

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER

PRESENTED BY  TOYOTA

HOPE LODGE

On November 7, Gritty and Flyers staff in conjunction with the Cathy Miller Cancer Fund visited American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge to serve dinner and host a watch party to see the Flyers beat the Lightning 2-1.

SPA DAY

On November 12, in partnership with Toyota and V Foundation, the Flyers and Flyers Charities hosted women impacted by cancer for a day of relaxation with spa services at Rizzieri Salon & Spa in Moorestown, NJ. Flyers forwards Noah Cates, Ryan Poehling, and Morgan Frost surprised the group and joined them for pedicures, photos, and refreshments.

BENEFICIARIES

JERSEY AUCTION

Fans can bid on player signed Hockey Fights Cancer jerseys and other specialty items at FlyersCharities.com

The auction will be live November 25 at 12:00PM - November 29 at 8:00 PM.

OCTOBER SAVES GOALIES

The Flyers teamed with the non-profit October Saves for the second consecutive season to encourage and engage youth hockey goalies in their efforts to raise funds for cancer research. Flyers goalie Sam Ersson will invite the six goalies that generated the highest donation amounts to the Flyers' Hockey Fights Cancer Game to meet him and watch pregame warm-ups from the Flyers bench.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER GAME

The Flyers will hold their annual Hockey Fights Cancer Game presented by Toyota on Monday, November 25. As part of the league-wide initiative, the Flyers will turn Wells Fargo Center lavender in support of the fight against cancer and honor special guests in-game who have been impacted by cancer and provide them with special experiences like reading the starting line up, watching warmups, and more .
