AT A GLANCE

“HOLLYWOOD NORTH”

Three Kings forwards (Quinton Byfield – Newmarket, Warren Foegele – Markham, and Akil Thomas – Toronto) are natives of the Greater Toronto Area. The Kings' visit to Toronto comes two days after rookie defenseman and Nepean, Ontario native, Brandt Clarke recorded his first career three-point and multi-assist (0-3=3) effort in front of friends and family in his hometown area debut. Byfield (0-2=2, 1 GP) and Foegele (2-1=3, 6 GP) have recorded a combined five points in their past seven individual visits to Scotiabank Arena. Additionally, Head Coach Jim Hiller and Associate Coach D.J. Smith served together behind the Maple Leafs' bench (2015-19).

NINE IS NICE

Forward Adrian Kempe skates into Scotiabank Arena following a two-point (1-1=2) performance in Ottawa on Monday afternoon. The Swedish forward recorded the 69th multi-point game of his career after scoring his first goal of the season and adding an assist on the first of linemate Alex Laferrriere's (2-0=2) two tallies of the day. Kempe is currently underway with his ninth season as an LA King fresh off a stellar 2023-24 campaign that saw him capture the team's Bill Libby Memorial Award for Most Valuable Player. Kempe was the team's leading scorer for the first time in his career, finishing with a career-high 75 points (28-47=75). The 28-year-old topped the Kings' charts in several additional statistical categories, including assists (47), shorthanded goals (3), and shots on goal (246).

THESE THINGS COME IN THREES

Only a few days removed from scoring his seventh career hat trick last Thursday night in Buffalo, forward Anze Kopitar registered his first three assists of the campaign within the first forty minutes of Monday's matinee in Ottawa. In doing so, Kopitar recorded his 303rd multi-point performance and registered three points in a game for the 77th time in his career. The assists stand as the 793rd, 794th, and 795th of Kopitar's career, surpassing Guy Lafleur for sole possession of the 36th most in NHL history. With 1,217 total points (422-795=1,217), the Kings' captain now sits tied with former King Larry Murphy for 46th most points all-time.
