Terry Pegula | Owner

Back in 1983, Terry Pegula told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., "If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I'm going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day." Almost 30 years later, Terry's dream came to fruition.

A New Era of Sabres Hockey

On Feb. 22, 2011, Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. The day Pegula was introduced as owner, the Sabres were 27-25-6 and sat in ninth place in the Eastern Conference - five points out of a playoff spot. Pegula's purchase not only reenergized the fan base, but the players as well. With Pegula now at the helm, the Sabres went on a 16-4-4 run over the final 24 games of the season to finish seventh in the East. This included a 9-1-2 record at home, with every remaining home game selling out.

The momentum of the new era would stretch well into the offseason as the home of the Sabres – renamed First Niagara Center in August 2011 – began a multimillion dollar facelift. The renovations, which were completed in time for the 2011-12 season, included a new, state-of-the-art locker room with updated training and rehabilitation areas, player lounge and coaching offices. Along with the locker room transformation, First Niagara Center underwent several other upgrades with a focus on providing the best possible game day experience for Sabres fans. This commitment to providing a first-rate environment for players and fans quickly earned Buffalo the label of 'Hockey Heaven.'

Buffalo fans responded to this new era of Sabres hockey in an overwhelming fashion. In 2011-12, the Sabres sold out every game at First Niagara Center except one. The fans that couldn't watch the games in-person at the arena watched in near-record numbers on TV, earning the Sabres the second-highest local ratings in the NHL. The excitement incited by Pegula doesn't appear to be subsiding any time soon; the season ticket renewal rate reached 99% for the second year in a row and the waiting list has grown to include over 3,000 names.

In 2012, Pegula looked to make an even bigger impact on the City of Buffalo, using hockey as a catalyst. On Aug. 29, it was announced that the city had selected Pegula and his development team to develop and construct HARBORcenter, a $172 million multipurpose facility that will sit directly across from First Niagara Center in the city's Canalside District. HARBORcenter will be anchored by two new NHL-size ice rinks that will be open for community use and a 200-room, full-service Marriott hotel. In addition to the ice rinks and hotel, there are plans for an upscale, hockey-themed sports bar and restaurant, additional retail space and a parking structure.

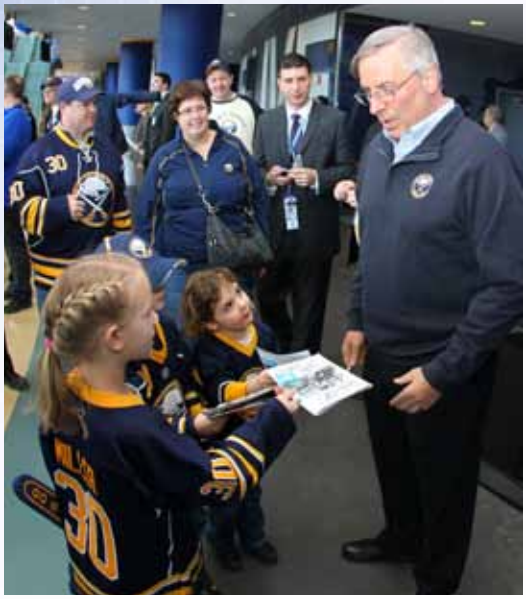
HARBORcenter is expected to draw more than 500,000 people to downtown Buffalo annually and, coupled with First Niagara Center, will provide a premier destination for hockey fans, right in the heart of 'Hockey Heaven.'

Expanding the Pegula-Hockey Footprint

On September 17, 2010, Terry and his wife, Kim, donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena and a world-class practice facility, and to help establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. In 2012, the Pegulas announced they would increase their donation to the Nittany Lion hockey program to $102 million.

Thanks to their generosity, Penn State has been able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams, with both teams beginning play at Pegula Ice Arena in 2012-13. The building will include two ice sheets, and serve as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it will also be used for a broad range of campus and community activities.

Terry Pegula | Owner



Rochester Reunion

Shortly after purchasing the Sabres, Pegula explored the idea of acquiring the Rochester Americans, the AHL team that had previously spent 29 years as the Sabres' affiliate before a three-year hiatus. On June 24, 2011, the Sabres announced the reunification of the Western New York teams as Pegula became the owner of the Amerks and continued one of the longest and most successful partnerships between an NHL and AHL club.

The 'Hockey Heaven' mindset was quickly adopted in Rochester as well and, like the Sabres, the Amerks experienced a momentum change. The Americans had the highest jump in attendance in the AHL in 2011-2, a 44.5% increase from the previous season, and vaulted from 25th in league attendance to 13th in just one season. As the Amerks progressed into the Calder Cup playoffs, fans were attending the games in numbers not seen since 1990.

A Hockey Fan and a Business Man

Pegula's interest in the NHL began when the Sabres faced the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. His affection for the "French Connection" line began with that series, and led to his affinity for the Sabres franchise. While operating East Resources Inc. in Western New York and Pittsburgh throughout the 1980s and '90s, and living in Vestal, Olean and Orchard Park during that span, Terry first bought season tickets at the Memorial Auditorium in 1980. He remained a loyal Sabres season ticket holder for the next 18 seasons.

Born in 1951 and raised in Carbondale, Pa., he attended high school at Scranton Preparatory School. Pegula entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973, and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that first brought him to Olean, N.Y., in 1975.

In 1983, he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to found East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and development company. Over the next 27 years, he built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. for $4.7 billion (US). That sale allowed the Pegulas to make their first foray into the hockey world.

Beyond Hockey

Together, the Pegulas have expanded their interests in the sports field by acquiring Atlanta-based France AllPro Athlete Management, a high-profile NFL player agent firm headed by Todd France, in December 2011. The Pegulas also own Impact Sports Performance, an elite athletic training facility in Boca Raton, Fla.

Beyond the sports world, Terry and Kim also founded Black River Entertainment, a country music label based in Nashville, Tenn.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, Fla., and have five children: Michael (35), Laura (31), Jessica (19), Kelly (17) and Matthew (14). Pegula's younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo.

A native of nearby Rochester, N.Y., Kim Pegula is a 1991 graduate of Houghton College with a degree in Communications, and was involved with East Resources since 1991. In 2011, Kim donated $12 million to her alma mater to support the construction of new athletic facility, the Kerr-Pegula Sports Complex.

Theodore Black | President & Alternate Governor

As president of the Buffalo Sabres, Ted Black oversees all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the franchise, with specific focus on making the Buffalo Sabres the premier destination for NHL players and the Sabres' current and future employees. In addition, Black provides strategic and creative leadership in areas including corporate partnerships, advertising, NHL relations, team marketing, Sabres television broadcasts, fan relations and ticket sales.

During the last decade, Black has compiled a track record of success and experience that few sports executives can match. Black is an accomplished leader who contributed to and presided over unprecedented growth with both the Pittsburgh Penguins and FSN Pittsburgh. He enjoys close relationships with top executives, corporate sponsors, professional sports teams, television networks and at the National Hockey League.

In late 2010, Terry Pegula enlisted Black to undertake the task of assembling and leading the group of professionals to advise Mr. Pegula on the acquisition of the Buffalo Sabres. Black's responsibilities included guiding the transaction negotiations, due diligence and NHL approval process.

Since taking charge of the Sabres and its business operations, Black has continued to keep the organization as one of the strongest small-market clubs in the NHL. During the past three seasons, the club's season-ticket holder base has grown to its highest levels in decades, with an annual renewal rate hovering around 99 percent, and a waiting list of more than 3,000 people. Additionally, the team has set game attendance records while also increasing the capacity of First Niagara Center, pushing it into the top 10 largest arenas (by capacity) in the league.

Under Black's guidance, the Sabres continue to be one of the NHL's most popular draws on television as well. The team's games on MSG have posted the league's second-best local TV ratings for the past two seasons (2011-12, 2012-13) and Buffalo continues to be one of the strongest hockey-viewing markets for nationally televised contests on NBC and NBC Sports Network.

Black is also helping to guide the Sabres' expansion and transition to HARBORcenter, a $172 million multipurpose hockey and entertainment facility that will sit directly across from First Niagara Center in Buffalo's Canalside District. This one-of-a-kind project has led to partnerships with Marriott International, to develop a 200-room full-service hotel at the complex, and also with Canisius College, which will use HARBORcenter's two NHL-size ice rinks as its home arena when the complex opens in September 2014.

HARBORcenter is expected to draw more than 500,000 people to downtown Buffalo annually and, coupled with First Niagara Center, will be a premier destination for hockey.

Before his move to the Sabres, Black served as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of FSN Pittsburgh, a regional sports television network that produced and telecasted more than 220 live pro events and 1500 hours of programming per year. Under Black's executive leadership, FSN Pittsburgh grew advertising revenues every year and telecast a record number of live pro events. The station also generated record revenues, record earnings, record ratings and was widely recognized as the #1 rated US-based Regional Sports Network in the National Hockey League.

Prior to his tenure at FSN, Black was a member of Mario Lemieux's senior management team and served as Vice President of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1999 to 2008. Black was a member of the core group of executives that helped Lemieux execute one of the most successful franchise transformations in the history of professional sports. Ted was intimately involved in all senior executive-level decisions and strategic planning concerning the marketing, branding, sales and overall business operations and management of the team. In addition to being a key strategist during the Penguins' efforts to get a new arena, Black served as the day-to-day project leader for the new arena during the pre-construction phase of the project. He also interviewed and helped to recruit Ray Shero to become the club's General Manager. Black was active with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins and served as the team's Alternate Governor to the AHL.

In 2005, Black was honored and recognized by Pittsburgh Magazine as a "Forty Under Forty" community leader.

Black is a 1987 graduate of Allegheny College and he received his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1990. Ted and his wife, Amy, live in the Elmwood Village section of the City of Buffalo. They have two sons, Andrew and Nathan.

Ken Sawyer | Senior Advisor

Ken Sawyer is entering his third year as Senior Advisor for the Buffalo Sabres. Sawyer's primary duty is to assist owner Terry Pegula on major organizational and hockey-related decisions for the franchise.

Ken's working career spans 40 years, including 14 as the Chief Financial Officer of the National Hockey League and 11 years as a senior executive of the Pittsburgh Penguins. He joined the Penguins in September 1999, the day after the team emerged from bankruptcy protection under a new ownership group led by Mario Lemieux. He first served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, becoming President in 2003 and later being appointed Chief Executive Officer in 2006.

Under his leadership, the Penguins adopted a strategic plan to ensure that the team would be successful both on the ice and as a business, and thus be assured of a long future in Pittsburgh. During his tenure, the on-ice product was rebuilt and now consists of one of the best rosters of young players in the NHL, including superstars Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin. In 2009, the team reached the pinnacle of success on the ice, winning the Stanley Cup for the third time in franchise history. As CEO, Ken oversaw all of the Penguins' operations and the team has emerged as a tremendous success off the ice as well, selling out every game since early 2007. Ken led efforts to finance and then construct the CONSOL Energy Center, which opened in August 2010.

Ken also has extensive experience in League matters after representing the Penguins as a Governor of the NHL and serving as Chief Financial Officer of the NHL for 14 years. During that time he served on every major committee of the NHL.

Ken is a graduate of McGill University in his native Montreal, Que., and a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. He is a past member of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Hero Fund and a current member of the Board of Trustees of the Heinz History Center in Pittsburgh. In 2010, Ken was honored as a recipient of the Management Achievement Award from the Faculty of Management at McGill University. Ken and his wife, Shirley, reside in Stuart, Fla. and have two married sons and three grandchildren.

Cliff Benson | Chief Development Officer

In 2013-14, Cliff Benson will be entering his third year as chief development officer with the Buffalo Sabres. Benson's main duties as chief development officer are overseeing the Buffalo Sabres Foundation and other initiatives throughout the Buffalo and Western New York communities.

Previously, Benson served the team as a senior advisor and was instrumental in the purchase of both the Sabres, in February 2011, and the team's AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, in June 2011, by Sabres owner Terry Pegula. Benson was also instrumental in facilitating Pegula's $88 million donation to help launch a Division-I men's ice hockey program at Pennsylvania State University in 2011.

In 2012, Benson led a team that secured yet another piece of Pegula's hockey footprint by developing HARBORcenter, a $172 million multipurpose hockey and entertainment facility that will sit directly across from First Niagara Center in the city's Canalside District. Benson also led negotiations to partner HARBORcenter with Marriott International, to develop a 200-room full-service hotel at the complex, and also with Canisius College, which will use HARBORcenter's two NHL-size ice rinks as its home arena when the complex opens in September 2014.

HARBORcenter is expected to draw more than 500,000 people to downtown Buffalo annually and, coupled with First Niagara Center, will be a premier destination for hockey.

Benson, a CPA and attorney, served the Deloitte Tax LLP organization for 37 years, including 10 years as lead client service partner in the market place function. He became partner in 1981 and served in the New York and South Florida offices before transferring to Pittsburgh and eventually retiring in May 2010.

In 2000, Benson, along with members of the Pittsburgh Penguins Alumni, formed Hockey in the Hood. Founded with a grant from the National Hockey League's Diversity Task Force and assistance from the Pittsburgh Penguins, Hockey in the Hood (now called Pittsburgh ICE) was one of 40 major diversity ice hockey programs throughout the United States and Canada with the goal of reaching underprivileged inner-city children by teaching them skating and ice hockey lessons.

Benson served as the lead client service partner for the worldwide services provided to the United States Steel Corporation and H.J. Heinz. Other clients served over his long career at Deloitte include Armco, Bayer Corporation, Marathon Oil, PPG Industries, Rockwell International, the Pittsburgh Penguins and East Resources.

Benson is passionate about serving the community and has been actively involved in charitable organizations for most of his career – primarily those that benefit inner city children with limited opportunities. He is affiliated with Hasek's Heroes, SABAH, Imani Christian Academy (Board Chair), Pittsburgh Kids Foundation, and Silver Ring Thing. Cliff was privileged to make three trips to Haiti bringing medical relief following the 2010 earthquake.

Darcy Regier | General Manager

The 2013-14 season will be the 17th year Darcy Regier serves as general manager for the Buffalo Sabres, the longest tenure of any GM in the 43-year history of the franchise and currently the fourth-longest tenure for any general manager in the NHL. The Sabres have posted a regular season record of 586-443-167 under Regier's guidance, while also advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1999 and making four Eastern Conference Finals appearances (1998, 1999, 2006 and 2007). Regier oversees all aspects of the Sabres' hockey operations, as well as the operations of its AHL affiliate club, the Rochester Americans. As head of Buffalo's and Rochester's hockey departments, Regier is in charge of the largest network of scouts in the National Hockey League.

Regier and his scouting staff have consistently built a solid foundation of talent, year after year, through the NHL Entry Draft, believing in drafting and developing players within the Buffalo-Rochester system. Proof of their drafting success can be seen every time the Sabres take the ice. In the lockout-shortened 2012-13 season, six of the team's top 10 scorers were acquired by the Sabres through the Entry Draft and have spent time with the team's AHL affiliates. This list includes Thomas Vanek, Tyler Ennis, Drew Stafford and Marcus Foligno – all of whom are still under contract with the Sabres.

The long-term success of Regier's draft picks can often be spotted early, as his draft picks have made a habit of scooping up numerous AHL awards while playing for the Sabres' affiliate teams. AHL award-winners have included two consecutive AHL Rookie of the Year winners: Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11), and AHL Goaltender of the Year Ryan Miller for the 2004-05 season. His draft selections have gone on to win awards at the NHL level as well, with Miller being awarded the 2010 Vezina Trophy, 2008 first-round selection Tyler Myers winning the Calder Trophy that same year and Jhnoas Enroth being named to the All-Rookie Team in 2012.

Regier has found a lot of success in the earlier rounds of the draft. Buffalo's current roster includes several players who were drafted in the first or second round since Regier's first draft in 1997, including: Vanek (1st, 2003), Myers (1st, 2008), Ennis (1st, 2008), Stafford (1st, 2004), Jhonas Enroth (2nd, 2006), Mike Weber (2nd, 2006), Mark Pysyk (1st, 2010), Mikhail Grigorenko (1st, 2012) and recently re-acquired Henrik Tallinder (2nd 1997).

In the past two years, Regier has made a splash with his highly praised draft classes. The 2012 and 2013 draft classes have been some of the most fruitful in team history, yielding a total of four first-round draft selections and three second-round selections. In the 2013 NHL Entry Draft, Buffalo made a franchise-record 11 picks and drafted its highest selection (Rasmus Ristolainen, 8th overall) since picking fifth overall (Vanek) in the 2003 draft. The 2012 and 2013 drafts helped the Sabres solidify its foundation of young talent and the club has been recognized as having one of the best and most promising pools of prospects in the NHL.

The hockey department's success hasn't been limited to draft day. Several trades and free agent signings have landed Buffalo some of their most valuable contributors over the past few seasons including Cody Hodgson (acquired via trade in 2012), Steve Ott (acquired via trade in 2012), Christian Ehrhoff (acquired via trade in 2011), Alexander Sulzer (acquired via trade in 2012) and Ville Leino (acquired in free agency in 2011).

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served in roles with the New York Islanders as director of hockey administration, assistant coach, and assistant general manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as general manager, president, chairman of the board and consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career in hockey. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Executive Team

Darcy Regier | General Manager

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Regier was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 penalty minutes. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings senior vice president Jim Devellano, then the team's general manager.

During his playing career, Regier was also involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence and have three sons: Jonathan, Justin and Jarrett.

Kevin Devine | Assistant General Manager

Kevin Devine begins his 16th year with the Buffalo Sabres and his third as assistant general manager. In this role, Devine oversees all aspects of the organization's scouting staff, which has grown to be the largest in the NHL. Devine is also instrumental in making Buffalo's NHL Entry Draft selections.

Prior to being named assistant general manager, Devine served as the director of amateur scouting for eight years. Prior to that, Devine spent six years as a professional scout in the Sabres organization and two as an assistant amateur scout. Before joining the Sabres, he spent three years coaching the Prince Edward Island Senators of the AHL. He also coached in the UHL, with stints in Port Huron and Thunder Bay.

Devine enjoyed an 11-year professional playing career. He spent five years in the WHA, including three with the San Diego Mariners and two with the Indianapolis Racers. He went on to spend six seasons in the New York Islanders organization, where he was a reserve on the organization's first Stanley Cup Championship team.

Devine resides in Buffalo, N.Y. during the hockey season, and spends his off seasons in Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Ron Rolston | Head Coach

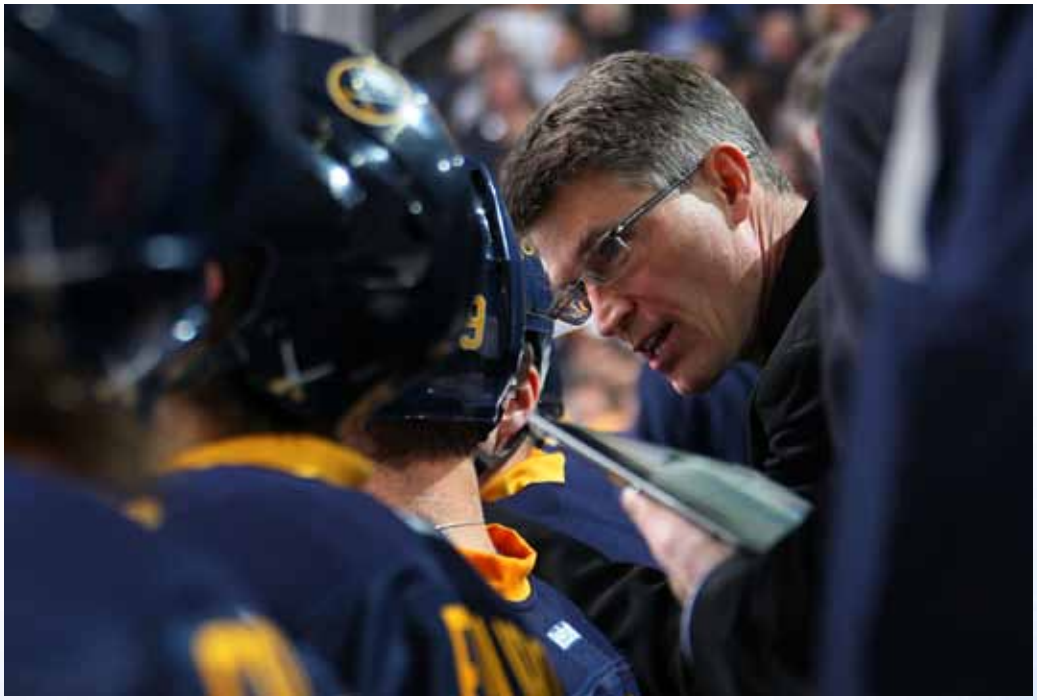
Ron Rolston was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on May 7, 2013, after guiding the Sabres to a 15-11-5 record in the 31 games he served as interim head coach during the 2012-13 season. Prior to joining the Sabres in February 2013, he was the head coach of the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League (AHL). In his two seasons (2011-12, 2012-13) as coach of the Americans, Rolston compiled a 63-44-17 regular-season record.

Before joining the Americans as head coach in 2011, Rolston spent seven seasons as head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, where he became the first coach in U.S. history to lead the United States Under-18 team to three gold medals (2005, 2009, 2011) at the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Under-18 Championship, adding a silver medal (2007) in his other appearance as head coach.

In addition to coaching at the Under-18 and Under-17 levels, Rolston also served as head coach for the U.S. National Junior Team at the IIHF U20 World Championship in 2007 and 2009. In 2007, he led Team USA to the bronze medal.

Rolston joined USA Hockey after serving as an assistant coach at four different NCAA Division I hockey programs (Lake Superior State University, 1990-1995; Clarkson University, 1996-1999; Harvard University, 1999-2002; Boston College, 2002-2004) between 1990 and 2004, winning National Championships in 1992 and 1994 with Lake Superior State University.

A native of Fenton, Mich., Rolston played left wing at Michigan Technological University for three seasons before spending one season in the ECHL, playing for the Winston-Salem Thunderbirds. His younger brother, Brian, recently retired after playing 17 years in the NHL. Rolston and his wife, Shannon, live in the Buffalo area with their two children, Maeve and Ronan.



Joe Sacco | Assistant Coach

After being named an assistant coach in July 2013, Joe Sacco begins his first season with the Buffalo Sabres in 2013-14. Sacco spent the previous four seasons, from 2009-10 to 2012-13, as head coach of the Colorado Avalanche. Under his guidance, the Avalanche compiled a 130-134-30 record, including Colorado's 40-30-9 campaign in 2009-10 that earned the team a berth in the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs. The team's performance that season, which was Sacco's first as an NHL head coach, put him on the list of finalists for the Jack Adams Award as the league's best coach.

In spring 2013, Sacco was the head coach of Team USA at the 2013 IIHF World Championship in Stockholm, Sweden. Sacco's squad advanced to the semifinal round of the tournament and eventually won the bronze medal.

Prior to the Avalanche, Sacco served as head coach of Colorado's AHL affiliate, the Lake Erie Monsters, from 2007-08 to 2008-09. With Sacco at the helm, the Monsters compiled a 60-79-21 record through the two seasons. He has also served as an assistant coach with the Lowell Lock Monsters (AHL), the Albany River Rats (AHL) and with Team USA at the 2009 and 2010 IIHF World Junior Championships.

Sacco, who retired from playing professional hockey in 2003, played in the NHL for 13 seasons. Drafted by Toronto in the fourth round (71st overall) in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft, he went on to play right wing for the Maple Leafs, Anaheim, the New York Islanders, Washington and Philadelphia. Through 738 NHL games, Sacco amassed 213 points (94+119) and 421 penalty minutes. Internationally, Sacco played for the United States at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France, as well as appearing with Team USA at six World Championships.

The Medford, Mass. native attended Boston University for three years, suiting up with the Terriers for 111 games from 1987-88 to 1989-90.

Teppo Numminen | Assistant Coach

Teppo Numminen is entering his third season as an assistant coach for the Buffalo Sabres.

Numminen returned to the Sabres in 2011 after a 20-year career in the NHL as a defenseman. He finished his career as a Sabre, having played in 212 games over four seasons, compiling 86 points (6+80) for the club. Originally selected by Winnipeg in the 2nd round (29th overall) of the 1986 Entry Draft, Numminen went on to play for four different NHL clubs: the Winnipeg Jets (1988-1995), the Phoenix Coyotes (1996-2003), the Dallas Stars (2003-04) and the Buffalo Sabres (2005-2009). Over the course of his prolific playing career, Numminen played in 1,372 games, which is a record for the most games played by a European-trained player in the NHL. In his entire NHL career, Numminen amassed 637 points (117+520).

Since his retirement from professional hockey after the 2008-09 season, Numminen has also spent time as a scout with the Finnish National Team.

A native of Tampere, Finland, Numminen now resides in Clarence, N.Y. with his wife, Ann-Marrit, and their three children.

Jerry Forton | Assistant Coach

Jerry Forton begins his first season with the Buffalo Sabres after being hired as an assistant coach in August 2013.

Forton, an 18-year collegiate coaching veteran, comes to the Sabres after serving on the coaching staffs for the men's ice hockey teams at Harvard, UMass Lowell and Niagara University. Most recently, he has been an assistant coach at Harvard for the past two seasons. In his first season with the Crimson, Forton assisted a Harvard squad that reached the ECAC championship game.

Before being hired as an assistant coach of the Crimson, Forton served as an assistant coach at UMass Lowell for two seasons. The 2009-10 season, Forton's first at Lowell, was a landmark campaign for the program. The River Hawks reached as high as No. 3 in the national polls and tied for third place in Hockey East at season's end.

During his 13-year tenure at Niagara, Forton helped transform the Purple Eagles to an NCAA Division I tournament team in 2000, '04 and '08. Niagara's 1999-2000 squad finished with a 30-8-1 record and reached the NCAA semifinals. Niagara won four conference regular-season championships and four tournament titles in Forton's time there. The Purple Eagles ranked among the nation's top 20 in six of their 11 Division I seasons and posted Division I's longest home unbeaten streak in a quarter-century with a 23-game undefeated run.

In addition to his collegiate coaching, Forton has served as a presenter, team head coach and evaluator at USA Hockey festivals and has been a presenter at NCAA Youth Education through Sports Clinics.

A graduate of the University at Buffalo, Forton was inducted into the Bulls' Sports Hall of Fame as a hockey and soccer player. He and his wife, Laura, live in the Buffalo area with their daughters, Madison (8) and Rose (3).

Jim Corsi | Goaltending Coach

Jim Corsi enters his 16th year as the Sabres'goaltending coach. His duties with the team involve working with the Sabres' NHL netminders, as well as the team's prospects throughout the minor leagues. Under his tutelage, many goaltenders, including current Sabres goaltender Ryan Miller, have benefited tremendously from Corsi's unique style both on and off the ice.

Corsi brings with him over 20 years of experience as a player, coach, manager and hockey analyst. Besides his NHL duties with the Sabres, Corsi also currently works with the Italian National Team program. Previously, he held the position of goaltending coach with the Canadian Women's Team (1997-98), Ottawa University (CIAU) (1997-98), Schwenningen HC (Ger/DEL) (1997-98), St. Michael's Majors (OHL) (1994-97), McGill University (CIAU) (1992) and Concordia University (CIAU) (1992-present). Corsi is a member of the Concordia University Athletic Hall of Fame in hockey and soccer.

As a professional player in North America, Corsi played with the Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars, as well as the Quebec Nordiques of the WHA. Corsi continued his career overseas, playing international hockey in Europe, Russia and China from 1980-92. During that time, he was a member of the Italian National Team at the 1984 Winter Olympic Games, and represented Italy several times in the World Ice Hockey Championships.

Corsi is fluent in English, French, Italian and German.

Corsi and his wife, Cathy, reside in Ile Bizard, Quebec.

Doug McKenney | Strength & Conditioning Coach

Doug McKenney begins his 20th year with the Sabres' coaching staff. His duties with the team include working on strength and conditioning programs with the NHL club, the AHL affiliate Rochester Americans, Sabres draft choices and potential draftees. He also works with physical therapists and team doctors on the rehabilitation of all injured players.

McKenney was named the team's first-ever strength and conditioning coach in July 1995 and has been steadily improving the team's performance levels ever since.

McKenney places a special emphasis on teaching players nutrition to maintain conditioning throughout the season and make strength gains in the offseason. He and his strength staff formulate nutritionally sound regimens with specific menus for game and practice days at the team's facilities, as well as prepared suggestions for players to follow during the offseason and while eating at home. McKenney also utilizes mobile applications to analyze each player's food intake and makes suggestions on how they can improve their diets. Before the players leave for the offseason, McKenney, in conjunction with the hockey department, devises a strength and conditioning program tailored to each player's individual needs. For those players who remain in Buffalo, McKenney supervises their off-season conditioning and skating programs at the team's training facilities.

In the offseason, McKenney is responsible for developing and executing the testing and evaluation of potential draft picks at the team's combine leading up to the NHL Entry Draft. He and his staff also devise the team's annual summer rookie development camp.

McKenney joined the Sabres after serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the Hartford Whalers for six years. He served in the same capacity for the Pittsburgh Penguins the four years prior.

A 1981 graduate of Springfield College, McKenney taught two years of physical education at Dover High School in New Hampshire, where he served on the coaching staff of the school's football team and was elected into the Dover Sports Hall of Fame in September of 2002. He subsequently obtained his master's degree in exercise physiology at Mississippi State University.

Doug and his wife, Suzanne, reside in Hamburg, N.Y., with their two sons, Matthew and Neil.

John Allaire | Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

John "J.T." Allaire begins his third year with the Sabres organization as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Allaire gained 17 years of experience at both the collegiate and professional levels. He spent eight years with the Buffalo Bills, starting in 2002 as a strength and conditioning assistant. He was promoted in 2006 and spent four years as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator. While with the Bills, he coached 15 players that appeared in the Pro Bowl.

Allaire began his career in 1993 as a strength and conditioning intern at Boston College before being hired at Clemson as a graduate assistant. From Clemson, Allaire was hired at Tulsa and served as strength and conditioning assistant from 1996-97. In 1998, Allaire was promoted to director of strength and conditioning, a position he held until 2002. While at Tulsa, Allaire was responsible for all strength and conditioning programs for 18 intercollegiate sports. He was recognized as the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year for the Western Athletic Conference and was a nominee for the national award in 2000.

Allaire earned his bachelor's degree in health fitness from Springfield College (Mass.) in 1993. He lives in Lakeview with his wife, Amy, and their sons, Drew and Owen.

Corey Smith | Administrative Assistant Coach

Corey Smith returns to the organization for his ninth season as the Sabres' administrative assistant coach. In this role, he is responsible for all of the video editing and analysis of games, as well as pre-scouting each opponent. Smith is also involved in various other hockey department tasks, including organizing travel schedules and statistical analysis.

Smith, a graduate of SUNY Cortland, joined the Sabres in January 2005 as a hockey video analyst in the team's hockey department. Smith was promoted to his new position in January 2006. The Buffalo, N.Y. native is the son of former Sabres forward Derek Smith.

Jon Christiano | Director of Pro Scouting

Jon Christiano is entering his 16th season with the Sabres organization and begins his sixth season as director of pro scouting. It will also be his ninth season with the scouting department. Prior to beginning his current role in the department, Christiano spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. During his tenure there, the Americans earned five playoff berths and two appearances in the Calder Cup Finals.

Before joining the Sabres, Christiano spent four years in the Florida Panthers organization. In Florida, Christiano worked for two years on the coaching staff with the late Roger Neilson, as well as former Sabres head coach Lindy Ruff. Christiano also worked two years as an assistant coach with the Panthers' AHL affiliate, the Carolina Monarchs. Christiano also spent time with Neilson as the video coordinator for the New York Rangers. He has worked with nine present or past NHL coaches over the course of his career.

From 1981-1991, Christiano coached in Italy, where he had a number of different roles. More recently, he has been involved with the Italian National Team as an assistant coach in four different World Championships from 2004-2008.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Christiano graduated from Canisius College in 1980, where he played in their hockey program. He and his wife, Linda, reside in Grand Island, N.Y. with their three children: Christiana, Natalia and Joseph.

Mark Jakubowski | Assistant to the General Manager

Mark Jakubowski begins his ninth year with the Sabres and sixth as the assistant to the general manager. His responsibilities include statistical and salary cap analysis, contract research relating to player negotiations and arbitrations, managing player transfers, team roster administration, and all matters relating to compliance with the NHL Collective Bargaining Agreement and other NHL agreements.

Jakubowski also assists with the American Hockey League hockey operations of the team's minor league affiliate, the Rochester Americans.

Jakubowski graduated with an economics degree from the University of Rochester, where he also played baseball. He resides in Hamburg, N.Y.

Scott Schranz | Director of Hockey Analytics/ Hockey Technologies

Scott Schranz enters his 16th season in the Sabres organization, and his second as the director of hockey analytics and hockey technologies. Schranz has a variety of responsibilities within the amateur scouting department, including scheduling, overseeing the budget, and NHL Entry Draft preparation.

Schranz has held numerous positions throughout his tenure with the Sabres. After spending four years as an intern, he spent two years in the Public Relations department and has been in the hockey department for the past four years. He was instrumental in developing the Sabres' video scouting system, and still oversees the technical aspects of it.

Schranz currently resides in Hamburg, N.Y.

Tim Macre | Athletic Trainer

Tim Macre enters his ninth season with the Sabres after spending the previous nine years in the New York Rangers organization. Macre was the head athletic trainer for the Hartford Wolf Pack and the Binghamton Rangers in the American Hockey League.

Among the highlights in his tenure with the Wolf Pack were the 2000 Calder Cup Championship and the 2001 AHL All-Star Classic in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton.

A 1994 graduate of Bowling Green State University, Macre also spent time teaching at Monroe Community College in Rochester, NY. In addition to his athletic training certification, Macre is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

Macre resides in Lancaster, N.Y., with his wife, Katie, and their children, Andrew (6), Ashley (4) and Cameron (2).

Bob Mowry | Assistant Athletic Trainer

Bob Mowry is entering his third season with the Sabres as an assistant athletic trainer. Mowry will assist with player treatment and training room needs on a daily basis.

Mowry received his master's degree in exercise science from the University at Buffalo. Mowy also served as the assistant athletic trainer at St. Lawrence University from 2008-2011. Before joining the staff at St. Lawrence, Mowry was a training room assistant for the Sabres during the 2007-08 season. He resides in Buffalo, N.Y. with his wife, Susan.

Chuck Garlow | Massage Therapist

Chuck Garlow enters his 12th season as the team's massage therapist. In this role, he works with the training and strength and conditioning staffs to help in the rehabilitation of players. Prior to joining the Sabres' training staff, Garlow spent five seasons with the Buffalo Blizzard in the same role. In 1995, Garlow earned his New York State license from NYIM and gained his national certification upon graduation. He also has a B.A. from SUNY at Fredonia. Garlow is a native of Ransomville, N.Y.

Rip Simonick | Equipment Manager

Robert "Rip" Simonick is entering his 43rd season with the organization as Buffalo's equipment manager. Simonick, the longest tenured equipment manager in the National Hockey League, continues to assist with player equipment needs and requests at home and on the road.

Simonick's roots in professional hockey begin before the Sabres ever dropped their first puck. Simonick began as a stick boy with the Buffalo Bisons of the American Hockey League in 1964. After the team captured their 1969 Calder Cup in their last year of existence, Simonick was hired by then newly appointed Sabres general manager Punch Imlach to join the new team's equipment staff. On Jan. 15, 2009, Simonick worked his 3,000th NHL game when the team played the Dallas Stars. Rip has also worked three NHL All-Star games (1974, 1989 and 2005). Among his favorite moments are the 1975 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2000.

Dave Williams | Equipment Manager

David Williams returns for his ninth season with the Sabres as an equipment manager. Among many other duties, Williams is responsible for the purchase and inventory of all team equipment and uniforms, as well as skate sharpening and all other equipment needs during each game.

Williams graduated from Plattsburgh State, where he was a student manager with the university's hockey team from 1992-1995. After graduation, Williams became the head equipment manager for the Knoxville Cherokees/Pee Dee Pride in the East Coast Hockey League. Before joining the Sabres, Williams was the head equipment manager for the Rochester Americans in the American Hockey League from 1998-2005.

Williams resides in North Chili, N.Y. with his wife, Tammy, and children, Maxwell (10) and Marni (8).

George Babcock | Assistant Equipment Manager

George Babcock is entering his 21st season with the Sabres organization. As the assistant equipment manager, his duties include issuing and maintaining equipment, locker room setup and preparing the day-to-day supplies needed by the team at both First Niagara Center and the Northtown Center. Before joining the Sabres, Babcock assisted the team at their practice facility, Sabreland. Babcock is a graduate of Starpoint High School. He resides in Williamsville, N.Y.

Keith Hayes | Equipment Assistant

Keith Hayes is entering his third season with the Sabres as an equipment assistant. Hayes has been a part of the Sabres equipment staff since the 1996-97 season, when he began working as a locker room attendant. In his current role, his duties include acting as the primary contact for all visiting teams while in Buffalo. His other duties include transporting the visiting team, assisting in locker room setup and preparing game day supplies and equipment. Hayes, a native of Western New York, currently resides in West Seneca.

Michael Gilbert | VP of Public & Community Relations

Michael Gilbert begins his 16th season with the Sabres organization and his 18th year overall in the National Hockey league. Gilbert oversees the Public Relations and Community Relations departments for the Sabres, as well as for the Buffalo Bandits (NLL). He is also responsible for supervising the youth hockey and fan development initiatives for the organizations and serves as the team liaison to the Buffalo Sabres Foundation. He is also intimately involved in the design and construction of the $172.2 million HARBORcenter project across from the First Niagara Center that will open in September 2014. Gilbert is a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame Committee and the Board of Directors for the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Prior to joining the Sabres, Gilbert was the director of public relations for the New Jersey Devils from 1995-1997. He was part of a staff in New Jersey that earned the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's Dick Dillman Award for excellence in public relations for the 1996-97 season. Gilbert's success followed him to the Sabres where the Communications Department was acknowledged with the Dillman Award in 1997-98. Before his move to the NHL, Gilbert was the assistant director of public relations for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for four years (1991-95), assisting with the day-to-day operations of that team's PR department. His football background also includes stints as assistant director of public relations for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the WLAF (1990) and as a graduate assistant with the Buffalo Bills (1988-90).

Gilbert grew up in the Buffalo suburb of Tonawanda and graduated from Canisius College in Buffalo in 1990 with degrees in communications and history. He and his wife, Amy, reside in Amherst, NY, with their sons, Mark (14) and Jack (12), and daughter, Grace (10).

Chris Bandura | Director of Media Relations

Chris Bandura enters his ninth season with the organization and third as the Sabres' director of media relations after spending his first six seasons as the team's media relations coordinator. As the primary contact between the team and the media at home and on the road, Bandura is responsible for arranging interviews, coordinating press conferences and assisting in game-day operations. Bandura also oversees the day-to-day operations of the public relations staff. Before joining the Sabres, Bandura spent two years as the media relations coordinator for the Rochester Sports Group, which included the Rochester Americans hockey team (AHL), Rochester Raging Rhinos soccer team (USL First Division), Rochester Knighthawks (NLL) and Rochester Rattlers (MLL). Prior to his stint in Rochester, Bandura was the vice president of operations for the Columbus Landsharks of the National Lacrosse League (2001-03). He has also spent time in the NLL Front Office as the director of media relations (1999-00). A 1999 graduate of Utica College of Syracuse University, Bandura was born and raised in Cheektowaga, NY. He and his wife, Kimberly, reside in West Seneca, NY, with their daughter, Rosalie, and son, Charlie.

Ian Ott | Public Relations Assistant

Ian Ott begins his third season as a public relations assistant and fourth season with the organization. Ott joined the Sabres' Public Relations Department as a graduate assistant before the 2010-11 season and became a full-time employee in July 2011. Some of Ott's primary duties include serving as the editor for the team's media guide, preparing game notes and writing press releases. He is also responsible for overseeing day-to-day media relations efforts for the Buffalo Bandits. Marc Heintzman | Public Relations Assistant

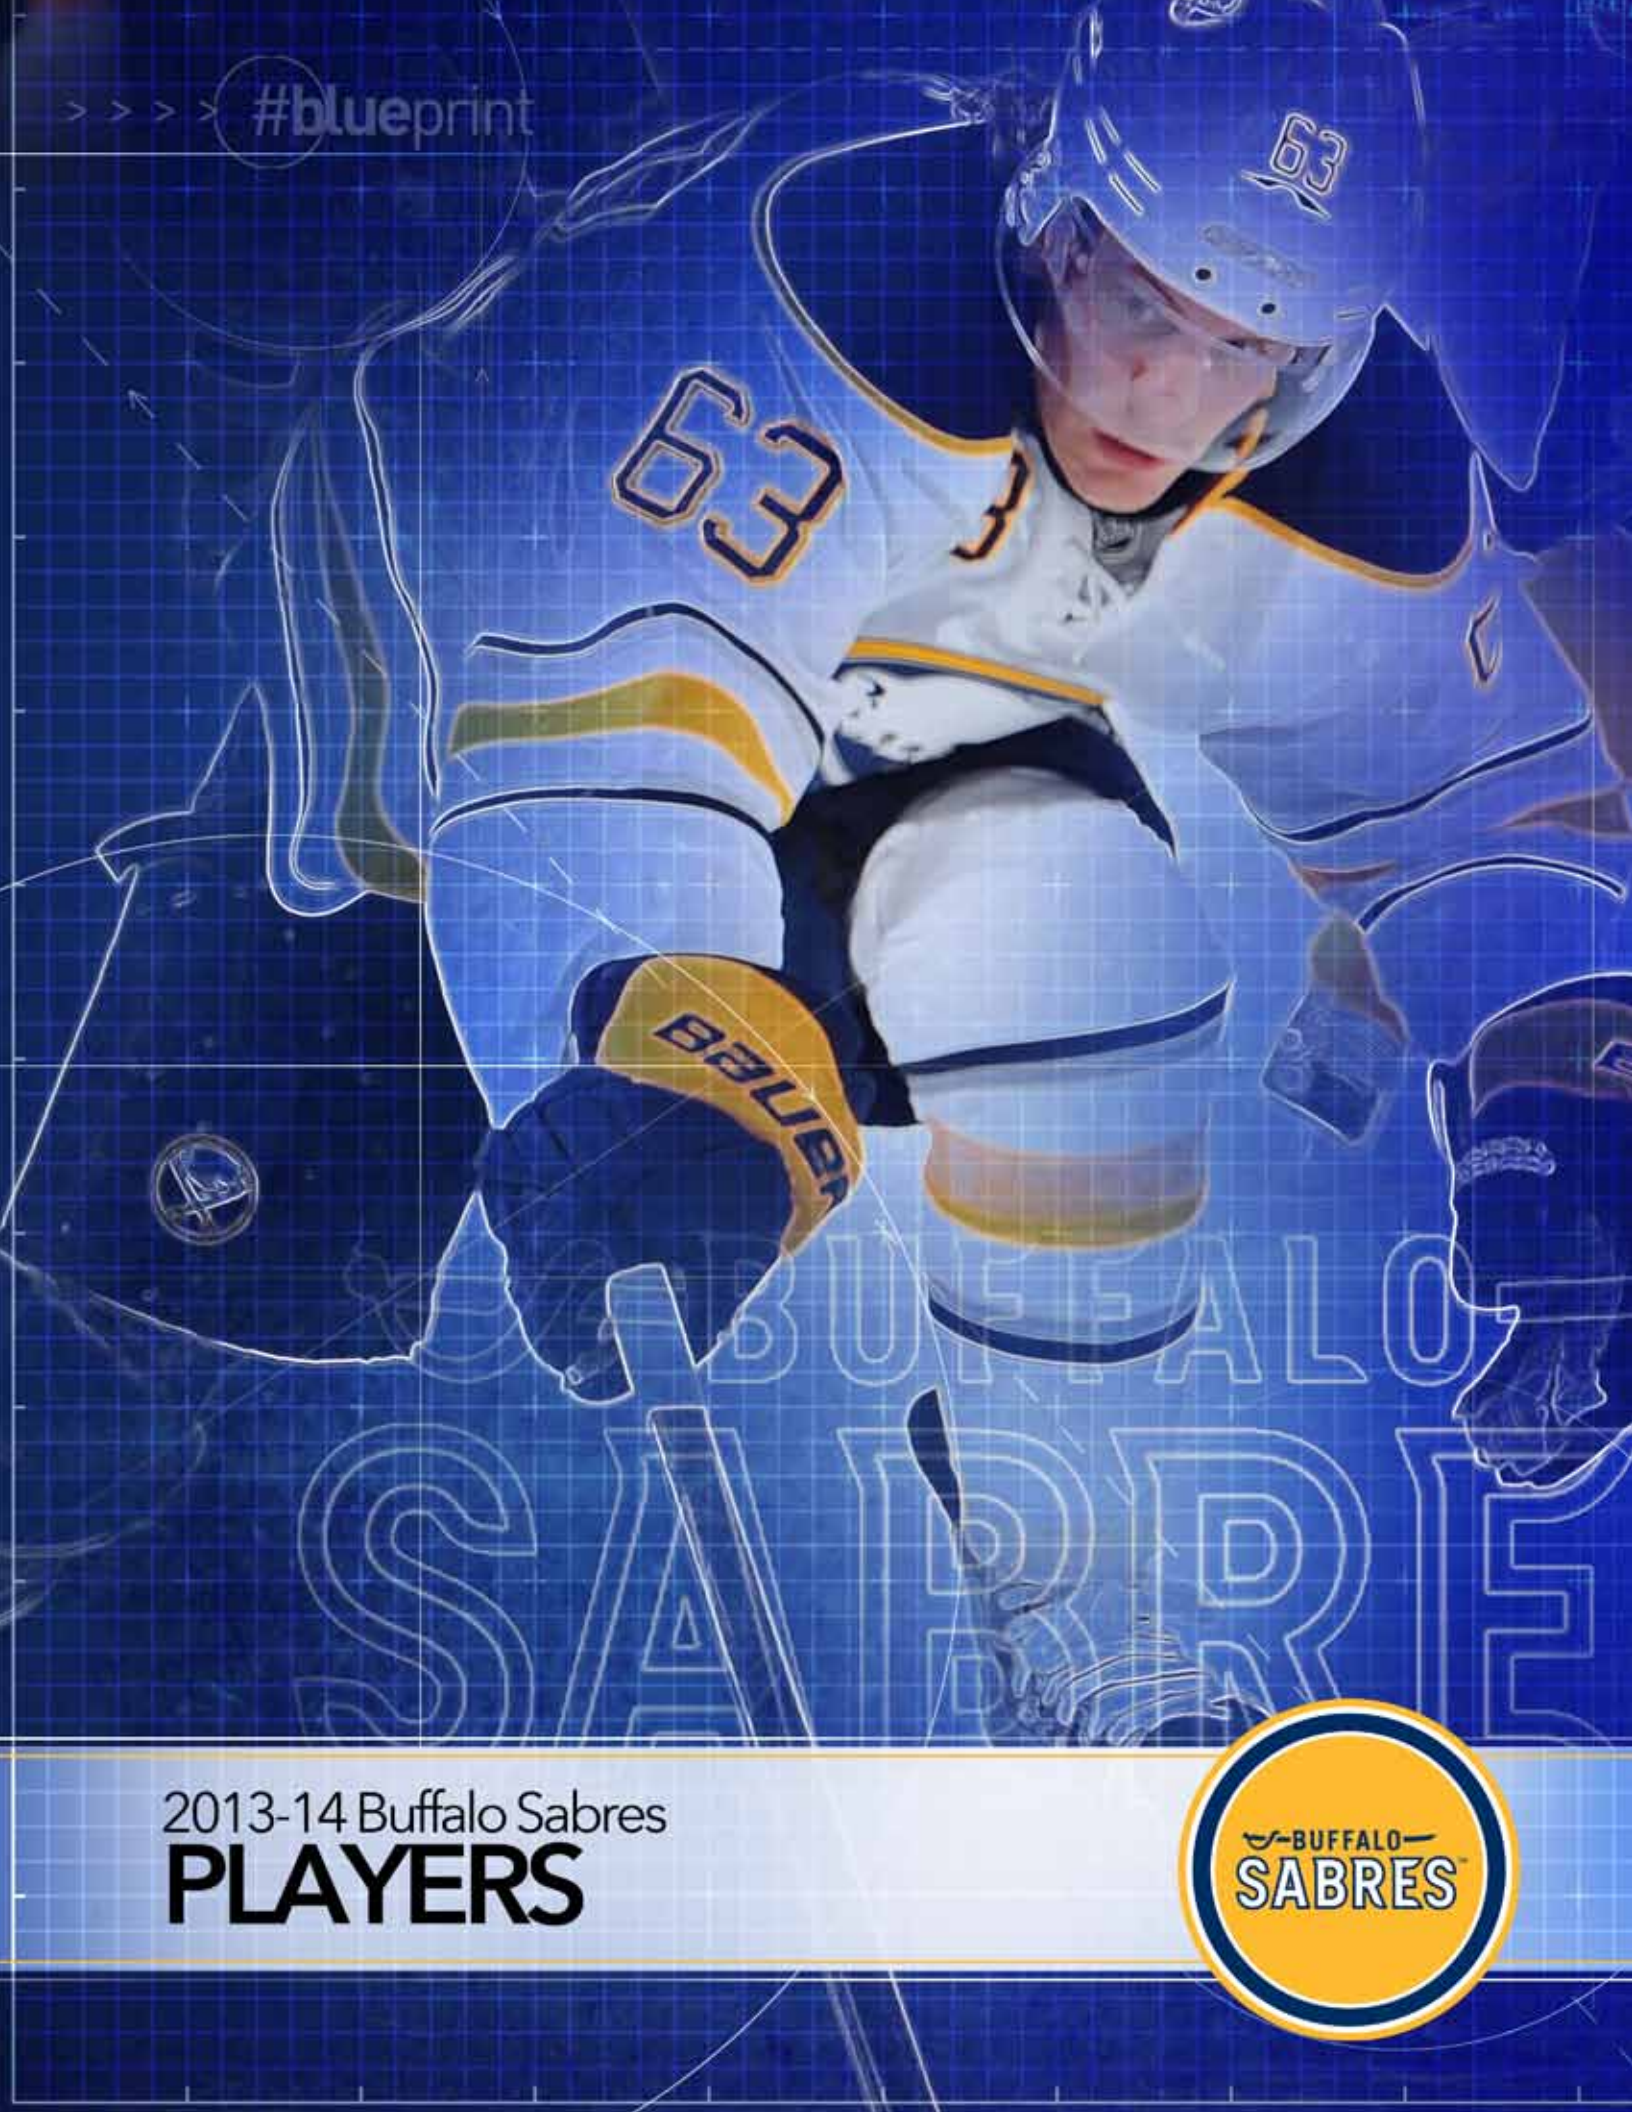
Marc Heintzman is entering his third season with the Buffalo Sabres as a public relations assistant. Some of Heintzman's duties include serving as the coordinator for the team's game night program, writing press releases and coordinating media credentials. Prior to joining the Sabres, Heintzman spent time working with the Buffalo Bills media relations department, as well as the communications department of NBC Sports & Olympics at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver. He holds a degree in public relations from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, where he also worked for four years as an intern in the Athletic Communications office. Heintzman was born and raised in Williamsville, NY.

Dan Peters | Graduate Assistant

Dan Peters will serve as the Public Relations Graduate Assistant for the Buffalo Sabres for the 2013-14 season. Peters' primary duties relate to assisting in the day-to-day operations of the Sabres' and Buffalo Bandits' (NLL) public relations departments. Prior to joining the organization, he spent two seasons working with the Rochester Americans' public relations department, as well as the Sabres' new media department during the 2011 World Junior Championship. Peters also served as the public relations specialist for USA Hockey's 2013 National Player Development Camps, which were held at the Northtown Center in Williamsville. A native of Lewiston, NY, he is a recent graduate of St. John Fisher College with a degree in Sport Management.



2013-14 Buffalo Sabres

SEASON IN REVIEW

2012-13

Summer 2012 was the start of a season of change for the Sabres. New faces began arriving in July with forward Steve Ott and defenseman Adam Pardy being acquired in a trade with Dallas for forward Derek Roy. To add even more toughness to their roster, the Sabres also signed veteran forward John Scott. The newly acquired veterans joined the list of fresh talent brought to Buffalo through a successful NHL Entry Draft. After orchestrating a draft-day trade, the Sabres landed two first-round selections in forwards Mikhail Grigorenko and Zemgus Girgensons and further strengthened its growing crop of young, talented players.

A lockout-shortened 2012-13 NHL season left the Sabres with little time to try and meld the new faces with the experienced core of veterans on the roster. Despite an impressive offensive start by Thomas Vanek, who opened the season with a four-game point-scoring streak (3+6) and was named the NHL's Third Star of January, the team got off to a rocky start.

Standing at 6-10-1 in mid-February, the Sabres made quite possibly the biggest change to the organization in years by replacing head coach Lindy Ruff with Ron Rolston, coach of the Rochester Americans, as the interim head coach. Rolston, who had coached many of Buffalo's young players while they played for the Americans, stepped in to try and salvage the season. The team made measured strides and finished the season 15-11-5 under Rolston's guidance. General manager Darcy Regier named Rolston the team's full-time head coach after the season, in May 2013.

More familiar faces departed at the trade deadline, further ushering in a new era for the Sabres. Longtime veteran forward and team captain Jason Pominville was traded to Minnesota, while defensemen Jordan Leopold and Robyn Regehr were traded to St. Louis and Los Angeles, respectively. These changes, however, armed the Sabres with a stockpile of draft picks – boosting their total to 10 in the 2013 NHL Entry Draft alone – and prospects to continue building its roster of young talent.

Vanek was one of the team's bright spots of the 2012-13 season. Despite missing 10 games to injury, he led the team in goals (20), assists (21) and points (41) for the second time in his career and also finished tied for third in the league with nine power-play goals. Vanek also moved up in the Sabres' record books, passing Miroslav Satan for the 10th-most points in team history (457).

Goaltender Ryan Miller also achieved several milestones during the season. He played in his 500th career game, becoming the 20th NHL goaltender to do so with one team and the12th to play his first 500 with the same team. Miller also passed Dominik Hasek in the Sabres' record books for most games played (500) and most career saves (14,806). He also earned his 43rd shootout win against the New York Islanders on April 26, moving into second place for shootout wins by a goaltender, trailing only Henrik Lundqvist (45).

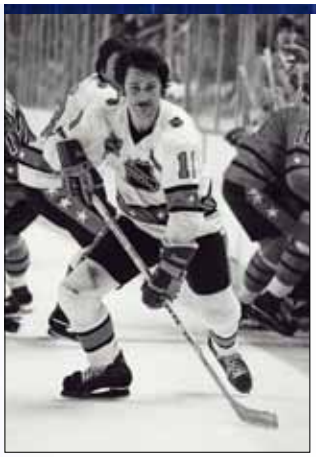
Retired Numbers

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only six numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006.

Gilbert Perreault | Center (1970-71 to 1986)

11



Number retired on Oct. 17, 1990

Career Sabres Totals:

1,191 games played	512 goals	814 assists	1,326 points (regular season)
90 games played	33 goals	70 assists	103 points (playoffs)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Number retired on Nov. 15, 1995

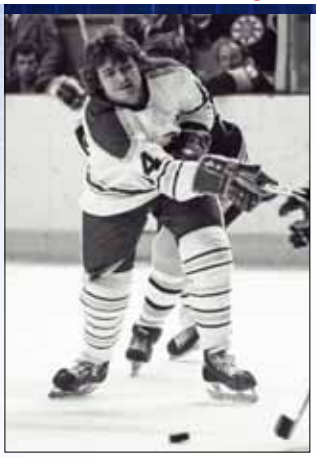
Career Sabres Totals:

681 games played	382 goals	313 assists	695 points (regular season)
62 games played	24 goals	29 assists	53 points (playoffs)

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres' uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

Rene Robert | Right Wing (1971-72 to 1978-79)

14



Number retired on Nov. 15, 1995

Career Sabres Totals:

524 games played	222 goals	330 assists	552 points (regular season)
47 games played	22 goals	17 assists	39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabres milestone by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on Dec. 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

Tim Horton | Defense (1972-73 to 1973-74)

Number retired on Jan. 5, 1996

Career Sabres Totals:

124 games played	1 goal	22 assists	23 points (regular season)
6 games played	0 goals	1 assist	1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Danny Gare | Right Wing (1974-75 to 1981-82)

18

Number retired on Nov. 22, 2005

Career Sabres Totals:

503 games played	267 goals	233 assists	500 points (regular season)
58 games played	23 goals	21 assists	44 points (playoffs)

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on October 10, 1974 against Boston, and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games, and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, B.C. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331), and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Career Sabres Totals:

268 games played	158 goals	227 assists	385 points (regular season)
19 games played	12 goals	15 assists	27 points (playoffs)

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second highest-scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble of superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on August 11, 1998.

Alumni Plaza

On October 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside First Niagara Center, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Comprised of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on October 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame

The highest honor bestowed by the Buffalo Sabres is induction into the team's Hall of Fame. The Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame Committee is comprised of: Robert O. Swados (Chairman), Scotty Bowman, Seymour Knox IV, Kevin Gavagan, Jim Lorentz, Michael Gilbert, John Murphy, Bucky Gleason, Wayne Redshaw, Bill Hajt, Jeff Russo, Ed Kilgore and Floyd Smith.

Hockey Hall of Fame

There are 13 members of the Hockey Hall of Fame with connections to the Buffalo Sabres. Sabres co-founder Seymour H. Knox, III and former Sabres coaches Scotty Bowman, George "Punch" Imlach and Marcel Pronovost have all been honored with induction into the Hall of Fame. Joining them are former Sabres players Tim Horton, Gilbert Perreault, Dale Hawerchuk, Clark Gillies, Grant Fuhr and Pat LaFontaine. Long-time team play-by-play broadcaster Ted Darling was honored in 1994 upon receiving the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award for excellence in broadcasting, an award that his successor, Rick Jeanneret, received in 2012. Harry Neale, who joined Jeanneret in the Sabres' broadcast booth in 2007 after more than 20 years as a color analyst on Hockey Night in Canada, received the award the following year. In addition, four members of the newspaper industry in Western New York have received the Elmer Ferguson Memorial Award: Charlie Barton, Dick Johnston, Jack Gatecliff and Jim Kelley.

Sabres NHL All-Star Game History

NHL All-Star Game History

The Buffalo Sabres hosted the 31st NHL All-Star Game on Jan. 24, 1978 at Buffalo Memorial Auditorium. Sabres forwards Gilbert Perreault and Rick Martin each represented the Wales Conference in the game. Martin scored a goal with 1:39 remaining in the third period to tie the game, sending the All-Star Game to overtime for the first time in its 31-year history. Perreault broke the tie at 3:55 of overtime to give the Wales Conference a 3-2 victory.

Buffalo Sabres Est. 1970

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on Dec. 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly-touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing, scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year.

Another Junior Canadien, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned into a trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970s.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record - still the best-ever season numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs and followed that with a second-round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. While the Flyers defeated the Sabres in six games, the loss did not blemish the accomplishment of a team which had only been in the league for five years.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as head coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost, 4-2, to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980s, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986, Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals by Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post its first playoff series win in 10 years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarterfinals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game, 1-0, in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory, playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 campaign was already one of the most memorable in team history. It would represent the first time in the team's history that it would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first-such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year-old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres' head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shined bright, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies.

Buffalo Sabres Est. 1970

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-00 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov, combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton, enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the NHL.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, as the Sabres won the fourth-most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar postseason with three goals, a team-high 10 assists and 13 total points. As a whole, the Sabres were the league's top defense, allowing the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Andreychuk proved that you can go home again, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals – including eight on the power play – and add some veteran leadership to a young, yet maturing, hockey club. And as he had in past seasons, Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

Ruff became the team's all-time winningest head coach with a 5-2 win over Philadelphia on Mar. 18, 2003. Ales Kotalik broke onto the scene by scoring 21 goals, the second most by a rookie in 2002-03 while Satan once again led the Sabres in goals, assists and points. B. Thomas Golisano became the Sabres' owner in March and brought a new enthusiasm level to the franchise.

The 2003-04 Sabres once again were one of the League's top teams in the second half of the season. Daniel Briere, who came to the club near the end of the 2002-03 season, continued his outstanding play and led the Sabres in assists and points. Dumont and Chris Drury were threats to score, while Satan recorded a team-best 29 goals.

Following a lockout that forced the league to cancel the entire 2004-05 season, NHL hockey returned in 2005-06, featuring new rules intended to create a more exciting style of play. Despite low expectations set by many hockey observers, the Sabres turned in a historic season. Led by Lindy Ruff, who would win the Jack Adams Award as Coach of the Year, Buffalo set a franchise record for wins in a season, with 52. Rookie goaltender Ryan Miller won 30 games on the season, despite missing 18 games with a broken thumb early in the season. The Sabres featured a tremendously balanced scoring attack, with six 20-goal scorers and 12 players with at least 30 points. Afinogenov led the team with 73 points (22+51), while Chris Drury led all goal-scorers with 30. Seven different players reached career highs in either goals, assists, or points. Perhaps the most impressive offensive player on the season was Briere, who, despite being plagued by injuries for much of the season, recorded 58 points (25+33) in 48 games.

It was also a breakout year for several rookies. In addition to the strong freshman campaign turned in by Miller, Thomas Vanek burst on the scene with 25 goals and 23 assists. Jason Pominville, who appeared in 57 games after being called up from Rochester, showed a terrific scoring touch, collecting 18 goals.

Buffalo made the playoffs for the first time since the 2000-01 season, and began by knocking off the Philadelphia Flyers in six games. That set up what turned out to be a wild series with conference-rival Ottawa. With Buffalo leading three games to one, Pominville became the first player in NHL history to score a series-clinching, short-handed, overtime goal when he eluded two Ottawa defenders and slipped the puck past goalie Ray Emery. That set up a showdown with the Carolina Hurricanes in the Eastern Conference Finals, where the Sabres eventually lost in seven games.

The 2006-07 season was unlike any other in Sabres history, as the team captured the Presidents' Trophy by putting together the league's best regular season record. The team started out by tying an NHL record with 10 straight wins, before losing in a shootout to Atlanta on Oct. 28. The Sabres went on to post 53 wins, the most in franchise history. The season was also a success at the turnstiles, as they sold out HSBC Arena for all 41 regular season games and nine playoff games.

A contributing factor to the team's success was having four players with more than 30 goals. Daniel Briere led the team with 95 points (32+63), while Thomas Vanek was a close second with 84 points, including a team-high 43 goals. Chris Drury finished with 69 points (43+41) and Jason Pominville capped a terrific sophomore season with 34 goals. Goaltender Ryan Miller also set a club record with 40 victories after being voted in as a started for the NHL All-Star game.

Buffalo made it to the playoffs for a second consecutive season. The Sabres eliminated the N.Y. Islanders in five games, and then defeated the N.Y. Rangers 4-2 in the Semifinals. Buffalo advanced to the Conference Finals for the second consecutive year (and fourth time since 1997), before losing in five games to Ottawa.

The 2007-08 season was a drastic change for the Sabres as they failed to make the playoffs after finishing atop the NHL in the regular season standings in 2006-07. The Sabres did see two young stars emerge as Derek Roy and Jason Pominville led the team with 81 and 80 points, respectively.

Buffalo Sabres Est. 1970

The Sabres made history yet again as they hosted the 2008 AMP Winter Classic at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, NY. The Sabres faced the Pittsburgh Penguins in front of 71,217 fans as snow lightly fell on New Year's Day. The game was the first outdoor game to be played in the United States and set the record for attendance at an NHL game. Buffalo would lose the historic game, 2-1, in a shootout.

The 2008-09 season started with high expectations after the Sabres failed to make the post-season a year before. The team got off to a hot start, posting a 6-2-2 record in the month of October. However, injuries to leading goal-scorer Thomas Vanek and starting goaltender Ryan Miller late in the year were too much to overcome. Despite a resilient effort in the final two months, Buffalo failed to make the playoffs for a second consecutive season.

The 2009-10 campaign saw the emergence of one future star and the continuing evolution of another. Sabres defenseman Tyler Myers, the team's first-round selection (12th overall) in the 2008 Entry Draft, burst onto the NHL stage with an impressive rookie season. Myers led all NHL rookies in ice time (23:44) and assists (37) to help earn the Calder Trophy as the league's top first year player. Ryan Miller also continued to raise his status as one of the league's top netminders. Miller was in the top five all season in every goaltending category, including goals-against average (2.22) and save percentage (.929). Miller's strong season was capped off by winning the Vezina Trophy. Miller also set the franchise record for wins, with 41. Overall, the team cracked the 100-point plateau for the ninth time in franchise history and won their sixth division title before falling to the Boston Bruins in the first round of the playoffs.

Following their return to the playoffs, the Sabres entered the 2010-11 season poised to take another step forward. However, after a 3-9-2 start began their descent to the league basement, it looked like the team would instead be taking a step back. When top point scorer Derek Roy (35 points in 35 games) suffered a season-ending injury in late December, the prospects for the Sabres – still eight points out of the final playoff spot in the East – didn't look good.

The Sabres continued to fight and put together an 8-3-1 record in January to close the gap. On Feb. 22, Terry Pegula announced his purchase of the team at a press conference at HSBC Arena. Pegula's arrival invigorated both the fans and the team, who welcomed their new owner with a seven-game unbeaten streak and finished the season on a 16-4-4 run to snatch the final Eastern Conference playoff spot.

Thomas Vanek led the Sabres in goal scoring for the fifth straight year, and also led the team in points for the first time in his career with 73 (32+41). Vanek is the only player in Sabres history to lead the team in goals for more than three consecutive seasons. Tyler Ennis had a strong debut season, ranking fourth among all NHL rookies with 49 points (20+29), the most by a Buffalo rookie since Derek Plante had 56 in 1993-94. The Sabres were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs after a Game 7 loss to Philadelphia.

The 2011-12 season began on a high note as Buffalo traveled to Europe to take part in the NHL Premiere Series and came away with two wins in Helsinki and Berlin. The team returned home to the newly-named First Niagara Center, which had recently undergone a multi-million dollar facelift, and continued its success on the ice by winning five of its first six games of the year.

A midseason slump put Buffalo near the bottom of the conference in February as the trade deadline approached and the team acquired center Cody Hodgson and defenseman Alexander Sulzer from the Vancouver Canucks. The roster changes, along with the return of a multitude of injured players, seemed to provide a spark for the team and Buffalo quickly started its climb up the conference standings in the second half of the season. The team's success in late February and March pushed Buffalo back into the playoff picture when Buffalo captured eighth place in the Eastern Conference on March 27. However, the team dropped four of its next five games to finish the season without a playoff berth.

A key factor in the team's success during the second half of the season was the strong play of its goaltender, Ryan Miller, who posted 31 wins and a career-high six shutouts during the season despite suffering a concussion earlier in the year. With the 31 wins, Miller became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 30 wins. Miller also forever etched a place in Sabres history by passing Dominik Hasek's franchise record of 234 wins – he finished the season with 252 career wins for the club.

Summer 2012 was the start of a season of change for the Sabres. General Manager Darcy Regier began the changes early, bringing in new faces during the offseason through trades, free agency and the NHL Entry Draft, strengthening the team's growing crop of young, talented players.

A lockout-shortened 2012-13 NHL season left the Sabres with little time to try and meld the new faces with the experienced core of veterans on the roster and the team got off to a rocky start. Standing at 6-10-1 in mid-February, the Sabres replaced head coach Lindy Ruff with Ron Rolston, coach of the Rochester Americans, as the Sabres' interim head coach.

Buffalo Sabres Est. 1970

More familiar faces departed at the trade deadline, including team captain Jason Pominville, further ushering in a new era for the Sabres. These roster changes, however, armed the Sabres with a stockpile of draft picks – boosting their total to 10 in the 2013 NHL Entry Draft alone – and prospects to continue building its roster of young talent. Despite missing the playoffs, the team made measured strides under Rolston and finished the season 15-11-5 under his guidance, earning Rolston the team's full-time head coaching position.

Despite missing 10 games to injury, Thomas Vanek led the team in goals (20), assists (21) and points (41) for the second time in his career and also finished tied for third in the league with nine power-play goals. Vanek also moved up in the Sabres' record books, passing Miroslav Satan for the 10th-most points in team history (457). Goaltender Ryan Miller also achieved several milestones during the season, including becoming the 20th NHL goaltender to play 500 games with one team. Miller also passed Dominik Hasek in the Sabres' record books for most games played (500) and most career saves (14,806) in franchise history.

Uniform 1970 to 2013

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into its new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, N.Y., was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey was a tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996. The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders. The Sabres also wore their original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

The Sabres new uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1971-96) and second uniform (1996-2005). The design was a collaborative effort between the Sabres and Reebok International. The new "blue and gold" colors were altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold that had a greater visual impact both in person and on television broadcasts. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that was the original blue uniform from 1970 with the player number on the front like on the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on January 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1971-96) was updated to incorporate the darker navy blue and rich gold featured in the current uniforms along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated, similar to what was worn by the team the first seven years Buffalo was in the league. The original crossed Sabres logo also features silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season the Sabres completed the return to their roots, adopting a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically-designed uniform is a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

Established 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2013-14 season will mark the 32nd season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between and NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their 57th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. The current Sabres roster is filled with 14 former Amerks, including Ryan Miller, Thomas Vanek, Henrik Tallinder and Drew Stafford.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneyworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 31 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,216-987-251-18 in 2,472 regular season games and captured nine regular season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09–2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

Chadd Cassidy | Head Coach

Chadd Cassidy was named the 30th head coach in Rochester Americans history on July 12, 2013 after previously serving as interim head coach and assistant coach for the Amerks. After originally joining the Amerks as an assistant coach prior to the 2011-12 season, Cassidy was promoted to interim head coach on Feb. 20, 2013 when then head coach Ron Rolston moved up to the parent Buffalo Sabres.

Upon being named the interim head coach last season, Cassidy guided the Amerks to a record of 16-11-1-0 over the final 28 games of the regular season to earn a berth in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup Playoffs. Rochester finished the 2012-13 campaign with a 43-29-3-1 record (90 points), good for second place in the North Division and seventh in the Western Conference. The Amerks also finished the regular season ranked second in the AHL in penalty killing (87.0%) and fourth in power play efficiency (20.3%), making them the only team in the league to rank in the top four in both categories.

Cassidy first joined the Amerks when he was named as one of Rolston's assistants on Aug. 31, 2011. The 2011-12 season marked Cassidy's first in professional hockey after he spent the previous five seasons (2006-2011) working alongside Rolston in the same capacity with the U.S. National Under-18 Team.

In his first season in professional hockey, Cassidy helped guide the Amerks to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. In addition to helping lead the Amerks to a second place finish in the North Division and a seventh seed in the Western Conference, Cassidy also played an integral role in the development of numerous young players. Eleven different Amerks were called up from Rochester to the Sabres over the course of the season, with those players combining for 65 points in a total of 157 NHL games for Buffalo.

Cassidy joined the Amerks organization following five seasons as an assistant coach at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, culminating in a gold medal at the 2011 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Under-18 World Championships in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, the U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. National Under-17 Team to great international success. While serving as an assistant to Rolston, Cassidy helped lead Team USA to its first title at the 2010 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge since 2002. He also helped pilot the squad to a first-place finish at the 2009 Under-17 Four Nations Cup in Trnava, Slovakia. The U.S. National Under-17 Team finished with a 9-1-1-3 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international foes under Rolston and Cassidy's watch. In August, Cassidy served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-18 Select Team that finished second at the 2010 Memorial of Ivan Hlinka Tournament in Breclav, Czech Republic, and Piestany, Slovakia.

In 2008-09, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team to its fourth gold medal at the 2009 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship in Fargo, N.D., and Moorhead, Minn. Additionally, he helped lead Team USA to a 15-1-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 record against college foes.

Cassidy also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team that earned the silver medal at the 2007 IIHF World Men's Under-18 Championship in Tampere and Rauma, Finland.

Cassidy has been both an on-ice instructor and team coach at USA Hockey's New York district camps and select festivals. In December 2005, he joined Rolston's staff for the 2006 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Regina, Saskatchewan, where Team USA finished second in the 10-team event.

Prior to joining the NTDP, Cassidy served as the head coach for four seasons at the National Sports Academy in his hometown of Lake Placid, N.Y., where he posted a 124-71-15 record. His teams made the final of the Midwest Prep League playoffs every year in his tenure, and won the league championship in 2004.

Cassidy served as an assistant coach at State University of New York at Cortland from 1999-2001 and Potsdam State for the 2001-2002 season. A 1995 graduate of Cortland State, Cassidy earned his bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure studies while playing on the varsity hockey team.

Cassidy, and his wife, Tara, have two children, Sheldon and Ireland.

Chris Taylor | Assistant Coach

Chris Taylor was named as the assistant coach of the Rochester Americans on Feb. 25, 2013 after first joining the Amerks staff as development coach prior to the 2011-12 season. Prior to his coaching career, Taylor enjoyed a 19-year professional career as a player that saw him become one of the all-time Amerk greats to ever don the red, white and blue.

During the 2012-13 season, Taylor helped guide the Amerks to a record of 43-29-3-1 (90 points), good for second place in the North Division and seventh in the Western Conference, as well as a berth in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup Playoffs for the second consecutive year. Taylor also oversaw a power play unit that ranked fourth in the AHL at 20.3%.

In his first season as a member of the Amerks coaching staff in 2011-12, Taylor helped guide the team to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. As development coach, Taylor was primarily responsible for working with the team's forwards. During the season, a total of 11 Amerks players (seven forwards) were called up to the Buffalo Sabres, including left wing Marcus Foligno, who worked extensively with Taylor during the season and was named the NHL Rookie of the Month for March after scoring 11 points in 11 games with the Sabres.

After spending parts of nine seasons with the Amerks between 1999 and 2011, Taylor finished his playing career ranked among the franchise's all-time leaders in assists (3rd, 339), games played (4th, 519), points (5th, 481) and goals (10th, 142). He also served as team captain during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons and was an alternate captain during several other campaigns.

A member of the Amerks' 50th Anniversary Team, Taylor is also a three-time Amerks team MVP and scoring champion (2001-02, 2002-03, 2004-05) and is the only player in franchise history to achieve those two feats in the same season on three occasions. During his final season as a player in 2010-11, Taylor ranked second on the Amerks in scoring with 51 points (10+41) in 72 games. He also finished second on the team in scoring the previous year with 61 points (17+44) when he returned to Rochester following a three-year stint in Germany, where he played for Frankfurt and led the team in scoring all three seasons.

During the 2004-05 campaign, Taylor was the Amerks scoring leader with 79 points (21+58) and was honored with the AHL's Fred T. Hunt Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to the game of hockey. Taylor also shares the franchise record for most assists in a single game with six, set on October 21, 2005.

During his pro career, Taylor appeared in 149 NHL games with the New York Islanders, Boston Bruins and Sabres, recording 32 points (11+21) and 48 penalty minutes. Of those 149 games, 90 came in a Buffalo uniform. In 2003-04, he set NHL career-highs in games played (54), goals (6), assists (6) and points (12) while with the Sabres.

Prior to joining the Sabres/Amerks organization in 1999, Taylor won two Turner Cup Championships with Utah of the International Hockey League. The Stratford, Ontario, native was originally drafted by the Islanders in the second round (27th overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft and finished his pro career with 1,297 games played at the NHL, AHL, IHL and European levels.

Taylor resides in Churchville with his wife, Lisa, and their two children, Samantha and Nicholas. He is the brother of former NHL player Tim Taylor, who won a Stanley Cup with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004.

John Wroblewski | Assistant Coach

John Wroblewski enters his first season as an assistant coach of the Rochester Americans in 2013-14 after being named to the position on August 7, 2013.

Wroblewski joins the Amerks after spending the last two seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Gwinnett Gladiators, where he compiled a record of 84-46-9-5 while leading the Gladiators to a pair of South Division titles and posting the highest points-percentage in the Eastern Conference during that span. In 2011-12, Wroblewski was a co-recipient of the John Brophy Award as the ECHL's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Gladiators, he spent the 2010-11 season as assistant coach with the Wheeling Nailers (ECHL), helping guide the team to the Eastern Conference Finals.

A native of Neenah, Wisconsin, Wroblewski began his coaching career with the USA Hockey Under 18 National Team Development Program (NTDP) from 2007 to 2010. In 2010, he helped the NTDP capture the gold medal in Minsk, Belarus at the IIHF U-18 World Championship.

As a player, Wroblewski spent four seasons with the Fresno Falcons of the ECHL, recording 125 points (65+60) in 273 career games. Prior to his professional career, he played four seasons with the University of Notre Dame (1999-2003), where he served as a team captain his senior year and was named MVP by his teammates in 2003. In four years at Notre Dame, Wroblewski recorded 64 points (29+35) in 144 career collegiate games. He was a finalist for college hockey's Humanitarian Award.

2013-14 Buffalo Sabres

MISCELLANEOUS

BUFFALO SABRES

In 2013-14, all Buffalo Sabres regular season games will be both televised and simulcast on WGR Sports Radio 550 AM. All of the team's televised regular-season games will be broadcast in high definition.

Television

The Sabres and MSG Networks continue a multiyear partnership to telecast Sabres games, in which MSG will own the exclusive local rights to telecast the team's games. MSG Networks, an industry leader in production and technology, is the nation's longest-running regional sports network. The first regional sports network to produce games in HDTV and winner of 95 New York Emmy Awards, MSG Networks is part of Madison Square Garden L.P. In addition to being home of the Sabres, MSG Network's award-winning programming line-up also boasts the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, New York Liberty and over 400 live college football and basketball games.

In 2013-14, all Sabres telecasts –including games in New York/New Jersey – will be produced and broadcast by the team's in-house broadcasting teams and will feature the Sabres broadcasters and analysts exclusively.

Calling the action on MSG telecasts and on WGR 550 AM will be Foster Hewitt Award winner and Sabres Hall-of-Famer Rick Jeanneret, who embarks on his 42nd year behind the microphone. Rob Ray, a nine-year veteran of Sabres broadcasts, will begin his first season as the full-time color analyst. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a second color analyst and the "between-the-glass" reporter for the past eight seasons. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain on the ice-level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Joining the broadcast team in 2013-14 is veteran broadcaster Dan Dunleavy. Dunleavy, who comes to the Sabres from the Toronto Maple Leafs' broadcasting team, will begin his substitute play-by-play duties this season, filling in for games that Jeanneret takes off. In addition to his play-by-play duties, Dunleavy will serve as on-air talent for Sabres pre- and post-game broadcasts and will have a substantial presence on Sabres.com.

Brian Duff, who joined the Sabres broadcast team in 2011-12, has also signed a new deal with the team to serve as the full-time in-game host for all Sabres broadcasts on MSG. In that role, Duff will host the Tops Game Night pregame show before all games, the Lexus Post Game Report and the intermission reports between periods.
Veteran broadcasters Mike Robitaille and Danny Gare will be mainstays across all Sabres platforms in 2013-14, providing in-depth analysis before, during and after games.

Buffalo Sabres hockey on MSG is produced by Joe Pinter and directed by Matt Gould.

Rick Jeanneret | Play-by-Play Announcer

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will begin his 42nd year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret is the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award, the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters, and was formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for four decades. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he would also begin calling the action for the team's televised games. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.
Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ont. native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.
A native of St. Catharines, Ont., Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

Rob Ray | Color Analyst

Rob Ray, who begins his ninth season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his second season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a second color analyst and the "between-the-glass" reporter for the past eight seasons. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain on the ice-level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Beyond Sabres broadcasts, Ray hosts The Enforcers, a weekly sports talk show on Time Warner Cable SportsNet, alongside other former players from the Sabres and the Buffalo Bills.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 PIM. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and his 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in Grand Island, N.Y. with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

Brian Duff | In-Game Host

A 22-year broadcasting veteran, Brian Duff begins his second full season as the in-game host for all Buffalo Sabres broadcasts. He joined the broadcast team in 2011-12 on a part-time basis in the same role for many of the team's road games.

Duff comes to the Sabres after spending five seasons with the NHL Network, most recently as host of NHL on the Fly and NHL Tonight.

Prior to joining NHL Network, Duff spent six years as the pre and post-game host for Toronto Maple Leafs hockey on Leafs TV. His extensive hockey broadcasting career also includes stints as the radio host for pre and post-game coverage of the Ottawa Senators and Edmonton Oilers and radio game analyst for the Senators and the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers.

In addition, Duff has provided play-by-play for the National Lacrosse League on Versus and TSN, including the 2010 and 2011 championship games. He worked at The Score as an anchor and reporter and provided play-by-play for Ottawa Rebel lacrosse and the Mann Cup. Duff has also freelanced for multiple media outlets including ESPN and the Associated Press.

Duff, who grew up in Whitby, Ont., holds a Broadcasting Diploma from Mount Royal College in Calgary and currently resides in Hamburg, N.Y. with his wife, Leilon, and their children, Isabelle and Rhiannon.

Dan Dunleavy | Play-by-Play/Reporter

Prior to joining the Sabres broadcast team in 2013, Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play of the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, the 2010 Vancouver Olympics Men's and Women's Hockey, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet. The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and is the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

Radio Broadcast

Sabres coverage on the radio can be found exclusively on WGR 550 AM, the team's radio partner for more than 25 years. Gameday broadcasts will include the game action from Jeanneret and Ray, along with a post-game show hosted by Brian Koziol featuring a complete game recap, player interviews and scores from around the league. Paul Hamilton, who returns as the station's Sabres beat reporter, will provide live updates from Sabres games and practices all season long.

New this season is Sabres Hockey Hotline, the team's flagship radio program. The show will be broadcast live from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Monday through Friday year-round from the Sabres Store at First Niagara Center. The program will be an additional outlet for Sabres fans to hear exclusive interviews, analysis, team updates, as well as game and practice recaps.

Serving as host of Sabres Hockey Hotline is Kevin Sylvester, an eight-year veteran of Sabres broadcasting. Sylvester, who joined the broadcast team in the 2005-06 season, will transition the bulk of his broadcasting duties to the radio program and will serve as the show's host and executive producer.

Credentials

Season credentials are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact Marc Heintzman via email (Marc.Heintzman@sabres.com) or phone (716-855-4562) by 5 p.m. the day before a game, and by 5 p.m. on Friday before a Sunday game. All requests for individual game seating should be submitted by the publication editor using a professional email account. Furthermore, freelance photographers will be admitted on an assignment-only basis, which must come from the photo editor. Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis.

Press credentials can be picked up on the day of a game at the arena's security office until 4:30 p.m. From 4:30 p.m. onward, the passes will be at the media entrance described above (please note that pick up times will be adjusted for afternoon games).*

Credentials should be displayed at all times for admission to the press box, press lounge/work room and dressing room areas.* YOUR COOPERATION IS APPRECIATED IN MAINTAINING A WORKING ATMOSPHERE IN THE LOCKER ROOM(S). ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPH REQUESTS OR UNAUTHORIZED PHOTOGRAPHY WILL BE ALLOWED. VIOLATORS WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE.*

All requests for pre-game live shots should be coordinated through Chrisanne Bellas at (716) 855-4476 to ensure location and transmission.*

Game Day Procedure

Entering First Niagara Center
Credentialed media can enter the arena through the security entrance, located at the plaza area on the east (Illinois Street) side of the building, aligned with the middle of the parking ramp. Credentials can be picked up at the credential table (located past security) two and a half hours before games or at security before the morning skate.

Directions to Press Box
All media should use the freight elevator, located beyond the credential table, when moving between the Event Level (ground floor, "ER") and the Press Level ("P"). Seating charts are posted throughout the press box to assist in finding designated seating areas.

Internet Access
Wireless internet access is available for all visiting media. To access the "Sabres Wi-Fi" network, please use the username and password provided at the bottom of your credential or on your press box seating card.

Media Dining
The media dining room is located directly across from the credential table on the Event Level. The cost of game day meals is $10. Snacks and beverages will also be provided in the press box. The dining room opens two hours before the start of the game.

Post-Game Interviews
Player availability will begin no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of each game, in the Sabres locker room. Head Coach Ron Rolston will be available in the press conference room (on the left just before entering the locker room hallway) following player interviews.

Media Work Areas
The media is welcome to work after the game in the press conference room, the media dining room or in the press box. Final stats will be available in the media dining room and the press box. Please note that the media dining room is not available as a work space on the morning of a game day.

Please note that smoking is prohibited not only in both the press lounge/work room and the press box, but also in the whole arena (under NY State law).*

There are electrical outlets and phone jacks at all seats in the press box, but phone lines are not active unless arrangements are made by calling Mike Queeno at (716)855-4485. Please keep in mind that there is a small number of pool phones in the press box for use by visiting media.*

Practice Sessions/Gameday Skates
Practice sessions and morning skates on game days are open to the media. Head coach Ron Rolston and Sabres players are available to the media following the sessions. Media attending these practices should contact Chris Bandura to verify times and specific player interview needs. Practices that cannot be held at First Niagara Center will take place at the Northtown Center at Amherst.

Media Information

Directions

First Niagara Center is on Buffalo's waterfront at the end of Washington Street and is bordered by Main and Illinois Streets and South Park Avenue. There are several parking lots in that area. For directions see below or, for more detailed information, contact the Sabres at (716) 855-4100.

From N.Y. State Thruway (90): Take Interstate 90 to downtown Buffalo to 190 North (exit 53).
Recommended: Take exit 5 (Hamburg Street), turning right onto Hamburg Street. Turn right onto Perry Street (first light) or South Park Avenue (second light). First Niagara Center is two blocks ahead with parking past Michigan Avenue.

Alternate: From 190 South, take exit 5 (Louisiana Street). Stay to the right on exit ramp and exit onto Louisiana Street. Make a left onto Louisiana Street and take it to the first light. Turn right onto Perry Street. First Niagara Center is ahead with parking available on either side of Perry Street.

From Canada and North: Take the 190 South heading toward downtown Buffalo. Exit at Niagara Street and head toward downtown. Turn right on South Elmwood Avenue (before City Hall) and continue until you cross Church Street, at that point Elmwood becomes Lower Terrace (Adam's Mark Hotel on your right). Travel on Lower Terrace and turn right on Washington. First Niagara Center is at the end of Washington.

Directions to the Northtown Center at Amherst

Coming from Buffalo Niagara International Airport:
Exit the airport and follow signs to the Kensington Expressway (33 West). Take 90 East to 290 West. Exit 290 at Millersport North (Exit 5B). Take Maple Road ramp; turn right onto Maple Road. Turn left at Amherst Manor Drive.
