AT A GLANCE

RIGHT DOWN THE MIDDLE

Captain Anze Kopitar is set to skate in his 1,400th career NHL game – and 700th career home game – during Saturday's contest against the Wild. In doing so, Kopitar would become the 43rd skater in League history to reach such mark and the fourth active player to do so, joining Ryan Suter (1,470), Alex Ovechkin (1,444) and Brent Burns (1,440). Saturday's contest will also mark Kopitar's 700th career home game, surpassing Roman Hamrlik (699) for sole possession of the 46th-most home games played in League history. Per NHL PR, Kopitar would be just the seventh player in NHL history to have an even 700 home and 700 road game split at the 1,400-game mark in their career.

TRE KRONOR AT 4 NATIONS

On Wednesday, Dec. 4, Team Sweden announced Kings forward Adrian Kempe as part of its full 23-man roster for February's 4 Nations Face-Off, which will take place from Feb. 12 – 20 in Montreal and Boston. Through 26 games this season, Kempe has collected 12 goals and 24 points (12-12=24), including five points (2-3=5) over his last five games. Kempe's 12 tallies pace all Kings skaters while his 24 points place second behind Kopitar's 30 (8-22=30). Kempe ranks in the top-five among Swedish-born skaters in multiple categories this season, including a pacesetter 18 (9-9=18) even-strength points.

In addition to Kempe, two members of the Kings staff will represent their respective countries at next year's tournament, including goaltending coach Michael Buckley for Team USA and Head Equipment Manager Darren Granger for Team Canada.

HOME SWEET HOME

With their 3-2 victory over the Dallas Stars Wednesday night, the Kings improved their 2024-25 home record to 9-2-1 with 19 points and a .792 points percentage (PTS %), the fourth-highest in the league. Since Head Coach Jim Hiller was elevated to interim head coach on Feb. 2, the Kings have accumulated a 23-5-2 record at home with a league-best .800 PTS % and 48 points.
