KINGS NOTES

- Forward Kevin Fiala (1-1=2) scored his team-leading 17th goal of the season before picking up his 16th assist. The tally stands as the Swiss winger's 12th against Vegas through 31 contests, tying Tyler Toffoli (12 G in 28 GP) and Kyler Connor (12 G in 21 GP) for fifth most against the Golden Knights in League history.
- Fiala now has 104 goals as a King, surpassing Justin Williams (103 G) and Glen Murray (103 G) for 28th most in franchise history. Additionally, Fiala tied Rob Blake (68 EVG) and Glen Murray (68 EVG) for 31st most even-strength goals as a member of the LA Kings.
- Defenseman Brandt Clarke (1-0=1) scored his sixth goal of the season to force overtime with fewer than 90 seconds remaining in regulation. The 22-year-old blueliner recorded the latest game-tying goal (58:33) by a Kings defenseman since Drew Doughty on Oct. 28, 2023 (58:57) – also against the Vegas Golden Knights, per NHL PR.
- Forward Alex Turcotte (0-1=1) picked up his eighth assist of the campaign on Fiala's goal, his fifth point (1=4=5) in his last five home games, dating back to Jan. 3 against Minnesota.
- Turcotte has now recorded assists in back to back games against the Golden Knights (0-1=1; Oct. 8, 2025), becoming the fifth different skater in franchise history aged 24 ears of age or younger to record assists in two straight games against the Golden Knights, joining Adrian Kempe (2x), Matt Roy, Sean Durzi and Quinton Byfield.
- Forward Andrei Kuzmenko (0-1=1) notched his ninth helper of the year with a secondary assist on Fiala's goal, which is also his ninth point (5-4=9) in nine career games played against the Golden Knights.
- Kuzmenko marked his 18th point of the campaign, setting a new single-season high for points as a member of the Kings, surpassing his 17 points (5-12=17) registered during his 22 game stint in 2024-25 after being acquired at the trade deadline.
- Forward Adrian Kempe (0-1=1) notched his 21st assist of the season, extending his lead in the category among Kings skaters. The assist was the Kramfors, Sweden, native's 30th career point (10-12=30) scored against the Golden Knights, becoming the fifth player in NHL history to score 30 points against Vegas, joining Anze Kopitar (16-26=42), Leon Draisaitl (13-20=33), Connor McDavid (11-21=32) and Nathan MacKinnon (8-22=30).
- Kempe played his 38th career game against the Vegas Golden Knights tonight, breaking a tie with teammate Anze Kopitar (37 GP) for sole-possession of the most games played against the Nevada-base franchise in NHL history.
- Tonight also marked defenseman Drew Doughty's 35th career game skated against Vegas, breaking a tie with Cam Fowler (34 GP) to retake the lead for the most games played against the Knights by a defenseman in League history.
- Forward Andre Lee registered six hits tonight, setting a new single-game career high, doubling his previous marker of three (9x; Last: Jan. 9 at WPG).
- Goaltender Darcy Kuemper started his 95th game as a member of the Kings tonight, breaking a tie with Cal Petersen for sole possession of the 12th-most starts in LA Kings franchise history.
