Tom Golisano saw the value of the Buffalo Sabres to Western New York - as an economic and community asset - and in a departure from the world of business, he stepped forward to become the owner of the National Hockey League team.

Golisano, who purchased the Buffalo Sabres on March 14, 2003, is the founder, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Paychex, Inc., headquartered in Rochester, N.Y. Paychex is a leading national provider of payroll, human resource and benefits solutions for small- to medium-sized businesses. The Sabres have made much progress during his brief time as owner and have more plans for the future.

Golisano started Paychex in 1971 at the age of 30, with the intention of primarily serving small businesses. At that time, payroll processors targeted larger employers, those with over 100 employees. Companies with 1 to 200 employees account for approximately 98 percent of all U.S. businesses. What started as a single operation expanded through franchise agreements and joint ventures until Paychex consolidated into one private company in 1979.

By 1983, when Paychex became a public company, the potential of the small-business market had been proven, and Paychex was named to the INC. magazine list of "The Fastest Growing, Privately Held Companies in the U.S." Since then, Paychex has regularly enjoyed double-digit growth. In fiscal 2003, Paychex generated nearly $1.1 billion in service revenues. The company has over 8,500 employees serving more than 490,000 clients.

Paychex and Golisano have consistently been recognized by the business, financial and national media. Paychex began 2003 by being named to FORTUNE's annual list of "100 Best Companies to work For" in America for the second straight year. The company was ranked number 88 in 2003 and number 42 in 2002. Paychex also was named to TRAINING magazine's Top 100 training organizations for a second consecutive year. Paychex ranked number 33 in 2003 and number 58 the previous year. On the 2002 FORBES 500 list, Paychex ranked number 150 in market value, up from 169 in 2001. The Wall Street Journal rated Paychex among the top 25 best performers over a 10-year period based on total shareholder return. In May 2003, FORBES magazine rated Golisano among the top CEOs in its annual ranking of chief executives who provide shareholders the best return compared to the CEO's pay. Golisano ranked number three in 2003 and number one in 2002. In 2001, Paychex, Inc. was rated the number one business services company on the FORBES Global A-List. Also in 2001, Paychex ranked number 47 on BUSINESWEEK's list of 50 top performing companies in the S&P 500. In May 2001, CHIEF EXECUTIVE magazine named Golisano to its 10th annual CEO Growth 100 list.

Golisano has often been recognized for his entrepreneurial and civic achievements. In June 2002, Golisano was awarded the David T. Keams Medal of Distinction, which recognizes significant achievements in business, public service and education, by the University of Rochester's William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration. In October 2001, Golisano was selected as a member of the inaugural class for the Rochester Business Hall of Fame. As a major stockholder in eight other national companies, he earned a place on INC. magazine's "Dream Team of the Eighties" list, and was named "Entrepreneur of the Decade" by Rochester Business Magazine. He was recipient of the 1987 Herbert W. VandenBrul Entrepreneurial Award, presented by Rochester Institute of Technology's College of Business. In 1996, he received the "Master Entrepreneur" award in Ernst & Young's Entrepreneur of the Year competition for Western New York.

In 1997, Golisano was honored with the "Distinguished Citizen of the Year" award from the Otetiana Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Family Service of Rochester presented him with the Shurnway Distinguished Service Award in 1995. In 1993, he received both the Humanitarian of the Year Award, presented by the Boy's Town of Italy, and the Commerce and Industry Award of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

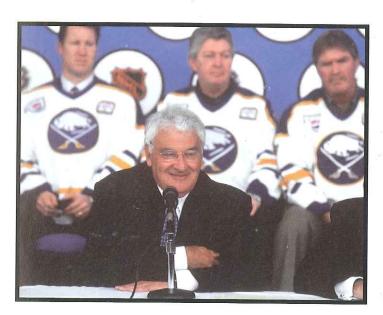

Golisano received the 2001 Outstanding Alumni Award from the American Association of Community Colleges. In 1999, Golisano received an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from St. John Fisher College in Rochester, N.Y. Five years earlier, he received an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree from Roberts Wesleyan College, also in Rochester, N.Y.

Golisano demonstrates ongoing generosity and commitment to the greater Rochester community, home of Paychex corporate headquarters. In November 2002, Golisano donated $5 million to Thompson Health in Canandaigua, N.Y., which is about 25 miles southeast of Rochester. The gift will be used to create the Golisano Center for Emergency and Diagnostic Medicine. In April 2002, Golisano contributed $14 million to Strong Children's Hospital in Rochester, N.Y., enabling the hospital to begin a comprehensive fundraising campaign. In honor of the gift, the hospital, which is part of the University of Rochester Medical Center, is now known as Golisano Children's Hospital. Golisano's gift is the largest ever given to the Children's Hospital or the University of Rochester Medical Center by a living donor.

In February 2001, he made a $14 million gift to Rochester Institute of Technology, enabling that university to launch development of a new college that incorporates computing and the Internet with information sciences. The B. Thomas Gollsano College of Computing and Information Sciences, named for its founding donor, officially opened in May 2003. It offers students opportunities to earn bachelor's and master's degrees. Golisano is also a trustee of RIT.

In October 2001, Golisano made a $5 million contribution to Roberts Wesleyan College, the largest gift in the history of the small liberal arts college, located in Rochester, N.Y. The college will use the funds to construct the B. Thomas Golisano Library and Information Resource Center.

Golisano is a strong advocate for the reduction of substance abuse and teen pregnancy and serves on the executive committee of Prevention Partners, a Rochester coalition designed to combat illegal drugs and alcohol abuse. He is founder of the B. Thomas Golisano Foundation, which awards grants to organizations dedicated to providing opportunities for those with disabilities and offering support to their families. Golisano chaired the successful capital campaigns of two Rochester not-for-profit organizations, School of the Holy Childhood and the Al Sigl Center. He has also served on the boards of Rochester General Hospital, Norstar Bank, and St. John Fisher College Golisano's interest in working to reduce substance abuse and teenage pregnancy at the local level is matched by his concern for the need to seek political reform. To that end he became a founding member of the Independence Party of New York State. As a candidate of that party, Golisano ran for governor of New York in 1994, 1998 and 2002. He is a native of Irondequoit, N.Y., a suburb of Rochester. He is a graduate of the State University of New York at Alfred.

Lawrence Quinn returns to the Sabres' franchise and is in his first season as the Managing Partner. After being lured back to Buffalo in 1992 to oversee the construction of the HSBC Arena, new owner B. Thomas Gollsano tabbed Quinn in April 2003, to guide the franchise's return to stability.

Since Golisano's purchase of the club, Quinn has re-energized the teams' marketing strategy and fan base by quickly reducing prices for the 2003-04 season. But fans only need to look back to last season's final game to see the changes. In just two days, Quinn pulled off a dream come true for die-hard Sabres supporters as the team came on to the ice wearing the traditional "Blue and Gold" uniforms the club wore for its first 26 seasons. Adding to the offseason excitement are the acquisitions of several new players: Chris Drury, Steve Begin, Joel Bouchard and Andy Delmore, along with signing key free agents already on the roster: Ales Kotalik and Curtis Brown. Perhaps the most significant move was the signing of General Manager Darcy Regier and Head Coach Lindy Ruff to new contracts. Regier and Ruff make up the second-longest GM/Coach combination in the NHL, behind St. Louis by only two days.

The new marketing strategies look to develop the Sabres as a regional franchise by expanding the club's exposure in the Rochester, N.Y., market.

To capture Rochester's love of sports, especially hockey, the Sabres will hold a portion of training camp, an exhibition game, and, for the first time, an NHL regular-season game at the Blue Cross Arena. In addition to the teams' commitment to southern Ontario, the Sabres are poised to expand their appeal in several markets.

Upon graduating from the University of Notre Dame, Quinn returned to Buffalo and became the city's Director of Community Development at the age of 24. After promoting the development of two downtown hotels, the first in 40 years, and the construction of two office buildings and numerous residential condominiums on the waterfront, the 28-year-old Quinn was appointed as the Commissioner of Economic Development, the youngest commissioner in city government history.

After 10 years in New York City as Vice President of the Jeffersonian Corporation, a Manhattan real estate development company, Quinn returned to Buffalo to head the development and construction of the now HSBC Arena as the Sabres Executive Vice President. He was the driving force behind the design, site acquisition, construction, and operation. The arena was completed on time and under budget for $127 million. He was promoted to President and CEO of the Buffalo Sabres in the fall of 1996. During his two years, the team won the Northeast Division title and advanced to the Conference Finals, achievements that had not been accomplished in over 15 years. The franchise also broke previous attendance marks and revenue records. He left the team after the Knox Family sold the franchise in 1998.

Having always been involved in development,

Quinn has since operated a technology start-up company in

New York in addition to overseeing the construction of the new Irish Classical Theater in downtown Buffalo.

Daniel DiPofi begins his first season with the Sabres as Chief Operating Officer after serving in several financial capacities with the franchise under the Knox family. DiPofi's main focus with the organization is business operations for the team and the 18,000 plus-seat HSBC Arena. In the arena's six years of existence, the venue has hosted an estimated 10.7 million fans since opening prior to the 1996-97 NHL season.

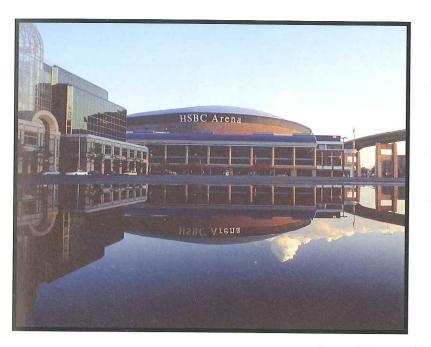

DiPofi comes to the Sabres after serving for two years as the Vice President of Business Operations & Finance with the Rochester Sports Group handling the Rochester Americans and the Blue Cross Arena. He also served as the Amerks' Alternate Governor to the American Hockey Loague.

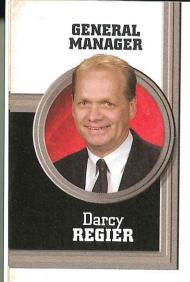

After graduating from Niagara University in 1984, he worked as a certified public accountant with Price Waterhouse until being hired by the Sabres as Corporate Controller four years later. After guiding the organization through drastic changes in the NHL's economic structure in the early 1990s, DiPofi was promoted to Vice President of Finance in 1992 and two years later was named Executive Vice President, overseeing the long-term financial structure of the franchise. With his extensive background in private and public finance, DiPofi was instrumental in the franchise's economic stability as the team and region tackled the construction and funding of the Crossroads Arena project (now, the HSBC Arena). He left the team in 1998 after the Knox family sold the franchise.

He and his wife, Janet, reside in Clarence, N.Y., with daughters: Ellen (13), Sarah (12), and Colleen (9).

Darcy Regier enters his seventh season with the Sabres as General Manager and has returned his primary, focus to the hockey operations after helping the organization through bankruptcy and the NHL operation of the club last season. With new ownership firmly in place, Regier and his staff have quickly upgraded the team's talent and focused their efforts on solidifying the future.

Buffalo made its biggest trade in recent history on July 3, 2003, when Regier acquired Chris Drury, along with Steve Begin, from Calgary. A winner at every level, Drury captured a Little League World Series title as a youth, the Hobey Baker Award in college, the Calder Trophy, an Olympic Silver medal and the 2001 Stanley Cup. Perhaps the most significant move was when Regier retained head coach Lindy Ruff, the winningest coach in team history. Regier and Ruff make up the second-longest GM/Coach combination in the NHL, behind St. Louis' Larry Pleau and Joel Quenneville by only two days.

The additions to this team began with the acquisition of Daniel Briere from Phoenix just before the trade deadline in March 2003, Briere joined J.P. Durnont and Jochen Hecht to form the Sabres' most entertaining line. Briere, as well as his linemates, would help carry the Sabres offensively for the rest of the season by recording four multiple-point games down the stretch and 12 points in his 14 games with Buffalo. Adding to that young line was the development of rookie Ales Kotalik to give Buffalo a core of solid, young players.

Upon his arrival, Regier reorganized the organization's scouting department. Kotalik, drafted in the sixth round, recorded 21 goals, ranking him second among all NHL rookies and finished just nine points behind rookie scoring leader Henrik Zetterberg despite playing in 11 fewer games. The Sabres also signed their 2001 second-round pick, Derek Roy, in the offseason after Roy leid his Kitchener team to the Memorial Cup title and was named playoff MVP. At the 2003 draft, Regier picked in the top 10 for the first time and selected the University of Minnesota's Thomas Vanek with the fifth overall selection. Fans in Buffalo immediately remembered Vanek leading the Golden Gophers to their second consecutive NCAA Championship in April at the HSBC Arena.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served as Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach and Assistant General Manager for the New York Islanders. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development and saw its International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders' coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board, and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career. Regier left the Islanders' organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, he was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 NHL Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, recording two assists and 35 PIM. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's GM.

During his playing career, Regier was involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

He and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence, N.Y., and have three sons: Jonathan (22), Justin (18), and Jarrett (10).

ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Larry Carriere, "The Hawk," begins his 11th season in the Sabres front office, his ninth in the position of Assistant to the General Manager, He has worked in a variety of roles since joining the club, but he primarily deals with professional player development in Rochester, pro scouting and hockey operations.

The Sabres tapped a majority of their young talent this past season as eight players made their NHL debuts. In fact, of the 33 players who suited up for the Sabres in 2003, 25 players have played with the Rochester Americans.

Two players who recently developed with the Rochester Americans and made the successful journey to the Sabres are defensemen Henrik Tallender and winder Ales Kotalik. Despite battling knee and shoulder injuries, Tallinder recorded a solid rookie season on defense, finishing fourth in average ice time among all NHI rookies. Kotalik might have made the biggest rookie impact. After recording 43 points in 68 games with Rochester two seasons ago, Kotalik recorded 21 goals, 14 assists for 35 points in 68 games to finish third on the Sabres in scoring after being selected in the sixth round (164th overall) in the 1998 NHL Entry Draft. His 35 points were the most by a Buffalo rookie since Derek Plante recorded 56 points in the 1993-94 season. Additionally, Kotalik's 21 goals ranked second among all NHL rookies and he finished just nine points behind rookie scoring leader Henrik Zetterberg despite playing in 11 fewer games.

Prior to being named to his current position, Carriere was the team's Director of Player Evaluation after serving as a scout for the Sabres in the Quebec region for eight years. He is also fluent in French.

The team's second-round draft choice in 1972, Carriere played 206 games over two stints with the Sabres during his seven-year NHL career. Carriere's playing days with Buffalo started in the 1972-73 season. Following the Sabres' appearance in the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals, he was dealt to the Atlanta Flames. In addition to playing with Atlanta, Carriere was with Vancouver and Los Angeles before returning to Buffalo during the 1977-78 season. He appeared in 416 NHL games. recording 17 goals and 83 assists for 100 points, and 512 penalty minutes.

Carriere graduated from Loyola College in Montreal with a bachelor of commerce degree, with a major in business administration. He has also studied management at the University of Michigan. Larry and his wife, Suzanne, live in Williamsville, N.Y., and have two grown children: Stephanic, a law student in Montreal, and Nicholas, an assistant hockey coach at Fredonia State University.

Don LUCE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Don Luce is in his 17th season as the Buffalo Sabres Director of Player Personnel, overseeing the team's 11-person scouting staff and directing the team's NHL Entry Draft. Under his direction, the Sabres scout the NHL, AHL, and ECHL, as well as the Canadian junior leagues, American high schools and colleges, and Luce and his staff have put together a group of talented young players who are the core of both the Buffalo Sabres and the Rochester Americans, and continue to build for the future with drafted players in Europe, Canadian junior and collegiate hockey in North America. Jay McKee, Curtis Brown and Martin Biron are part of a nucleus of players who have developed with the franchise at all levels and have been key contributors. Ales Kotalik, the Sabres' sixth-round choice in 1998, received Calder Trophy consideration after finishing second among all NHL rookies in goals scored. Luce and his team of amateur scouts selected Derek Roy in the second round in 2001. After being passed over because of his 5'9" frame, Roy caught the eyes of every NHL team after leading Kitchener to the 2003 Memorial Cup while garnering MVP honors.

He first joined the Sabres' front office in 1984 when he worked on special assignments and as an assistant coach. He spent the 1985-86 season as an American scout before taking on his current role in 1987. One of his major accomplishments was his instrumental role in bringing Alexander Mogilny to America in 1989.

A member of the Buffalo Sabres' Hall of Fame, Luce originally became a Sabre as part of a trade with Detroit for Joe Daley in 1971. He spent almost 10 full seasons with Buffalo and ranked with Craig Ramsay as two of the league's best penalty-killers throughout the 1970s.

In 1974-75, Luce enjoyed arguably his finest season by helping the Sabres to the Stanley Cup Finals. He set two team records which still stand today; eight short-handed goals in a season and an incredible +61 plus/minus ranking. He capped the year by winning of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy, which is given to the NHL player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to hockey.

After a trade to Los Angeles in 1981, Luce played one more season with Toronto before retiring. He appeared in a total of 894 NHL games, registering 225 goals and 329 assists for 554 points, and 364 PIM. Luce still ranks in the top 10 with Buffalo in eight career categories.

As a result of his many accomplishments on and off the ice. Luce was honored with induction into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in September 1997. He and his wife Diane have four grown children: daughters Kim, Kelly and Kristin (Ryan Sturm) and son Scott, who currently is the Florida Panthers' Director of Amateur Scouting. Scott and his wife Ann have two sons, Harrison (8) and Griffin (5).

DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

Terry Martin returns for his 15th season with the Sabres hockey department and fifth as the team's Director of Professional Scouting. In his role, Martin is instrumental in the evaluation of the talent in the NHL, AHL and European Hockey Leagues.

After a successful NHL career, Martin was the head coach of the OHL's Toronto Mariboros from 1987-1989. He then returned to the Sabres' organization and served as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans from 1989-90 to 1994-95. During his time with the Amerks, Martin was a part of three Calder Cup Finals teams. From 1990-92, he served as an assistant under Don Lever and spent the other four seasons with John Van Boxmeer, the Amerks' all-time coaching wins leader. After being a Sabres' assistant coach for the 1995-96 season, he served as a Pro Scout for the team for three seasons. He was named to his current position prior to the 1999-2000 season.

Born in Barrie, Ontario, Martin was originally drafted by the Sabres in the third round (44th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft. He appeared in 148 games with Buffalo from 1975-76 to 1978-79, scoring 20 goals and 22 assists. He was selected by the Quebec Nordiques in the 1979 NHL Expansion Draft only to be dealt to Toronto, where he enjoyed great success, scoring 83 goals and 76 assists in 317 games and was twice nominated for the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy. Martin later played for the Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars before moving behind the bench in 1987. In all, he played 10 seasons in the NHL, appearing 479 games, scoring 104 goals and 101assists for 205 points. In 1999, he was elected the Barrie Sports Hall of Fame, joining NHL players Shayne Corson, Mike Gartner and Doug Shedden as well as former NHL Referee Ron Hoggarth as members.

Jim BENNING

DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

Jim Benning begins his 10th season with the Buffalo Sabres and his sixth as Director of Amateur Scouting. In his role with the organization, Benning oversees all scouting of amateur hockey in North America and Europe.

One recent success of Benning and the amateur scouts can be seen in the development of Ryan Miller. After shattering collegiate qualtending records, Miller opened his professional career this past season with both the Sabres and their AHL affiliate, Rochester. He appeared in 15 games with the Sabres and recorded his first NHL shutout, Miller was Buffalo's fifth-round choice in 1999. Another recent selection, Derek Roy (Buffalo's second-round choice in 2001), was the Memorial Cup MVP after leading Kitchener to the championship.

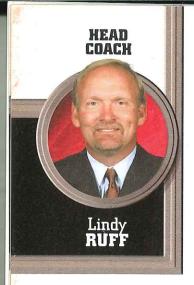

Benning joined the Sabres in 1994-95 as an amateur scout under then-Director of Amateur Scouting Jack Bowman. He was promoted to his current position in 1998. Benning is responsible for scouting players in the WHL, OHL, QMJHL, NCAA and American high schools as well as amateur hockey leagues throughout Europe. He is also responsible for scheduling the Sabres' amateur scouts and insuring that all amateur hockey players are scouted thoroughly.

After an NHL career that spanned nine seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs and Vancouver Canucks, Benning spent one season playing professional hockey in Italy. After retiring in 1992, Benning attended college before the Anaheim Mighty Ducks hired him as an amateur scout in 1993-94.

A first-round draft choice (sixth overall) of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft, Benning played for the Leafs until 1986 when he was traded to Vancouver, playing three more seasons with the Canucks. In 605 career NHL games, he scored 52 goals and 191 assists for 143 points.

Benning resides in Portland, Ore., with his wife Rhonda and their three children: Brandon (15), Danica (12) and Nicholas (6).

Lindy Ruff opens his seventh season behind the Sabres' bench and looks to continue adding to his very impressive list of coaching accomplishments. He already is the Sabres' all-time winningest coach after recording a 5-2 victory over the Philadelphia Flyers on Feb. 18, 2003. The win, Ruff's 211th as the Sabres' head coach, moved past Hall of Fame coach Scotty Bowman for the most coaching victories in Sabres' history. During his coaching career in Buffalo, he has compiled a record of 216-205-71 and his six years behind the bench mark the fourth-longest tenure among active NHL head coaches (Maurice-Carolina, Martin-Ottawa, Quenneville-St. Louis). He is first in team history in playoff wins (32) and playoff games coached (54). The team's 1-1 tie vs. the N.Y. Islanders April 3, 2002, was his 405th game behind the bench, passing Bowman for first on the Sabres' all-time games coached list.

In the past six seasons, Buffalo has amassed a 43-25-10-4 combined record for 100 points in games following the trade deadline. Much of this success can be attributed to Ruff and his coaching staff, which has never allowed the players to quit on a season regardless of their position in the standings. The Sabres have the seventh-best winning percentage (61.0 percent), are tied for third-most wins (43), and are tied for the third-most points (100) following the trade deadline over the past six seasons. The other half of the equation is the deals made by GM Darcy Regier to bring in proven players for the stretch run or players to help build the team for the immediate future.

After acquiring Daniel Briere at the trade deadline in 2003, the team went 5-2-1-1 to end the 2002-03 season.

Ruff has a .593 playoff winning percentage and is the Sabres' all-time leader in playoff games coached (54), and wins (32), surpassing Bowman's mark of 18 wins (set over five seasons). In only his second season as a head coach, Ruff led the 1998-99 Sabres to their first Stanley Cup Finals in 24 years and established himself as one of the league's top coaches. He also achieved a club record that season for the most wins (14) in one playoff year. In the process, Ruff became only the third head coach under the present Stanley Cup Playoff format to lead his team to the Conference Finals in each of his first two seasons. He also earned the honor of coaching the World Team in the All-Star Game in Tampa Bay in January 1999, by having the best record at mid-season in the Eastern Conference. Ruff joined Bowman and Floyd Smith as the only Buffalo coaches to be named head coach of an All-Star Team.

Hired as the 15th head coach in team history on July 21, 1997, Ruff achieved playoff success that first year which none of his predecessors had ever experienced. The 1997-98 squad set a team record by winning eight-straight playoff games and tied the old club mark with 10 playoff wins. The conference finals appearance was the team's first since 1980, which ironically was Ruff's rookie year with Buffalo.

Ruff was Sabres' second-round (32nd overall) draft pick in 1979 following a distinguished career as a defenseman with Lethbridge (WHL). He made the team at his first training camp and played in 63 games during the 1979-80 season and was named the team's rookle of the year. Ruff ranks sixth on the Sabres' all-time regular season list in penalty minutes (1,126) and is tied for 11th in games played (608). In 691 career NHL games, he recorded 105 goals and 195 assists for 300 points and 1,264 penalty minutes.

In his third season with Buffalo, Ruff was converted to left wing after having played defense throughout his junior career and his first two pro seasons. In November 1986, he received perhaps his greatest individual honor as a Sabre when he was named to replace Gilbert Perreault as team captain after the legend's retirement. Ruff continued to display leadership qualities as a player when he returned to defense in January 1987.

Ruff ended his professional playing career after a stint as a player/assistant coach with the San Diego Gulls of the IHL in the 1992-93 season. When the NHL expanded again for the 1993-94 season, Head Coach Roger Neilson (who coached Ruff in Buffalo and with the Rangers) tabbed Ruff as one of his assistants for the new Florida Panthers. As the primary coach of the penalty-killing unit and defensemen, Ruff received many accolades for his work. In just their third season in existence, the over-achieving, hard-working Panthers advanced to the 1996 Stanley Cup Finals.

The 43-year-old Ruff, and his wife Gaye reside in Clarence, N.Y., with their four children: Brett (14), Eryn (12), and twins Brian and Madeleine (9).

Brian McCUTCHEON

ASSISTANT COACH

Brian McCutcheon enters his fourth season with Buffalo as an assistant coach. Prior to joining the Sabres' staff, he had three successful years coaching the Rochester Americans. After twice taking the Ameriks to the Calder Cup Finals, he was tabbed to help develop the Sabres' younger talent whom he had coached at the AHL level.

McCutcheon was key in helping to develop some of the team's younger talent, including Maxim Afinogenov, Dmitri Kalinin and goaltenders Martin Biron and Mika Noronen. In 2001-02, Afinogenov set career highs in goals (21) and points (40). In 2002-03, Kalinin, although slowed by injury, continued his steady play and led the Sabre blueliners with eight goals. Biron set a Sabres' record with a 221:58 shutout string while Noronen again was one of the Amerks' top goaltenders and, when with the Sabres, posted the team's top save percentage (91.2 percent).

McCutcheon ended his Rochester tenure with a record of 128-82-9 and saw his Amerik teams reach the playoff each season. Under his guidance, the Ameriks won back-to-back Western Conference titles and set franchise records for most points (111) and wins (52) in the 1998-99 season.

Prior to joining the Amerks, McCutcheon served as the Head Coach and Director of Player Personnel for the Columbus Chill of the East Coast Hockey League. In his only season with the Chill, he was named the FCHL's Coach of the Year after leading them to a 44-21-5 mark, which set franchise records for most wins and most points in a season, and the North Division title.

Before moving to the pro level, McCutcheon was the head coach at his alma mater, Cornell, from 1987 to 1995 and led the Big Red to a 108-105-24 record. As a player, he led Cornell to the 1970 national championship. He was inducted into the Cornell University Sports Hall of Fame in 1986. Prior to coaching at Cornell, McCutcheon coached at Elmira College for seven seasons, the last six as head coach. He posted a 103-60-1 record and was named the 1986 New York State Coach of the Year after guiding Elmira to a number one ranking in NCAA Division III.

During a three-year career with the Detroit Red Wings, McCutcheon appeared in 37 games, recording three goals, one assist and seven penalty minutes.

A Toronto native, he and his wife Susan have two children; Kelly and Mark. Mark was a fifth-round selection by the Colorado Avalanche in the 2003 NHL Entry Draft.

Scott ARNIEL

ASSISTANT COACH

Scott Amiel returns for his second season as an assistant coach, working mainly with the club's special teams.

In his first season as a member of Lindy Ruff's coaching staff, Arniel helped raise the Sabres' power play from being ranked 27th in 2001-02 in the league to 20th. The Sabres' penalty-killing unit placed sixth overall, giving it three-straight seasons in the top 10.

Before joining Buffalo, Arniel was a member of the Manitoba Moose (AHL) organization from 1996-97 to 2001-02, serving the past three seasons as an assistant coach. He signed with the Moose after winning the Turner Cup with the Utah Grizzlies. In 1996-97, he captured the team's unsung hero award, and followed that with a 70-point season in 1997-98 to earn the Moose's Most Valuable Player award. Arniel was also named captain for the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons.

As a player, Arniel spent two of his 18 professional seasons in Buffalo. He was known as one of the league's best two-way players and, in 1987 and 1988, was named the Sabres' Tim Horton Award winner for a player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, he and his wife Lia have two children: Brendan (13) and Stephanie (10)

Jim CORSI

GOALTENDING COACH

Goaltending coach Jim Corsi enters his sixth season and first campaign as a full-time member of the coaching staff. He works with the Sabres' netminders as well as the team's prospects throughout the minor leagues. The Sabres benefit from having three young goaltenders poised to become solid NHL backstoppers in Martin Biron, Mika Noronen and Ryan Miller.

Corsi brings over 20 years of experience as a player, coach, manager and hockey analyst. He previously served as the Goaltending Coach with the Canadian Women's Team, Ottawa University (CIAU), Schwenninger HC (Ger/DEL), St. Michael's Majors (OHL), McGill University (CIAU) (1992) and Concordia University (CIAU). Corsi is a member of the Concordia University Athletic Hall of Fame in hockey and soccer.

As a professional player, he played with Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars, as well as Quebec Nordiques of the WHA before playing in Europe, Russia and China from 1980-92. Corsi played for the Italian National Team at the 1984 Winter Olympic Games and represented Italy several times in the World Ice Hockey Championships.

Corsi is fluent in English, French, Italian and German. He and his wife Cathy reside in Ile Bizard, Quebec, with their sons Stephen (21) and Danny (18).

Doug McKENNEY

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Doug McKenney begins his ninth season with the Sabres' coaching staff. His duties with the team include working on strength and conditioning programs with club players, Rochester Americans, Sabres' draft choices, and potential draftees. He also works with physical therapists and team doctors on the rehabilitation of all injured players.

McKenney, 45, was named the team's first-ever Strength and Conditioning Coach in July 1995 and has steadily improving the team's performance levels ever since. The team's durability over the last six years is a tribute to McKenney's programs. They finished among the top four teams in four of those six seasons to have the least amount of man-games lost. In addition, center Tim Connolly boasted the NHL's third-longest consecutive games played streak at 286 straight until being suspended.

McKenney places a special emphasis on teaching players nutrition to maintain conditioning throughout the season and make strength gains in the offseason. He has developed recommended menus for local restaurants and chains, which players can consult to help make smart food choices.

McKenney also utilizes computer software to analyze each player's food intake and make suggestions on how they can improve their diets. Before the players leave for the offseason, McKenney, in conjunction with the hockey department, devises a conditioning manual and video tailored to each player's individual needs and can track their workouts via the Internet. For those players who remain in Buffalo, he supervises their off-season conditioning and skating programs.

McKenney joined the Sabres after serving as the Hartford Whalers' strength and conditioning coach for six years. Prior to joining the Whalers, he served in the same capacity for the Pittsburgh Penguins for four years.

A 1981 graduate of Springfield College, McKenney taught physical education and served on the coaching staff of the football team at Dover High School in New Hampshire. He was elected into the Dover Sports Hall of Fame in September 2002. He holds a master's degree in exercise physiology from Mississippi State University.

He and his wife Suzanne reside in Hamburg, N.Y., with their two sons, Matthew (16) and Neil (14).

Rick MARTIN

SKILL DEVELOPMENT COACH

One of the Sabres' all-time great players, Rick Martin, begins his first season as a skill development coach with the team. In this capacity, Martin will work with various Sabres individually on offensive skills, particularly on shooting.

The first Sabre to score 50 or more goals in a season, Martin recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis in the final game of the 1973-74 season to accomplish the feat. In fact, Martin still holds four of the Sabres' top 10 single-season marks for most goals.

One of the most prolific goal scorers in NHL history, Martin scored 384 goals in his 11-year career. Along with scoring the franchise's 1,000th goal, one of the 52 goals he scored during the 1974-75 season, Martin was one of the key players in leading the Sabres to the Stanley Cup Finals that season.

Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't even wearing a Sabres' uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. Martin appeared in seven of the League's showcase games during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. Martin also ranks in the top three in seven of Bulfalo's (regular season) career statistics categories and holds the franchise record with 21 hat tricks.

Jeff KOLBROOK

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT COACH

Now in his 12th season with the Sabres, Jeff Holbrook enters his sixth year as the Administrative Assistant Coach. He joined the team as a Media Relations Assistant working his way up though positions of Director of Public Relations and Director of Team Operations. Before joining the Sabres, Holbrook was with the Rochester Americans for five seasons.

Holbrook is responsible for all video editing and game analysis, as well as pre-scouting each opponent. Holbrook is also involved in organizing travel schedules and statistical analysis. Holbrook received a bachelor's degree in communications in 1988 from St. John Fisher College and was named Who's Who Among College Students. His collegiate career was highlighted by being selected a three-time football All-American at wide receiver and 1986 Offensive Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Football Association. Holbrook was inducted into the St. John Fisher College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

He is currently pursuing a master's degree at the University at Bulfalo. He and his wife Michelle reside in Williamsville, N.Y., with their two children: Findlay (4) and Cavanaugh (2).

SABRES MEDIA SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Michael GILBERT - DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Michael Gilbert begins his seventh season with the Sabres organization, serving as the Director of Public Relations. Gilbert oversees the Public Relations Department for the Sabres, as well as for the Buffalo Bandits (NLL) and the community relations, youth hockey and Internet for the organizations. Prior to joining the Sabres, Gilbert was the Director of Public Relations for the New Jersey Devils from 1995-1997. He was part of a staff in New Jersey that earned the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's Dick Dillman Award for excellence in public relations for the 1996-97 season. Gilbert's success followed him to the Sabres where the Communications Department was acknowledged with the Dillman Award in 1997-98. Before his move to the NHL, Gilbert was the Assistant Director of Public Relations for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for four years (1991-95), assisting with the day-to-day operations of that team's PR department. His football background also includes stints as Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Relaigh-Durham Skyhawks of the WLAF (1990) and as a graduate assistant with the Buffalo Bills (1988-90). The move to the Sabres represented a homecoming for Gilbert, who grew up in the Buffalo suburb of Tonawanda. He graduated from Canisius College in Buffalo with degrees in communications and history. He and his wife Amy reside in Amherst, N.Y., with their sons, Mark and Jack, and daughter, Grace.

Gregg HULLER - MANAGER OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Huller enters his fifth season with the Sabres, and third in his current position. Previously, he served as the Sabres' Communications Coordinator and as a graduate assistant prior to the start of the 1998-99 season. Huller serves as a liaison between the Sabres organization and the local and national media. He is primarily responsible for arranging interviews, coordinating press conferences, writing press releases and assisting in game-day operations. Huller graduated from University at Buffalo in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in United States history. He received a master's degree in sports administration from Canisius College in 1998. He and his wife Beth reside in Williamsville, N.Y.

Matt SCHMIDT - MEDIA RELATIONS ASSISTANT

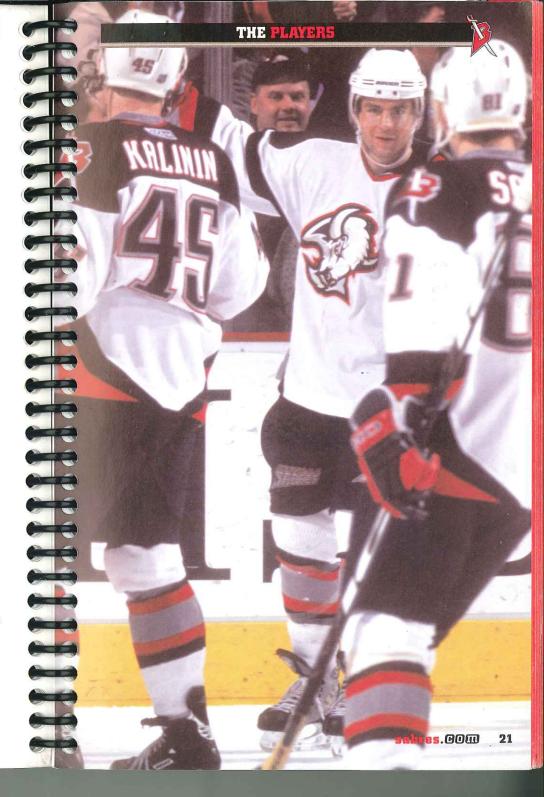

In his first season as the Media Relations assistant, Schmidt comes to the Sabres after spending eight years in intercollegiate athletics media relations. He previously worked at the University of North Dakota, The University of Montana and the University of Missouri. Prior to entering the media relations field, Schmidt was a sports writer for five years. He is responsible for the media guide, team yearbook, game program and the game-day press notes. A 1989 graduate of Saint Mary's University in Winona, Minn., Schmidt was born and raised in Omaha, Neb. He and his fiancee, Michele Dubert, the assistant athletics director for media relations at Niagara University, live in Amherst, N.Y.

Brian J. WHEELER - PUBLIC RELATIONS ASSISTANT

Wheeler enters his first season with the Sabres as the Public Relations Assistant. Prior to joining the Sabres, Wheeler was a Graduate Assistant for the Buffalo Bills in both the Media Relations and web site operations departments. He originally began working for the Buffalo Bills as a training camp and game-day intern in 2001. Wheeler received his start in sports in 2000 as a game-day intern for the Sabres' AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans. He oversees all web site operations of Sabres.com, Bandits.com and hisboarena.com. Wheeler also works on publications and serves as Public Relations Director for the Buffalo Bandits of the National Lacrosse League. A 2002 University of Rochester graduate, he was born and raised in Clymer, N.Y., and currently resides in Orchard Park, N.Y.

Any player who took part in at least one Sabres regular season game in his career is listed. Eight players dressed but never played a game for Buffalo: #27 - Tim Regan (1973-74), #31 - Jim Weaver (1978-79), #30 - Jari Paavola (1981-82), #35 - Mike Craig (1984-85), #34 - Kenton Rein (1987-88), #33 - Bill Pye (1992-93), #30 - Markus Ketterer (1993-94 & 1994-95), and #68 - Scott Buhler (1996-97). #00 - Martin Biron served as backup goaltender and did not play (3 times in 1996-97, 1 time in 1997-98). Michel Deziel is the only Sabre to have played in a playoff game without participating in a regular season game.

BUFFALO SABRES RETURED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only four numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on October 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres' history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Rick Martin (#7) and Rene Robert (#14) joined Perreault in ceremonies to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on November 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on January 5, 1996.

#11 Gilbert PERREAULT

Center (1970-71 to 1986)

Career Sabres Totals:

1,191 games played, 512 goals, 814 assists, 1,326 points (regular season) 90 games played, 33 goals, 70 assists, 103 points (playoffs)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first-ever draft choice and set the standard for all future Sabres to be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, will never be another.

#7 Rick MARTIN

Left Wing (1971-72 to 1980-81)

Career Sabres Totals:

681 games played, 382 goals, 313 assists, 695 points (regular season) 62 games played, 24 goals, 29 assists, 53 points (playoffs)

Buffalo Sabre fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number seven's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't even wearing a Sabres' uniform. On January 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the league's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories.

#14 Rene ROBERT

Right Wing (1971-72 to 1978-79)

Career Sabres Totals: 524 games played, 222 goals, 330 assists, 552 points (regular season)

47 games played, 22 goals, 17 assists, 39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of Game Three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season.

BUFFALO SABRES RETURED

That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player, He later recorded another Sabre mark by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on December 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number seven in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

#2 Tim HORTON

Defense (1972-73 to 1973-74)

Career Sabres Totals: 124 games played, 1 goal, 22 assists, 23 points (regular season)

6 games played, 0 goals, 1 assist, 1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the Intra-League draft in June of 1972 from Pittsburgh, Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

BUFFALO SABRES HALL OF FAME

The highest honor bestowed by the Buffalo Sabres is induction into the team's Hall of Fame. The Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame Committee is comprised of: Rick Azar, Larry Felser, Rick Jeanneret, Jim Kelley, Seymour H. Knox, IV, Wayne Redshaw and Paul Wieland.

HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

Twelve people with connections to the Buffalo Sabres are members of the Hockey Hall of Fame. Sabres' cofounder Seymour H. Knox, III, along with former Sabre coaches Scotty Bowman, George "Punch" Imlach. Roger Neislon and Marcel Pronovost have all been honored with induction into the Hall of Fame. Joining the previous mentioned are former Sabre players Tim Horton, Gilbert Perreault, Pat Lafontaine, Dale Hawerchuk, Grant Fuhr and Clark Gillies. Long-time team broadcaster Ted Darling was inducted in November of 1994 upon receiving the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award for excellence in broadcasting.

Jody GAGE -

Jody Gage captured the hearts of the Rochester Americans fans many times throughout his 11-season hockey career with the Amerks and wore the crest with great pride during that time. Gage now handles a different role with the Amerks, Knighthawks and Rattlers, one of Vice President of Sports Operations & General Manager, and has experienced much of the same success in the front office that many witnessed on the ice. He became a Sabres employee this past July to help facilitate player personnel moves between Buffalo and Rochester.

In just over seven and one-half years, Gage has seen seven teams reach the finals (three hockey, four lacrosse). The Amerks advanced to the Calder Cup Finals in 1999 and 2000 while the K-Hawks reached the National Lacrosse League Finals in 1999, 2000 and 2003, and won the 1997 title, In 1995-96, Gage was also the Amerks' Assistant General Manager when they won the 1996 Calder Cup. In 1998-99, the AHL recognized Gage for his efforts as he was awarded the James C. Hendy Award as the league's outstanding executive. Gage assembled a team that won both the AHL Empire Division Championship and the Western Conference Championship and earned a berth in the 1999 Calder Cup Finals. The 1998-99 Amerks broke franchise records for most wins (52) and most points (111), and set league records for fewest goals allowed (176) and fewest road goals allowed (86). In 2001, Gage became the first general manager of the Rochester Rattlers of Major League Lacrosse. The field lacrosse team advanced to the inaugural MLL Semifinals in 2001.

Because his name is synonymous with AHL stardom, Gage was able to acquaint himself quickly with his peers off the ice and away from the field, but it didn't take long for him to earn a reputation as a well-respected, sawy hockey general manager. In his first season, the Amerks won their first division title since 1990-91, making Gage the first general manager in team history to win a

Gage having been involved with three Calder Cup champions during his pro career, was a member of the Adirondack Red Wings Calder Cup team in 1980-81, the Amerks squad in 1986-87 and was Rochester's Assistant GM when the Amerks secured their sixth Calder Cup in 1995-96, having retired during the season due to lingering knee ailments.

Originally a third-round draft selection (45th overall) of the Detroit Red Wings in the 1979 NHL Entry Draft, the Toronto native spent six seasons in the Detroit organization before signing a free agent contract with the Buffalo Sabres on July 31, 1985. Gage would spend the rest of his career in the Sabres and Amerks organization, signing his final contract with the Amerks on August 23, 1995, just a few months after Steve Donner purchased the Rochester club from Buffalo.

Dubbed "Mr. Amerk, " Gage finished as the Amerks' all-time leader in goals, assists, points and games played. He holds the Amerks record for game-winning goals in one season (9, 1987-98), and goals/points by a right wing in one season (60/104, 1987-88). Gage is one of just three players to record 500 career AHL goals and 1,000 career AHL assists, and his 17 AHL seasons tie him for third in league history. Some of his other AHL accolades include the 1987-88 AHL MVP award and a berth on the First Team All-Star squad that season, AHL First Team All-Star honors following the 1985-86 and 1990-91 seasons, a place on the AHL's All-Time Team in 1992 - as chosen by the media - and selection as the U.S. Team Captain for the 1995 AHL All-Star Game. Gage also holds AHL records for the two fastest short-handed goals in one game (8 seconds, 3/25/89), the most 40+ goal seasons (7) and the most playoff goals (51).

Gage resides in Chill with his wife Charlotte and daughter Stefanie. His son Ryan attends Geneseo State University and is a member of the Ice Knights hockey team. When he can find the time, Gage is an avid and accomplished golfer. He also enjoys spending time with his family.

Randy CUNNEYWORTH -

Randy Cunneyworth enters his fourth season as the head coach of the Rochester Americans. He is a perfect 3-for-3 in guiding the Amerks to berths in the American Hockey League Playoffs.

In three seasons with Rochester, Cunneyworth has a record of 109-82-38-11 (.556 winning percentage). He had a stellar rookie campaign behind the Amerks bench in 2000-01, registering a 46-22-9-3 record. With 104 points, Rochester won its third-straight division and Western Conference regular-season titles. The Amerks finished second in the division the past two years.

The 26th head coach in the history of the storied hockey franchise, Cunneyworth joining the coaching ranks Sept. 8, 2000. Prior to his coaching career, the 41-year-old Cunneyworth played 20 seasons and spent his last two years with the Ameriks as a left winger/assistant coach. During that stint with Rochester (1998-99 to 1999-00), the Amerks were the Empire Division and Western Conference and playoff champions. The Amerks reached the Calder Cup Finals both seasons.

He started his professional playing career in Rochester in 1980-81. Cunneyworth played parts of seven seasons with the Amerks, earning 239 points (101+138). He currently ranks 20th on the franchise's all-time point list and is 12th in games played (366) and 18th in goals. The native of Etobicoke, Ontario, was a member of the Amerks' 1982-83 Calder Cup winning team, before moving to the NHL in 1985-86.

Cunneyworth played 16 seasons in the NHL with the Buffalo Sabres, Pittsburgh Penguins, Winnipeg Jets, Hartford Whalers, Chicago Blackhawks and the Ottawa Senators. In 866 NHL games, he collected 189 goals and 225 assists for 414 points.

In 35 career games with Buffalo, Cunneyworth registered four goals and six assists. During the 1998-99 season, he appeared in his first Stanley Cup Final with the Sabres against the Dallas Stars, playing three games. He also played for the Ameriks against the Providence Bruins in the 1999 Calder Cup. He scored a goal on Feb. 11, 1999, his first goal as a Sabre since Nov. 15, 1981 - the longest span in NHL history between goals scored by a player for one team.

The following season, he registered eight goals and 16 assists for 24 points in 52 games for the Ameriks before suffering a season-ending knee injury. He was named the captain for Team Canada in the 2000 Kodak AHL All-Star Game held in Rochester. Cunneyworth passed the 100-goal plateau as an Amerik during the 1999-2000 season, scoring his 100th and 101st goals in a 5-0 win over the Saint John Flames Feb. 16, 2000.

Cunneyworth was the 1999-2000 recipient of the Fred T. Hunt Memorial Award, which is voted upon by the AHI Broadcasters and Writers Association and honors the player who best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship, determination and dedication to hockey. He was also awarded the Amerks' Booster Club Most Popular Player Award for 1999-2000.

In 20 years of pro hockey, he played in 1,234 games and registered 290 goals, 363 assists and 1,851 penalty minutes. He resides in Pittsford, N.Y., with his wife, Jenny, and two sons, Gregory and Cameron.

Doug HOUDA -

Former Rochester American Doug Houda makes the move from player to a member of the coaching ranks. He joins former teammate Randy Cunneyworth on the Amerks' coaching staff after serving as the team's captain in 2002-03.

Houda brings an impressive resume into his first professional coaching job. In his 17-year professional career, he played in 1,114 career games with 561 of those coming in the National Hockey League with the Buffalo Sabres, Detrolt Red Wings, Hartford Whalers, New York Islanders, Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Mighty Ducks. "A native of Blairmore, Alberta, Houda recorded 19 goals, 63 assists and 1,104 penalty minutes in the NHL."

In the American Hockey League, Houda played for the Adirondack Red Wings and the Amerks. In his AHL career, he scored 238 points (55+183) in 550 games. He played 284 AHL games with Rochester, wearing the red, white and blue for parts of five seasons

(1995-96, 1999-2003). Houda registered 23 goals and 87 assists as an Arnerk, His 683 penalty minutes are 11th best on the Amerks' all-time list. In the postseason, he had 19 points (4+15) in 49 games. During Rochester's Calder Cup-winning season, Houda scored three goals and added three assists in 19 playoff games.

Houda ranked second among Amerk defensemen with 25 points (3+22) in 77 games. In addition, he was third on the team with 191 penalty minutes and led the team with a plus-17. In 1999-00, he was named Rochester's Unsung Hero finishing 12th on the team in points (24) and third among Amerk defensemen.

Another one of Houda's professional accomplishments includes earning a selection as an AHL First Team All-Star with the Adirondack Red Wings in 1987-88. That same season, he scored his first NHL goal with Detroit vs. Philadelphia on Dec. 11, almost two years to the day from his NHL debut, which came against Minnesota on Dec. 10, 1985.

Originally drafted by Detroit in the second round (28th overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, Houda played junior hockey with Calgary of the Western Hockey League.

He currently resides in Rochester with his wife Shelley; son Kris, and daughter Toni.

RADIO-TELEVISION INFORMATION

Again this season, all of the Sabres' games will be broadcast on the team's flagship radio station. WNSA 107.7 FM. Calling the action will be the television tandem of Rick Jeanneret and Jim Lorentz. The Sabres will simulcast on radio each game televised on the Empire Sports Network.

The Empire Sports Network again serves as the team's television home, broadcasting 74 Sabres' games. Empire is a regional sports network that is in its 12th year of operation. It services millions of cable subscribers across the Northeast region of the United States and is also available on the DirecTV and Primestar home satellite systems.

Rick JEANNERET

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, the 2003-04 season marks Rick Jeanneret's 33rd year with the Buffalo Sabres. He started with the team prior to the 1971-72 season, serving as the club's radio voice and held that post until 1995. Jeanneret then became the television play-by-play announcer, beginning with the 1995-96 campaign. He broadcast his first game during the 1971 preseason for the Cincinnati Swords (the Sabres' minor league team at the time).

Jeanneret earned his start in 1963 while attending a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game in which he filled in for the regular announcer who had taken ill. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

A native of St. Catharines, Ontario, Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Canada, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

Jim LORENTZ

Versatility has been a trademark of Lorentz' career as a player and broadcaster for the Sabres. Beginning in 1981, he has been involved as the color commentator for radio and in his present role of television commentator since the 1992-93 season.

Lorentz played 10 seasons in the NHL with Boston, St. Louis, the New York Rangers and Buffalo. His 331 points rank him 14th in all-time scoring for the Sabres, recording 134 goals and 197 assists in 487 games. He retired in 1978 with 399 points in the NHL and the 1970 Stanley Cup Championship with the Bruins.

In addition to his work with the Sabres, the Waterloo, Ontario, native runs a hockey program for youth each summer.

Danny GARE

This former Sabres captain is beginning his seventh season as an ice-level reporter for the organization, which drafted him in the second round in 1974. Prior to his current post, Gare served as the radio color analyst during the 1995-96 season.

After 13 seasons in the NHL, Gare retired in 1987 after compiling 354 goals and 331 assists for 685 points in 827 games with Buffalo, Detroit and Edmonton. He scored on his first shift in the NHL and ranks ninth in Sabre history with 500 points. Twice during his Buffalo career, Gare reached the 50-goal mark, scoring exactly 50 in 1975-76, and later tied for the NHL's goal-scoring title with a career-best 56 in

A native of Nelson, British Columbia, Gare was elected in to the Sabres' Hall of Fame in 1994.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Requests for information should be directed to the Sabres' Communications Department, Buffalo Sabres. HSBC Arena, One Seymour H. Knox, III Plaza, Buffalo, NY 14203. The phone number is (716) 855-4100. Fax transmissions can be sent to (716) 855-4110.

Season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact Michael Gilbert (855-4526) or Gregg Huller (855-4509) by 5 p.m. the day before a game, and by 5 p.m. on Friday before a Sunday game. Requests for individual game seating should be provided on your media outlet's letterhead (via fax). Furthermore, free-lance photographers will be admitted on an assignment-only basis, which must come from the photo editor. Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis.

The media entrance to HSBC Arena is located at the plaza area on the east (Illinois Street) side of the building, aligned with the middle of the parking ramp.

All requests for pre-game live shots should be coordinated through a member of the Communications Department and Senior Director Broadcasting/Production Services Joe Guarnieri (855-4474) to assure location and transmission.

The Sabres' press lounge opens two hours before game time, and also serves as the media work room, it can be reached by turning right upon entering the building at the media entrance

Press credentials can be picked up before 4:30 p.m. at the arena's security office. From 4:30 p.m. on, the passes will be at the media entrance described above (please note that pick up times will be adjusted for afternoon games).

To reach the press box, return back toward (and just past) the security office/media entrance and ride the freight elevator to the top/press level (indicated with a "P" in the elevator).

Credentials should be displayed at all times for admission to the press box, press lounge/work room, and dressing room areas. Your cooperation is appreciated in Maintaining a working atmosphere in the LOCKER ROOM(S). ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPH REQUESTS. VIOLATORS WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE.

Please note that smoking is prohibited not only in both the press lounge/work room and the press box, but in the whole arena (under N.Y. State law).

There are electrical outlets and phone jacks at all seats in the press box, but phone lines are not active unless arrangements are made by calling Al Weissman at 855-4481. Please keep in mind that there is a minimum number of pool phones in the press box for use by visiting media as well as two pay phones.

Practices that cannot be held at HSBC Arena, will take place at the Pepsi Center. Practices are open to the media, and reporters should contact Gregg Huller in the Communications Department to verify times (716) 855-4509.

DIRECTIONS TO HSBC ARENA

HSBC Arena is on Buffalo's waterfront at the end of Washington Street. It is bordered by Main and Illinois Streets, and South Park Avenue. There are several parking lots in that area. For directions see below or for more detailed information, contact the Sabres at (716) 855-4100.

From N.Y. State Thruway (90): Take Interstate 90 to downtown Buffalo to 190 North (exit 53). Recommended: Take exit 5 (Hamburg St.), turning right onto Hamburg Street. Turn right onto Perry Street (first light) or South Park Ave. (second light). HSBC Arena is two blocks ahead with parking past Michigan Ave.

Alternate: From I90, take exit 6 (Elm Street). Stay to the right on exit ramp and exit onto Seneca Street. Take Seneca St. to first light and turn right onto Michigan Avenue (first light). Turn right onto Michigan Ave. (over bridge), turn right onto Perry Street (second street over bridge. HSBC Arena is one block ahead with parking available on either side of Perry Street.

From Canada and North: Take the 190 South heading toward downtown Buffalo. Exit at Niagara Street and head toward downtown. Turn right on South Elmwood Avenue (before City Hall) and continue until you cross Church Street, at that point Elmwood becomes Lower Terrace (Adam's Mark Hotel on your right). Travel on Lower Terrace and turn right on Washington. The HSBC is at the end of Washington.

DIRECTIONS TO THE PEPSI CENTER

(coming from Greater Buffalo/Niagara International Airport)

Exit the airport and follow signs to the Kensington Expressway (33 West). Take 90 East to 290 West. Exit 290 at Millersport North. Take Maple Road exit and turn right onto Maple Road. Turn left at first light onto North Maplemere. Pepsi Center is located at the end of North Maplemere.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Game-Tying Goal: The final goal in a tie game.

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a win, tie or loss if he is on the ice when either the game-winning or game-tying goal is scored.

Penalty-Killing Pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play

Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthand Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

MIEDICAL GLOSSARY

Abduction: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Adduction: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise. Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

Clavicle: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Closed Reduction: Re-alignment of a fracture or dislocation without surgery.

Coccyx: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Corticosteroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons. Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'. Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

Disc. Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epiconondylitis: Inflammation of tendons at the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow)

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Fascia: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance. Femur: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower lea.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, open, stress or transverse.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle. Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa. Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues. High Ankle Sprain: Disruption of thick connective tissue between the tibia and fibula above the ankle joint.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest. Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Ice and Stimulation: Use of ice to reduce inflammation and muscle stimulation by surface electrodes to maintain muscle strength used in rehabilitation of injury.

Iliotibial Band: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Mandible: Jaw bone

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to Meniscus: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee-medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Open Reduction: Re-alignment of a fracture or dislocation with surgery.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Plantar Fasciitis: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radius: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials. Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg. Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility, or a general term for arthritis of Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint,

Strain: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint. Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint,

Tarsals: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury. Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tenosynovitis: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain

Tibia: Shin bone: larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin. Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin. Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist. Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema...Also a type of imaging study for certain body areas.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve truck, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

MOCKEY OPERATIONS

Order of Selection for Entry Draft

The order of selection among the Member Clubs in each season shall be determined in the following manner: A composite of all Member Clubs shall be prepared by placing:

i) First the Clubs which failed to qualify for the next preceding playoffs in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest points total and followed by the Club having the next lowest points total, and so forth.

ii) The Clubs which participated in the next preceding playoffs (but had not been ranked first in their respective Divisions and had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.

iii) The Clubs which had been ranked first in their Divisions during the next preceding season (but had not won the Stanley Cup that season) in the order of points earned by each of them in the regular schedule of the next preceding season starting with the Club having the lowest total points and followed by the Club having the next lowest total points, and so forth.

iv) The Stanley Cup winner shall select last, thus, positioning all Clubs on the list.

In the event of a tie for any position, such tie shall be resolved by application of the rules governing the determination of final League standings. The resulting list shall constitute the order of selection.

Entry Draft Player Eligibility

All players age 19 or older [(i) any player who will be age 18 on or before September 15 in the year in which such Entry Draft is held, or (ii) reaches his 19th birthday between September 16 and December 31, both dates included, next following Entry Draft, can attain eligibility by delivering to the League a written notice (Opt in Form) prior to the later of May 1, or seven (7) days following the date such player finishes competing on his team in the year in which such draft is to be held.] are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

(i) A player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;

(ii) A player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;

(iii) A player who previously played in the League and became a free agent pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement;

(iv) A player age 21 or older who had played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19 or 20.

Unsigned Draft Choices

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

Entry Level Players

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when first under contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

Injured Reserve List

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.

2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.

3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.

4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.

5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

Regular Season Waivers

1. For the purposes of regular season waivers, the five-year exemption for an 18-year-old skater and four-year exemption for a 19-year-old skater are both reduced to three years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. For the purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. The next two seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the

2. For purposes of regular season waivers, the six-year exemption for an 18-year-old goaltender and five-year exemption for a 19-year-old goaltender are both reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 NHL games or more. For purposes of the waiver draft, these exemptions are both reduced to five years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old plays in 11 games or more. The next three seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any games in any season, shall count as the next three years toward satisfying the exemption.

3. The first season in which a player who is age 20 or older plays in one or more professional games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from waivers.

NOTE: Professional games include NHL regular season games, NHL playoff games, all minor league regular season and playoff games and any other professional games including but not limited to, play in European Leagues when players is on loan to such Clubs and while player is party to a Player Contract.

4. The rights granted to assign a player (who is otherwise required to clear waivers) to a minor NHL Club expire for any player, who, after clearing the waiver draft or regular-season waivers, is not sent to a minor NHL Club, or is recalled from a minor NHL Club (except on emergency recall) and remains on an NHL roster for 30 days cumulative or plays 10 NHL games cumulative.

Tie-Breaking Procedures

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a)First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.

b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.

c) The greater number of games won by the Club.

d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **

e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

** NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES (1970-2003)

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on Dec. 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year.

Another Junior Canadien, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970s.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record - still the best-ever season numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs and followed that with a second-round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. While the Flyers defeated the Sabres in six games, the loss did not blemish the accomplishment of a team which had only been in the league for five years.

One of the most memorable moments in the franchise's first decade occurred Jan. 4, 1976, when the Sabres played the powerful Soviet Wings in an exhibition game at The Aud. With Cold War tensions still running high, the game had an intensity level far beyond the average regular-season game. Buffalo put on a dominating performance, defeating the Wings 12-6 in what ranked at the time as the worst-ever loss by a Soviet team in international competition.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as Head Coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost 4-2 to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman still holds the Sabres record for most games coached (404) and finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of some successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980s, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986, Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals from Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post its first playoff series win in 10 years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarter Finals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game 1-0 in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory, playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 campaign was already one of the most memorable in team history. On a sad note, the season would represent the first without founder Seymour H. Knox, III, who passed away in the spring of 1996. It would also represent the first time in the team's history that it would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first-such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981. Buffalo's performance seemed a fitting tribute to the memory of Seymour Knox.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES (1970-

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year-old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres' head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shone brightly, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies. Earlier in the year, Hasek had also been instrumental in leading the underdog Czech Republic to a Gold Medal at the Winter Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan.

The year ended on a sad note when team co-founder Northrup Knox passed away in July 1998. The Knox brothers persistence in acquiring a franchise and their determination to keep it in Buffalo will forever resonate with hockey fans in Western New York. Shortly before his death, Knox orchestrated the sale of the team to John, Tim, Michael, and James Rigas of Adelphia Cable Communications.

Buffalo returned to the ECF the following year, this time facing its geographical rival, the Toronto Maple Leafs. In what would be known as the cross-border series, the Sabres defeated Toronto 4-1 to reach the Stanley Cup Finals for just the second time in team history. The Dallas Stars would be the Sabres' opponent and the two teams proved to be evenly matched in the lowest-scoring Stanley Cup in history. With Buffalo trailing 3 games to 2 in Game Six, Brett Hull slid the puck past Hasek in the third overtime to clinch the Cup for the Stars. Replays would later show that Hull's skate was in the crease, but officials let the goal stand to the dismay of Sabres fans.

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-2000 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the NHL.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory as the Sabres won the fourth-most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar postseason with three goals, a team-high 10 assists and 13 total points. The season also turned out to be a breakout year for several members who had career offensive years. J.P. Dumont proved to be a valuable addition, producing career offensive numbers in his first year with the team. Alexei Zhitnik returned to the offensive production of earlier in his career and Rhett Warrener and Jay McKee worked as the team's top defensive tandem. As a whole, the Sabres were the league's top defensive allowing the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Dave Andreychuk proved that you can go home, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals, eight on the power play, and add some veteran leadership to a young, yet maturing, hockey club. Another former Sabre returned as Donald Audette, who was acquired at the trade deadline along with Steve Heinze, added another element to the Sabres as the team headed into the postseason. And as he was in past seasons, Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

Despite not making the playoffs in 2001-02, the Sabres were one of the better teams in the NHL over the second half of last season. Strong offensive years from Satan, Stu Barnes and Tim Connolly as well as the emergence of Taylor Pyatt late in the year were just a few of the bright spots of the season. Plus, the emergence of Biron as one of the league's top goaltenders gave fans much to look forward to in the coming years.

Ruff became the team's all-time winningest head coach with a 5-2 win over Philadelphia on Feb. 18, 2003. Ales Kotalik broke onto the scene by scoring 21 goals, the second most by a rookie in 2002-03 while Satan once again led the Sabres in goals, assists and points. B. Thomas Golisano became the Sabres' owner in March and brought a new enthusiasm level to the franchise. The acquisitions of Daniel Briere (at the 2002-03 trade deadline), Chris Drury, Steve Begin and Andy Delmore, along with the signing of Joel Bouchard, have raised expectations for the 2003-04 campaign.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES UNIFORM

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier.

The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into its new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest in which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier. 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, it was a patch in honor of that winter's Olympic games in Lake Placid, N.Y., that was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the now legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting then that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

In 1999, the NHL2000 logo was affixed to every team uniform in the league in anticipation of the new millennium. The Sabres also looked forward to the new century to bring about a new tradition of Stanley Cup

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey pays tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996.

The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appears on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also features the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders.

Last season, the Sabres wore their blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, against New Jersey.

Note: Jager Di Paola Kemp (JDK) Design - a Burlington, Vt., firm founded in 1987 - is the company that created the Sabres third jersey and the team's current uniform, which was designed in 1996.
