TOMMA-MIA

Philip Tomasino, who is suiting up for his 200th game tonight, hit the 10-goal plateau for the second time in his career with his game-winning goal on Saturday against the Devils.

- Six of Tomasino's 10 tallies this season have been game-winning goals, which is tied with Sidney Crosby for the team lead this season:

JARR'D LOOSE

Tristan Jarry won his fourth-consecutive game on Saturday against the Devils, stopping 24 of New Jersey's 27 shots en route to the win.

- Since Jarry's first start on March 9 after being re-called from the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, the goaltender is 4-0-0 with a .930 save percentage and 2.24 goals-against average.

- In that span, no goaltender has more wins than Jarry's four and his save percentage ranks third in the league (min. 3 GP):

HOW SWEDE IT IS

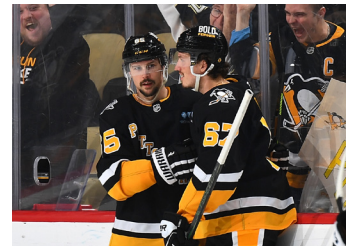

Erik Karlsson scored his 10th goal of the season on Saturday against the Devils on the power play to extend his point streak to four games (2G-2A).

- Karlsson has six goals, 11 assists and 17 points over his last 17 games. Since that stretch began on January 29, only two defensemen in the league have more points than Karlsson:

Points by Defensemen

Since Jan. 29

1. Cale Makar	22
2. Jake Sanderson	19
3. Erik Karlsson	17
4. Rasmus Dahlin	17
5. Thomas Harley	16

- Karlsson hit the 10-goal mark for the 10th time in his career, which is the second most by an active defenseman:
