TEAM NOTES

- ⚡ The Tampa Bay Lightning defeated the Seattle Kraken 4-3 in overtime on Saturday night at Climate Pledge Arena, snapping a four-game road losing streak.
- ⚡ Tampa Bay improved to 13-11-5 overall and 5-8-2 on the road...The Lightning also improved to 4-0-1 against Pacific Division opponents and to 7-6-2 against Western Conference opponents.
- ⚡ The Bolts improved to 5-0-1 all-time against Seattle, collecting a point in all six matchups.
- ⚡ The Lightning earned their 55th overtime win since 2015-16 (when the 3-on-3 format was introduced). The only teams with more victories over that span are the Blackhawks (60), Penguins (57), Kings (57) and Blue Jackets (56)...The Lightning boosted their overtime record to 2-5 this season and have wins in two of their last three overtime games.
- ⚡ Tampa Bay moved to 2-1-1 in games that were tied after two periods this season.
- ⚡ The Bolts outshot the Kraken and improved to 9-7-1 when outshooting their opponent.
- ⚡ The Lightning scored the game-opening goal for the fourth consecutive game and improved to 9-3-0 when doing so...The Lightning have now scored 35 goals in first periods this season – the second most behind only the Oilers (37).
- ⚡ Jon Cooper and the Bolts exercised their second coach's challenge of the season and first since November 4 at Ottawa...The Lightning were successful in having Seattle's goal overturned, improving to 1-for-2 this season and 6-for-9 in coach's challenges since the beginning of the 2022-23 season.
- 💰 The Kraken scored three unanswered goals, including a power-play goal 14 seconds into the third period to take a 3-2 lead after Tampa Bay jumped out to a 2-0 lead at the end of the first period.
