LOOSE PUCKS

- Parents are Greg and Shannon Nash
- Siblings are Jenna, Brendon and Camie. Played college hockey with Brendon at Cornell for three years (2007-10)
- Has two kids, Rhett (2) and Palmer (1)
- The biggest influence on his life and career are his parents. "For them to sacrifice their time - and even to this day they watch pretty much all my games whether it be American league on the AHL website or NHL, they rarely ever miss a game - just all the sacrifices they made for us, it's definitely something that I feel very fortunate to have."
- Played box lacrosse growing up
- Favorite athletes growing up were Steve Yzerman and Tiger Woods
- First job was hanging gutters and siding for his dad's company
- Most memorable goal was his first NHL goal on March 2, 2013 vs. Florida. "I ended up crashing into the boards pretty hard and almost knocked myself out of the game, but it ended up being a pretty cool, memorable moment. The celebration wasn't quite as good as what it could have been but that's ok."
