Darcy Regier

General Manager

Darcy Regier begins his sixth season with the Sabres as General Manager and has led the organization through some of the most successful seasons in the team's 32-year history. When hired on June 11, 1997, he organized the hockey department with an emphasis on scouting and developing talent, and positioned the franchise to continue its success for years to come. This past season, Regier further added to the young talent already present in the organization and addressed the needs of the current team.

Under Regier's direction, the Sabres were active at the 2002 NHL Entry Draft by first trading up to gain two of the top twenty selections and then acquiring forward 25 year-old Jochen Hecht in a trade with Edmonton. These two moves not only addressed the teams' future, but also infused the current roster with new talent. This past July, the team acquired 23 year-old Adam Mair along with a fifth-round selection in the 2003 NHL Entry Draft from Los Angeles. The addition of Hecht brings more offense, while Mair, along with the resigning of Rob Ray for his 13th NHL season, will add to the teams' toughness. Regier further solidified the organization by signing captain Stu Barnes to a long term contract, making him a Sabre through the 2004-05 season.

Despite not making the playoffs last season, the Sabres are still one of the league's most successful teams the last five seasons. With 189 victories since the start of the 1997-98 season, Buffalo has won the tenth most games in the NHL the last five years. Since 1998, the Sabres have also played the second most playoff games in the Eastern Conference (54) and hosted the second most playoff games in the Eastern Conference (33).

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served in roles with the Islanders as: Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach, and Assistant General Manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders' coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board, and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career in hockey. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, he was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 PIM. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's GM.

During his playing career, Regier was involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence with their three sons: Jonathan (21), Justin (17), and Jarrett (9).

LARRY CARRIERE

Assistant to the General Manager

Larry Carriere, "The Hawk", begins his 10th season in the Sabres front office, his eighth in the position of Assistant to the General Manager. Larry works in a variety of roles, but his primary responsibilities are overseeing minor league operations and contracts, as well as professional player development. He is also the Sabres representative on the American Hockey League Board of Governors.

The Sabres and their American Hockey League affiliate, the Rochester Americans, enjoy a 23-year relationship, which is the longest partnership in hockey. With Carriere's involvement at the AHL-level, the Amerks continue to develop prospects while adding depth to the Sabres organization. Of the 30 players that had seen action with the Sabres during the 2001-02 season, 19 had part of their development in Rochester. The Amerks have made the postseason thirteen straight years.

Several players made their Sabres debut in 2001-02, including then 20-year old Taylor Pyatt. After appearing in 27 games with the Amerks, Pyatt was called up to Buffalo where he finished the season. His size and checking ability supplied the Sabres with a reliable winger who also tallied 20 points in 48 games. Making their NHL debuts were Ales Kotalik (1998; 6th round) and Norm Milley (1998; 2nd round). Kotalik still finished third in scoring for Rochester while playing in 13 games for Buffalo, and Milley finished fourth in scoring. Among the Amerks who took the biggest step towards their NHL career was Brian Campbell (1997; 6th round). The defenseman scored 37 points for the Amerks in just 45 games and played in 29 games for Buffalo before a shoulder injury ended his season in early April. Also seeing his first NHL action was Henrik Tallinder (1997; 2nd round) who had a solid season in Rochester, his first in North America.

Prior to being named to his current position, Larry was the team's Director of Player Evaluation after serving as a scout for the Sabres in the Quebec region for eight years. He is also fluent in French.

The team's second-round draft choice in 1972, Carriere played 206 games over two stints with the Sabres during his seven-year NHL career. Carriere's playing days with Buffalo ranged from the 1972-73 season through and including the 1974-75 campaign and the Sabres' appearance in the Stanley Cup Finals. Carriere was dealt to the Atlanta Flames before the start of the 1975-76 season and would go on to also play with Vancouver and Los Angeles before returning to Buffalo during the 1977-78 season. He appeared in 416 NHL games, recording 17 goals, 83 assists, 100 points, and 512 penalty minutes.

Carriere graduated from Loyola College in Montreal with a Bachelor of Commerce degree, with a major in Business Administration. He has also studied management at the University of Michigan. Larry and his wife, Suzanne, live in Williamsville, New York and have two grown children: Stephanie, and Nicholas, an assistant hockey coach at Fredonia State University.

DON LUCE

Director of Player Personnel

Don Luce is in his 16th season as the Buffalo Sabres Director of Player Personnel, where he oversees the team's 11-person scouting staff. Together they scout the NHL, AHL, and ECHL, as well as the Canadian junior leagues, American high schools and colleges, and European leagues.

Luce and his staff have made some great selections over the past few seasons, especially some finds in the later rounds of the draft, including Maxim Afinogenov (1997, 3rd round), Brian Campbell (1997, 6th round), Ales Kotalik (1998, 6th round), Sean McMorrow (2000, 8th round), and Ryan Miller (1999, 5th round).

Equally consuming is the fact that 18 of the 30 players who saw action with the Sabres in 2001-02 were Buffalo draft picks. Miller has been rewriting the NCAA record book by breaking the all-time mark for shutouts and winning the 2001 Hobey Baker Award as the top U.S. college player. He was also named to the 2002 U.S. Men's National Team for the International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships in Sweden where he was one of only two collegiate players on the team.

Don first joined the Sabres' front office staff in 1984 when he worked for a year on special assignments and as an assistant coach. He spent the 1985-86 season as an American scout, before taking on his current role in 1987. One of his major accomplishments was his instrumental role in bringing Alexander Mogilny to America in 1989.

A member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame, Luce originally became a Sabre as part of a trade with Detroit for Joe Daley in 1971. He spent almost 10 full seasons of his NHL career with Buffalo and ranked with Craig Ramsay as two of the league's best penalty-killers throughout the 1970's.

In 1974-75, Don enjoyed arguably his finest season helping the Sabres to the Stanley Cup Finals and establishing two team records which still stand to this day: eight short-handed goals in one season and an incredible +61 plus/minus ranking. He capped the year by being named the winner of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy which is given to the NHL player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to hockey.

After a trade to Los Angeles in 1981, Luce went on to play one more season with Toronto before retiring. He appeared in a total of 894 NHL games, registering 225 goals, 329 assists, 554 points, and 364 PIM. Don still ranks in the top 10 with Buffalo in eight career leaders categories.

As a result of his many accomplishments on and off the ice, Don was honored with induction into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in September 1997. He and his wife Diane have four grown children: daughters Kim, Kelly and Kristin (Ryan Sturm) and son Scott (Ann). Scott and Ann have two sons, Harrison (7) and Griffin (4).

TERRY MARTIN

Director of Pro Scouting

Terry Martin returns for his 14th season with the Sabres, fourth as the team's Director of Professional Scouting. In his role with the team, Martin is instrumental in the evaluation of all talent in the NHL, AHL and European Hockey Leagues.

After a successful NHL career, Martin was the head coach of the OHL's Toronto Marlboros from 1987-1989. He then returned to the Sabres organization and served as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans from 1989-90 to 1994-95. During his time with the Amerks, Martin was a part of three Calder Cup Finals teams. From 1990-92 he served as an assistant under Don Lever and spent the other four seasons with Amerks all-time coaching wins leader John Van Boxmeer. After a season as an assistant coach with the Sabres during the 1995-96 season, he served as a Pro Scout for the team from 1996-97 to 1998-99 before being named to his current position prior to the start of the 1999-2000 season.

Born in Barrie, Ontario, Martin was originally drafted by the Sabres in the third round (44th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft. He appeared in 148 games with Buffalo from 1975-76 to 1978-79 scoring 20 goals and 22 assists. He was selected by the Quebec Nordiques in the 1979 NHL Expansion Draft only to be dealt to Toronto, where he enjoyed great success scoring 83 goals and 76 assists in 317 games and twice was the team nominee for the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy. Martin later played for the Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars before moving behind the bench in 1987. In all, he played ten seasons in the NHL appearing 479 games, scoring 104 goals and 101 assists for 205 points. In 1999, he was elected to the Barrie Sports Hall of Fame, where he joined NHL players Shayne Corson, Mike Gartner and Doug Shedden as well as former NHL Referee Ron Hoggarth as members.

Terry and his wife Nancy reside in Amherst, NY and have a daughter, Tracy.

JIM BENNING

Director of Amateur Scouting

Jim Benning begins his ninth season with the Buffalo Sabres, the fifth in his current role as Director of Amateur Scouting. In his role with the team, Benning oversees all scouting of amateur hockey in North America and Europe.

Benning first joined the Sabres in 1994-95 as an amateur scout under then Director of Amateur Scouting Jack Bowman and was promoted to his current position in 1998. He is responsible for scouting players in the WHL, OHL, QMJHL, NCAA and American high schools as well as amateur hockey leagues throughout Europe. He is also responsible for scheduling the Sabres amateur scouts and insuring that all amateur hockey players are scouted thoroughly.

After an NHL career that spanned nine seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Vancouver Canucks, Benning spent one season playing professional hockey in Italy. Upon returning to North America after retiring in 1992 he attended college for one year before being hired as an amateur scout for the Anaheim Mighty Ducks in 1993-94.

A first-round draft choice (6th overall) of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft, Benning played for the Leafs until 1986 when he was traded to the Vancouver Canucks where he played three more seasons. In 605 career NHL games, he scored 52 goals and 191 assists for 143 points.

Jim resides in Portland, Oregon with his wife Rhonda and their three children Brandon (15), Danica (12) and Nicholas (6).

LINDY RUFF

Head Coach

Lindy Ruff is currently the fifth longest tenured coach with one team in the NHL (Maurice-Carolina, Martin-Ottawa, Quenneville-St. Louis, D. Sutter-San Jose) and in his sixth season behind the Sabres bench ranks second on the team's all-time coaching win list with 189. He now stands just 21 wins behind the NHL's winningest coach of all-time; Hockey Hall of Famer Scotty Bowman who holds the franchise mark of 210 victories.

Following a slow start to last season, Ruff led the team to an amazing turn around. After going 15-21-4-1 in the opening half of the 2001-2002 campaign while the players adjusted to a new line-up and starting goaltender, Buffalo was one of the leagues more difficult teams to beat in the second half. At an average age of 26.8 years old, Lindy pushed the seventh youngest team in the league to find their groove by mid-season. The Sabres enjoyed a successful second half to the season in which the team improved by ten victories going 20-14-7-0 and improving the team's winning percentage from .415 to .573; nearly a 16 percent increase. The overall team defense was stellar, allowing just 87 goals over the final 41 games which was a decrease of 26 goals from the opening half of the season, the largest decrease in goals allowed in the NHL. Also, the team finished the home stretch of the season as one of the hottest teams in the league. Over the final eight games, the team was 5-1-3 and accumulated 12 of a possible 16 points in those games, outscoring their opposition 23 to 14.

It is no coincidence that over the last five seasons the Buffalo Sabres have appeared in the second most playoff games in the Eastern Conference. Ruff has a .593 playoff winning percentage, which ranks him second among active coaches in the NHL (Hartley-Colorado .613). He is the Sabres all-time leader in playoff games coached (54), and wins (32), surpassing Bowman's mark of 18 wins (set over five seasons). In 1999, only his second season as a head coach in the NHL, Ruff led the Sabres to their first Stanley Cup Finals in 24 years, and established himself as one of the top young coaches in the league. Lindy also achieved a new club record in 1999 for the most wins in one playoff year with 14. In the process, Ruff became only the third head coach under the present Stanley Cup Playoff format to lead his team to the Conference Finals in each of his first two seasons. He also earned the honor of coaching the World Team at the All-Star Game in Tampa Bay in January, 1999, by having the best record at mid-season in the Eastern Conference. Ruff joined Bowman and Floyd Smith as the only Buffalo coaches to be named head coach of an All-Star Team while with the Sabres.

Hired as the 15th head coach in team history on July 21, 1997, Ruff achieved playoff successes his first year that none of his Sabres predecessors had ever experienced. The 1997-98 squad set a team record with an eight-game postseason winning streak, and tied the old club mark with ten wins in a playoff year. The conference finals appearance was the team's first since 1980, which ironically was Ruff's rookie year with Buffalo.

Ruff joined the Sabres as a second-round (32nd overall) draft pick in 1979 following a distinguished career as a defenseman with Lethbridge (WHL). He made the team at his first training camp and went on to play 63 games for the Sabres during the 1979-80 season, a season which culminated in Ruff being named the team's rookie-of-the-year. Twenty-one years later, Ruff still ranks sixth on the Sabres' all-time regular season list in penalty minutes (1,126) and is tied for eleventh in games played (608). In 691 career NHL games, Lindy totaled 105 goals, 195 assists, 300 points, and 1,264 penalty minutes.

In his third season with Buffalo, Ruff was converted to left wing after having played defense throughout his junior career and his first two seasons as a pro. In November 1986, he received perhaps his greatest individual honor as a Sabre when he was named to replace Gil Perreault as team captain after the legend's retirement. Lindy continued to display leadership qualities as a player when he returned to defense in January 1987.

Ruff ended his professional playing career after a stint as a player/assistant coach with the San Diego Gulls of the IHL in the 1992-93 season. When expansion hit the NHL again for the 1993-94 season, Head Coach Roger Neilson (who coached Lindy in Buffalo and with the Rangers) tabbed Ruff as one of his assistants for the new Florida Panthers club. As the primary coach of the penalty-killing unit and defensemen, Ruff received accolades for his work with those groups. The over-achieving, hard-working Panthers went all the way to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1996, just their third season in existence.

Lindy, 42, and his wife Gaye reside in Clarence with their four children: Brett (13), Eryn (11), and twins Brian and Madeleine (8).

BRIAN McCUTCHEON

Assistant Coach

Brian McCutcheon is entering his third season as the Sabres assistant coach after three successful years coaching the AHL affiliate Rochester Americans. After taking the Amerks to the Calder Cup Finals in the two seasons prior, he was tabbed to help develop the Sabres younger talent whom he had coached at the AHL level.

McCutcheon was key in helping to develop some of the teams' younger talent, including Maxim Afinogenov, Dmitri Kalinin and the Sabres two goaltenders Martin Biron and Mika Noronen. Afinogenov and Kalinin each had solid seasons with Max achieving career-highs in goals (21) and points (40). Kalinin, although slowed by injury continued his steady play at just 22 years old. Biron established himself as one of the top young goaltenders in the NHL this past season and appeared in 72 games; only Martin Brodeur had saw more action. Noronen again paced the Amerks until Buffalo summoned him mid-season to provide depth for the teams' press towards the playoffs.

McCutcheon ended his Rochester tenure with a record of 128-82-9 and saw his Amerks teams into the playoffs in each of his three seasons behind the bench. Under his guidance, the Amerks won two straight Western Conference titles and set franchise records for most points (111) and wins (52) in a season.

Prior to joining the Amerks, McCutcheon served as the Head Coach and Director of Player Personnel for the Columbus Chill of the East Coast Hockey League. In his only season with the Chill, he led them to a 44-21-5 mark setting a franchise record for most wins and points in a season while winning the North Division title. McCutcheon was rewarded for his efforts with the ECHL Coach of the Year award. That performance was made more impressive by the fact that it was only his second season working with professionals, and just his first as a head coach.

Before moving into pro hockey, Brian enjoyed a highly successful career as a college coach. McCutcheon was the head coach from 1987-95 at Division I Cornell University compiling a 108-105-24 record over eight seasons. The tenure was a homecoming for McCutcheon who graduated from Cornell in 1971 after a playing career which included an NCAA Championship in 1970. He was inducted into the Cornell University Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

McCutcheon had previously coached at Elmira College (located in Central New York) for seven seasons, the last six as head coach. He owns a 103-60-1 lifetime record at the school, including a 1986 New York State Coach of the Year award, the same year his Elmira team reached the #1 ranking among Division III schools.

He appeared in 37 games over parts of three seasons with the Detroit Red Wings, recording three goals, one assist, four points, and seven PIM.

A native of Toronto, Brian and his wife Susan have two children, Kelly (23) and Mark (18).

SCOTT ARNIEL

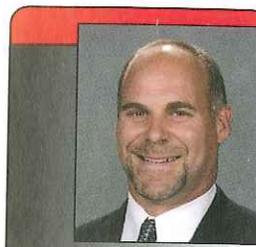

Assistant Coach

This marks Scott Arniel's first season as an assistant coach in the NHL, but not his first tenure with the Sabres organization. The former left wing returns to the team that acquired him in a trade with Winnipeg in the summer of 1986.

Arniel had been with the Manitoba Moose organization since the 1996-97 season. He signed with the club as a free agent during the summer of 1996 right after he was a member of the Turner Cup champions, the Utah Grizzlies. Arniel would play the final three seasons of his 18-year pro career with Manitoba registering totals of 67 goals, 104 assists for 171 points. In 1996-97, he captured the team's unsung hero award, and followed up with a 70-point season in 1997-98 to earn him the Moose's Most Valuable Player award. Arniel was also named as Moose captain for his final two seasons (1997-98, 1998-99). Following the 1998-99 season, Arniel made the transition from player to the coaching ranks and for the last three seasons served as an Assistant Coach with the Moose. He worked with Randy Carlyle for two years before performing a similar role last season under Stan Smyl.

His first two seasons in Buffalo, Arniel played with then team captain Lindy Ruff and the two would cross paths several times during their playing careers. Ruff and Arniel were also members of the IHL's San Diego Gulls in 1992-93. Arniel was known as one of the best two-way players in the league and was twice named the Sabres recipient of the teams' unsung hero award (1987-1988). Arniel was traded back to Winnipeg by the Sabres for now Hall of Fame member Dale Hawerchuk. Arniel and Hawerchuk were teammates with Cornwall during their junior hockey careers where they won two straight Memorial Cups (1980 and 1981), and were both selected by Winnipeg in the 1981 Entry Draft; Hawerchuk with the first pick overall and Arniel with the first pick in the second round. Scott would go on to play 730 NHL career games with Winnipeg, Buffalo and Boston recording 149 goals, 189 assists and 338 points.

A Kingston, Ontario-native, Scott and his wife, Lia, have two children: Brendan (12) and Stephanie (9).

DOUG McKENNEY

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Doug McKenney returns for his eighth season on the Sabres' coaching staff. His duties with the team include working on strength and conditioning programs with the NHL club, the AHL affiliate Rochester Americans, Sabres draft choices, as well as in conjunction with Buffalo's Director of Player Personnel Don Luce on potential draftees. He also works with physical therapists and team doctors on the rehabilitation of all injured players.

McKenney, 44, was named the team's first-ever Strength and Conditioning Coach in July 1995 and has been steadily improving the team's performance levels ever since. The 2001-02 Sabres finished the regular season seventh in the NHL with 139 man-games lost to injury, a figure augmented by Slava Kozlov's long-term achilles injury, which caused him to miss the final 43 games of the season. The team's durability over the last five years has been a tribute to McKenney's programs with the team consistently finishing near the top in the least amount of man-games lost category (1997-98 rank: 1st, 1998-99 rank: 2nd, 1999-00 rank: 4th, 2000-01 rank: 3rd, 2001-02 rank: 7th). In addition to those achievements, the Sabres had five skaters appear in all 82 games; the most since the 1993-94 season, while goaltender Martin Biron tied the franchise record by appearing in 72 games. Only New Jersey's Martin Brodeur appeared in more games (73).

McKenney places a special emphasis on teaching players nutrition to maintain conditioning throughout the season and make strength gains in the offseason. He has developed recommended menus for local restaurants and chains, which players can consult to help make smart food choices. McKenney also utilizes computer software to analyze each player's food intake and make suggestions on how they can improve their diets. Before the players leave for the offseason, Doug, in conjunction with the hockey department, devises a conditioning manual and video tailored to each player's individual needs and can track their workouts via the internet. For those players who remain in Buffalo, McKenney supervises their off-season conditioning and skating programs.

McKenney joined the Sabres in June 1995 after serving as the Hartford Whalers strength and conditioning coach for six years. He served in the same capacity for the Pittsburgh Penguins the four years prior.

A 1981 graduate of Springfield College, McKenney taught two years of physical education at Dover High School in New Hampshire where he served on the coaching staff of the school's football team and was elected into the Dover Sports Hall of Fame in September of 2002. He subsequently obtained his master's degree in exercise physiology at Mississippi State University.

Doug and his wife Suzanne reside in Hamburg, New York with their two children, sons Matthew (15) and Neil (13).

DENNIS COLE

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Dennis Cole is entering his fifth season with the Sabres as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Dennis had previously interned with the team while an undergraduate at Canisius College. Dennis is certified as a Health and Fitness Instructor by the American College of Sports Medicine, as well as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

As Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach to Doug McKenney, Coles's main responsibilities during the season entail working with the Sabres AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans. With the Amerks, Dennis organizes the team's off-office conditioning, weight training, and nutrition analysis. In the offseason, he assists McKenney with monitoring current players and prospects conditioning levels and developing conditioning programs.

Dennis, a native of Clarence, NY, received his undergraduate and Masters degrees from Canisius College in Non-Teaching Physical Education with Concentration in Physical Science. He and his wife, Carrie, reside in Amherst, NY with their infant daughter Morgan.

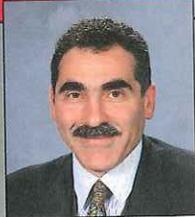

JEFF HOLBROOK

Administrative Assistant Coach

This season marks Jeff's 11th season with the Sabres, and fifth in his current role of Administrative Assistant Coach. He joined the team in 1992 as the club's Media Relations Assistant and has consistently worked his way up the ranks as he held the positions of Director of Public Relations and Director of Team Operations before moving into his current position. Before joining the Sabres, Holbrook was with the Rochester Americans for five seasons.

As the team's Administrative Assistant Coach, Jeff is responsible for all the video editing and analysis of games, as well as prescouting each opponent. He is also involved in various other hockey department issues, including organizing travel schedules and statistical analysis. Jeff received his Bachelors Degree in Communications in 1988 from St. John Fisher College and was named Who's Who Among College Students. His outstanding collegiate career was highlighted by being selected a three-time football All-American at wide receiver and named 1986 Offensive Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Football Association. Holbrook was inducted into the St. John Fisher College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. He is currently pursuing his master's degree at the University at Buffalo. Jeff and his wife Michelle, reside in Williamsville, New York, with their daughter Findlay (3) and son Cavanaugh (1).

JIM CORSI

Goaltending Coach

Jim Corsi enters his fifth year as the Sabres goaltending coach. His duties with the team involve working with the Sabres NHL netminders as well as the team's prospects throughout the minor leagues. The products of Corsi's teachings have been seen in the development of Martin Biron and Mika Noronen. Both have been named Minor Pro Prospect of the Year by The Hockey News; Noronen in 2000 and 2001 (the only player to ever achieve that honor in two consecutive seasons) and Biron in 1999.

Biron showed his promise over the final 41 games of the 2001-02 season, when he made 36 starts posting a record of 18-11-7 with three shutouts, 1.94 GAA and .927 save percentage. In addition, he held the opposition to two or less goals in 26 of his 36 starts going 16-5-5 in those games. Marty ended the season on a seven-game undefeated streak, posting a 5-0-2 record. In the seven starts, Marty recorded one shutout and allowed just 11 goals for a 1.53 GAA and a .946 save percentage. He finished the season in the top tier among all goaltenders in wins (31), GAA (2.22) and save percentage (.915). Only Martin Brodeur of New Jersey appeared in more games than the 72 Biron played in.

Jim brings with him over 20 years of experience as a player, coach, manager and hockey analyst. Previously, he held the position of Goaltending Coach with the Canadian Women's Team (1997-98), Ottawa University (CIAU) (1997-98), Schwenningen HC (Ger/DEL) (1997-98), St. Michael's Majors (OHL) (1994-97), McGill University (CIAU) (1992) and Concordia University (CIAU) (1992-present). Corsi is a member of the Concordia University Athletic Hall of Fame in hockey and soccer.

As a professional player, Jim played with the Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars, as well as the Quebec Nordiques of the WHA before going overseas to play international hockey in Europe, Russia, and China from 1980-92. During that time, he was a member of the Italian National Team at the 1984 Winter Olympic Games, as well as representing Italy several times in the World Ice Hockey Championships.

Jim is fluent in English, French, Italian and German. He and his wife Cathy reside in Ile Bizard, Quebec with their two sons Stephen (20) and Danny (17).

RON BERTOVICH

Executive Vice President/Administration

Ron Bertovich enters his fifth full season as Executive Vice President/Administration of the Buffalo Sabres and HSBC Arena. With the organization since April 1998, Bertovich oversees most non-hockey operations, including marketing, sales, broadcasting, arena athletics, operations and ticket sales. Ron also serves as the Governor of the National Lacrosse League's Buffalo Bandits, and is a member of the NLL's Executive Committee and Expansion Committee.

From 1994 through 1998, Ron served as Vice President and General Manager of Empire Sports Network. While at Empire, Bertovich oversaw the introduction of FAN TV and the Empire Sports Report—interview and highlight shows which focus on regional sports stories while providing extensive live programming during the broadcast day. On the affiliate side, the network subscriber base increased from over 400,000 to over 1 million throughout western and central New York.

Prior to joining the network, Ron served as Commissioner of the Atlantic 10 Conference from 1986 to 1994. He played a major role in creating a comprehensive television package and greatly increased exposure for the league's men's and women's basketball teams. Upon his departure, the conference was conducting championships and recognizing student-athletes in 18 sports.

Bertovich is also directly involved in administering major amateur athletic events to HSBC Arena, including the 2000 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Round, the already sold-out 2003 NCAA Men's Ice Hockey Frozen Four championship and the 2004 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Round, numerous MAAC Men's and Women's Basketball Championships along with numerous marquee collegiate basketball and hockey events.

Ron graduated from St. Francis (PA) University in 1976 with a degree in Business Management. He has also earned a master's degree in Industrial Relations from St. Francis and a master's degree in Sports Administration from Ohio State University.

Ron currently sits on the Board of Directors of the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame and helped pave the way for the relocation of that association's Hall of Fame exhibit to a more prominent location in HSBC Arena. Ron also serves on the board of the Buffalo Niagara Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Niagara University Athletics Board of Advisors, the National Conference of Community and Justice (NCCJ), the Greater Buffalo YMCA Board of Directors and serves as a tri-chair of the City Region of the United Way of Buffalo annual campaign. Ron is also a member of the board of the Amherst Chamber of Commerce and serves on the board of the Niagara Regional Sports Foundation, established to promote amateur sports events throughout the Niagara region.

A native of Bentleyville, PA, Ron and his wife Cheryl reside in Getzville with daughters Meghan (16) and Kimberly (14).

MICHAEL GILBERT

Vice President/Communications

Michael Gilbert, who joined the Sabres organization as Director of Communications, was promoted to Vice President/Communications on November 19, 1998. Gilbert oversees the Communications Department for the Sabres, as well as for the Buffalo Bandits (NLL) and all amateur athletics. He is entering his sixth year with the club after joining the Sabres on September 2, 1997. Prior to joining the Sabres, Michael was the Director of Public Relations for the New Jersey Devils from 1995-1997. He was part of a staff in New Jersey that earned the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's Dick Dillman Award for excellence in public relations for the 1996-97 season. Gilbert's success followed him to the Sabres where the Communications Department there was acknowledged with the Dillman Award in 1997-98. Before his move to the NHL, Michael was the Assistant Director of Public Relations for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for four years (1991-95), assisting with the day-to-day operations of that team's PR department. Michael's football background also includes stints as Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the WFLA (1990) and as a Graduate Assistant with the Buffalo Bills (1988-90). The move to the Sabres represented a homecoming for Gilbert, who grew up in the Buffalo suburb of Tonawanda. Michael graduated from Canisius College in Buffalo with degrees in Communications and History. He and his wife Amy reside in Amherst, New York, with their sons, Mark (3) and Jack (1).

GREGG HULLER

Director of Communications

Gregg Huller enters his fourth season with the Sabres, and third as the team's Director of Communications. Previously, he served as the Sabres' Communications Coordinator and as a Graduate Assistant prior to the start of the 1998-99 season. Prior to joining the Sabres, he worked in the areas of marketing and health insurance with two local companies. In Gregg's role with the team, he serves as a liaison between the Sabres organization and the media. He is primarily responsible for arranging player interviews, coordinating press conferences, writing press releases and assisting in game-day operations. Gregg graduated from University at Buffalo in 1994 with a bachelors degree in U.S. History, and went on to receive his masters degree in sports administration from Canisius College in 1998. He and his wife Beth reside in Williamsville, New York.

KEVIN WILES

Communications Coordinator - Buffalo Sabres

Kevin Wiles enters his third season as the Sabres Communications Coordinator. After spending the 1998-99 season as an intern in the Communications Department, Kevin was then hired as the full time graduate assistant for the 1999-2000 season. In the summer of 2000, he worked as the Graduate Assistant in the Buffalo Bills Communications Department where he was also a training camp and game day intern. He got his start in sports in 1998 as a summer intern with the Buffalo Bills Public and Community Relations Department. In his role with the Sabres, Kevin oversees all of the teams' publications and press notes. He also assists in the maintenance of the team's web site and works as the Sabres contact for the NHL's real time scoring system. A 1999 graduate of Medaille College, Kevin was born and raised in Buffalo where he still resides.

GARRY DUNLAP

Communications Coordinator - Arena Athletics - Buffalo Bandits

Garry enters his fourth season with the Sabres as Communications Coordinator. Dunlap began with the organization as an intern in the Community Relations Department during the 1996-97 season. In his current role with the Sabres, Garry assists with the editing of publications including the training camp guide, media guide and post season guide. He also is involved in the Community Relations department with autograph signings, player appearances, and the Warrenner Corner. In addition to his Sabres duties, Garry is the coordinator of Amateur Athletics for the Arena and Public Relations Director for the Buffalo Bandits of the National Lacrosse League. Garry graduated from Medaille College in 1998 with a Bachelors Degree in Sports Management. He and his wife Rina reside in Niagara Falls, New York.

Any player who took part in at least one Sabres regular season game in his career is listed. Eight players dressed but never played a game for Buffalo: #27 - Tim Regan (1973-74), #31 - Jim Weaver (1978-79), #30 - Jari Paavola (1981-82), #35 - Mike Craig (1984-85), #34 - Kenton Rein (1987-88), #33 - Bill Pye (1992-93), #30 - Markus Ketterer (1993-94 & 1994-95), and #68 - Scott Buhler (1996-97), #00 - Martin Biron served as backup goaltender and did not play (3 times in 1996-97, 1 time in 1997-98). Michel Deziel is the only Sabre to have played in a playoff game without participating in a regular season game.

BUFFALO SABRES RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only four numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on October 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres' history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Rick Martin (#7) and Rene Robert (#14) joined Perreault in ceremonies to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on November 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on January 5, 1996.

#11 Gilbert Perreault

Center (1970-71 to 1986)

Career Sabres Totals: 1,191 games played, 512 goals, 814 assists, 1,326 points
(regular season) 90 games played, 33 goals, 70 assists,
103 points (playoffs)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first-ever draft choice and set the standard for all future Sabres to be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November, 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number eleven in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, will never be another.

#7 Rick Martin

Left Wing (1971-72 to 1980-81)

Career Sabres Totals: 681 games played, 382 goals, 313 assists, 695 points
(regular season) 62 games played, 24 goals, 29 assists,
53 points (playoffs)

Buffalo Sabre fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number seven's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season.

Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't even wearing a Sabres' uniform. On January 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two one-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories.

#14 Rene Robert

Right Wing (1971-72 to 1978-79)

Career Sabres Totals: 524 games played, 222 goals, 330 assists, 552 points
(regular season) 47 games played, 22 goals, 17 assists,
39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabre mark by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on December 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number seven in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

#2 Tim Horton

Defense (1972-73 to 1973-74)

Career Sabres Totals: 124 games played, 1 goal, 22 assists, 23 points
(regular season) 6 games played, 0 goals, 1 assist,
1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the Intra-League draft in June of 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates.

Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the post-season. Included in his playing days was eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

The highest honor bestowed by the Buffalo Sabres is induction into the team's Hall of Fame. The Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame Committee is comprised of: Rick Azar, Larry Felsler, Rick Jeanneret, Jim Kelley, Seymour H. Knox, IV, Wayne Redshaw and Paul Wieland.

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

Seven people with connections to the Buffalo Sabres are members of the Hockey Hall of Fame. Sabres' co-founder Seymour H. Knox, III, along with former Sabre coaches Scotty Bowman, George "Punch" Imlach and Marcel Pronovost have all been honored with induction into the Hall of Fame. Joining the previous mentioned are former Sabre players Tim Horton and Gilbert Perreault. Long-time team broadcaster Ted Darling was inducted in November of 1994 upon receiving the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award for excellence in broadcasting.

RANDY CUNNEYWORTH
Rochester Americans Head Coach

Randy Cunneynworth enters his third season as the head coach of the Rochester Americans. Last season he led the Amerks (32-30-15-3, 82 points) to a second place finish in the Central Division and a berth in the American Hockey League Playoffs.

In two seasons with Rochester, Cunneynworth has a record of 78-52-24-6 (.581 winning percentage). The former Rochester American has also led the team to two straight appearances in the Calder Cup Playoffs.

He had a stellar rookie campaign behind the Amerks bench in 2000-01, registering a 46-22-9-3 record. With 104 points, Rochester won its third straight division and Western Conference regular season titles.

Cunneynworth is the 26th head coach in the history of the storied hockey franchise, joining the coaching ranks on Sept. 8, 2000. Prior to his coaching career, the 41-year-old Cunneynworth played 20 seasons of professional hockey and spent his last two years with the Amerks as a left winger/assistant coach. During that stint with Rochester (1998-99 to 1999-00), the Amerks were the Empire Division and Western Conference regular season and playoff champions. The Amerks reached the Calder Cup Finals both seasons.

He started his professional playing career in Rochester in 1980-81. Cunneynworth played parts of seven seasons with the Amerks, earning 239 points (101+138). He currently ranks 20th on the franchise's all-time point list and is 12th in games played (366) and 18th in goals. The native of Etobicoke, Ontario, was a member of the Amerks' 1982-83 Calder Cup winning team, before moving to the National Hockey League in 1985-86. Cunneynworth played 16 seasons in the NHL with the Buffalo Sabres, Pittsburgh Penguins, Winnipeg Jets, Hartford Whalers, Chicago Blackhawks, and the Ottawa Senators. In 866 NHL games, he collected 189 goals and 225 assists for 414 points.

In 35 career games with Buffalo, Cunneynworth registered four goals and six assists. During the 1998-99 season he appeared in his first Stanley Cup Final against the Dallas Stars, playing in three games with the Sabres. That same postseason he played for the Amerks as they battled the Providence Bruins for the 1999 Calder Cup.

The following season, he registered eight goals and 16 assists for 24 points in 52 games for the Amerks before suffering a season-ending knee injury. He was named the captain for Team Canada in the 2000 Kodak AHL All-Star Game held in Rochester. Cunneynworth passed the 100-goal plateau as an Amerk during the 1999-2000 season, scoring his 100th and 101st goals in a 5-0 win over the Saint John Flames on February 16, 2000.

Cunneynworth was also the 1999-2000 recipient of the Fred T. Hunt Memorial Award. The award is voted upon by the AHL Broadcasters and Writers Association and honors the player that best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship, determination and dedication to hockey. He was awarded the Amerks Booster Club Most Popular Player Award for 1999-2000 as well.

In 20 years of pro hockey, he played in 1,234 games and registered 290 goals, 363 assists and 1,851 penalty minutes. Randy currently resides in Pittsford, NY, with his wife, Jenny, and two sons, Gregory and Cameron.

JON CHRISTIANO
Rochester Americans Assistant Coach

Jon Christiano enters his fifth season with the Rochester Americans and third with Head Coach Randy Cunneynworth. With Christiano as an assistant coach, the Amerks have made two trips to the Calder Cup Finals (1998-99 and 1999-2000) and have won three Western Conference championships.

Prior to working with the Buffalo Sabres organization, Christiano spent four years with the Florida Panthers, where from 1995-97 he was the assistant coach for their American Hockey League affiliate, the Carolina Monarchs. Christiano also worked for four seasons as the video coordinator for both the Florida Panthers and New York Rangers, under Head Coach Roger Neilson. Over his career, Jon has worked with eight past or present National Hockey League head coaches.

Christiano also spent 10 years in the Italian National League, working with teams in a variety of roles, including assistant coach, head coach and general manager. He was part of national championship teams in Cavalese, Bolzano and Varese.

Jon is currently the co-director of the World Hockey Institute, which runs an annual free agent camp for professional hopefuls. He also runs youth hockey clinics.

Christiano is a native of Buffalo, NY, and a 1980 graduate of Canisius College, where he played with current Windsor Spitfires (OHL) General Manager Michael Kelly. Jon and his wife Linda have two daughters - Christiana, 11, and Natalia, 5.

Again this season, all Sabre games will be broadcast on the team's flagship radio station WNSA 107.7 FM. Calling the action will be the television tandem of Rick Jeanneret and Jim Lorentz. The Sabres will simulcast on radio each game televised on the Empire Sports Network.

The Empire Sports Network again serves as the team's television home. Empire is a regional sports network that is in its 13th year of operation. The Network services millions of cable subscribers across the Northeast region of the United States and is also available on the DirecTV and Primestar home satellite systems.

Rick Jeanneret

Currently the longest tenured broadcaster in hockey, the 2002-03 season marks Rick Jeanneret's 32nd year with the Buffalo Sabres. He began with the team prior to the 1971-72 season, serving as the club's radio voice and held that post until 1995. Jeanneret then became the television play-by-play announcer, beginning with the 1995-96 campaign. He broadcast his first game during the 1971 preseason for the Cincinnati Swords (the Sabres' minor league team at the time).

Jeanneret earned his start in 1963 while attending a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game in which he filled in for the regular announcer who had taken ill. He then went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

A native of St. Catharines, Ontario, Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Canada, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

Jim Lorentz

Versatility has been a trademark of Lorentz' career as a player and broadcaster for the Sabres. Beginning in 1981, he has been involved as the color commentator for radio and in his present role of television commentator since the 1992-93 season.

Lorentz played 10 seasons in the NHL with Boston, St. Louis, the New York Rangers and Buffalo. His 331 points rank him fourteenth in all-time scoring for the Sabres, totaling 134 goals, 197 assists in 487 games. He retired in 1978 with 399 points in the NHL and a Stanley Cup Championship with the Bruins in 1970.

In addition to his work with the Sabres, the Waterloo, Ontario, native runs a hockey program for youth each summer.

Danny Gare

This former Sabres captain is beginning his sixth season as an ice-level reporter for the organization, which drafted him in the second round in 1974. Prior to his current post, Gare served as the radio color analyst during the 1995-96 season.

After 13 seasons in the NHL, Gare retired in 1987 after compiling 354 goals, 331 assists for 685 points in 827 games with Buffalo, Detroit and Edmonton. He scored on his first shift in the NHL and ranks 9th in Sabre history with 500 points. Gare reached the 50-goal mark twice in his career with Buffalo, scoring exactly 50 in 1975-76, and later tied for the NHL's goal-scoring title with a career-best 56 in 1979-80.

A native of Nelson, British Columbia, Gare was elected in to the Sabres' Hall of Fame in 1994.

Requests for information should be directed to the Sabres' Communications Department, Buffalo Sabres, HSBC Arena, One Seymour H. Knox, III Plaza, Buffalo, NY 14203. The phone number is (716) 855-4100. Fax transmissions can be sent to (716) 855-4110.

Season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact Michael Gilbert (855-4526) or Gregg Huller (855-4509) by 5 p.m. the day before a game, and by 5 p.m. on Friday before a Sunday game. Requests for individual game seating should be provided on your media outlet's letterhead (via fax). Furthermore, free-lance photographers will be admitted on an assignment-only basis, which must come from the photo editor. Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis.

The media entrance to HSBC Arena is located at the plaza area on the east (Illinois Street) side of the building, aligned with the middle of the parking ramp.

All requests for pre-game live shots should be coordinated through a member of the Communications Department and Senior Director Broadcasting/Production Services Joe Guarneri (855-4474) to assure location and transmission.

The Sabres' press lounge opens two hours before game time, and also serves as the media work room, it can be reached by turning right upon entering the building at the media entrance (mentioned above).

Press credentials can be picked up before 4:30 p.m. at the arena's security office. From 4:30 p.m. on, the passes will be at the media entrance described above (please note that pick up times will be adjusted for afternoon games).

To reach the press box, return back toward (and just past) the security office/media entrance and ride the freight elevator to the top/press level (indicated with a "P" in the elevator).

Credentials should be displayed at all times for admission to the press box, press lounge/work room, and dressing room areas. YOUR COOPERATION IS APPRECIATED IN MAINTAINING A WORKING ATMOSPHERE IN THE LOCKER ROOM(S). ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPH REQUESTS. VIOLATORS WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE.

Please note that smoking is prohibited not only in both the press lounge/work room and the press box, but in the whole arena (under N.Y. State law).

There are electrical outlets and phone jacks at all seats in the press box, but phone lines are not active unless arrangements are made by calling Al Weissman at 855-4481. Please keep in mind that there is a minimum number of pool phones in the press box for use by visiting media as well as two pay phones.

Practices that cannot be held at HSBC Arena, will take place at the Pepsi Center. Practices are open to the media, and reporters should contact Gregg Huller in the Communications Department to verify times (716) 855-4509.

DIRECTIONS TO HSBC ARENA

HSBC Arena is on Buffalo's waterfront at the end of Washington Street. It is bordered by Main and Illinois Streets, and South Park Avenue. There are several parking lots in that area. For directions see below or for more detailed information, contact the Sabres at (716) 855-4100.

From N.Y. State Thruway (90): Take Interstate 90 to downtown Buffalo to 190 North (exit 53). Recommended: Take exit 5 (Hamburg St.), turning right onto Hamburg Street. Turn right onto Perry Street (first light) or South Park Ave. (second light). HSBC Arena is two blocks ahead with parking past Michigan Ave.

Alternate: From 190, take exit 6 (Elm Street). Stay to the right on exit ramp and exit onto Seneca Street. Take Seneca St. to first light and turn right onto Michigan Avenue (first light). Turn right onto Michigan Ave. (over bridge), turn right onto Perry Street (second street over bridge). HSBC Arena is one block ahead with parking available on either side of Perry Street.

From Canada and North: Take the 190 South heading toward downtown Buffalo. Exit at Niagara Street and head toward downtown. Turn right on South Elmwood Avenue (before City Hall) and continue until you cross Church Street, at that point Elmwood becomes Lower Terrace (Adam's Mark Hotel on your right). Travel on Lower Terrace and turn right on Washington. The HSBC is at the end of Washington.

DIRECTIONS TO THE PEPSI CENTER

(coming from Greater Buffalo/Niagara International Airport)

Exit the airport and follow signs to the Kensington Expressway (33 West). Take 90 East to 290 West. Exit 290 at Millersport North. Take Maple Road exit and turn right onto Maple Road. Turn left at first light onto North Mapleme. Pepsi Center is located at the end of North Mapleme.

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Game-Tying Goal: The final goal in a tie game.

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a win, tie or loss if he is on the ice when either the game-winning or game-tying goal is scored.

Penalty-Killing Percentage: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of short handed situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout (Combined): If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Tie-Breaking Formula: At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

- First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
- The higher number of points earned by the Club.
- The greater number of games won by the Club.
- The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
- The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

Abduction: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Adduction: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the under side of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

Clavicle: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Coccyx: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Corticosteroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

Disc Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

Fascia: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

Meniscus: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee - medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Desiccans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Plantar Fasciitis: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radius: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Tarsals: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tenosynovitis: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

Tibia: Shin bone; larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

"Wind Knocked Out!": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Order of Selection for Entry Draft

The order of selection among the Member Clubs in each season shall be determined in the following manner:
 A composite of all Member Clubs shall be prepared by placing:

- i) First the Clubs which failed to qualify for the next preceding playoffs in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest points total and followed by the Club having the next lowest points total, and so forth.
- ii) The Clubs which participated in the next preceding playoffs (but had not been ranked first in their respective Divisions and had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.
- iii) The Clubs which had been ranked first in their Divisions during the next preceding season (but had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.
- iv) The Stanley Cup winner shall select last, thus, positioning all Clubs on the list.

In the event of a tie for any position, such tie shall be resolved by application of the rules governing the determination of final League standings. The resulting list shall constitute the order of selection.

Entry Draft Player Eligibility

All players age 19 or older [(i) any player who will be age 18 on or before September 15 in the year in which such Entry Draft is held, or (ii) reaches his 19th birthday between September 16 and December 31, both dates included, next following Entry Draft, can attain eligibility by delivering to the League a written notice (Opt in Form) prior to the later of May 1, or seven (7) days following the date such player finishes competing on his team in the year in which such draft is to be held.] are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

- (i) A player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
- (ii) A player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
- (iii) A player who previously played in the League and became a free agent pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement;
- (iv) A player age 21 or older who had played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19 or 20.

Unsigned Draft Choices

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

Entry Level Plays

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when first under contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.
2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-Man Roster

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

Injured Reserve List

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

Regular Season Waivers

1. For the purposes of regular season waivers, the five-year exemption for an 18-year-old skater and four-year exemption for a 19-year-old skater are both reduced to three years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. For the purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. The next two seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption.
2. For purposes of regular season waivers, the six-year exemption for an 18-year-old goaltender and five-year exemption for a 19-year-old goaltender are both reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. For purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to five years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 games or more. The next three seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any games in any season, shall count as the next three years toward satisfying the exemption.
3. The first season in which a player who is age 20 or older plays in one or more professional games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from waivers.

NOTE: Professional games include NHL regular season games, NHL playoff games, all minor league regular season and playoff games and any other professional games including but not limited to, play in European Leagues when players is on loan to such Clubs and while player is party to a Player Contract.

4. The rights granted to assign a player (who is otherwise required to clear waivers) to a minor NHL Club expire for any player, who, after clearing the waiver draft or regular-season waivers, is not sent to a minor NHL Club, or is recalled from a minor NHL Club (except on emergency recall) and remains on an NHL roster for 30 days cumulative or plays 10 NHL games cumulative.

Tie-Breaking Procedures

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

- a) First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
- b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
- c) The greater number of games won by the Club.
- d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
- e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on December 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres". The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie-of-the-Year.

Another Junior Canadian, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would go on to become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970's.

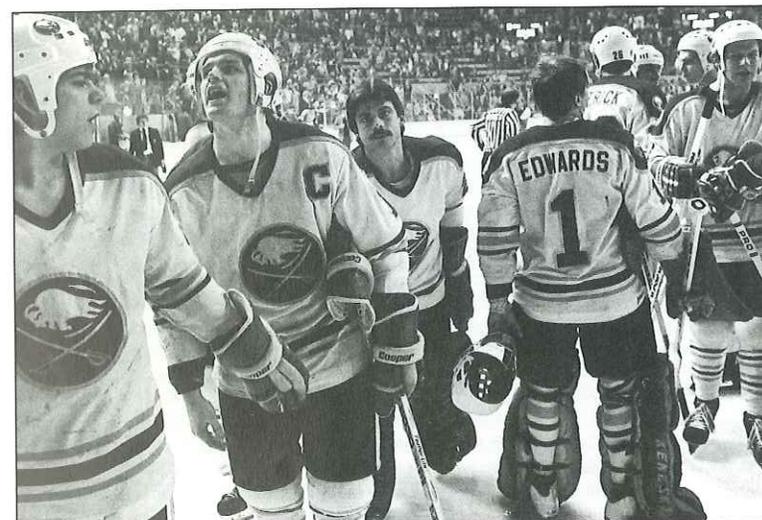

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record still the best-ever numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs followed by a second round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. The Flyers went on to defeat the Sabres in six games, but it did not blemish the accomplishment of a team who had only been in the league for five years.

One of the most memorable moments in the franchise's first decade occurred on January 4, 1976 when the Sabres played host to the powerful Soviet Wings in an exhibition game at The Aud. With Cold War tensions still running high, the game had an intensity far beyond the average regular season game. Buffalo put on a dominating performance, defeating the Wings 12-6 in what ranked at the time as the worst-ever loss by a Soviet team in international competition.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as Head Coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost 4-2 to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman still holds the Sabres record for most games coached (404) and finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk, and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of some successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980's, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986 Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame.

This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals from Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post their first playoff series win in ten years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarter Finals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game 1-0 in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 season was already one of the most memorable in team history. On a sad note, this season would represent the first without founder Seymour H. Knox, III, who passed away in the spring of 1996. It would also represent the first time in the team's history that they would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first-strict title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981. Buffalo's performance seemed a fitting tribute to the memory of Seymour Knox.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Dominik Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shone brightly, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies. Earlier in the year, Hasek had also been instrumental in leading the underdog Czech Republic to a Gold Medal at the Winter Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan.

The year ended on a sad note when team co-founder Northrup Knox passed away in July 1998. The Knox brothers persistence in acquiring a franchise and their determination to keep it in Buffalo will forever resonate with hockey fans in Western New York. Shortly before his death, Knox orchestrated the sale of the team to John, Tim, Michael, and James Rigas of Adelphia Cable Communications.

Buffalo returned to the ECF the following year, this time facing their geographical rival, the Toronto Maple Leafs. In what would be known as the cross-border series, the Sabres defeated Toronto 4-1 to reach the Stanley Cup Finals for just the second time in team history. The Dallas Stars would be the Sabres finals opponent, and the two teams proved to be evenly matched in the lowest scoring Stanley Cup in history. With Buffalo trailing 3 games to 2 in Game Six, Brett Hull slid the puck past Hasek in the third overtime to clinch the Cup for the Stars. Replays would later show that Hull's skate was in the crease, but officials let the goal stand to the dismay of Sabres fans.

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-2000 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the National Hockey League.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory as the Sabres won the fourth most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar post season with three goals, a team high ten assists and 13 total points. 2000-01 also turned out to be a breakout season as several members of the Sabres had career offensive years. J.P. Dumont proved to be a valuable addition as he and Erik Rasmussen each enjoyed offensive success. Alexei Zhitnik returned to the offensive production of earlier in his career and Rhett Warner also set career offensive numbers as he and Jay McKee worked as the team's top defensive tandem. As a whole, the Sabres were the leagues top defensive allowed the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Dave Andreychuk proved that you can go home, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals, eight on the power play, and add some veteran leadership to a young yet maturing hockey club. Another former Sabres returned as Donald Audette, who was acquired at the trade deadline along with Steve Heinze, added another element to the Sabres as the team headed into the postseason. And as he was in past seasons, Dominik Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

The 2001-02 season marked somewhat of a new start for the Sabres. Gone through trades are Hasek and former captain Michael Peca, but in their places come rising stars Tim Connolly and Taylor Pyatt and veteran goal scorer Vyacheslav Kozlov. The addition of these new players combined with the nucleus of a team that last season advanced past the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the third time in four seasons and the Sabres will remain a team to be contended with in the Eastern Conference. With a young yet proven Martin Biron in goal and Lindy Ruff, the teams all-time post season and second overall winningest coach in team history behind the bench, Buffalo will have a team that will once again battle to get their hands on Lord Stanley's Cup.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES UNIFORM

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into their new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest in which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October, 1970 until April, 1996, reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, it was a patch in honor of that winter's Olympic games in Lake Placid, New York, that was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the now legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting then that ten years later a Buffalo Sabres 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jersey's. In their first season in the new uniforms, the team honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

In 1999, the NHL2000 logo was affixed to every team uniform in the league in anticipation of the new millennium. The Sabres also looked forward to the new year to bring about a new tradition of Stanley Cup championships.

On November 22, 2000 the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The new jersey pays tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996.

The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970's blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990's. The word "BUFFALO" appears on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also features the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders.

Note: Jager Di Paola Kemp (JDK) Design - a Burlington, Vermont firm founded in 1987 - is the company that created the Sabres third jersey and the teams current uniform designed in 1996.

Perhaps the only thing greater than the Buffalo Sabres commitment to winning on the ice is our commitment to play a large role with our community teammates off of the ice. Community Development is the team's planned, active and continuing participation with various groups throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. Our goal is to maintain and enhance the environment to the benefit of both the Buffalo Sabres and our surrounding communities. Our commitment is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life for all of our fans throughout the region. Nowhere is that dedication more apparent than in the team's community relations efforts.

Our leadership role combines financial support, in-kind donations, numerous outstanding community programs and the personal involvement of our players, coaches, front office staff and the entire organization. The Buffalo Sabres take great pride in playing an active part in our community and clearly recognize that we are more than just a hockey team, we are a partner, a neighbor and a teammate to the community.

"Face-off for Fun Carnival"

Nowhere else can you combine family entertainment with National Hockey League stars. This annual event provides fans the opportunity to meet Buffalo Sabres players, alumni and management staff for a great time. Fans are able to step into the HSBC Arena and tour the locker room, have their picture taken with a favorite player, get an autograph or participate in the many carnival games throughout the Arena. Close to $100,000 has been donated in proceeds raised from the 2001-2002 "Face-Off For Fun" carnival to United Cerebral Palsy, St. Catharines Minor Hockey and the Buffalo Museum of Science. In 2000-2001 the Carnival proceeds benefited Cradle Beach Camp, People Inc. and the St. Catharines Hospital Nuclear Medicine Gamma Camera Unit.

Warrener Corner

Since his arrival into the Western New York area more than three years ago, Buffalo Sabres defenseman Rhett Warrener has been a steady contributor on and off of the ice. His "Warrener Corner" provides tickets, food and beverages to children who normally might not get a chance to see a Sabres game at HSBC Arena. Warrener literally caps off the evening for the "corner" with autographed shirts and caps for those in attendance.

Sabretooth

Don't let Sabretooth's fangs fool you, he's warm, he's fuzzy and he'll entertain you. Always ready to give a hug, pose for pictures and sign autographs, Sabretooth is ingratiating to all he meets. Besides being inside HSBC Arena for every Sabres home game, Sabretooth makes over 400 outside appearances a year. As one of the most popular mascots in Western New York and Southern Ontario, Sabretooth makes multiple appearances at corporate and community functions. Our prehistoric character has been spotted at grand openings, trade shows, business parties and expositions. Sabretooth has participated in parades, festivals, school and library activities, and various fundraisers throughout the community. For more information, please call 855-4586.

Buffalo Sabres Hockey School

This past summer marked the return of the Buffalo Sabres Hockey School. Newly hired youth hockey manager Pat Fisher welcomed close to 80 youngsters to the Amherst Pepsi Center for a week filled with instruction, development tips and some special instructors. Buffalo Sabres Tim Connolly, Rob Ray, Curtis Brown, Denis Hamel, Rhett Warrener, Eric Boulton and others provided the lessons to improve hockey skills while stressing the spirit of good sportsmanship, pride in work, trust in teammates and the importance of enjoying your time on the ice.

As an organization, the Sabres are committed to helping develop young hockey players in the Western New York & Southern Ontario region and look forward to the opportunity of working with area hockey families to build skill and enthusiasm for the great game of hockey.

For more information about the Buffalo Sabres Hockey School, upcoming camps and clinics, or how to get our team to help your team call the Buffalo Sabres Youth Hockey Development department at 716-855-4459.

Oxygen Icebreakers

In its second year of existence, the Oxygen Icebreakers program aims to give girls the same developmental start in the game of hockey that the boys get. Buffalo Sabres Head Coach Lindy Ruff is the honorary spokesperson for the five-week hockey experience that leads the girls through on-ice instruction with Niagara University women's hockey head coach Margot Page and The Nichols School hockey head coach Sarah Gelman. The Icebreaker participants are then treated to tours of the Purple Eagles facility and tickets to an NCAA Division I hockey game. The program culminates with an on-ice scrimmage at HSBC Arena, tickets to a Sabres game and recognition of the participants on the ice.

Making Spirits Bright

Each year the Buffalo Sabres organization, the players and their wives take on projects in an attempt to put smiles on the faces of some of our neighbors. Dealing with serious illness is difficult for all of us. Sometimes a visit and a special "pick me up" is just what the doctor ordered. As a result, the Sabres' players make hospital visits to our special fans during their time of need.

Players continued the tradition of making holiday time visits to Children's Hospital and Roswell Park Cancer Institute this past year, bringing with them gifts and toys and even helping to decorate Christmas cookies with their special friends. Their words of encouragement bring a smile to children and parents alike.

Christmas Wreath Auction

The players' better-halves have taken on numerous charitable causes as well over the past few years. Last Christmas during the Buffalo Sabres game against the Chicago Blackhawks, the Sabres wives displayed and auctioned off Christmas wreaths to raise money for a local charity. Julie Barnes and Danica Woolley served as chairwomen for the event. All of the wreaths were donated and decorated by local businesses and contain items from their respective store or business. The event raised over $3,400 and all proceeds from the silent auction benefited the Essential Care Program, a Hospice administered program that helps care for children with life-threatening illnesses.

2002-2003 Tops Sabre Street Program

The Buffalo Sabres along with Tops Friendly Markets and the National Hockey League will once again launch the 2002-2003 Tops Sabre Street Program.

Tops SabreStreet is a program that is focused on making hockey more accessible to kids, while expanding and diversifying the NHL fan base. SabreStreet and its sponsors provide our community with a sports program that promotes education, sportsmanship and fitness through participation in hockey.

The league initiative is in its ninth year and the second year for Tops as the program's major sponsor. Pizza Hut and Pepsi-Cola Buffalo Bottling Corp. have also signed on as major sponsors. Since its inception, SabreStreet has distributed over $115,000 worth of hockey equipment to boys and girls throughout Western New York. The team and the NHL will once again provide brand new street hockey gear to numerous centers throughout the hockey season.

Score For Schools

The Buffalo Sabres have teamed up with the Salvation Army to collect school supplies for underprivileged students in Western New York. The program serviced over 3,000 inner-city school kids during the 2001-2002 school year.

Do you want to help? Have a birthday or special occasion coming up and want to celebrate it with us for a night at HSBC Arena? We can help you celebrate. For a small donation to the Salvation Army Score for School program we will put your special message on the JumbTron. Call the Game Presentation Department at 716-855-4100.

Super Sunday

The Buffalo Sabres and HSBC Arena are proud to play host to the Western New York Club High School Hockey Championships in February. Teams representing high schools throughout the region battle for league championships on the ice where the pros play. The Sabres are committed to making "Super Sunday" a marquee event that showcases the vast talent at the high school level. Team MVP's were awarded autographed jerseys from the Sabres themselves, while all the players skated away with medals and memories.
