currently resides in Anaheim, CA with wife, Kim. They have two children, Jennifer and Kenny, who both reside in Nashville, TN.

JOSH BREWSTER

RADIO POSTGAME HOST

Josh Brewster is in his 12th season as host of "Duck Calls" on AM 830 KLAA following all Anaheim Ducks games. The call-in show offers fans an opportunity to discuss the game and converse with a wide variety of guests, including players, broadcasters, writers and executives from the world of hockey.

In addition to hosting "Duck Calls," Brewster appears regularly on Sirius/XM NHL Network Radio. He also produces the DJ Hockeytalk Podcast at his site, HockeytalkRadio.com, which features an archive of all "Duck Calls" programs.

From 2004-16, he served as editor-in-chief for Hockeytalk.biz, where he produced "Hockeytalk Audio Features," a web radio series. He also produced the first web radio show focusing solely on hockey, "The Western Hockey Radio Show" for the American Radio Network in 2000. On television, he provided color commentary for Team USA at the World University Games for Fox College Sports and has narrated programs on Animal Planet and USA Network.

Brewster is currently the west coast columnist for BuffaloSportsPage.com. He has also written for NHL.com, The Hockey News, The Fourth Period and Hockey Digest. His career in hockey media is profiled in the book, "Living the Hockey Dream" by Brian Kennedy.

A native of Buffalo, NY, Brewster resides in Northridge, CA, with his sons, Brent and Shane.

AM 830

HOME OF DUCKS HOCKEY

AM 830-KLAA is in its 12th season as the radio home of the Ducks. Play-by-play announcer Steve Carroll is in his 19th season calling the action and will be joined in the booth by analyst Dan Wood, who is in his ninth consecutive year. AM830 is a locally-owned 50,000-watt radio station which provides both live sports and a sports talk format serving Southern California.

AM 830 is the flagship station for the Ducks and Angels Baseball, in addition to live coverage broadcasts of both Notre Dame and San Francisco 49ers football. Weekday sports programming include Mike & Mike in the morning, The Rich Eisen Show, The Sports Lodge with Roger Lodge, and additional ESPN programming. Weekends feature live programming covering horse racing, extreme sports and other areas of interest to sports fans.

Nestled in the heart of Orange County, Honda Center stands as one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the country. Opened in 1993, the venue is owned by the City of Anaheim and managed by Anaheim Arena Management, LLC. Home to the 2007 Stanley Cup champion Anaheim Ducks, the arena annually hosts several top-name concerts, exciting sporting events and family favorites such as the Harlem Globetrotters, Stars on Ice and Professional Bull Riders. Throughout the years, capacity crowds have filled Honda Center for world-class acts such as recent performances by Dierks Bentley, Kendrick Lamar, Ariana Grande, John Mayer, Brad Paisley, Twenty One Pilots, and Andrea Bocelli.

Since 2005, Ducks owners Henry and Susan Samueli have invested millions of dollars into facility upgrades, all of which have a direct positive impact on the guest experience. Unveiled for 2017-18 is the expansion of the venue's South concourse. This exciting communal area enhances the fan experience by providing a space for pregame and intermission gatherings. The newly expanded location adds thousands of square feet to the venue concourse and connects the Anaheim Ducks Team Store with innovative Food & Beverage concepts at Honda Center's South entrance.

Also new for this season is Musco's state-of-the-art LED sports lighting system. The innovative system improves the quality of the light with custom optics that more efficiently direct light onto the ice.

Highlighted features of the system include instant on/off capabilities that further enhance entertainment abilities within the game and reduction of energy consumption with improved playability.

Honda Center offers fans a facility that is both beautiful to behold and a delight in which to view any event, reflecting state-of-the-art design in both form and function. Hosting an average of 163 events and 1.6 million guests annually, the arena offers visitors incredibly comfortable seating and some of the best sight lines and proximity to the action found anywhere.

The arena has three levels of seating. Closest to the arena floor is the Plaza Level with 5,200 seats and 39 luxury suites. Just 21 rows above ice, the exclusive Pacific Premiere Club Level is accessible only to Premium Seat Holders. It contains 1,750 seats, 44 luxury suites, The Grand Terrace and the Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Club. The third level, the Terrace Level, has a total of 9,200 easily accessible seats. The arena is located in Orange County, east of the 57 (Orange) freeway on Katella Avenue. Five major freeways (57, 22, 5, 91, 55) are conveniently located within a five-mile radius of the facility.

HONDA Center

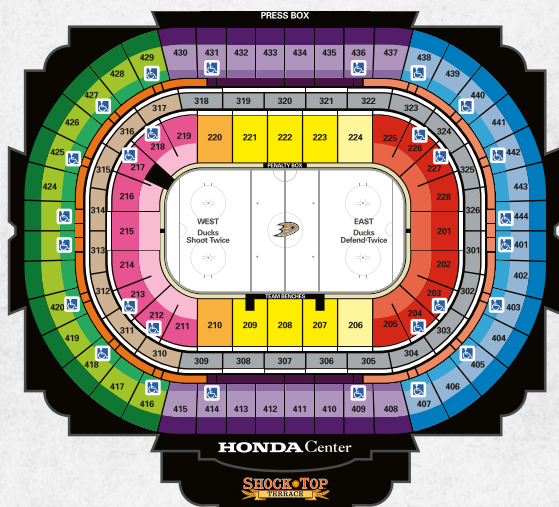

Location Site: 2695 East Katella Avenue (at Douglass, east of 57 freeway)

The official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On October 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and ice hockey. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise was immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logos popularity, the Ducks original jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY Awards in 1997.

A NEW LOOK UNVEILED

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98). Entering the 2006 playoffs as the Western Conference's sixth seed, the Ducks upset the third-seeded Calgary Flames in a thrilling seven-game series and went on to sweep the Colorado Avalanche before losing to the Edmonton Oilers in the Western Conference Final.

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the new design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result was a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoed the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography had a powerful forward momentum and was made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The uniforms were an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo. Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup.

THE NAME, LOGOS & COLORS

THIRD JERSEYS

The Ducks have appeared in five third jerseys (each pictured), beginning with a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

The fourth third jersey debuted on Nov. 26, 2010. A black sweater with orange sleeves and side panels, it featured the "D" foot placed prominently on the chest. The shoulder patch integrated the original Mighty Ducks logo into a new oval mark, linking the team's past and present.

The newest third jersey made its initial appearance on Oct. 16, 2015 and featured the original Mighty Ducks logo set on an orange colored jersey accented with gold, black and white trim. In a reversal of logos, the primary webbed "D" was displayed as a patch on both shoulders to represent the current Ducks team.

STADIUM SERIES

The Anaheim Ducks and Los Angeles Kings wore specially designed jerseys and uniforms for the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest at Dodger Stadium on Jan. 25, 2014. Anaheim's jersey featured a chrome-treated "D" logo, unique to the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest and inspired from the chrome details in the NHL shield. The Ducks Stadium Series jersey was orange, currently an accent color in the club's primary logo.

Anaheim's orange jersey for the game included enlarged player numbers for improved visibility in an outdoor venue, as well as a shoulder logo to signify the geographic rivalry between the Ducks and Kings. An interlocked "OC" logo appeared on the left shoulder of the Ducks' Stadium Series jersey. The NHL Stadium Series jersey was designed with creative input from the Ducks, Reebok and the NHL.

FROM THIRD TO PRIMARY

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, the club's 2010-14 third jersey was transformed into the new primary sweater. A white "road" version of the jersey was added. Both versions of the jersey now incorporate white laces and permanent integration with the "D" on both sweaters.

TEAM HISTORY

The San Diego Gulls took the ice on Oct. 10, 2015 to open their inaugural American Hockey League season in San Diego, CA. One of seven teams in the AHL's recently created Pacific Division and one of five playing in their inaugural season, the Gulls concluded 2015-16 with a record of 39-23-4-2, earning second place in the Pacific Division and fifth in the Western Conference. The Gulls earned the franchise's first playoff series win in the first round against Texas before falling in the Pacific Division Final to Ontario. In 2016-17, the Gulls improved on their inaugural season's success, recording a 43-20-3-2 record, earning second place in the Pacific Division and third in the AHL. The club defeated Ontario in the first round of the Calder Cup Playoffs, advancing to the Pacific Division Final for the second consecutive season, eventually falling to San Jose in five games.

San Diego ranked second among league leaders in average attendance (8,675) in 2016-17, bringing nearly 300,000 fans to watch Gulls hockey at Valley View Casino Center.

Professional hockey in San Diego has a rich history, dating to the San Diego Skyhawks of the Pacific Coast Hockey League in 1944. Since then, San Diego has been home to several professional teams and leagues throughout the years, including the aforementioned Skyhawks (1944-50), Gulls of the Western Hockey League (1966-74), Mariners of the World Hockey Association (1974-77) and Pacific Hockey League (1977-78), Hawks of the PHL (1978-79) and Gulls of the International Hockey League (1990-95), West Coast Hockey League (1995-03) and ECHL (2003-06).

Valley View Casino Center, San Diego's home venue, opened on Nov. 17, 1966 with a 4-1 San Diego Gulls (WHL) victory over the Seattle Totems. Valley View Casino Center (formerly San Diego Sports Arena and iPayOne Center) has housed professional hockey, basketball, indoor soccer, arena football, tennis and numerous entertainment events. A central figure in San Diego sports history, Valley View Casino Center has recently seen significant arena upgrades, most notably a new state-of-the-art scoreboard prior to the Gulls' 2015-16 campaign.

BOB FERGUSON GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Ferguson enters his ninth season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and his third season as General Manager of the San Diego Gulls. In two seasons with San Diego, Ferguson helped build a team that has advanced to the Pacific Division Finals each year. The 2016-17 club went 43-20-3-2 for 91 points, second in the Western Conference and third in the AHL, defeating Ontario in the first round of the postseason before falling in the Pacific Division Finals to San Jose (five games). In the club's inaugural season in 2015-16, the team finished with a 39-23-4-2 record for 84 points, earning second place in the Pacific Division and the club's first berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. Under Ferguson's guidance, San Diego won its first-ever playoff series over the Texas Stars, 3-1, prior to falling to Ontario in the second round (five games).

Ferguson previously spent three seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals, Anaheim's AHL affiliate from 2012-15. Ferguson has logged more than 30 years of experience in a coaching or management capacity at the minor league and junior levels, including the last eight seasons with the Ducks organization. He spent the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Syracuse Crunch, Anaheim's AHL affiliate prior to Norfolk. In 2009-10, he served as a scout for Anaheim, responsible for amateur and college scouting along with other special assignments in hockey operations. Ferguson's first season with the Ducks organization was 2008-09, when he held the post of Assistant General Manager for the Iowa Chops, Anaheim's 2008-09 AHL affiliate.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ferguson spent nine years as a head coach in the professional ranks with the Indianapolis Ice of the IHL, as well as the Florida Everblades and Augusta Lynx of the ECHL. In his nine seasons as a professional coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson is a three-time USA Hockey National Champion (Gold Cup), a five-time United States Hockey League (USHL) Coach of the Year, a five-time USHL General Manager of the Year and two-time ECHL Coach of the Year. Before reaching the IHL, Ferguson coached in the USHL for 17 seasons with the Sioux City Musketeers and Des Moines Buccaneers. With 517 career USHL coaching wins, he ranks third all-time in league history. During his USHL tenure, he led Sioux City (2) and Des Moines (3) to multiple Clark Cup championships.

Ferguson and his wife, Lisa, have two children: Brett and Kaylee. The family resides in San Diego.

DALLAS EAKINS HEAD COACH

Dallas Eakins enters his third season as Head Coach of the San Diego Gulls in 2017-18. Named to his current post on June 26, 2015, Eakins led the Gulls to a 43-20-3-2 record last season, earning second place in the Pacific Division and third in the AHL. In his two seasons behind the bench in San Diego, Eakins has led the Gulls to an 82-43-7-4 record (.645 win %) in 136 games.

Under Eakins, San Diego has advanced to the Pacific Division Finals in each of the club's first two seasons, leading the club to a 3-2 series win over Ontario in the opening round of the 2017 Calder Cup Playoffs before falling in the Division Final to San Jose (five games). In 2016, Eakins guided San Diego to the club's first postseason series victory with a 3-1 series win in the First Round over Texas before being eliminated in the Division Finals by Ontario (five games).

The Dade City, Fla. native previously served as Head Coach of the NHL's Edmonton Oilers from 2013-14 (113 games) after spending eight years in the Toronto Maple Leafs organization.

Eakins was Head Coach of the Toronto Marlies (AHL) from 2009-13, leading the team to a 157-114-41 record in 312 games. The Marlies finished atop the North Division during Eakins' final two seasons behind the bench winning four of six playoff series. While with the Marlies, Eakins was named as one of two head coaches representing the Western Conference for the AHL All-Star Games for both the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons. During the 2011-12 campaign, Eakins led the Marlies to a division-best 44-24-8 record and an appearance in the Calder Cup Final. Eakins has a career 196-137-45-2 record as Head Coach in the AHL.

Selected by Washington in the 10th round (208th overall) of the 1985 NHL Draft, Eakins appeared in 120 career NHL games with the Winnipeg Jets, Florida Panthers, St. Louis Blues, Phoenix Coyotes, New York Rangers, Toronto Maple Leafs, New York Islanders and Calgary Flames. Eakins also played in the AHL and International Hockey League (IHL) during his professional career, winning both the Calder Cup (2002) and Turner Cup (2000). His final professional season was with the Manitoba Moose (AHL) before retiring on May 26, 2004.

Eakins, his wife, Ingrid, and daughters, Emerson (9) and Cameron (6) reside in San Diego.

MARTY WILFORD ASSISTANT COACH

Marty Wilford is in his third season as Assistant Coach with the San Diego Gulls and seventh season in the Anaheim organization. Wilford helped the Gulls to a 43-20-3-2 record last season, earning second place in the Pacific Division and third in the AHL. In two seasons in San Diego, Wilford has helped lead the Gulls to an 82-43-7-4 record, while helping the club advance to the Pacific Division Finals in both seasons.

Wilford helped guide Anaheim's AHL affiliate to a 104-99-25 record from 2012-15 in Norfolk, including a win over top-seeded Manchester in the first round of the 2014 Calder Cup Playoffs. Wilford made his professional coaching debut in 2011-12 with Anaheim's then-AHL affiliate in Syracuse, which went 37-29-10 and earned a berth in the 2012 Calder Cup Playoffs.

The Peterborough, Ontario native retired from professional hockey in 2010-11 following four years playing overseas in Germany and Italy. Originally selected by Chicago in the sixth round (149th overall) of the 1995 NHL Entry Draft, Wilford collected 47-228=275 points with 573 PIM as a defenseman in 539 career AHL games from 2000-07. He is Norfolk's all-time leading scorer among defensemen with 32-141=173 points in 318 games from 2000-05.

Wilford began his professional career in the International Hockey League, scoring 3-29=32 points in 186 games from 1997-00. He spent the last four seasons in Europe with Hamburg and Iserlong (Germany), and Fassa HC (Italy), notching 19-121=140 points in 146 contests. Wilford and his wife, Shelly, have three children: Emma, Grace and Nash. The family resides in Scripps Ranch, Calif.

BRETT FERGUSON ASSISTANT COACH

Brett Ferguson is in his third season with the San Diego Gulls, his first as Assistant Coach. Prior to his current post, Ferguson served seven seasons as Video Coach with Anaheim's AHL affiliates in Norfolk (2012-15) and Syracuse (2010-12) and San Diego (2015-17).

Ferguson has helped lead the Gulls to back-to-back Calder Cup Playoff appearances, advancing to the Pacific Division Final in each of the two seasons. In two seasons with the Gulls, San Diego has recorded an 82-43-7-4 record and earned postseason series victories in the first round over Texas in 2016 (four games) and Ontario in 2017 (five games).

Prior to joining the Ducks organization, Ferguson was an assistant coach with the Des Moines Buccaneers of the United States Hockey League (USHL). Born in Sioux City, Iowa and raised in West Des Moines, Ferguson graduated from the University of South Carolina at Aiken in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in history. He was a three-time Iowa High School State champion as a member of the Des Moines Capitals.

Brett, his wife, Amanda, and their son, Caleb, reside in San Diego.

J.F. LABBE GOALTENDING COACH

J.F. Labbe is in his second season as goaltending coach for the San Diego Gulls. Labbe previously served as goaltending coach for the Sherbrooke Phoenix (QMJHL) in 2015-16.

A native of Sherbrooke, Quebec, Labbe posted a 3-6-0 record with a 3.44 GAA and .889 SV% in 15 career NHL games with the New York Rangers and Columbus Blue Jackets from 1999-03. He also played 10 seasons in the AHL from 1993-03, going 202-151-52 with a 2.77 GAA and .913 SV% in 420 career games. Labbe won the Calder Cup with Hershey in 1996-97 and Harford in 1999-00, and was inducted into the AHL's Hall of Fame in Feb. 2016.

Labbe and his wife, Kathy, and their three children, twins Mya and Emily, and son Kyan, reside in Sherbrooke, Quebec.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2016-17 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks clinched the 2016-17 Pacific Division for the fifth straight season with a 46-23-13 record and 105 points...the Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles, joining the Colorado/Quebec franchise (9 straight from 1995-03), Montreal (8 from 1975-82), Detroit (8 from 2001-09), Edmonton (6 from 1982-87), Dallas (5 from 1997-01) and Vancouver (5 from 2009-13)...Anaheim was also the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94...the Ducks won the division after falling nine points back of first place on three separate occasions, most recently being nine points behind San Jose on March 15 (91 San Jose points to 82 Anaheim points)...the Ducks eclipsed 100 points for the fourth consecutive season, joining the Chicago Blackhawks as the only teams to accomplish the feat.

THE FINISH:

The Ducks went 29-11-7 for 65 points after the Holiday Break (games resumed Dec. 27), the second-best record in the NHL (WSH had 74 points)...the Ducks also allowed only 99 goals over that stretch, 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (WSH, 111 allowed)...the Ducks' penalty killing also led the NHL at 88.1% over that stretch...Anaheim also went 14-2-3 for 31 points from the end of its bye week on Mar. 3 through the remainder of the schedule, ranking second the NHL in points and wins (STL, 15 wins and 32 points).

STRONG FINISH:

Anaheim became the fifth team in league history to conclude the regular season on a 14-game (11-0-3) point streak...the Ducks were the first team to accomplish the feat since Pittsburgh finished the 1992-93 season with points in 18 straight games...the other three teams included Montreal (21-game point streak in 1979-80), Philadelphia (14 in 1974-75) and Buffalo (14 in 1979-80)...the 11-0-3 run was the third-longest standings point streak in club history and tied for the second longest in the NHL this season (Columbus 16, Washington also had 14).

AT HONDA CENTER:

Anaheim's 29-8-4 record and 62 points at Honda Center tied franchise records in both categories...in addition, the club allowed the fewest goals at Honda Center in club history (82)...the Ducks won their final six home games (6-0-0) and closed the season with a 10-game point streak (9-0-1) at Honda Center.

CLINCHED:

Anaheim was one of six NHL teams and the only Pacific Division club that has qualified for the postseason in the previous five consecutive seasons, joining Pittsburgh (11 straight), Chicago (9), New York Rangers (7), St. Louis (6) and Minnesota (5)...during the five-year stretch, the Ducks posted a 227-104-45 record, leading the NHL in point percentage (.664) and points (499) and tied for second in wins.

ON THE LEADERBOARD:

The Ducks ranked third among NHL teams in goals against per game (2.40) and fewest goals allowed (197), and fourth in PK% (84.7%) in 2016-17...the Ducks also led the league in fewest goals allowed in the third period (55)...at Honda Center, Anaheim ranked third among NHL clubs in home standings points (62) and home wins (29-8-4) and second overall in fewest home goals allowed (82).

KESSLER'S SELKE BID:

Ryan Kesler recorded his highest point total since he won the Selke in 2010-11 (22-36=58 points in 2016-17)... Kesler had a career-high 1,029 faceoff wins, ranking third in the NHL (ranked sixth in faceoff percentage, 57.4%)...among forwards, he ranked first in the NHL in shifts/game (27.5), third in total time on ice/game (TOI, 21:18) and fourth in the NHL in shorthanded TOI (22:39)...in the defensive zone, Kesler led the NHL in faceoff wins (429) and took the most 5-on-5 faceoffs in the defensive zone this year (547)...he ranked sixth in the NHL in blocked shots among forwards (75)...Kesler won more faceoffs (170 more) and posted a higher overall number in TOI (21:18 to 20:29) compared to his 2010-11 Selke-winning season.

GOAL DRIVEN:

Rickard Rakell, who led Anaheim in goals with a career-high 33, paced the NHL in GWG (10), ranked fifth in even-strength goals (28) and tied for 10th in goals-per-game (0.46, min. 40 games)...Rakell's 10 GWG fell one shy of tying the single-season franchise record set by Corey Perry (11) in 2010-11...only three players under the age of 24 had more than seven GWG in 2016-17: Rakell, Filip Forsberg (9 GWG, age 22) and Auston Matthews (8 GWG, age 19)...Rakell was the first player under the age of 24 to score his 10th GWG since Steven Stamkos (age 22) in 2011-12 and also just the fifth player under the age of 24 since the start of the 1993-94 season to record 10 GWG in a single season, joining Stamkos, Alex Ovechkin (2007-08 & 2008-09), Paul Kariya (1996-97) and Jaromir Jagr (1995-96).

RANKED:

Ryan Getzlaf led the Ducks in scoring (15-58=73), becoming the first Anaheim player to do so for five straight seasons...Paul Kariya (1999-03) and Teemu Selanne (1996-99) each led Anaheim in scoring for four consecutive seasons and eight straight combined from 1996-03...Getzlaf reached the 50-assist mark a franchise-best seventh time and was one of three NHL players (Backstrom and Karlsson) and the only Western Conference player to record 50 assists in each of the last two seasons...Getzlaf finished the regular season ranked third among NHL leaders in assists and surpassed Selanne (531) for the all-time franchise lead in assists on Nov. 10 at Carolina...Getzlaf led the NHL in assists (23), ranked tied for second in points (27) and tied for fifth in plus/minus (+13)...he was named the NHL's Third Star of the Week on Mar. 27 after co-leading the league with seven assists in three games...during the period of selection, Getzlaf recorded three points on Mar. 22 vs. Edmonton (0-3=3) along with a four-point effort on Mar. 26 vs. New York (0-4=4)...his four assists on Mar. 26 represented a season high and pushed him to the 50-assist mark for the second consecutive season, one of three players to do so (also Karlsson and Backstrom)...on Mar. 18 in San Jose, Getzlaf became the second player in team history to record 800 career NHL points in an Anaheim uniform, joining all-time franchise leader Selanne (457-531=988).

NO. 4:

Andrew Cogliano appeared in his 777th consecutive game on Mar. 22 vs. Edmonton, surpassing Craig Ramsay (776) for sole possession of the fourth-longest streak in NHL history...Cogliano finished the season with the streak at 786 games, the NHL's longest in more than 23 years, since Steve Larmer's 884th consecutive game took place on Apr. 15, 1993...at the end of the regular season, Cogliano's streak was also the second-longest from the start of a career...Doug Jarvis is the NHL's all-time leader with 964 consecutive games from 1975-88...Cogliano concluded 2016-17 as the NHL's active leader in consecutive games played, having not missed a game in his NHL career dating to Oct. 4, 2007 with Edmonton...below is a look at the longest consecutive game streaks in NHL history:

MOST CONSECUTIVE GAMES IN NHL HISTORY

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2015-16 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2015-16 regular season 46-25-11 for 103 points, ranking first in the Pacific Division, fourth in the Western Conference and sixth in the NHL...it marked the third consecutive year the club posted 100+ points, joining St. Louis and Chicago as the only NHL teams to do so from 2013-16...Anaheim went 6-2-2 in the last 10 games, 21-6-4 in the last 31 and 34-10-5 over the last 49 contests.

DUCKS WIN PACIFIC:

The Ducks won their fourth consecutive division title on the last day of the season with a 2-0 victory over Washington...Anaheim became the first NHL team to win four division titles in a row since Vancouver won five straight (Northwest Division) from 2009-2013...the Ducks joined San Jose (2007-11) as the only two franchises to win the Pacific Division title four years in a row since the division's creation in 1993-94...the Ducks won the division after trailing by 16 points at the halfway point of the season (41 games on Jan. 12), becoming the first team to erase such a deficit at the halfway point since New Jersey in 2005-06 (trailing Philadelphia by 19 points through 41 games).

AFTER THE HOLIDAY BREAK:

After the Christmas break, the Ducks went 34-10-5 for the best record in the NHL (.745 points percentage)...the Ducks led the league in wins (34), standings points (73), PP% (27.5%), PPG (42), fewest goals allowed (104), goals allowed per game (2.1) and goal differential (+50); ranked second in goals (154) and goals per game (3.1) and third in PK% (86.9%) following the break...the Ducks were the first team since 2010 and just the fourth since 2005 to post a .745+ win (73 points) percentage after the Christmas break in a full season (34-10-5)...the others being the 2007 Canucks (32-8-6, .761), 2010 Capitals (37-7-7, .767) and 2006 Red Wings (34-7-5, .793).

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST JENNINGS TROPHY:

Allowing a league-low 192 goals, goaltenders John Gibson and Frederik Andersen won the 2015-16 Jennings Trophy and became the first Anaheim goaltenders to win the award in franchise history...Gibson finished 21-13-4 with a 2.07 GAA and .920 SV% in 40 games, with Andersen going 22-9-7 with a 2.30 GAA and .919 SV% in 43 contests...Gibson ranked tied for second among league leaders with a 2.07 GAA, which was also the lowest among qualified rookie goaltenders (min. 25 games played) since 2009-10 (Tuukka Rask w/ BOS, 1.97).

FIRST IN 3+ DECADES:

Anaheim was the first team since the 1984-85 New York Islanders to finish the regular season with the league's best PP% (23.2%) and PK% (87.2%)...the Ducks led the league in PP% after ranking tied for 19th on Jan. 13 (17.9%, 27-for-151)...the club scored power-play goals in 19 of its last 28 games (in which it had an opportunity), going 29-for-91 with the man advantage (31.9%, best in the NHL)...Anaheim went undefeated in regulation in 23 consecutive games (22-0-1) when scoring a PPG from Nov. 30-Mar. 5.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2014-15 REGULAR SEASON:

The Ducks finished with a 51-24-7 record for 109 points... Anaheim had the top record in the Western Conference for the second consecutive season (and second time in club history)...the Ducks posted the second-best record in franchise history, trailing only the 2013-14 club (53-20-8, 114)...Anaheim recorded its second consecutive 50-win season in franchise history and matched the club record for most road standings points (54) and wins (25-12-4)...Anaheim finished second among NHL teams in road points and road wins.

IT'S A RECORD:

The Ducks set an NHL single-season record for most wins when trailing in the third period (at any point) and matched the NHL mark for wins when trailing after two periods...a closer look:

MOST WINS WHEN TRAILING AT ANY POINT IN THE THIRD PERIOD IN NHL HISTORY

SITUATIONALLY:

The Ducks were one of two NHL teams with only one regulation loss when tied after two periods (9-1-5; third with a .767 points %)....Anaheim was also one of five teams that did not lose in regulation when leading after two (29-0-2)...in addition, the Ducks were 37-2-4 when allowing two goals-or-less in 2014-15 (18-0-2 at home, 19-2-2 on the road).

THE GAME OF ONE:

Anaheim set an all-time NHL record with 33 wins in one-goal games (33-1-7)...the Ducks also led the NHL in winning percentage (.805) in one-goal games and were the only NHL team with fewer than four one-goal losses in regulation...Anaheim established an NHL single-season record for most consecutive one-goal games without a regulation loss (33), going 26-0-7 from Oct. 11-Feb. 23...the Ducks also set an NHL record for most consecutive home wins by a one-goal margin (discounting losses or ties), with 11 in a row (five regulation, two overtime and four shootouts) from Nov. 12-Jan. 11.

IN THE BEGINNING:

Frederik Andersen joined Montreal's Bill Durnan as the fastest goaltenders in NHL history to 50 wins, accomplishing the feat in 68 career decisions on Mar. 3 at Arizona...Durnan also won 50 in 68 decisions on Dec. 16, 1944...Andersen finished the season with a 35-12-5 record with three shutouts, a 2.38 GAA and .914 SV% in 54 games, marking the second-most single-season wins in franchise history (J.S. Giguere with 36 in 2006-07).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2013-14 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks concluded the 2013-14 regular season with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in club history...the Ducks finished with the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in franchise history and set season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707)...the Ducks led the league in goals (263) for the first time in club history (excludes shootout tallies)...Anaheim established season bests for goals (263; previously 254 in 2006-07), wins (54; previously 48, 2006-07), home wins (29; previously 28, 2007-08), road wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), home points (62; previously 61, 2006-07) and road points (54; previously 49, 2006-07).

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY:

Of the Ducks' 54 wins, 51 came in regulation/overtime (ROW)...Anaheim and Boston (also 51 wins in 2013-14) are the only two NHL teams to record as many ROWs since 2005-06 (Detroit, 54).

COMEBACKS COMMON:

Anaheim posted 26 comeback wins in 2013-14, the most in the NHL since 2005-06 (Detroit and Nashville, 26)...the Ducks went 23-15-2 (.575 points percentage) when the opponent scored first, the most wins and best points percentage of any team in such situations in 2013-14.

HISTORIC STREAK:

Anaheim won 18 of 19 games (18-1-0) from Dec. 6-Jan. 15 to join Montreal (18-1-0, 1967-68) as the only two NHL teams to win 18+ games in a 19-game span.

HOME/ROAD:

The Ducks went a franchise-best 29-8-4 at Honda Center, setting a club record for home wins and home standings points (62) in a single season... Anaheim became the fourth team in 40 NHL seasons (since 1973-74) to record points in each of its first 22-plus home games (20-0-2) from Oct. 13-Jan. 15, joining PHI (19-0-7, 1979-80), NYI (19-0-4, 1978-79) and SJ (20-0-2, 2008-09) in that category...the Ducks, who were the last NHL team to suffer a home loss in regulation (Jan. 21 vs. WPG), established a club record with eight straight home wins to open a season...away from Honda Center, the Ducks concluded their road schedule setting franchise records for wins (25; previously 22, 2008-09 and 2006-07), points (54; previously 49, 2006-07), and goals (123; previously 115, 2008-09).

THE FINAL SEASON:

The NHL's oldest active player and oldest to ever compete in a Ducks uniform at 43 years and 92 days at the start of 2013-14, Teemu Selanne finished his regular-season career ranked 11th among all-time leaders in goals, tied for 37th in all-time assists, 15th in all-time scoring, third in all-time PPG, tied for third with Brett Hull in all-time GWG (110) and 22nd in all-time games...Selanne is the club's all-time leader in scoring (988), goals (457), assists (531), games (966), plus/minus (+120), PPG (182), PPP (410), GWG (77), shots (2,964) and OT goals (6).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)...the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)...the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh...the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS:

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first...Anaheim, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations...the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)...the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

HOME SWEET HOME:

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, 2013, the longest home streak in franchise history...the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Boudreau...Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)...Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

HERE TO STAY:

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, 2013, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season...Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists...Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, 2013, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)...Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)...his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

#8:

Teemu Selanne recorded two four-point games in 2012-13, just the third and fourth time an NHL player 42 years or older accomplished the feat...Selanne scored 1-3=4 points on Feb. 9, 2013 at St. Louis (at 42 years, 326 days) and 2-2=4 points on Jan. 19, 2013 at Vancouver, joining Gordie Howe (42 years, 326 days) with 1-3=4 points for Detroit on Feb. 20, 1971 vs. Buffalo, and Tim Horton (42 years, 3 days) with 0-4=4 points for Pittsburgh on Jan. 15, 1972 vs. Philadelphia.

2011-12:

The Anaheim Ducks finished the 2011-12 season with a 34-36-12 mark for 80 points...the club had the fifth-best record in the Western Conference with 54 points (24-15-6) from Jan. 1 to the end of the season...the club went 14-6-1 in its last 21 contests played at Honda Center (.690 win percentage)...over the last 44 games overall, Anaheim went 24-14-6...from the start of 2012, Corey Perry ranked fourth in goals with 23 (PIT's Malkin had 35, TB's Stamkos had 34 and NJ's Kovalchuk had 24)...in addition, Jonas Hiller co-led the league in starts and appearances (41), and ranked sixth in wins (20) and GAA (2.11).

BREAKING RECORDS

Teemu Selanne (41 years old) completed his 20th NHL season and 13th with the Ducks, scoring 26-40=66 points in 82 games...his 26 goals made him the second-oldest player in NHL history to have 26+ goals in a single season...Selanne joined Gordie Howe as the oldest two players to have at least 60 points in one season...in addition, Selanne's 17, 20+goal seasons tied for the fifth-most in NHL history (many players)...his 82 games played made him the oldest player in NHL history (41 yrs, 279 days) to have appeared in all 82 games in a single season...only Nicklas Lidstrom (40 yrs, 347 days in 2010-11), Dave Andreychuk (40 yrs, 187 days in 2003-04), Mark Messier (40 yrs, 79 days in 2000-01) and Ron Francis (40 yrs, 36 days in 2002-03) appeared in all 82 games above the age 40.

BOUDREAU TAKES THE REINS

Bruce Boudreau was named the eighth head coach of the Anaheim Ducks on Nov. 30...the Ducks were 27-23-8 under his leadership...he finished the 2011-12 season with a 228-111-48 record in 387 career NHL games with both Anaheim and Washington for a .651 win percentage.

ANOTHER BIG YEAR

Corey Perry led the Ducks with 37 goals, leading all Western Conference players and ranking tied for sixth in the NHL...the 2010-11 Hart Trophy Winner had 15 goals in his last 32 games (post All-Star break)...Perry also ranked tied for third in the NHL in PPG (14).

MORE SELANNE

Teemu Selanne surpassed Luc Robitaille on Mar. 25 vs. Boston for sole possession of fourth in all-time PPG at 248...in addition, his GWG on Mar. 14 vs. Detroit accounted for his 1,400th career point, as he became just the third European-born player to reach the milestone (Jaromir Jagr 1,653 and Stan Mikita, 1,467)...on Mar. 12, Selanne's goal moved him past childhood idol and fellow Finn Jari Kurri (1,398 career points) for sole possession of 19th in all-time points (second among active players behind Jagr)...at the close of the season, Selanne ranked 12th on the NHL's all-time goal scoring list (second among active players behind Jagr), 42nd in assists (fourth among active players) and sixth in career GWG (second among active players behind Jagr).

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference...the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West...during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12=31 with a +12)...the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"...Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989...Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)...his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer...he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season...he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)...Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49=80 points in 73 games...25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest...he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)...the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game...Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring...only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days...on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms...he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season...Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)...he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference...he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

The Ducks finished the season with a 39-32-11 record for 89 points (11th in Western Conference)...the club went 23-14-4 for 50 points in the second half of the season (41 games), which equaled the eighth-best record in the league...Anaheim also finished with points in eight of the last nine games (5-1-3) and went 9-3-3 over the last 15 contests...the Ducks concluded the 2009-10 season with a 6-0-2 record in the last eight games at Honda Center and were 17-3-3 in the last 23 contests at home.

BY THE NUMBERS:

Right wing Corey Perry led the club in scoring with a career-high 27-49=76 points and was the only player to appear in all 82 regular season games for Anaheim...center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in assists (50) despite missing 16 games due to injury...defenseman Scott Niedermayer, who ranked tied for 11th in league defensesmen scoring, led all Anaheim players in ice time (26:30) and paced all team blueliners in assists and points (10-38=48)...right wing Bobby Ryan had a career-high 35 goals in 81 games, leading the team in goals and ranking second in the NHL (behind only New Jersey's Zach Parise) among U.S.-born players...right wing Teemu Selanne finished the season ranked tied for third in the NHL in power play goals (14) and tied for eighth in goals-per game (.50), his highest mark since 2006-07 (.59)...with 27 goals on the year (27-21=48), 2009-10 marked Selanne's 14th season with 25 goals or more...Selanne had six goals in his last five games (6-2=8), 8-9=17 points in his last 13 and 9-12=21 points in his final 18 contests...center Saku Koivu earned 4-7=11 points with a +6 rating in his last five games...he also had 7-11=18 points in his last 13 and 8-12=20 in 19...Koivu, who scored the game-tying goal in two of his last three games (and the shootout winner on Apr. 3 at Los Angeles), ranked tied for 10th in the NHL in game-winning goals (6)...Koivu also eclipsed the 50-point mark for seventh consecutive season in 2009-10 (19-33=52)...defenseman Lubomir Visnovsky ranked tied for fourth in goals among NHL defensesmen (with San Jose's Dan Boyle)...his five goals after his acquisition by Anaheim on Mar. 3 (did not play until Mar. 6) co-led all NHL defensesmen (with Washington's Mike Green and Los Angeles' Drew Doughty).

TAKING THE REINS:

The Ducks were 23-13-4 in their last 40 games dating back to Jan. 5, which equaled the eighth-best record in the NHL...that stretch began with Jonas Hiller starting 31 of the final 40 games, including 19 straight from Jan. 5-Mar. 24...prior to that, Hiller started 26 of the first 42 games of the season, alternating starts with J.S. Giguere (the Ducks were 16-19-7 at that point of the season)...Hiller himself was 18-11-1 (2.58 GAA, .923 SV%) in his last 32 games from Jan. 5 to the end of the season.

606:

After reaching the historic 600-goal plateau on Mar. 21 vs. Colorado and matching childhood idol and longtime friend Jari Kurri with 601 on Mar. 31 at Colorado, right wing Teemu Selanne scored two goals on Apr. 2 vs. Vancouver to grab sole possession of 17th place in all-time goals with his 602nd and 603rd goals...finishing the season with 606 career goals, Selanne became one of only 18 players in NHL history to score 600 goals and one of only three Europeans, following Jaromir Jagr (CZE) and Kurri (FIN).

RECORD STREAK:

The Ducks had a franchise-record 11-game home winning streak from Dec. 8-Feb. 10...the 11-game winning streak at Honda Center was the second-longest in the NHL in 2009-10, behind only Washington's 14-game streak at Verizon Center.

2010 OLYMPICS:

Anaheim Ducks players combined for seven medals at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, the most in the NHL (San Jose was second with five)...the seven medals also tied the most ever by an NHL team...the only other NHL teams to have as many as seven medal winners were the 1998 Pittsburgh Penguins and the 2002 Detroit Red Wings...Anaheim Ducks players combined for three gold (Scott Niedermayer, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry for Canada), two silver (Bobby Ryan, Ryan Whitney for USA), and two bronze medals (Saku Koivu and Teemu Selanne for Finland) in Vancouver.

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season with a record of 42-33-7 for 91 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference...Anaheim went 20-18-3 at home and 22-15-4 on the road in the regular season...the Ducks qualified for the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in club history (1997, 1999, 2003, 2006-2009).

THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage)...Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%)...the Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season...the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season winning five of the last seven games (5-1-1), 10 of 13 games (10-2-1) and were 11-3-1 in the last 15 overall...the Ducks scored at least one power play goal in eight of the last nine games (13-for-35, 37.1%) and went 20-for-48 (41.7%) over the final 13...in the last five contests, the Ducks were 9-for-16 on the power play for a 56.3% success rate...in addition, the club recorded 55 goals over the last 13 games (4.2 per game), scoring at least five goals in five of those contests.

ROAD SUCCESS:

Anaheim finished the 2008-09 regular season by recording points in a team-record nine consecutive road games (7-0-2, 16 points), besting the previous mark of eight games set earlier in the year. (7-0-1; Oct. 21-Nov. 30)...the Ducks won six straight road games before losing in a shootout in the season finale on Apr. 11 at Phoenix, falling just one win shy of tying a club-record seven-game road winning streak from Nov. 28-Dec. 13, 2006...with a 22-15-4 road record, the Ducks tied a franchise record for most road wins in a single season (22-14-5, 2006-07).

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66=91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)...in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose...with two assists (0-2-2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)...over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319 of 347 shots...prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31-40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27=50 points)...for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen...Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdoksy with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota...Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2-3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville...Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny...he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado...with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)...Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)...at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests...the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season...it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season...the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum...the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)...the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995...the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum...the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season...the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)...the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage...Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)...the other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note...from Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center...Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS:

The Ducks finished the season with a record of 48-20-14 for 110 points, winning their first Pacific Division Title (finished second in Western Conference)...Anaheim's OT win vs. Dallas on Mar. 23 clinched a playoff berth, marking the first time in team history the club qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons (fifth playoff appearance overall)...the Ducks took over sole possession of first place in the Pacific Division on Oct. 27 and spent the final 72 games and 163 days atop of the Pacific Division...they clinched the division title on Apr. 7 with Vancouver's 4-3 OT win vs. SJ, then finished the season later that evening with a 4-3 win @ Columbus...below is a look at the Ducks' finish within its division in each of their 13 seasons in the NHL:

SEASON	DIVISION WINNER	DUCKS FINISHED
1993-94	Calgary Flames	Fourth (six-team division)
1994-95	Calgary Flames	Sixth (six-team division)
1995-96	Colorado Avalanche	Fourth (seven-team division)
1996-97	Colorado Avalanche	Second (seven-team division)
1997-98	Colorado Avalanche	Sixth (seven-team division)
1998-99	Dallas Stars	Third (five-team division)*
1999-00	Dallas Stars	Fifth (five-team division)
2000-01	Dallas Stars	Fifth (five-team division)
2001-02	San Jose Sharks	Fifth (five-team division)
2002-03	Dallas Stars	Second (five-team division)
2003-04	San Jose Sharks	Fourth (five-team division)
2005-06	Dallas Stars	Third (five-team division)
2006-07	Anaheim Ducks	First (five-team division)

*The Pacific Division was realigned to today's format prior to the 1998-99 season

RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

After breaking nearly all major club records in 2005-2006, the Ducks followed suit with another record-breaking season...With a 48-20-14 record, the Ducks set new franchise records for wins (48) and standings points (110), reaching the 100-point mark for the first time in club history...Anaheim also set new club highs in goals (254 - does not include goals awarded for shootout wins), PP goals (89) and PPG (22.4%, 89-for-398).

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks closed out the season earning standings points in six straight (4-0-2) and 17 of their last 20 games (13-3-4)...the club earned points in 12 of their last 13 home contests (8-1-4)...in addition, Anaheim recorded points in the last five consecutive (4-0-1) and seven of their last nine road games (5-2-2)...the Ducks recorded points in 62 of 82 games (110 of a possible 164).

HOT TICKET IN TOWN:

The Ducks finished the regular season having sold out 22 consecutive home contests (longest streak since 1998) and 24 of the last 25...the club recorded 25 total sellouts on the season, 13 more than it had in 2005-2006...the 25 sellouts matches the most since the 1997-98 season...the Ducks averaged 16,377 fans per game, an 8.2% increase over last year (15,131)...the club's average attendance and percent capacity (95.4%) were also the highest since the 1997-98 season.

WEST COAST WINNERS:

The Ducks recorded 106 points with their win Mar. 31 @ STL, breaking Los Angeles' 32-year record for most points by a West Coast team in NHL history...below is a look at the top nine West Coast teams in NHL history to eclipse 100 points:

TOP POINTS IN NHL HISTORY BY WEST COAST TEAMS

*The California/Oakland Seals' best finish was in 1968-69 with 69 points

TOUGH TO BEAT:

Anaheim netminder J.S. Giguere finished the season with a record of 36-10-8...his GAA (2.26) was his lowest since the 2001-02 season (2.13) and his SV% (.918) was his best since 2002-03 (.920)...in 28 home starts, Giguere posted a 21-2-5 record with a 2.17 GAA (60 GA/1,660 min.) and .917 SV% (659-of-719 shots), having earned the Ducks points in 26 of those games...for the season, he ranked 10th in the NHL in wins, 5th in GAA and T-7th in SV%...in addition, with a win March 29 @ CBJ, Giguere broke his previous career-high and established a new franchise record for wins in a season (previous mark was 34 wins, set in 2002-03).

BETTER WITH AGE:

With a goal March 29 @ CBJ, Teemu Selanne became the oldest player in NHL history to score 45-plus goals in one season (finished with 48)...Selanne was born on July 3, 1970...Selanne was also the first player in NHL history age 35-or-older to record consecutive 40+ goal seasons (had 40 in 2005-06)...it marked the 7th time in his career he hit the 40 goal plateau, the most among active NHL players...among league leaders, Selanne finished 3rd in the NHL (1st in the Western Conference) in goals and T-11th in the NHL in points (94)...he finished 1st in the NHL in power play goals (25) and T-1st in game-winning goals (10), which include two overtime winners.

SPECIAL TEAMS TOP THE CHARTS:

The Ducks were the only team in the NHL this season to have a top-5 ranking in both power play and penalty killing percentage...the Ducks set a new club record for highest PP% in one season, finishing third in the NHL with a 22.4% success rate (89-for-398)...Anaheim finished fourth overall in PK%, killing 349-of-410 penalties on the campaign (85.1%)...the Ducks killed the last 22 consecutive opponent power play to end the season, going back to Mar. 28 @ CHI (did not allow a PP goal in the last five games).

LIGHTING THE LAMP:

The Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 54 of 82 contests in 2006-2007...during the final stretch, the Ducks scored three-or-more goals in 10 of their last 14 and 15 of their last 20 contests...Anaheim recorded 258 team goals, T-3rd in the Western Conference.

CLAMPING DOWN:

The Ducks were especially tough to score against during the third period in 2006-2007...Anaheim allowed only 64 goals in the final period of regulation, the second-least in the NHL...below is a look at the top five teams in the NHL who allowed the least amount of goals in the third period:

Team	Goals Allowed
Minnesota	55
Anaheim	64
Dallas	64
Detroit	64
New Jersey	67

2006-07 ANAHEIM DUCKS

NORRIS FINALISTS:

Ducks defensemen Scott Niedermayer and Chris Pronger were both Norris Trophy finalists...Niedermayer (15-54=69) and Pronger (13-46=59) both finished the season with 50-plus points, marking the first time in club history two defensemen hit that plateau (prior to the 2006-07 season, no pair of Ducks defensemen had each recorded 40-or-more points):

- Captain Scott Niedermayer led all NHL defensemen in scoring, becoming the first Anaheim blue-liner to do so... he was also tied for first in assists among defensemen.
- Despite missing 16 games due to injury, defenseman Chris Pronger finished the season tied for sixth in points, sixth in assists among NHL defensemen and fourth overall in avg. TOI...Pronger led the Ducks in plus/minus...in addition, he ranked first in points-per-game (.89) among NHL defensemen.

IRONMAN:

Samuel Pahlsson became the Ducks' all-time Ironman with 275 consecutive games played...on Jan. 9 @ NSH, he passed Oleg Tverdovsky to move into first place on the Ducks' all-time consecutive games played list...Pahlsson played in all 82 games in each of the last three seasons and has not missed a game since being a healthy scratch on Feb. 5, 2003 @ Edmonton...in addition, Pahlsson is currently 7th in the NHL on the active games played list...Andy McDonald is now in 2nd place on the Ducks all-time consecutive games played list, having played in 243 consecutive games...below is a list of most consecutive games played list in Ducks history and the longest "Iron Man" streaks NHL:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference...the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003...Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)...the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87...all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points...the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1...the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 - finished 7th), Ottawa Senators (1996-97 - finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 - finished 8th)...the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat...the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)...Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating...he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)...after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)...his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)...Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more than five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)...the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome...about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at the Pond.

QUITE A TURNAROUND STORY IN ANAHEIM:

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season posting the largest improvement in the NHL...the Ducks improved by 26 points from 01-02 to 02-03...below is a closer look:

NHL'S BIGGEST POINT DIFFERENTIALS

Team	# of Games	2001-2002 Record	2002-2003 Record	Point Differential
Anaheim	82	29-42-8-3 (69)	40-27-9-6 (95)	+26
Tampa Bay	82	27-40-11-4 (69)	36-25-16-5 (93)	+24
Minnesota	82	26-35-12-9 (73)	42-29-10-1 (95)	+22
Dallas	82	36-28-13-5 (90)	46-17-15-4 (111)	+21
Ottawa	82	39-27-9-7 (94)	52-21-8-1 (113)	+19

THESE CLUB RECORDS ALSO FELL:

The Ducks had their most successful season both at home and on the road...Anaheim finished 18-17-2-4 for 42 points on the road this season, the first season at or above .500 in team history away from home...the Ducks broke the mark for road points by earning their 42nd on Apr. 1 @ Nashville (1993-94 team had 41 points with a 19-20-3 record)...Anaheim finished just one win short of the road win record, also held by the 1993-94 team...at home, the Ducks broke the team record for points with 53, going 22-10-7-2...Anaheim finished one win shy of tying the club record for home victories (both HOME records were set in 1996-97, 23-12-6 for 52 points)...the Ducks also broke club records for lowest GAA (2.32, previous record was 2.39 set 2001-2002), fewest goals allowed (193, record was 198 set 2001-2002), power play goals allowed (42, record was 46 set 2001-2002) and penalty killing percentage (87.4%, record was 86.1% set 2001-2002).

2001-02 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 29-42-8-3 for 69 points... Anaheim went 15-13-2-0 in the last 30 contests...the Ducks had the best defensive season in franchise history...they had a team GAA of 2.39 (ranking ninth in the NHL) allowing just 198 goals the entire season...the previous club records were 206 goals allowed for a 2.48 GAA set in 1998-99...Anaheim also had the best penalty kill in club history...the PK unit killed 284-of-330 (86.1%) penalties, bettering the club record of 84.5% set in 1998-99...the fewest PP goals the club had allowed in a season was also set in 98-99, when it gave up 60 power play markers...in 2001-2002, the team shattered that record by allowing just 46 power play goals...Goaltender J.S. Giguere finished 2001-2002 with the fifth-best goals against average (2.13) and tied (with Burke & Khabibulin) for the fifth-best save percentage (.920) in the NHL...he shattered the club record for lowest goals-against average, well ahead of Guy Hebert's 2.45 GAA in 1998-99...Paul Kariya finished the 2001-2002 regular season as the Ducks leader in goals (32), points (57), power play goals (11), game-winning goals (8) and shots (289)...defenseman Keith Carney led the team with a +14 rating in his first season with the Ducks...Head Coach Bryan Murray finished the 2001-2002 regular season ranked seventh in all-time coaching wins...he moved into seventh place with his 501st win on Jan. 26 @ Nashville (3-1 final)...his historic 500th NHL coaching win came the previous night on Jan. 25 @ Dallas in a 6-1 triumph (eighth coach in NHL history with 500 wins)...Murray also became the eighth coach in NHL history to coach 1,000 games on Nov. 28 vs. Edmonton.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

1998-99 SEASON:

The Mighty Ducks finished the season with a mark of 35-34-13 for 83 points, good for sixth in the Western Conference...the Ducks were a franchise-high five games over .500 five times (latest being a 34-29-12 record after a 2-2 tie @ the NYI on Apr. 3)...the club's 83 points were 18 more than they had in 1997-98 (65 points), the third largest increase in the NHL...Anaheim lost only 12 of its last 34 games (18-12-4) and finished one win shy of equaling the club-record for wins in one season...the club led the league in power play percentage with a 22.0% mark (83-for-378)...the Ducks' 79 PPG's from Nov. 1 through the end of the regular season were 15 more than anyone else in the NHL...Anaheim was 28-3-7 when leading after two periods...home record was 21-14-6 (7-3-2 in last 12)...the Ducks established a club-record seven-game winning streak from Feb. 20-Mar. 7...Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne combined to average 2.66 points-per-game, leading the league...Teemu Selanne's 47 goals earned him the first-ever Maurice "The Rocket" Richard Trophy, awarded to the NHL's highest goal scorer...Paul Kariya's 429 shots were the second-highest total in NHL history...Fredrik Olausson set club-records for defensemen in goals (16), assists (40) & points (56)...Guy Hebert and Dominic Roussel combined for a .921 SV%, the second-highest in the league...Hebert received most of the workload, ranking second in the NHL in games (68), and second in minutes (4083), while also ranking eighth in wins (31), and tied-for-fourth in shutouts (6)...Kevin Haller and Paul Kariya were the only two players to appear in all 82 regular season games.

1997-98 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 26-43-13 for 65 points...the club went 6-7-4 over the last 17 games...Anaheim enjoyed the most success vs. the Atlantic Division, going 7-3-4 (.643 winning percentage) - marking the second best winning percentage vs. any division in franchise history (record is 66.7%, set in 1995-96 when the Ducks went 8-4-0 vs. the Northeast)...Anaheim had three players that ranked among NHL league leaders (including rookie leaders) in several categories (Selanne, Rucchin & Cullen)...the Mighty Ducks and Vancouver Canucks opened up their '97-98 NHL regular seasons with a two-game set in Tokyo on Oct. 3-4.

The games marked the first NHL regular season contests outside of North America... Teemu Selanne's sensational season included an 11-game goal scoring streak, three hat tricks, 10 game-winning goals, a club-record 13 goals in a month (November), a hat trick in the All-Star game, a Bronze Medal at the Winter Olympics, and a league-leading 52 goals (tied with Peter Bondra)... Selanne also became just the fourth player in NHL history to record at least 25% of his teams goals in one season...Paul Kariya suffered a season-ending concussion on Feb. 1 vs. Chicago and appeared in only 22 games on the season.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)...nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games...Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference...the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career...Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks...after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)...Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA...Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season...Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

*=ROOKIE

The Anaheim Ducks ended the regular season riding a 14-game point streak (11-0-3) en route to clinching the pacific division for the fifth consecutive season. Anaheim became the seventh team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles and the first to do so in the pacific division. The Ducks faced the calgary flames in the first round of the stanley cup playoffs and completed the fifth series sweep in franchise history. The Ducks went on to face the Edmonton Oilers in the second round, overcoming a 2-0 series deficit with three consecutive wins and a game 7 win at Honda Center. The second round series win included a historic game 5 comeback at Honda Center, where the Ducks completed the latest postseason rally in NHL history. That night Anaheim scored three goals in the final four minutes of regulation before Corey Perry ended the game in overtime. The game also featured the club's latest playoff game-tying goal when Rickard Rakell scored with 15 seconds remaining in the third period. The Ducks advanced to the Western Conference final for the second time in the last three years, where they would face the Nashville Predators for a second consecutive postseason (2016 first round). Anaheim would eventually fall in a decisive game 6 at bridgestone arena. The Ducks wrapped up the 2017 playoffs with four multi-goal comeback victories, becoming the second team in the last 30 years to do so and falling one shy of the NHL record (5) set by the Philadelphia Flyers in 1987. Ryan Getzlaf ranked fifth among playoff leaders in scoring (8-11=19) and assists, and tied for fifth in goals (career high). Jakob Silfverberg ranked tied for third among postseason leaders in goals and tied for 10th in scoring (9-5=14). John Gibson started 16 games for the Ducks, going 9-5 with a .918 SV% and 2.59 GAA. Among NHL rookies, Brandon Montour ranked second in assists (7) while leading all rookies and ranking tied for second among NHL defensemen in plus/minus (+12).

The Anaheim Ducks entered the 2016 Stanley Cup Playoffs as Pacific Division Champions for the fourth straight year and faced Nashville in the First Round for the second time in franchise history. After dropping Games 1 and 2 on home ice, the Ducks rallied to win three consecutive games to take a 3-2 series lead. It marked the third Stanley Cup Playoff series since 2007 in which the road team won the first four games, with the Ducks being part of two of those series. Nashville responded with a win in Game 6 before taking the decisive Game 7 at Honda Center, 2-1, to advance to the Second Round. Ryan Getzlaf (2-3=5) and Jakob Silfverberg (0-5=5) co-led the Ducks in scoring, while Ryan Kesler paced Anaheim in goals (4). Kesler's 80.0 faceoff win percentage (24-of-30) in Game 5 marked the best playoff performance since Rod Brind'Amour won 28-of-34 (82.4%) in Game 1 of the 2006 SCF on June 5 vs. EDM (min. 30 attempts). Hampus Lindholm posted a career-high +6 rating and added 0-3=3 points from the blueline. Frederik Andersen (3-2) started Games 3-7 for the Ducks, allowing just seven goals (1.41 GAA) with a .947 SV% and one shutout (Game 3). Andersen also posted a career-high 91:26 postseason shutout sequence between Games 3 and 4.

The Anaheim Ducks went 11-5 in the 2015 Stanley Cup Playoffs, falling one win shy of an appearance in the Stanley Cup Final. The Ducks opened the postseason with a First Round sweep of the Winnipeg Jets, the club's fourth sweep in team history and first since the 2006 CSF vs. Colorado. Anaheim became the first team to win four straight postseason games via comeback (trailing at any point in game) since 2012 when New Jersey did so vs. Philadelphia in the CSF. The Ducks were also the first team in NHL history to win three consecutive playoff games when trailing at any point in the third period of all three games during Games 1-3. Anaheim faced the Calgary Flames in the Second Round, earning a 4-1 series victory. The Ducks tied a club playoff record for goals in a 6-1 win in Game 1 and matched a franchise record with their sixth straight postseason win in Game 2. Anaheim reached the Western Conference Final for the first time since 2007, facing the Chicago Blackhawks. The Conference Final was tied on three different occasions and featured three games to go to overtime, including a triple-OT contest in Game 2. Reaching Game 7, the Blackhawks eventually prevailed with a 5-3 win. Ryan Getzlaf co-led the Stanley Cup Playoffs in assists (18) and ranked sixth in scoring (2-18=20), while Jakob Silfverberg ranked third (14) in assists and tied for seventh in points (4-14=18). Corey Perry finished the postseason tied for third among league leaders in goals (10) and tied for seventh in points (10-8=18). Among NHL goaltenders, Frederik Andersen ranked tied for third in playoff wins (11).

The Anaheim Ducks earned their franchise-record fourth consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in 2008-09, finishing second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference with a 42-33-7 record for 91 points. The Ducks opened the postseason against the NHL's top team in the regular season, the San Jose Sharks. The series marked just the second NHL playoff meeting between two California teams and the first since the 1969 Western Conference Quarterfinals when the Los Angeles Kings beat the Oakland Seals in seven games. With a 4-2 series win over San Jose, the Ducks became the fifth team to upset the NHL's best regular season team (by standings points) in the first round since the Expansion Era began (1967-68). The Ducks were also just the 11th team in NHL history to defeat a team who earned 110-or-more standings points during the regular season in the first round. With the series victory, Anaheim advanced to the second round to face Detroit for the fifth time in franchise history. The Ducks stretched the Western Conference Semifinals to seven games before falling short in Game 7 at Detroit. Center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in postseason scoring with 4-14=18 points while goaltender Jonas Hiller posted a 7-6 record with two shutouts, a 2.23 GAA and .943 SV% in his Stanley Cup Playoff debut.

2008 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

The Anaheim Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference. The Ducks advanced to the NHL Playoffs for a franchise-record third consecutive season and faced the fifth-seed Dallas Stars for the second time in club postseason history. Holding home ice advantage, Anaheim lost Games 1 and 2 at Honda Center before earning its first win in Game 3 at American Airlines Center. A Game 4 loss in Dallas forced the Ducks into a must-win situation for the remainder of the series. Anaheim responded with a convincing victory in Game 5 before the 77th consecutive sellout at Honda Center but was eventually eliminated with a Game 6 loss in Dallas. It was just the second first-round exit in six NHL Playoffs for the Ducks and the first since the 1999 postseason. Center Ryan Getzlaf and defenseman Chris Pronger finished tied for the team scoring lead with 2-3=5 points each while right wing Teemu Selanne finished third with 2-2=4 points.

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

CUP IN CALIFORNIA:

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup...their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003))...the Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY:

Rob and Scott Niedermayer were the first set of brothers to win the Stanley Cup together since Brent and Duane Sutter won with the 1983 New York Islanders (they also won Cup with Islanders in 1982)...they were the first set of brothers to compete on the same team in the Stanley Cup Final since Rich and Ron Sutter played for the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1985 Final vs. the Edmonton Oilers (lost)...the Niedermayers were also the first brother combination on opposing clubs to appear in the Stanley Cup Final since 1946 when they met in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final.

YOUTH RAISE THE CUP:

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster...the 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10...below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run:

Ilya Bryzgalov	Drew Miller
Francois Beauchemin	Dustin Penner
Ryan Carter	Corey Perry
Ryan Getzlaf	Aaron Rome
Kent Huskins	Ryan Shannon
Chris Kunitz

FOUR SCORE:

The Ducks were the first team since the 1989 Calgary Flames to have one player or fewer to have previously won the Stanley Cup...Scott Niedermayer was the only Ducks player who has previously won the Cup with the 1995, 2000 and 2003 New Jersey Devils...the 1989 Flames entered the Stanley Cup Final without a single player who had previously won a Cup.

ROOKIES CHIP IN:

The Ducks had five rookie players on their roster who competed in at least three 2007 playoff games...the last Stanley Cup championship team to have more than five rookies compete in at least three playoff games during a postseason run were the 1986 Montreal Canadiens, who had eight...below is a list of the rookies on the Ducks Stanley Cup winning roster that competed in at least three playoff games in 2007:

Ryan Carter
Kent Huskins
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Ryan Shannon

WASTING LITTLE TIME:

The Anaheim Ducks secured the Stanley Cup in just 21 games...with the 1992 Pittsburgh Penguins, the Ducks were the 5th (tied) fastest run to winning the Stanley Cup in NHL history since the best-of-seven series was implemented in 1987.

Year	Team	Record	Win Percentage
1988	Edmonton Oilers	16-2	.889
1993	Montreal Canadiens	16-4	.800
1997	Detroit Red Wings	16-4	.800
1995	New Jersey Devils	16-4	.800
2007	Anaheim Ducks	16-5	.762
1992	Pittsburgh Penguins	16-5	.762

TOP FLIGHT OVER LAST FOUR YEARS:

The Ducks advanced to the Conference Finals for the third time in the last four NHL seasons...no other team has advanced to the Conference Finals more than once over that span (since 2003 playoffs)...the Sabres and Senators advanced to the Conference Finals for the second time in four years...the Ducks were the ONLY team in the NHL to advance to the Stanley Cup Final twice in the previous four years.

YEAR	EASTERN CONFERENCE FINALS		WESTERN CONFERENCE FINALS		STANLEY CUP FINAL
	Team	Team	Team	Team	Team	Team
2003	Ottawa	New Jersey	Anaheim	Minnesota	New Jersey	Anaheim
2004	Tampa Bay	Philadelphia	Calgary	San Jose	Tampa Bay	Calgary
2006	Carolina	Buffalo	Anaheim	Edmonton	Carolina	Edmonton
2007	Ottawa	Buffalo	Anaheim	Detroit	Ottawa	Anaheim

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

FEELING AT HOME IN THE FINAL:

The Ducks remain undefeated at home (7-0) in Stanley Cup Final contests and are 8-0 at home in series-clinching games (4-0 in 2007, 3-0 in 2003 and 1-0 in 1997).

DUCKS IN THE POSTSEASON:

For the first time in franchise history, the Ducks qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons...the club also qualified in 2006, 2003, 1999 and 1997...the Ducks have a win percentage of .603 in the Stanley Cup Playoffs with a 44-29 overall record.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES:

The Ducks posted a 12-2 record in games decided by one goal...the club tied the NHL playoff record for the most one-goal victories in one postseason...the 2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim had 12 one-goal victories during their Stanley Cup Final run...the 1993 Montreal Canadiens also accomplished this feat as they went on to win the Stanley Cup...in addition, the Ducks were T-2nd in lead-changing, game-winning goals that occurred in the third period or overtime:

GAME-WINNING GOALS IN THE THIRD PERIOD OR OVERTIME

Year	Team	3rd Period/OT Wins
1993	Montreal Canadiens	12
2007	Anaheim Ducks	10
1994	Vancouver Canucks	10
1999	Dallas Stars	10
2003	Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	10

GETTING IT DONE AT HOME:

With their win vs. OTT in Game Five of the Stanley Cup Final, the Ducks won their 10th (10-2) game at home in the postseason and have an overall home record of 23-7 since the start of the 2003 Stanley Cup Playoffs...in addition, Anaheim is 8-0 in series-clinching games at home, including 4-0 in 2007 (3-0 in 2003, 1-0 in 1997).

DUCKS AT PEAK PLAYOFF SPOT SINCE 2003:

The Ducks have the most playoff wins (40) AND best playoff winning percentage (.690) in the NHL since the start of the 2003 post-season...below is a look at the top 10 playoff win totals in the NHL since 2003:

	GP	W	L	Win %
Anaheim Ducks	58	40	18	.690
Ottawa Senators	53	30	23	.566
New Jersey Devils	49	27	22	.551
Tampa Bay Lightning	45	24	21	.533
San Jose Sharks	39	22	17	.564
Calgary Flames	39	20	19	.512
Buffalo Sabres	33	20	13	.606
Philadelphia Flyers	37	19	18	.513
Edmonton Oilers	30	17	13	.566
Carolina Hurricanes	25	16	9	.640

OVERTIME ON DUCKS SIDE:

Since the 2003 Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Ducks have appeared in 15 postseason contests that have been decided in overtime...the club is 13-2 in those games, the most by any team since 2003...below is a look at the top six teams in the NHL with the most overtime playoff wins:

Team	GP	W	L	Win %
Anaheim	15	13	2	.867
Ottawa	11	7	4	.636
Colorado	9	6	3	.667
Calgary	9	6	3	.667
Buffalo	10	6	4	.600
Vancouver	11	6	5	.545

GIGUERE OUTSTANDING IN OVERTIME:

With the Ducks' overtime loss April 27 vs. VAN in Game Two of the Western Conference Semifinals, J.S. Giguere snapped his OT shutout streak at 197:52, which is the longest OT playoff minute shutout streak in NHL history...Giguere's streak began on April 10, 2003 in the CQF vs. DET when the Ducks edged the Red Wings, 2-1 in triple overtime...in 250:47 career postseason OT minutes, Giguere has a 0.24 GAA and .990 SV% (101-for-102)...with two OT wins in the CSF vs. VAN (May 1 and May 3) and two in the WCF vs. DET (May 13 and May 20), he is now 12-1 in his career in overtime (7-0 in 2003, 1-0 in 2006 and 4-1 in 2007)...Giguere is the only player to post a 12-1 record in OT in his first 13 career playoff OT games...in addition, Giguere's OT winning percentage (.923) is the highest for any goaltender with 10-plus OT decisions:

BEST POSTSEASON OVERTIME RECORDS

(minimum of 10 overtime appearances)

PLAYER	Team	GP	W	L	WIN %
Jean-Sebastien Giguere	ANA	13	12	1	.923
Billy Smith	NYI	21	16	5	.762
Felix Potvin	TOR/LA	20	15	5	.750
Arturs Irbe	SJ/CAR	12	9	3	.750
Johnny Bower	TOR	11	8	3	.727

FIGUIERE TOUGH TO BEAT:

J.S. Giguere allowed two goals or less in 13 of his 18 appearances in the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs...he recorded a shutout on May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF when he stopped all 16 shots he faced...it was his sixth career postseason shutout, with the previous five coming in the 2003 playoff campaign (most recent: June 2, 2003 vs. NJ in Game Four of the SCF, also a 1-0 victory)...he finished the postseason 4th in the NHL with a 1.97 GAA and T-5th in the NHL with a .922 SV%, stopping 416-of-451 shots...in addition, he successfully stopped the only penalty shot he faced during the 2007 postseason on June 6 vs. OTT (A. Vermette @ 7:23 of the third period)...he won 13 of his 17 starts, including four OT victories (May 3 vs. VAN, May 1 @ VAN, May 13 @ DET and May 20 @ DET) and stopped all shots he faced coming on in relief of Ilya Bryzgalov on April 17 @ MIN...Giguere has appeared in 45 career postseason contests, posting a 31-13 record, with a 1.96 GAA and .929 SV%.

SWEDE SUCCESS FOR PAHLSSON:

Center Samuel Pahlsson, not usually known as a scorer (8-18=26 in 2006-07 regular season) became a major contributor to the Ducks offense during the postseason...Pahlsson recorded 3-9=12 points in 21 playoff games and was T-6th on the team in scoring...he recorded the GWG in two of the Ducks last five wins of the postseason...he scored the lone goal for the Ducks in their Game Two victory of the SCF on May 30 vs. OTT...in addition, Pahlsson scored the game-winner in the Ducks' series-clinching Game Six of the WCF vs. DET on May 22...he also led the league in postseason faceoff wins (249) and hits (79).

GETZLAF BREAKS THROUGH:

In just his second season, center Ryan Getzlaf was one of the more prolific scorers throughout the Ducks postseason run...he earned 7-10=17 points in 21 postseason contests, eclipsing his point total in the 2006 Stanley Cup Playoffs by 10 points (3-4=7)...Getzlaf led the club in scoring, was 2nd in goal scoring and 5th in the NHL in postseason scoring...in addition, he was T-2nd in the NHL in game-winning goals (3) and short-handed goals (1)...he also had a two-game goal streak (2-0=2) May 22-28 and scored three goals in the last six games (3-3=6)...Getzlaf collected 4-4=8 points in the last eight playoff games and 4-6=10 points in the last 11 games.

S. NIEDERMAYER SHINES IN OT:

On May 3 in the CSF, defenseman Scott Niedermayer scored the series-clinching OT goal against the Vancouver Canucks in the CSF...it was the first OT goal of his postseason career, while also holding the all-time regular season OT goal record among defensemen with 10...he added a second postseason OT goal, just 10 days after the first, on May 13 at Detroit in Game Two of the WCF (4-3 victory)...in addition, on May 20 in Game 5 of the WCF at Detroit, Niedermayer scored the game-tying goal with 48 seconds left before Teemu Selanne scored in OT to give the Ducks a crucial 2-1 victory...Niedermayer tied the record for most OT goals by a defenseman in one playoff year:

MOST OVERTIME GOALS BY DEFENSEMAN IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR

Year	Player	Team	Goals
2007	Scott Niedermayer	Anaheim	2
2002	Niclas Wallin	Carolina	2
1995	Chris Chelios	Chicago	2
1950	Leo Reise, Jr.	Detroit	2

CHECKING LINE BECOMES SCORING LINE:

The Ducks line combination of Samuel Pahlsson-Rob Niedermayer-Travis Moen was the Ducks checking line all season, but in addition to their defensive responsibilities, all three became prolific scorers in the postseason...the line combined for 15-19=31 points in 21 postseason games, including six GWGs...Moen recorded the game-winner in Game Five of the SCF on June 6 vs. OTT (also recorded the first two-goal game of his postseason career) and the OT goal in Game Four of the CSF on May 1 @ VAN...in addition, he also scored the game-winner in Game One of the SCF vs. OTT...Pahlsson had two game-winners (May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF, 1-0 victory and May 22 vs. DET in Game Six of the WCF, 5-3 victory) and R. Niedermayer had one game-winner (Apr. 15 vs. MIN in Game Three of the CQF)...the trio recorded a combined +24 rating throughout the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

PRONGER AT THE TOP OF HIS GAME:

In 19 postseason contests, Chris Pronger scored 3-11=14 points, which tied for 2nd on the team and 2nd in the NHL among defensemen...he was also T-7th in overall scoring, T-4th in overall assists and T-3rd in power play assists...the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs marked the 11th year he appeared in the postseason and recorded his second-highest career point total (5-16=21 points with EDM in 2005-06)...in addition, he was 4th in the NHL in avg. TOI with 30:11/g.

BATTLING BACK:

On May 1 @ VAN, the Ducks rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the third period, to eventually take the game in overtime...it marked the first time the club had successfully battled back from a two-goal deficit to win in postseason history...Travis Moen scored the game-winner, just over two minutes into the first overtime, marking his first career OT goal in the playoffs...with the Ducks' OT win, teams in the 2007 playoffs with a two-goal lead at any point in the game went 42-4...the only teams to come back from a two-goal deficit in the postseason are Detroit and Ottawa...Detroit rallied from two goals down twice to eventually beat San Jose 3-2 on both occasions (April 28 @ DET and May 2 @ SJ)...Ottawa came back from a two-goal deficit to win in double OT, 4-3 against Buffalo (May 12 @ BUF).

BROTHERS TEAMING UP WHEN IT COUNTS:

Brothers Scott and Rob Niedermayer both had vital roles in three of the Ducks' playoff victories...on May 3 in their series-clinching game vs. Vancouver in the CSF, Rob's hit on Jannik Hansen helped to turn the puck over for Scott's OT goal against Roberto Luongo...on May 13 at Detroit in the WCF, Rob had the first assist on Scott's second OT goal in as many games...in Game One of the Stanley Cup Final on May 28 vs. Ottawa, both Rob and Scott assisted on Travis Moen's game-winning goal as the Ducks held onto a 3-2 victory.

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

DEFENSE FIRST:

The Ducks allowed just 45 goals in 21 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff games...the club allowed an average of 2.14 goals-per-game, good for 3rd in the NHL in the postseason.

SHUTTING THE DOOR:

The Ducks 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff record when...

Category	Record
When scoring two or more goals in a game	15-1
When opponents are held to less than 35 shots	14-3
When not allowing a power play goal	9-1
When scoring first	10-2

SHARING THE LOAD:

Defensemen Francois Beauchemin (30:33/g), Chris Pronger (30:11/g) and Scott Niedermayer (29:50/g) were 3rd, 4th and 5th, respectively, in the NHL in avg. TOI... the only other playoff team that had three players in the top 10 in avg. TOI was Vancouver (Olund, 6th; Bieksa, 9th; Kesler, 10th), which was eliminated by Anaheim in the CSF on May 3.

MAC'S BIG NIGHT:

On April 25 vs. VAN, Ducks center Andy McDonald recorded his first career hat trick (regular or postseason)...in addition, it was the club's second playoff hat trick in franchise history...McDonald also added an assist for 3-1=4 points, tying the most points recorded by a Duck in playoff history...Joffrey Lupul scored 4-0=4 points on May 9, 2006 in the CSF vs. COL, recording the club's first-ever postseason hat trick and four-point game.

KUNITZ PROVIDES SUPPORT:

On April 25 vs. VAN, the Ducks scored three goals in the first period, the most in the opening session by the club in the 2007 postseason...left wing Chris Kunitz provided the assists on all three goals (0-3=3), marking the first time in club history a player has collected three assists in a single period in the playoffs.

SELANNE BREAKS YET ANOTHER CLUB RECORD:

On April 13 vs. MIN in Game Two of the CQF, Teemu Selanne's assist broke Paul Kariya's franchise record for career points in the postseason...he broke the club's playoff goals record May 23, 2006 @ EDM, scoring his 15th career postseason goal as a Duck.

BEAUCHEMIN REPEATS FEAT:

Francois Beauchemin's two goals April 13 vs. MIN marked the third time in club history a Ducks defenseman had scored two goals in a playoff game...Beauchemin has done it twice, also scoring two goals on April 25, 2006 vs. CGY (Game 3)...the only other Ducks defenseman to score two goals in a playoff game was J.J. Daigneault, who did so in Game Two of the CQF on April 18, 1997 vs. PHX.

NIGHT OWLS:

The Ducks' double-overtime, series-clinching win on May 3 vs. VAN in Game Five of the CSF was the club's seventh multiple-overtime game in club history...the Ducks have gone 4-3 in those seven games...the club's last multiple overtime game before May 3 came on April 27 in Game Two of the CSF vs. VAN (3-2, Cowan GWG).

HATCHING HEAD COACHES IN ANAHEIM:

Of the four teams that competed in the Western Conference Semifinals, three were led by coaches who received their NHL head coaching start in Anaheim...Ron Wilson (SJ) served as Anaheim's head coach from 1993-97, while Mike Babcock made his head coaching debut with the Ducks from 2002-04...Randy Carlyle has coached the Ducks for the past two seasons, helping the team advance to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history...Vancouver's head coach, Alain Vigneault, the only CSF coach to have not served in Anaheim, succeeded Carlyle as the head coach of the Manitoba Moose (AHL) in 2005...in addition, another Anaheim connection existed in the Stanley Cup Final...Ottawa head coach Bryan Murray was the head coach of the Ducks in 2001-2002, before taking over as GM of the club (2002-2004).

PLAYOFF DEBUTS:

On April 11 vs. MIN in Game 1 of the CQF, three Ducks made their career postseason debuts...Mark Hartigan, George Parros and Kent Huskins all took the ice for the first time in NHL postseason competition...the three players recorded a combined 17:42 of TOI and maintained an even plus/minus rating...Ryan Shannon made his postseason debut on April 13 vs. MIN...after two games as a healthy scratch, Shawn Thornton played in a postseason contest for the first time on April 15 @ MIN and went on to play in 15 games going scoreless with 19 PIM...after his recall on April 8, Aaron Rome made his postseason debut on April 17 @ MIN, logging 11:01 of ice time...Drew Miller appeared in his first playoff contest April 19 vs. MIN (2:15 TOI), which also happened to be his NHL debut, in addition, Miller played in Games One and Two of the SCF, going scoreless with a +1 rating and two PIM...Ryan Carter made his NHL career debut on May 17 vs. DET in Game Four of the WCF...he also appeared in Game Four of the SCF...Joe Motzko logged 6:16 of ice time and recorded three hits in his first career NHL playoff game on May 20 @ DET.

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF STATS

DUCKS SET PLAYOFF TEAM MARKS:

The Ducks set a club record for goals in a playoff season, scoring 46 times in 2006...other notable team records set in 2006, were most goals in a playoff game (6 @ EDM on 5/25), goals in a period (4, twice in 2006), penalty minutes in a playoff season (267) and penalty minutes in a series (vs. CGY)...the club also tied the mark for playoff goals in a series (17, vs. CGY; also vs. PHX in 1997).

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK:

Of the 128 team points (48-80=128) the Ducks scored during the postseason, Anaheim rookies accounted for 12-25=37 of them (28.9%)...the 37 rookie points were the most in one playoff year since the 1993 Los Angeles Kings had 40 rookie points...of the 16 goals the Ducks scored in the Western Conference Semifinals series versus Colorado, three were scored by rookies and all but three figured a rookie on the score sheet...the last time a team had six rookies play a game in the Conference Finals was the 1991 Boston Bruins (although only one, Jeff Lazaro, played all six games of the series).

TWO STILL PLAYING:

Anaheim was the only NHL organization to have both their NHL team and AHL affiliate reach each respective league's conference final...The Portland Pirates clinched the Atlantic Division Final Series, defeating the Hartford Wolfpack four games to two to advance to the Eastern Conference Final, where they fell to the Hershey Bears 4-3.

SIX IN A ROW:

With their Western Conference Semifinal series-clinching win in Game 4 (May 11) versus COL, the Ducks tied the franchise record for consecutive playoff victories with six...the record was set during the 2003 postseason from 4/10/03-4/26/03...the Ducks swept Detroit in the conference quarterfinals and won their first two games at Dallas in the conference semifinals.

13 UNANSWERED:

The Ducks scored 13 unanswered goals, from Game 6 (May 1) versus Calgary in the Western Conference Quarterfinals to Game 3 (May 9) versus Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals...the Flames scored at 10:18 of the first period and the Ducks scored 13 goals without allowing a goal against until Dan Hinote scored at 19:33 of the first period in Game 3...The last team to score 13 or more unanswered goals in the postseason was Detroit with 14 from 5/15/95-5/23/95.

MARCHANT TIES RECORD:

Ducks center Todd Marchant tied the club record for most assists in a playoff game with three in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals at Edmonton...the feat had been accomplished three times previously (Dustin Penner, 5/9/06 @ COL, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL).

NOBODY BEATS THE BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov tied an NHL record with three consecutive shutouts (done five times previously) in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals versus Calgary (May 3), Game 1 (May 5) and Game 2 (May 7) of the Conference Semifinal versus Colorado... In addition Bryzgalov's shutout sequence of 249:15, is the second-longest in NHL postseason history and is the longest ever by a rookie. Gerry McNeil previously held the rookie record at 218:42...Bryzgalov stopped 98 consecutive shots.

LONGEST SHUTOUT SEQUENCE BY A GOALTENDER IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR:

Streak	Goaltender	Team	Dates
270:08	George Hainsworth	Canadiens	3/28-4/3, 1930
249:15	Ilya Bryzgalov	Ducks	5/3-5/7, 2006
248:35	Dave Kerr	Rangers	3/25-4/6, 1937
248:32	Normie Smith	Red Wings	3/24-28, 1936
218:42	Gerry McNeil	Canadiens	3/27-31, 1951
217:54	J.S. Giguere	Ducks	5/5-16, 2003

FIRST IN 61 YEARS:

In Game 1 (May 5) versus COL, Ducks goaltender Ilya Bryzgalov became the first rookie to record consecutive shutouts in the playoffs since 1945...the last rookie goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in the postseason was Toronto's Frank McCool in April of 1945...McCool had three consecutive shutouts versus Detroit on April 6, 8 and 12... Bryzgalov tied him for the rookie record.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov is only the fourth rookie goaltender to win all four games of a playoff series sweep...the others are Chicago's Tony Esposito in 1970 vs. Detroit; Montreal's Jacques Plante in 1954 vs. Boston; Montreal's Bill Durnan in the 1944 Stanley Cup Finals versus Chicago.

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF STATS

BRYZ SHUTS THE DOOR:

Ilya Bryzgalov's shutout in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinals at Calgary was the first shutout by a rookie in a Game 7 since May 15, 1993, when Felix Potvin of Toronto shutout St. Louis...in addition, it was only the third shutout in a Game 7 by a rookie in NHL history as the New York Islanders' Chico Resch was the first goalie to do so in 1975 at Pittsburgh...Bryzgalov led the NHL in GAA (1.46), SV% (.944) and shutouts (3).

SELANNE WITH ANOTHER DUCK RECORD:

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne had points in seven straight playoff games (Apr. 23-May 5), scoring 4-5=9 points, tying a club record for longest playoff point streak (also, Dmitri Mironov (0-8=8 points), Apr. 24-May 8, 1997).

PENNER IN THE FRANCHISE RECORD BOOK:

With three assists in Game 3 (May 9) of the Conference Semifinals versus Colorado, Ducks left wing Dustin Penner tied the franchise record for most assists in a playoff game (done twice previously, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL)...his three assists are the first ever recorded by a rookie in a single playoff game in team history.

RALLY:

Anaheim's Western Conference Quarterfinal win versus Calgary marked the second time the club has ever rallied from a series deficit to win (also 1997, down 3-2 vs. PHX, won series 4-3).

DECIDING RECORD:

With their 3-0 victory in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinal at Calgary, the Ducks improved their record in Game 7s to 2-1...the win at Calgary was the Ducks' first series clinching game on the road...in their first ever Game 7 (April 29) versus Phoenix in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks won 3-0...in Game 7 (June 9) of the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals, the Ducks dropped a 3-0 decision to the New Jersey Devils.

PERFECT IN GAME 6:

With a 2-1 victory in Game 6 (May 1) in Anaheim, the Ducks extended their perfect record in Game 6s to four games...below is a list:

Date	Series	Opponent Score
May 1, 2006	CQF vs. CGY	W, 2-1
June 7, 2003	SCF vs. NJ	W, 5-2
May 5, 2003	CSF vs. DAL	W, 4-3
April 27, 1997	CQF @ PHX	W, 3-2 (OT)

TWO FOR THE ROOKIES:

Mighty Ducks defenseman Francois Beauchemin's two goals (both PPGs) in Game 3 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals set a club record for goals in a playoff game by a rookie...in addition, he tied the club record for most goals in a playoff game (eight times previously), most goals by a defenseman in a playoff game (J.J. Daigneault, Game 2 of CQF, April 18, 1997) and most power play goals in a playoff game (Adam Oates, Game 4 of WCF, May 16, 2003)...Dustin Penner tied the record with two goals in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals.

OH WHAT A NIGHT:

In Game 3 (May 9) at Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals, Joffrey Lupul scored all four of the Ducks goals, including the game-winner in overtime...in doing so, he became the first player in NHL playoff history to score four goals, including the overtime winner...the four-goal game was the first ever by a Ducks player in the postseason or regular season...he's the first player to account for all four of his team's goals in a win since Maurice "Rocket" Richard did so on March 23, 1944...the feat had been accomplished twice previously...prior to Lupul's four goals, the last player to score four goals in a playoff game was Theo Fleury on May 13, 1995 for the Flames in a 6-4 win over San Jose...below is a list of players to account for all four of their teams goals:

PLAYERS TO SCORE 4+ GOALS, ACCOUNTING FOR ALL HIS TEAM'S GOALS (NHL PLAYOFF HISTORY)

Date	Teams	Goals
05/09/2006	ANA 4 vs COL 3	Joffrey Lupul 4 (win)
04/26/1993	NYI 4 at WAS 6	Ray Ferraro 4 (loss)
04/10/1986	CHI 4 vs TOR 6	Denis Savard 4 (loss)
03/23/1944	MTL 5 vs TOR 1	Rocket Richard 5 (win)
03/22/1919	MTL 4 at SEA 2	Newsy Lalonde 4 (win)

LUPUL'S BIG NIGHT:

Ducks right wing Joffrey Lupul became the first Ducks player to score four goals in a playoff or regular season game...in addition, Lupul broke the playoff record for goals in a series; he had six in four games in the Western Conference Semifinal series versus Colorado (Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne each had five goals in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals versus Phoenix, seven games)...he has also eclipsed the record for goals in a playoff season with nine (seven was the previous record, done three times: Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in 1997, 11 games; and Steve Rucchin, 2003, 21 games)...his three-game goal streak (6-0=6) from May 7-11, is the longest goal streak in club playoff history.

2003 PLAYOFF NOTES

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP:

The Ducks finished the 2003 playoffs with a record of 15-6, recording the highest winning percentage in the NHL (.714)...the Ducks had a 9-1 record at home during the playoffs, second only to New Jersey's 12-1 mark...Anaheim swept the Minnesota Wild to win the Western Conference Championship, advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in club history...the Ducks became the second post 1990's expansion team to reach the Finals, following the Florida Panthers in 1996 (vs. Colorado)...since the NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup Finals after the 1926 season, the Ducks were only the fourth team in league history from the Pacific Time Zone to reach the Finals (Vancouver in 1994 and 1982, Los Angeles in 1993).

TEAM DEFENSE LEADS TO NHL RECORD:

The Ducks set an NHL record in their Western Conference Finals series vs. Minnesota, allowing the fewest goals against in a best-of-7 series by allowing just a single marker to the Wild...Andrew Brunette scored at 4:37 of the first period in Game Four to notch the first Minnesota goal...the 1935 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1952 Detroit Red Wings each surrendered two goals in four-game series.

OVERTIME MAGIC FOR DUCKS IN 2003:

The Ducks went 7-0 in overtime in the 2003 playoffs, becoming the first team in NHL playoff history to go undefeated in OT when playing in at least six such contests...the seven consecutive overtime wins were second only to the 1993 Canadiens (10) for consecutive OT wins during one playoff season (Montreal finished 10-1 in OT)... Anaheim was the first team in NHL history to win four games in overtime in their first six postseason contests (Ducks were also the sixth team in NHL history to PLAY in four OT games in the first six playoff contests...the Ducks also became the first team since the 1994 Vancouver Canucks (April 26-30) to win three straight playoff games in overtime (no team has ever won four straight)...the Ducks won three straight spanning Game 4 of the conference Quarter-Finals (Apr. 16) and Games 1 & 2 of the conference Semi-Finals (Apr. 24-26)...the Ducks had six different goal scorers in the seven overtime games (Sykora had two; Kariya, Rucchin, Leclerc, Thomas and Salei had one).

DUCKS TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS AT HOME:

The Ducks finished 9-1 at home in the playoffs, including seven-straight home wins to end the postseason (second longest of '03 playoffs, behind New Jersey's eight)...the club's only loss was a 2-1 setback to Dallas in Game 3 of the Conf. Semifinals...the Ducks earned a record of 3-1 in Game 3, 4-0 in Game Four and 2-0 in Game 6...the club out-scored the opposition 26-to-13 at home this postseason...the Ducks allowed one-goal-or-fewer on five occasions.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES:

The Ducks had a remarkable 12-1 record in the 2003 playoffs in games decided by one goal-or-less... the 12 one-goal wins tied the most in league history during one playoff year (also 1993 Canadiens)... The Ducks two-goal win in Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals broke a string of nine consecutive wins by a one-goal margin (4/10/03 - 5/10/03), which broke the record for one playoff year...the previous record was seven, done twice before (1989 Canadiens and 2001 Kings)...five of the games needed overtime to be decided... the Ducks eight consecutive one-goal decisions to start the playoffs tied the record for one playoff year (1989 Canadiens).

MOST 1-GOAL WINS IN A SINGLE POST SEASON:

Year	W	L
1993 Montreal Canadiens	12	1
2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	12	1
2000 Dallas Stars	10	4
2000 New Jersey Devils	9	5
2002 Carolina Hurricanes	9	4

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

The Ducks went 8-for-70 (11.4%) overall on the power play in the postseason (ranking 13th)...the club was 61-for-70 (87.1%) on the penalty kill (ranking fifth)...Anaheim scored its first-ever shorthanded goal in a playoff game in Game 1 @ DAL (4/24/03 - Rob Niedermayer) and had three in the playoffs (tied for most in NHL with Ottawa).

OFF AND RUNNING:

The Ducks began the playoffs on a six-game winning streak, which was the longest of the 2003 playoffs... by going 6-0 vs. Detroit and Dallas, Anaheim became the first team in NHL history to win six-straight games to start the playoffs vs. teams that had over 100+ points in the regular season...in addition, the Ducks joined the former Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars) as the only teams in NHL history to start the postseason as a road team and win six-straight...the North Stars won six straight from April 8-19, 1981.

2003 PLAYOFF NOTES

5	Toronto Maple Leafs	4/13/01 - 4/26/01

GIGUERE MAKES HISTORY IN OT:

J.S. Giguere owns the longest scoreless OT minutes streak in NHL playoff history...he surpassed Patrick Roy to set an NHL record in Game 3 vs. New Jersey and has a current streak of 168:27...with three shutouts vs. Minnesota in the Conference Finals, Giguere was the sixth netminder in NHL history to record three consecutive playoff shutouts and the first to do so in the Conference Finals or NHL Semifinals...Giguere joined Clint Benedict (Montreal Maroons, 1926), John Ross Roach (New York Rangers, 1929), Frank McCool (Toronto, 1945), Brent Johnson (St. Louis, 2002) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa, 2002) for that record...he also tied an NHL Playoff Record for most shutouts in a series, set eight times previously, including twice last season by Brent Johnson (St. Louis) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa)...below is a closer look:

1999 PLAYOFF NOTES

BACK IN THE PLAYOFFS:

The Mighty Ducks finished the regular season with a 35-34-13 mark for 83 points, finishing sixth in the Western Conference. The Detroit Red Wings finished 43-32-7 for 93 points in the regular season, finishing third in the Western Conference. The two clubs met in the first round of the 1999 NHL Playoffs; the Ducks' second appearance in the post-season and the second playoff meeting in three years between Anaheim and Detroit. The Red Wings won the series four games to none, ending the Ducks' season with a 3-0 win @ Anaheim on Apr. 27. Teemu Selanne (2-2=4) and Paul Kariya (1-3=4) led Anaheim in playoff scoring. Marty McInnis co-lead the team in goals with two power play tallies (tying with Selanne). Steve Yzerman led the Red Wings with 5-2=7 points in the series, including three power play goals. Brendan Shanahan (3-3=6), Sergei Fedorov (1-5=6) and Nicklas Lidstrom (0-6=6) all had six points in the four games. Chris Osgood was 4-0 with a 1.50 GAA in the series.

GAME ONE @ DETROIT (APRIL 21, 1999), RED WINGS 5, MIGHTY DUCKS 3:

Steve Yzerman scored three goals (Anaheim's first-ever opponent hat trick in the playoffs) while Paul Kariya (1-2=3) and Steve Rucchin (0-3=3) earned three-point games each for the Ducks in a 5-3 Detroit win. Marty McInnis (first career playoff goal) scored the first goal of the game on the power play and Teemu Selanne netted a goal in the third. Rucchin's three assists were a Ducks playoff record. Wendel Clark and Doug Brown scored the other goals for Detroit. Guy Hebert left the game midway through the second period after getting hit in the head and was relieved by Tom Askey, who stopped nine-of-11 shots in his NHL playoff debut.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (APRIL 23, 1999), RED WINGS 5, MIGHTY DUCKS 1:

Brendan Shanahan scored 2-1=3 points in the first period to lead Detroit to a 4-0 lead at the first intermission and eventually a 5-1 win. Teemu Selanne scored Anaheim's lone goal on the power play from Paul Kariya and Fredrik Olausson. Three of Detroit's five scores came with the man-advantage, going 3-of-9 on the evening. Guy Hebert stopped 31-of-36 shots.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 25, 1999), RED WINGS 4, MIGHTY DUCKS 2:

Steve Yzerman scored the game-winning goal on a 5-on-3 power play early in the second period and Detroit went on to a 4-2 win. Sergei Fedorov scored the first goal of the game early in the first period before Marty McInnis and Jason Marshall (first career playoff goal) scored to put the Ducks ahead by a 2-1 score. Tomas Holmstrom tied the game early in the second period before Yzerman's game-winner. Both clubs went 2-for-6 on the power play and finished with 24 shots on goal.

GAME FOUR @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 27, 1999), RED WINGS 3, MIGHTY DUCKS: 0:

Chris Osgood stopped all 31 shots he faced in a 3-0 win, clinching the series for the Red Wings. Tomas Holmstrom scored late in the second period on the power play to put the Wings ahead 1-0. Brendan Shanahan and Vyacheslav Kozlov added third period goals for Detroit to seal the win. The Red Wings went 1-for-2 on the power play, while the Ducks were 0-for-4. Detroit outshot Anaheim 38-31. Paul Kariya missed the contest with a broken left foot, suffered late in Game Three.

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

Anaheim went 4-20 (.200) on the power play in the series vs. Detroit and 16-23 (.696) on the penalty kill... the Ducks scored a power play goal in three-of-four games vs. Detroit in '99...Anaheim has never scored a shorthanded goal in a playoff game.

1997 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

FRANCHISE FIRSTS:

A few of the Mighty Ducks playoff "firsts" from the club's first-ever playoff game on April 16, 1997 vs. Phoenix: 1st Playoff Goal - Teemu Selanne (8:57 of 1st - pp); 1st Assists - J.J. Daigneault & Paul Kariya; 1st Win - Guy Hebert; 1st Penalty - Warren Rychel (cross-check)...Guy Hebert recorded the club's first-ever playoff shutout in Game 7 (Apr. 29, 1997), giving Anaheim its first-ever playoff series win.

PLAYOFF LEAGUE LEADERS:

Paul Kariya ranked T-12th in playoff scoring and T-12th in goals with 7-6=13 pts. Kariya also ranked T-2nd in power play goals with 4; Dmitri Mironov ranked T-3rd among defensemen scoring with 1-10=11 pts. Mironov's 10 assists ranked T-9th in overall assists; J.J. Daigneault ranked T-8th among defensemen scoring with 2-7=9 pts; Teemu Selanne ranked T-12th in goals with 7.

PLAYING THE EVENTUAL CHAMPS TOUGH:

Anaheim was eliminated from the 1997 Playoffs by the eventual Stanley Cup Champion Detroit Red Wings in the Western Conference Semifinals, 4-0. The Mighty Ducks extended the Red Wings to overtime in three of those contests, including one double overtime game and one triple overtime game. Two of those overtime games came at Detroit. Guy Hebert and Mikhail Shtalenkov combined for a 2.45 GAA and .942 SV%. Only St. Louis had a better GAA (2.18) vs. Detroit in the postseason, while Anaheim was tops in save percentage vs. the Wings. The Mighty Ducks converted 36.4% of their power plays in the series - highest vs. Detroit in the playoffs.

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

The Ducks finished 10-40 on the power play in the 1997 playoffs (.250)...Anaheim finished the Phoenix series with a 6-29 conversion on the power play (.207), scoring a pp goal in all but two of the seven games...Anaheim was 4-for-11 on the power play vs. Detroit (.364) and recorded a pp goal in eight of its 11 total playoff games...Anaheim gave up only six power play goals in 44 situations in the playoffs (.864)...Anaheim held Phoenix to only three goals in 25 shorthanded situations (.880) in their first round playoff series, including stopping 16-of-17 over the last five games of the series...The Mighty Ducks stopped Detroit on 16-of-19 shorthanded situations in the series (.842) and stopped 32 of the last 36 shorthanded situations in the playoffs (.889).

PLAYOFF OVERTIME:

Anaheim finished 1-3 in overtime playoff games, including a 3-2 win @ Phoenix in Game Six on Apr. 27, 1997 (Paul Kariya)...the Mighty Ducks' 2-1 overtime loss on May 2, 1997 @ Detroit marked the club's first OT loss since Dec. 17, 1995 vs. Toronto, a span of 26 OT games without a loss, including playoffs (8-0-18 in that streak). That game also represented Anaheim's first-ever road overtime loss (Ducks were 8-0-15 all-time in road overtime games prior to Game One's 2-1 loss @ Detroit on May 2).

The Mighty Ducks became just the seventh team in NHL history to win its inaugural playoff series, defeating the Coyotes, four games to three. Anaheim came back from a 3-2 deficit in the series, becoming only the 29th of 82 teams (35.4%) to win a series after being down 3-2 since 1968...Anaheim jumped out to a 2-0 series lead, winning the first two games at the Arrowhead Pond by identical 4-2 scores. Teemu Selanne (3-2=5) and J.J. Daigneault (3-2=5) led the Ducks' attack, helping Anaheim to a two-game lead in the series...Phoenix won the next two games at America West Arena to even the series at 2-2. The series shifted back to Anaheim for Game Five where Phoenix won its third-straight game to take a 3-2 series lead... In Game Six, the Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix at America West Arena, 3-2, in overtime to even the series at 3-3. Paul Kariya scored two goals, including the game-winner in OT...The Mighty Ducks won their first-ever playoff series, defeating Phoenix, 3-0, in Game Seven. David Karpa scored the series-winning goal early in the first period of Game Seven. Guy Hebert stopped all 31 shots faced to earn his first career playoff shutout...Paul Kariya finished as the leading scorer in the series (5-4=9). Teemu Selanne (5-3=8), Dmitri Mironov (1-6=7), and J.J. Daigneault (2-5=7) finished among the top scorers versus Phoenix. Cliff Ronning (0-7=7), Keith Tkachuk (6-0=6), Teppo Numminen (3-3=6), and Jeremy Roenick (2-4=6) led Phoenix scorers in the series.

GAME ONE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 16), ANAHEIM 4, PHOENIX 2:

The first playoff game in Mighty Ducks history saw Anaheim take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven series vs. Phoenix, defeating the Coyotes at the Arrowhead Pond. Teemu Selanne and Paul Kariya each netted first period goals to give Anaheim a 2-0 lead. Jeremy Roenick cut the deficit in half with his 36th career playoff goal early in the second period. Anaheim and Phoenix traded goals later in the period as Selanne scored his second goal of the game and Keith Tkachuk scored on the powerplay for the Coyotes. Kariya scored his second goal of the game (empty net) at the 19:13 mark of the third period to put the game away for the Ducks. Selanne (2-1=3), Kariya (2-1=3) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) each finished with multiple-points for Anaheim, while Cliff Ronning and Teppo Numminen chipped in two assists a-piece for Phoenix. The game was broadcast nationally on ESPN.

GAME TWO @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 18), ANAHEIM 4, PHOENIX 2:

The Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix to take a 2-0 advantage in the best-of-seven series. J.J. Daigneault was the offensive star for the Ducks, earning his second-straight multiple-point game (2-1=3). Daigneault's second goal of the contest (13:26 of the third period) turned out to be the game-winner, giving Anaheim a 3-2 lead. Teemu Selanne scored an empty net goal with seven seconds remaining to give the Ducks the 4-2 victory. Selanne earned his second-straight multiple-point game of the playoffs (1-1=2), giving him five points (3-2=5) in two games, tying Daigneault (2-3=5) as the leading scorers in the series. Dmitri Mironov also recorded multiple-points (1-1=2) for Anaheim. Guy Hebert stopped 36-of-38 shots to earn the win.

GAME THREE @ PHOENIX (APRIL 20), PHOENIX 4, ANAHEIM 1:

The Coyotes cut Anaheim's lead in half, winning the first game back at America West Arena. Phoenix scored the first three goals of the game before Paul Kariya scored on the power play, cutting the deficit to 3-1 after one period. The game remained 3-1 until late in the third period when Mike Gartner put the game away with his first goal of the series. J.J. Daigneault earned his sixth point in the series, assisting on Kariya's goal. Darrin Shannon led the Phoenix attack, scoring his first two goals of the playoffs and Cliff Ronning recorded three assists, giving him 0-6=6 points in the series.

GAME FOUR @ PHOENIX (APRIL 22), PHOENIX 2, ANAHEIM 0:

The series is tied, 2-2, after Anaheim was shutout by the Coyotes at America West Arena. The Mighty Ducks had an apparent third period goal by Steve Rucchin disallowed after video replay found an Anaheim skater in the crease. The game remained scoreless until the 12:45 mark of the third period when Bob Corkum gave Phoenix the lead. Teppo Numminen added an empty net goal to give the Coyotes a 2-0 win. Guy Hebert stopped 23-of-24 shots faced, taking the loss.

1997 PLAYOFF NOTES

GAME FIVE @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 24), PHOENIX 5, ANAHEIM 2:

The Mighty Ducks fell to the Coyotes, at the Arrowhead Pond to trail the best-of-seven series, 3-2. Phoenix took a 1-0 lead late in the first period on Keith Tkachuk's fourth goal of the series. Anaheim tied the score at the 17:37 mark of the first period when Teemu Selanne netted his fourth goal of the playoffs. Selanne's goal ended a drought in which the Mighty Ducks had not scored in 118:48 (previous Anaheim goal was by Paul Kariya at the 18:49 mark of the first period in Game Three). The Coyotes scored the next two goals before Selanne earned his second goal of the game to cut the deficit to 3-2. Bob Corkum scored his second goal of the series and Keith Tkachuk added an empty net goal to give Phoenix the 5-2 decision. Guy Hebert stopped 19-of-23 shots, taking the loss.

GAME SIX @ PHOENIX (APRIL 27), ANAHEIM 3, PHOENIX 2 (OT):

The Mighty Ducks defeated Phoenix in overtime to even the series at 3-3. Paul Kariya scored his fourth goal of the playoffs and Brian Bellows added his first of the series to give Anaheim a 2-0 lead after two periods. Darrin Shannon scored midway through the third period to cut the Ducks' lead to 2-1, followed by Keith Tkachuk's sixth goal of the playoffs tying the score at 2-2 and sending the game into overtime. In the extra period, Teemu Selanne lofted a long, high pass that Kariya controlled and fired past Nikolai Khabibulin at the 7:29 mark of overtime to give Anaheim the 3-2 victory. Dmitri Mironov added two assists for the Mighty Ducks and Steve Rucchin earned his first-ever playoff point, assisting on Kariya's game-winner.

GAME SEVEN @ ANAHEIM (APRIL 29), ANAHEIM 3, PHOENIX 0:

Guy Hebert stopped all 31 shots he faced in earning his first-ever playoff shutout. David Karpa scored the series-winning goal just 3:11 into the game while Steve Rucchin and Joe Sacco added goals in the second period to lead the Ducks' offense. All three scores marked each player's first goals of the playoffs. Karpa finished the game with 1-1=2 points in a game that saw only three penalties called. Anaheim became only the seventh team in NHL history to win its first-ever playoff series.

Paul Kariya celebrates his OT game-winning goal in Game Six

After defeating Phoenix in the first round, Anaheim was matched up with the number three seed in the West, the Detroit Red Wings. The Mighty Ducks had defeated the Red Wings, 3-0-1, in the regular season series. The playoff series between the two would have a different result, with Detroit winning the first four games, eliminating Anaheim from the 1997 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Though Detroit officially earned a sweep in the series, it was a lot closer than the numbers would indicate. Three of the games went into overtime, including one that went into double overtime and one that went into triple overtime. The goaltenders were the stars of the series, with Guy Hebert, Mikhail Shtalenkov and Mike Vernon combining for 333 total saves on 354 total shots (.941 SV%). Paul Kariya (2-2=4) and Dmitri Mironov (0-4=4) led Anaheim in scoring for the playoff series while Sergei Fedorov (2-3=5), Vyacheslav Kozlov (3-1=4), and Vladimir Konstantinov (0-4=4) led Detroit in scoring.

GAME ONE @ DETROIT (MAY 2), DETROIT 2, ANAHEIM 1 (OT):

The Mighty Ducks were defeated by Detroit in Game One at Joe Louis Arena, giving the Red Wings a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series. The game was scoreless until the 19:00 mark of the second period, when Paul Kariya scored his sixth goal of the playoffs to give Anaheim a 1-0 lead. Detroit evened the score midway through the third period, with Sergei Fedorov scoring his first goal of the post-season, sending the game into overtime. Fedorov's goal was Detroit's first goal vs. Anaheim since March 12 at the Arrowhead Pond, snapping the Mighty Ducks' shutout streak vs. the Red Wings at 145:13. The goal was also the first allowed by Hebert in the playoffs since Game 6 of the Quarterfinals @ Phoenix (a span of 120:46). In the extra period, Martin Lapointe scored on a two-on-one break just 59 seconds into overtime to give the Red Wings the 2-1 win. Guy Hebert stopped 28-of-30 shots, taking the loss.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (MAY 4), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (3 OT):

The Mighty Ducks played the longest game in team history (since surpassed), going into three overtime periods before dropping a 3-2 decision to the Red Wings. Vyacheslav Kozlov scored a power play goal at the 1:31 mark of the third overtime to give Detroit the win. There were 101:31 minutes of hockey played in the game that began at 2:08 p.m. and ended at 7:39 p.m. The two clubs combined for 122 shots (Wings - 71, Ducks - 51), the third-most shots by two teams in NHL playoff history. Detroit's 71 shots rank third all-time for one team. These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Kozlov's power play goal marked Detroit's first goal with a man-advantage vs. Anaheim this season (the Ducks had stopped all 22 Wings power plays faced this season before Kozlov's score). Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 38-of-40 shots in relief of Guy Hebert, who left the game due to injury (Shtalenkov entered the game at the 7:02 mark of the third period). Jari Kurri scored his first goal of the playoffs while Teemu Selanne added his sixth of the post-season with just 3:07 left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (MAY 6), DETROIT 5, ANAHEIM 3:

The Red Wings came back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1 to take a 5-3 win in Game Three at the Arrowhead Pond. Anaheim took an early 2-0 lead on power play goals from Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in the first period. Ted Drury scored early in the second to give Anaheim a 3-1 lead, but the Red Wings scored two goals to knot the score at three entering the third period. Detroit outshot Anaheim, 23-6, in the second period and 49-23 in the game. Sergei Fedorov and Vyacheslav Kozlov scored two goals just 24 seconds apart at the beginning of the third to give the Wings their third win of the series. Kariya (1-1=2) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) had multiple-point games for the Mighty Ducks. Mikhail Shtalenkov, starting in place of injured Guy Hebert, stopped 44-of-49 shots in the loss (career-highs in both saves and shots until Game Four).

GAME FOUR @ ANAHEIM (MAY 8), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (2 OT):

The Red Wings defeated the Mighty Ducks, 3-2 in double overtime, to sweep the best-of-seven series, 4-0. Joe Sacco and Brian Bellows each scored their first goals of the series to give Anaheim a 2-1 lead after two periods. Nicklas Lidstrom scored for Detroit at the 9:09 mark of the third period, sending the game into overtime. After a scoreless first overtime, Brendan Shanahan scored the game-winner for the Red Wings at the 17:05 mark of the second overtime, sending Detroit to the Western Conference Finals for the third-straight season. Paul Kariya picked up an assist, giving him 2-2=4 points in the series and 7-6=13 points in the playoffs to lead the Mighty Ducks. Dmitri Mironov assisted on Brian Bellows' goal, finishing second on the club with 1-10=11 points. Ken Baumgartner assisted on Sacco's goal, earning his first point of the post-season. Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 70-of-73 shots in the loss. The 70 saves rank tied-for-second for saves in one NHL playoff game (record is 73) while Detroit's 73 shots rank second all-time for one NHL playoff game (record is 75). These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Over the final three games of the series, Shtalenkov faced 162 shots (54 shots per game), stopping 152 (.938 SV%).
