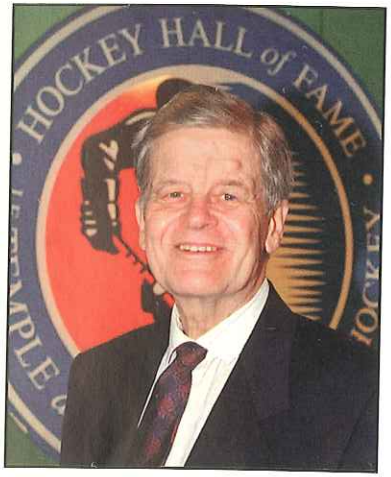
In Memoriam: Jack Gatecliff (1926--2000)



The Buffalo Sabres and the hockey community were deeply saddened with the death of Jack Gatecliff on September 5, 2000, who for more than 53 years covered sports in the Niagara region for the St. Catharines Standard. Jack covered the team since before its inception and was a valued member of the sporting community. Some of his honors include induction into the St. Catharines Hall of Fame (1990), Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame, life-time member of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association, Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame (1998), and the NHL Hall of Fame (1995).

JOHN J. RIGAS
Chairman of the Board

John Rigas, born in 1924 in Wellsville, New York, is the founder and Chairman of Adelphia Communications Corporation. He is also the Chairman of Adelphia Business Solutions. Rigas assumed his current position as Chairman of the Corporation on June 25, 1998 taking over from Northrup R. Knox.

After serving in the Armored Infantry Division of the United State Army during World War II (1943-1946), Mr. Rigas attended Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute, graduating in 1950 with a B.S. in Management Science.

A cable industry pioneer, John Rigas started his first cable system in 1952 in the north central Pennsylvania community of Coudersport. At that time, according to records of the cable industry museum, there were only 60 cable systems in operation across the nation. Together with his brother Gus, he owned, constructed and managed his second cable television system in his hometown of Wellsville, New York.

From these beginnings, the two brothers steadily acquired cable systems in communities throughout Western Pennsylvania and Western New York State. In 1972, they incorporated their holdings in Adelphia Communications Corporation. "Adelphia" is the Greek work for "brothers," signifying the Rigas brothers' Greek heritage and business partnership. Although Gus sold his interest in Adelphia in 1983, another generation of Rigas brothers is now involved in the Company, making the name "Adelphia" as appropriate as ever.

Still headquartered in Coudersport, Adelphia, through its subsidiaries and affiliates, today serves nearly 5.5 million subscribers in thirty-one states.

Mr. Rigas has served two separate terms on the Board of Directors of the National Cable Television Association, from approximately 1975 to 1981, and then from 1986 to the present. He is a member of the Board for C-Span, the Cable Advertising Board (CAB) and the Kaitz Foundation. A member of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Cable Television Association for fifteen years, he served as President from 1969 through 1970. He is also a member of the NCTA Pioneers Club. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame of Broadcasting and Cable Magazine in November 1995.

Deeply committed to community needs, John Rigas has devoted much of his time to civic activities. He is a member of the Board of the Citizens Trust Company, a Coudersport bank, a position he has held since 1968, acting as Chairman since 1982. He served as Chairman of the Board for thirteen of his thirty-year tenure as Directorship of the Charles Cole Memorial Hospital, in Coudersport, PA. He is currently serving as Treasurer of the Board, and Chairman of the Finance and Physician Recruitment Committees. He is a past President of the Coudersport Chamber of Commerce. He is a former Trustee of Mansfield Univeristy in Mansfield, PA and of St. Bonaventure University in St. Bonaventure, NY (1984 to 1998). He has been a member of the Coudersport Rotary Club for over forty years, serving as Club President in 1969-70. He holds memberships in the Coudersport Chapter of the American Legion; F&AM Lodge 230 Wellsville, NY; the Coudersport Consistory; and the Jaffa Temple of Altoona, PA.

From cable acquisitions to player acquisitions, John Rigas and the Rigas family enjoyed some remarkable success last year on a variety of business fronts. In December 1999, Adelphia purchased several cable systems in the Cleveland area, making the fourth such acquisition for the company in a ten-month span. The moves added a combined 2.9 million subscribers and make Adelphia the sixth largest cable company in the United States. To further underscore the speed of the company's growth, consider that in less than one year, Adelphia more than doubled its subscriber base to its current 5.3 million – an amazing 121% increase.

The Rigases willingness to spend money was not limited to their cable interests. In March, they approved separate trades to acquire the talents (and contracts) of Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton, thereby giving the Sabres the boost they needed to reach the playoffs. The Rigas Family continued their roll in June 2000 when they consummated a deal with local and state governments to build a regional operations center in downtown Buffalo. The "Inner Harbor" project is expected to bring 2,000 new jobs to the Western New York area in addition to a hotel, sports-theme restaurant, ice rink, retail shops and residential space. As importantly, the deal helped solidify the Sabres future in Buffalo for years to come. Barely one month later on July 26, the Rigases officially purchased the Sabres after operating the team under a memorandum of understanding since March 1998.

Mr. Rigas resides in Coudersport with his wife, Doris. They have four children, three of whom – Michael, Timothy, and James – are actively involved in the management of Adelphia. The fourth, Ellen, resides in New York City, where she is pursuing a career in the field of entertainment.

TIMOTHY J. RIGAS
Chief Executive Officer

Timothy Rigas enters his third full season as the Sabres' Chief Executive Officer. While serving in that capacity with the team, he maintains his role as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, and Treasurer of Adelphia Cable Communications and its subsidiaries. He also owns the title of Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of Adelphia Business Solutions, an Adelphia subsidiary that has become a leading competitive local exchange carrier. One cable industry observer has described Timothy as "a real visionary, as creative in financing as anybody in the cable business."

Timothy first joined the constituent entities that became Adelphia in 1979 after graduating from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School with a B.S. Degree in Economics. When he joined Adelphia, the company had a total of 45,000 subscribers, and was generating $7 million per year. Today, Adelphia boasts annual revenues exceeding two billion dollars.

Timothy, John, Michael and James Rigas each own 25% of the controlling interest of the Buffalo Sabres.

In addition to his work with the Sabres and Adelphia, Timothy is also affiliated with the following organizations: the Pennsylvania Cable Association Legislative Implementations Committee, the Potter County Hospital Authority, the Coudersport Library Board, and the Coudersport Rotary Club.

Timothy, 44, is single and resides in Coudersport, PA.

MICHAEL J. RIGAS
Director

Michael Rigas is the Executive Vice President of Operations for Adelphia Cable Communications. In his role with Adelphia, he oversees all cable television system operations at the corporate level and monitors compliance with federal, state and local laws and regulations.

The number of cable television systems under Michael's supervision has grown dramatically over the last two years. In December 1999, Adelphia purchased several cable systems in the Cleveland area, marking the fourth such acquisition for the company in a ten-month span. The moves added a combined 2.9 million subscribers and make Adelphia the sixth largest cable company in the United States. To further underscore the speed of the company's growth, consider that in less than one year, Adelphia more than doubled its subscriber base to its current 5.3 million - an amazing 121% increase.

Michael graduated from Harvard Law School after earning an undergraduate degree (Magna Cum Laude) in history from Harvard. He worked for the Washington D.C.-based law firm of Webster, Chamberlain, and Bean for one year before joining Adelphia in 1981.

Michael, John, Timothy and James Rigas each own 25% of the controlling interest of the Buffalo Sabres. Like his father and his brothers, Michael works with a number of local and regional organizations, including: Cable Television Association (CATA), New York State Cable Television Association (where he serves as Chairman), National Cable Center and Museum, St. Bonaventure University, and Charles Cole Memorial Hospital.

Michael, resides in Coudersport, PA.

JAMES P. RIGAS
Director

James Rigas is the Executive Vice President of Strategic Planning at Adelphia Cable Communications. In his role with Adelphia, James manages the engineering, marketing and customer service aspects of the company. He also plays a critical role in Adelphia's expansion into new lines of business. To that end, James is the Vice Chairman, CEO and President of Adelphia Business Solutions, an Adelphia subsidiary that has become a leading competitive local exchange carrier.

James, his father, and his brothers have overseen some amazing growth for the company during the past two years. In December 1999, Adelphia purchased several cable systems in the Cleveland area, marking the fourth such acquisition for the company in a ten-month span. The moves added a combined 2.9 million subscribers and make Adelphia the sixth largest cable company in the United States. To further underscore the speed of the company's growth, consider that in less than one year, Adelphia more than doubled its subscriber base to its current 5.3 million - an amazing 121% increase.

After graduating Magna Cum Laude from Harvard, James attended Stanford University, where he earned a juris doctor degree and a master's degree in economics in 1984. He joined Adelphia in 1986 after serving for two years as a consultant with Bain & Co., a management consulting firm.

James, Michael, John and Timothy Rigas each own 25% of the controlling interest of the Buffalo Sabres.

James, 42, and his wife, Dr. Mary Ann Rigas, a pediatrician, are the parents of four children: Christopher Paul, 6; John Michael, 5; Andrew James, 4; and David Timothy, 1. They reside in Coudersport, PA.

DARCY REGIER
General Manager

Darcy Regier continues his masterful management of the Sabres organization by building a successful team in Buffalo without sacrificing the young talent in the farm system. Unlike other organizations, the recent achievements of the Sabres under Regier -1998 Eastern Conference Finalists and 1999 Stanley Cup Finalists - have not come at the expense of the organization's young talent. Buffalo's AHL affiliate Rochester Americans has enjoyed two straight trips to the Calder Cup Finals and continues to develop players who will be keys to the future success of the Sabres.

With the Sabres struggling to make the playoffs last March, Regier's focus was squarely on helping the NHL club reach the postseason. He patiently waited for the right opportunity and then pulled the trigger on two trade deadline deals to acquire Chris Gratton and Doug Gilmour. The moves, combined with the earlier acquisition of Vladimir Tsyplakov for an 8th round pick, sparked Buffalo to a 7-2-1 finish and clinched a playoff spot for the third straight year under the GM. Regier made perhaps his shrewdest moves of the year at the expansion draft when he protected the core of the hockey team in exchange for backup goalie Dwayne Roloson, Geoff Sanderson, two minor leaguers, and two middle-round draft picks.

As Buffalo was trying to keep its NHL team intact, its AHL affiliate in Rochester was marching to their second straight Calder Cup Finals. The Americans continue to provide Buffalo with depth (11 Rochester players spent time in Buffalo last season), while serving the dual purpose of developing young players. Goaltender Mika Noronen (1997, 1st round) is among the most promising of these players. Noronen was thrust into a starting role last year after Martin Biron's callup, and he responded by posting a 2.18 GAA and a .920 save percentage. He was named the AHL's Rookie of the Year and The Hockey News' Minor Pro Prospect of the Year for 2000. Teammate Dmitri Kalinin (1998, 1st round), just 20 years old, joined Noronen as a defenseman on the AHL's All-Rookie team.

Prior to joining the Sabres, the 43 year-old served in roles with the Islanders as: Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach, and Assistant General Manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in '95-'96). Legendary Islanders' coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board, and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career as a hockey administrator. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, he was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 PIM. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's GM.

During his playing career, Regier was involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence with their three sons: Jonathan (19), Justin (15), and Jarrett (7).

RON BERTOVICH

Executive Vice President/Administration

Ron Bertovich enters his third full season as Executive Vice President/Administration of the Buffalo Sabres and HSBC Arena. With the Sabres, Bertovich oversees most non-hockey operations, including marketing, sales, broadcasting, arena athletics, operations and ticket sales. Ron also serves as the governor of the National Lacrosse League's Buffalo Bandits, and is a member of the NLL's executive committee.

Bertovich also holds the title of Executive Vice President of the Empire Sports Network, the television home of the Sabres. He was hired by the regional sports network in 1994, and was instrumental in its rapid growth, specifically in the area of live sports programming. Besides the 70-plus Buffalo Sabres regular season and playoff games, Empire's program line-up boasts live coverage of several professional sports from throughout New York state – including teams from the American Hockey League, Triple-A baseball, the National Professional Soccer League, and the National Lacrosse League.

While at Empire, Ron also oversaw the introduction of FAN TV and the Empire Sports Report – interview and highlight shows which focus on regional sports stories and produce four and one-half hours of live programming each day. On the affiliate side, the network subscriber base has grown to its current total of 1.2 million subscribers throughout New York state. The staff kept pace with the network's growth, increasing from less than 20 full-time employees to its current level of 80.

Prior to joining the network, Ron served as the Commissioner of the Atlantic 10 Conference from 1986-1994. He played a major role in creating a comprehensive conference television package that greatly increased exposure for the league's men's and women's basketball teams. Upon his departure, the conference was conducting championships and recognizing scholar-athletes in 18 sports. Ron was able to draw on his experiences in collegiate athletics when HSBC Arena hosted the first and second rounds of the 2000 NCAA Men's Basketball Championships. The success of the event was universally praised by both spectators and participants.

Ron graduated from St. Francis (PA) College in 1976 with a degree in Business Management. He has also earned a master's degree in Industrial Relations from St. Francis, and a master's degree in Athletic Administration from Ohio State University. Ron currently sits on the board of the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame, and he helped pave the way for the move of that association's Hall of Fame site into a more prominent location in the pavilion of HSBC Arena. Ron also serves on the board of the Buffalo Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ).

A native of Bentleyville, Pennsylvania, Ron and his wife Cheryl have two daughters: Meghan Lynn (14) and Kimberly Lynn (12). The Bertovich family resides in Getzville, New York.

JOHN CIMPERMAN

Executive Vice President/ Integrated Marketing - Buffalo Sabres
Region Vice President/Sales and Marketing - Adelphia

John Cimperman was appointed to a dual role as Executive Vice President/ Integrated Marketing - Buffalo Sabres and Region Vice President/Sales and Marketing - Adelphia in January, 1999. In the position, Cimperman is responsible for the marketing integration of all of Adelphia's properties in the Western New York region. These properties include Adelphia Communications, Adelphia Business Solutions, the Buffalo Sabres, Empire Sports Network and Adelphia Media Services (formerly Media Partners).

In December 1999, John was the main force behind the launching of the Adelphia Awards program. The program, similar to airlines' frequent flyer programs, is the first to integrate a sports franchise with a media company. The Program rewards Adelphia customers and Sabres' season ticket holders with points for the purchase of Adelphia services, as well as attendance of HSBC Arena events. "Awards" allows the company to help cross-sell its products, while rewarding subscribers with valuable items, ranging from Sabres' merchandise to a trip to the ESPY Awards.

Cimperman moved into his role with Adelphia and the Sabres after serving as Vice President/Marketing & Communications with the Los Angeles Kings. With the Kings, Cimperman oversaw various aspects of the organization, including media and community relations, broadcasting, promotions, ticket sales, merchandising and game night entertainment. He also led the design of the Kings' new logos and uniforms, and was instrumental in the negotiation of the $100 million naming rights deal of the STAPLES Center.

Cimperman arrived in the National Hockey League after a four-year stint in the National Basketball Association. He was Vice President/Marketing for the Philadelphia 76ers from 1995-96, and served as Director of Marketing for the Cleveland Cavaliers from 1993-95. Prior to joining the professional sports ranks, John managed the advertising accounts for Stouffer Hotels, British Petroleum, and Sherwin-Williams as an account supervisor at WYSE Advertising in Cleveland.

A native of Cleveland, Cimperman earned his undergraduate degree at Kent State and received his masters in communications from Cleveland State. John resides in East Aurora, NY, with his wife, Cathy and two children, Jacob and Hanna.

ED HARTMAN

Executive Vice President/Finance
& Business Development

Ed Hartman was named Executive Vice President/Finance & Business Development for the Buffalo Sabres and HSBC Arena on November 19, 1998. In his position with the Sabres, Hartman oversees the finance and accounting departments, arena event bookings as well as spearheading Adelphia Communications' efforts in the development of Buffalo's Inner Harbor.

Hartman's work on behalf of the Inner Harbor project was rewarded on June 24, 2000 when state and local officials announced an agreement had been reached with Adelphia on an incentive package to help fund the project. The proposed high-rise development is expected to bring 2,000 new jobs to the Western New York area in addition to a hotel, sports-theme restaurant, ice rink, retail shops, and residential space.

Prior to joining Adelphia in 1992, Hartman, who is a CPA, served in accounting and consulting positions with Price Waterhouse in Pittsburgh. Hartman spent four seasons in the Pittsburgh Pirates (MLB) organization after being selected in the 1986 amateur draft. Hartman received his B.S. degree in Accounting from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

A native of Pittsburgh, Ed and his wife, Lori, have three children: daughters, Katelyn and Abigail, and son, Jason.

LARRY CARRIERE
Assistant to the General Manager

Larry Carriere, "The Hawk", returns for his eighth season in the Sabres front office, his sixth in the position of Assistant to the General Manager. Larry works in a variety of roles, but his primary responsibilities are overseeing minor league operations and contracts, as well as professional player development. He is also the Sabres representative on the American Hockey League Board of Governors.

Carriere enjoyed a productive year in 1999-2000 helping to develop Sabres players assigned to the team's minor league affiliates: the American Hockey League's Rochester Americans, South Carolina Stingrays of the East Coast Hockey League, and the Broome County (Binghamton) Icemen of the United Hockey League. The Amerks repeated as the Empire Division champions, and earned their second consecutive berth in the Calder Cup Finals. Rochester accomplished this feat despite having a total of 11 players spend time in Buffalo at various points during the year. One of the players that remained in Rochester for the full season was goaltender Mika Noronen. He led the AHL with 33 wins, a 2.18 GAA, and six shutouts en route to being named the AHL Rookie of the Year and The Hockey News' Minor Pro Prospect of the year for 2000. Other success stories in Rochester included: defenseman Dmitri Kalinin being named to the AHL All-Rookie team; the promotion of Maxim Afinogenov to the NHL after just 15 games in Rochester; and the hiring of Americans Head Coach Brian McCutcheon as Sabres Assistant Coach, replacing the departed Mike Ramsey.

Prior to being named to his current position, Larry was the team's Director of Player Evaluation after serving as a scout for the Sabres in the Quebec region for eight years. He is also fluent in French.

The team's second-round draft choice in 1972, Carriere played 206 games over two stints with the Sabres during his seven-year NHL career. Carriere's playing days with Buffalo ranged from the 1972-73 season through and including the 1974-75 campaign and the Sabres' appearance in the Stanley Cup Finals. Carriere was dealt to the Atlanta Flames before the start of the 1975-76 season and would go on to also play with Vancouver and Los Angeles before returning to Buffalo during the 1977-78 season. He appeared in 416 NHL games, recording 17 goals, 83 assists, 100 points, and 512 penalty minutes.

Carriere graduated from Loyola College in Montreal with a Bachelor of Commerce degree, with a major in Business Administration. He has also studied management at the University of Michigan. Larry and his wife Suzanne live in Williamsville, New York. They have two grown children: Nicholas, a Niagara University hockey player, and Stephanie, a communication arts student at Concordia University in Montreal.

DON LUCE
Director of Player Personnel

Don Luce enters his 14th season as the Buffalo Sabres Director of Player Personnel, where he oversees the team's 11-person scouting staff. Together they scout the NHL, IHL, AHL, and ECHL, as well as the Canadian junior leagues, American high schools and colleges, and European leagues.

The work of Don and his staff continues to produce outstanding results. This past season The Hockey News named Rochester goaltender Mika Noronen (1997, 1st round) as its Minor Pro Prospect of the Year after the 21-year old AHL rookie posted a 2.18 GAA and a .920 save percentage. Remarkably, it was the second straight season that a Sabres prospect has received that honor. Goaltender Martin Biron (1995, 1st round) was the Minor Pro Prospect of the Year for 1999. Other success stories in the Sabres system include: Maxim Afinogenov (1997, 3rd round) totaled 16 goals in 65 games in his rookie season with the Sabres; defenseman Dmitri Kalinin (1998, 1st round) was named to the AHL all-rookie team after ending his first year with an impressive +15; Norm Milley (1998, 2nd round) finished as the second-leading scorer in the OHL (52-60-112), while fellow prospect Mike Zigomanis (1999, 2nd round) finished fifth in the OHL scoring race (40-54-94).

Don first joined the Sabres' front office staff in 1984 when he worked for a year on special assignments and as an assistant coach. He spent the 1985-86 season as an American scout, before taking on his current role in 1987. One of his major accomplishments was his instrumental role in bringing Alexander Mogilny to America in 1989.

A member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame, Luce originally became a Sabre as part of a trade with Detroit for Joe Daley in 1971. He spent almost 10 full seasons of his NHL career with Buffalo and ranked with Craig Ramsay as two of the league's best penalty-killers throughout the 1970's.

In 1974-75, Don enjoyed arguably his finest season helping the Sabres to the Stanley Cup Finals and establishing two team records which still stand to this day: eight short-handed goals in one season and an incredible +61 plus/minus ranking. He capped the year by being named the winner of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy which is given to the NHL player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship, and dedication to hockey.

After a trade to Los Angeles in 1981, Luce went on to play one more season with Toronto before retiring. He appeared in a total of 894 NHL games, registering 225 goals, 329 assists, 554 points, and 364 PIM. Don still ranks in the top 10 with Buffalo in eight career leaders categories.

As a result of his many accomplishments on and off the ice, Don was honored with induction into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in September 1997. He and his wife Diane reside in Williamsville, New York. They have four grown children: Scott, Kim, Kelly, and Kristin.

LINDY RUFF
Head Coach

Lindy Ruff enters his fourth season behind the Sabres bench ranked third on the team's all-time list for games coached with 246 (Bowman - 404, Muckler - 268). Ruff had to draw on all of that experience this past year when injuries to key players like Dominik Hasek, Michael Peca, and Rhett Warrener kept the Sabres from playing at full strength for much of the season. While those players were working their way back into the lineup, Ruff kept the team in the race for a playoff spot. He then guided the club to a 7-2-1 finish upon their return, and clinched a playoff spot on the final day of the season. It marked the third time in his three years as head coach that Ruff's Sabres team has made the playoffs.

In just his second season as a head coach in the NHL, Lindy Ruff, now 40, led the Sabres to their first Stanley Cup Finals in 24 years, and established himself as one of the top young coaches in the league. He was rewarded for his efforts when he signed a multi-year contract extension on September 15, 1999. Ruff's 25 career playoff wins in three seasons make him the all-time winningest Sabres coach in the postseason, surpassing the legendary Scotty Bowman's mark of 18 wins (set over five seasons). He also achieved a new club record in 1999 for the most wins in one playoff year with 14. In the process, Ruff became only the third head coach under the present Stanley Cup Playoff format to lead his team to the Conference Finals in each of his first two seasons (Jean Perron with Montreal in 1986 and 1987; Mike Milbury with Boston in 1990 and 1991). The Sabres' strong start at the beginning of the 1998-99 season helped earn Ruff the right to coach the World Team in the All-Star Game in Tampa Bay on January 24, 1999. Despite losing the game 8-6, Ruff joined Bowman and Floyd Smith as the only Buffalo coaches to be named head coach of an All-Star Team while with the Sabres.

Hired as the 15th head coach in team history on July 21, 1997, Ruff achieved playoff successes his first year that none of his Sabres predecessors had ever experienced. The 1997-98 squad set a team record with an eight-game postseason winning streak, and tied the old club mark with ten wins in a playoff year. The conference finals appearance was the team's first since 1980, which ironically was Ruff's rookie year with Buffalo.

Ruff joined the Sabres as a second-round (32nd overall) draft pick in 1979 following a distinguished career as a defenseman with Lethbridge (WHL). He made the team at his first training camp and went on to play 63 games for the Sabres during the 1979-80 season, a season which culminated in Ruff being named the team's rookie-of-the-year. Eighteen years later, Ruff still ranks sixth on the Sabres' all-time regular season list in penalty minutes (1,126) and is tied for eleventh in games played (608). In 691 career NHL games, Lindy totaled 105 goals, 195 assists, 300 points, and 1,264 penalty minutes.

In his third season with Buffalo, Ruff was converted to left wing after having played defense throughout his junior career and his first two seasons as a pro. In November 1986, he received perhaps his greatest individual honor as a Sabre when he was named to replace Gil Perreault as team captain after the legend's retirement. Lindy continued to display leadership qualities as a player when he returned to defense in January 1987.

Ruff ended his professional playing career after a stint as a player/assistant coach with the San Diego Gulls of the IHL in the 1992-93 season. When expansion hit the NHL again for the 1993-94 season, Head Coach Roger Neilson (who coached Lindy in Buffalo and with the Rangers) tabbed Ruff as one of his assistants for the new Florida Panthers club. As the primary coach of the penalty-killing unit and defensemen, Ruff received accolades for his work with those groups. The over-achieving, hard-working Panthers went all the way to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1996, just their third season in existence.

Lindy and his wife Gaye have been married for 15 years and reside in Clarence with their four children: Brett (11), Eryn (9), and twins Brian and Madeleine (6).

DON LEVER

Associate Coach

Don Lever is back for his eleventh season on the Sabres coaching staff, serving his fourth straight year as the team's Associate Coach. Don's ten seasons behind the Buffalo bench represent the second most among current NHL assistant coaches with a single team. Only Doug Jarvis of the Dallas Stars, who has spent the last 12 years with that club, has been with one team longer.

Before reuniting on the Buffalo coaching staff, Don and Lindy Ruff were teammates on the Sabres for two seasons: 1985-86 and 1986-87. In fact, Ruff's first coaching experience came while serving as a player/assistant under Lever with the Amerks in 1991-92. Ruff represents the fifth head coach Lever has worked with as a Sabres' assistant coach, having also served with Ted Sator, Rick Dudley, John Muckler, and Ted Nolan.

Lever, 48, who was known as a defensive specialist during his playing days, began his coaching career as a Sabres assistant in the 1987-88 season. He then served as the head coach of the Rochester Americans from 1990-1992, before returning to Buffalo as an assistant for the 1992-93 season.

In 1990-91, Lever's first season as coach of the Amerks, he earned AHL Coach of the Year honors after Rochester went to the Calder Cup finals following a league-best 45-26-9 regular season. Lever also played for Rochester in 1985-86 and 1986-87, winning the Calder Cup in the role of player-coach in his final pro season.

Don played his junior hockey in nearby Niagara Falls, Ontario. After scoring 126 points in 63 games for the OHL's Flyers, he was the first draft choice (and third pick overall) of the Vancouver Canucks in 1972. Don was traded to Atlanta in February 1980 after eight seasons with the Canucks, and moved with the Flames to Calgary that summer. He was dealt to Colorado in 1981, and again was a part of a franchise shift as the Rockies became the New Jersey Devils in 1982. The Sabres acquired his rights from the Devils on September 9, 1985, and he spent two seasons as a player in Buffalo's organization. In 1,020 NHL games, he accumulated 313 goals, 367 assists, 680 points, and 593 PIM.

Brian McCutcheon

Assistant Coach

After three successful years coaching the AHL affiliate Rochester Americans, the Sabres named Brian McCutcheon an assistant coach this summer, replacing the departed Mike Ramsey. The promotion was well-deserved for McCutcheon who took the Amerks to the Calder Cup Finals in each of the last two seasons while helping to develop the talent in the Sabres farm system.

McCutcheon led the Amerks to their second straight Western Conference regular season title in 1999-2000, despite losing his number one goaltender (Martin Biron) and top offensive threat (Maxim Afinogenov) to Buffalo early in the season. The performance was a fitting encore from the previous year when the team set franchise records for most points (111) and wins (52) in a season. McCutcheon, who ends his Rochester tenure with a record of 128-82-9, saw his Amerk teams into the playoffs in each of his three seasons behind the bench. Along the way, he helped develop several current Sabres including: Biron, Erik Rasmussen, and Vaclav Varada. It won't be a surprise if those players are someday joined by such names as Dmitri Kalinin (99-00 AHL all-rookie team) and Mika Noronen (99-00 AHL Rookie of the Year).

Prior to joining the Amerks, McCutcheon served as the Head Coach and Director of Player Personnel for the Columbus Chill of the East Coast Hockey League. In his only season with the Chill, he led them to a 44-21-5 mark setting a franchise record for most wins and points in a season while winning the North Division title. McCutcheon was rewarded for his efforts with the ECHL Coach of the Year award.

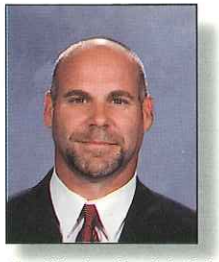
That performance was made more impressive by the fact that it was only his second season working with professionals, and just his first as a head coach. In 1995-96, he served as an assistant to former Amerks Head Coach John Van Boxmeer with the Los Angeles Ice Dogs of the International Hockey League.

Before moving into pro hockey, Brian enjoyed a highly successful career as a college coach. McCutcheon was the head coach from 1987-95 at Division I Cornell University compiling a 108-105-24 record over eight seasons. The tenure was a homecoming for McCutcheon who graduated from Cornell in 1971 after a playing career which included an NCAA Championship in 1970. He was inducted into the Cornell University Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

McCutcheon had previously coached at Elmira College (located in Central New York) for seven seasons, the last six as head coach. He owns a 103-60-1 lifetime record at the school, including a 1986 New York State Coach of the Year award, the same year his Elmira team reached the #1 ranking among Division III schools.

He appeared in 37 games over parts of three seasons with the Detroit Red Wings, recording three goals, one assist, four points, and seven PIM.

A native of Toronto, Brian and his wife Susan have two children, Kelly (21) and Mark (16).



DOUG McKENNEY

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Doug McKenney returns for his sixth season on the Sabres' coaching staff. His duties with the team include working on strength and conditioning programs with the NHL club, the AHL affiliate Rochester Americans, Sabres draft choices, as well as in conjunction with Buffalo's Director of Player Personnel Don Luce on potential draftees. He also works with a physical therapist and team doctors on the rehabilitation of all injured players.

McKenney, 41, was named the team's first-ever Strength and Conditioning Coach in July 1995 and has been steadily improving the team's performance levels ever since. The 1999-00 Sabres finished the regular season with a manageable 165 man-games lost to injury, a figure augmented by Dominik Hasek's long-term groin injury. The team's durability over the last three years has been a tribute to McKenney's programs with the team consistently finishing near the top in the least amount of man-games lost category (1998-99 rank: 2nd, 1997-98 rank: 1st).

Since it is difficult to conduct intense training during the season, McKenney places a special emphasis on teaching players nutrition. He has even developed recommended menus for local restaurants and chains, which players can consult to help make smart food choices. McKenney also utilizes computer software to analyze each player's food intake and make suggestions on how they can improve their diets. Before the players leave for the offseason, Doug, in conjunction with the hockey department, devises a conditioning manual and video tailored to each player's individual needs. For those players who remain in Buffalo, McKenney supervises their off-season conditioning and skating programs.

For the fifth straight summer, McKenney and Luce ran a mini-camp for the team's top prospects. This unique program consists of physical workouts as well as seminars in nutrition, understanding the media, drug and alcohol awareness, and other lifestyle instruction. Many of the organization's top prospects participated in the six week program this past year.

McKenney joined the Sabres in June 1995 after serving as the Hartford Whalers strength and conditioning coach for six years. He served in the same capacity for the Pittsburgh Penguins the four years prior.

A 1981 graduate of Springfield College, McKenney taught two years of physical education at Dover High School in New Hampshire and served on the coaching staff of the school's football team. He subsequently obtained his master's degree in exercise physiology at Mississippi State University.

Doug and his wife Suzanne reside in Hamburg, New York with their two children, sons Matthew (13) and Neil (11).

DENNIS COLE

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Dennis Cole is entering his second season with the Sabres as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Dennis had previously interned with the team while an undergraduate at Canisius College. Dennis is certified as a Health and Fitness Instructor by the American College of Sports Medicine, as well as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

As Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach to Doug McKenney, Coles' main responsibilities during the season entail working with the Sabres AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans. With the Amerks, Dennis organizes the team's off-ice conditioning, weight training, and nutrition analysis. In the offseason, he assists Sabres' Strength and Conditioning Coach Doug McKenney with the organizations summer conditioning camp for rookies and prospects held in Buffalo.

Dennis, a native of Clarence, NY, received his undergraduate and Masters degrees from Canisius College in Non-Teaching Physical Education with Concentration in Physical Science. He and his wife, Carrie, reside in Amherst, NY.

JEFF HOLBROOK

Administrative Assistant Coach

This season marks Jeff's eighth year with the Sabres, and third in his current role of Administrative Assistant Coach. He joined the team in 1992 as the club's Media Relations Assistant and has consistently worked his way up the ranks as he held the positions of Director of Public Relations and Director of Team Operations before moving into his current position. Before joining the Sabres, Holbrook was with the Rochester Americans for five seasons.

As the teams' Administrative Assistant Coach, Jeff is responsible for all the video editing and analization of games, as well as prescouting each opponent. He is also involved in various other hockey department issues, including organizing travel schedules and statisical analysis. Jeff received his Bachelors Degree in Communications in 1988 from St. John Fisher College and was named Who's Who Among College Students. His outstanding collegiate career was highlighted by being selected a three-time football All-American at wide receiver and induction into the St. John Fisher College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. He is currently pursuing his master's degree at the University at Buffalo. Jeff and his wife Michele, reside in Williamsville, New York, with their daughter Findlay (1).

JIM CORSI

Goaltending Coach

Jim Corsi enters his third year as the Sabres goaltending coach. His duties with the team involve working with the Sabres NHL netminders as well as the team's prospects throughout the minor leagues. The products of Corsi's teachings have been seen in the development of Martin Biron, who recorded 19 wins as a rookie last season with the Sabres' and Mika Noronen who was named Minor Pro Prospect of the Year by The Hockey News and the AHL's Top Rookie. Jim also worked with Dominik Hasek as he recovered from a 40-game absence with a groin injury. Upon his return, Hasek won 14 games and recorded a 1.96 GAA with a .925 save percentage which pushed the Sabres into the final playoff spot.

Jim brings with him over 20 years of experience as a player, coach, manager and hockey analyst. Previously, he held the position of Goaltending Coach with the Canadian Women's Team (1997-98), Ottawa University (CIAU) (1997-98), Schwenningen HC (Ger/DEL) (1997-98), St. Michael's Majors (OHL) (1994-97), McGill University (CIAU) (1992) and Concordia University (CIAU) (1992-present). Corsi is a member of the Concordia University Athletic Hall of Fame in hockey and soccer.

As a professional player, Jim played with the Edmonton Oilers and the Minnesota North Stars, as well as Quebec Nordiques of the WHA before going overseas to play international hockey in Europe, Russia, and China from 1980-92. During that time, he was a member of the Italian National Team at the 1984 Winter Olympic Games, as well as representing Italy several times in the World Ice Hockey Championships.

Jim is fluent in English, French, Italian and German. He and his wife Cathy reside in Ile Bizard, Quebec with their two sons Stephen (18) and Danny (15).

SABRES COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT

MICHAEL GILBERT

Vice President/Communications

Michael Gilbert, who joined the Sabres organization as Director of Communications, was promoted to Vice President/Communications on November 19, 1998. Gilbert oversees the Communications Department for the Sabres, as well as for the Buffalo Bandits (NLL) and all amateur athletics. He is entering his fourth year with the club after joining the Sabres on September 2, 1997. Prior to joining the Sabres, Michael was the Director of Public Relations for the New Jersey Devils from 1995-1997. He was part of a staff in New Jersey that earned the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's Dick Dillman Award for excellence in public relations for the 1996-97 season. Gilbert's success followed him to the Sabres where the Communications Department there was acknowledged with the Dillman Award in 1997-98. Before his move to the NHL, Michael was the Assistant Director of Public Relations for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for four years (1991-95), assisting with the day-to-day operations of that team's PR department. Michael's football background also includes stints as Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks of the WLAF (1990) and as a Graduate Assistant with the Buffalo Bills (1988-90). The move to the Sabres represented a homecoming for Gilbert, who grew up in the Buffalo suburb of Tonawanda. Michael graduated from Canisius College in Buffalo with degrees in Communications and History. He and his wife Amy reside in Amherst, New York, with their son, Mark.

GREGG HULLER

Director of Communications

Gregg enters his second season with the Sabres, and first as the team's Director of Communications. Last year he served as the Sabres' Communications Coordinator after joining the team as a Graduate Assistant prior to the start of the 1998-99 season. In Gregg's role with the team, he serves as a liaison between the Sabres organization and the media. He is primarily responsible for arranging interviews, coordinating press conferences, writing press releases and assisting in game-day operations. Gregg graduated from University at Buffalo in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in U.S. History, and went on to receive his master's degree in sports administration from Canisius College in 1998. He and his wife Beth reside in Cheektowaga, New York.

GARRY DUNLAP

Communications Coordinator – Arena Athletics - Buffalo Bandits

Garry enters his second season with the Sabres as Communications Coordinator. Dunlap began with the organization as an intern in the Community Relations Department during the 1996-97 season. In his current role with the Sabres, Garry assists with the editing of publications including the training camp guide, media guide and post season guide. He also is involved in the Community Relations department with autograph signings, player appearences, the Adelphia Community Corner and the Warrener Corner. In addition to his Sabres duties, Garry is the coordinator of Amateur Athletics for the Arena and Public Relations Director for the Buffalo Bandits of the National Lacrosse League. Garry graduated from Medaille College in 1998 with a Bachelors Degree in Sports Management. He and his wife Rina reside in Niagara Falls, New York.

KEVIN WILES

Communications Coordinator – Buffalo Sabres

Kevin Wiles enters his first season as the Sabres Communications Coordinator. After spending the 1998-99 season as an intern in the Communications Department, Kevin was then hired as the full time graduate assistant for the 1999-2000 season. He returns to the Sabres after spending this past summer and beginning of the season as the Graduate Assistant in the Buffalo Bills Communications Department where he was a training camp and game day intern the past two seasons. He got his start in sports as a summer intern with the Buffalo Bills Public and Community Relations Department. In his role with the Sabres, Kevin oversees all of the teams publications and press notes. He also assists in the maintenance of the team's web site and works as the Sabres contact for the NHL's real time scoring system. A 1999 graduate of Medaille College, Kevin was born and raised in Buffalo where he still resides.

Any player who took part in at least one Sabres regular season game in his career is listed. Eight players dressed but never played a game for Buffalo: #27 - Tim Regan (1973-74), #31 - Jim Weaver (1978-79), #30 - Jari Paavola (1981-82), #35 - Mike Craig (1984-85), #34 - Kenton Rein (1987-88), #33 - Bill Pye (1992-93), #30 - Markus Ketterer (1993-94 & 1994-95), and #68 - Scott Buhler (1996-97). #00 - Martin Biron served as backup goaltender and did not play (3 times in 1996-97, 1 time in 1997-98). Michel Deziel is the only Sabre to have played in a playoff game without participating in a regular season game.

BUFFALO SABRES RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only four numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on October 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres' history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Rick Martin (#7) and Rene Robert (#14) joined Perreault in ceremonies to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on November 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on January 5, 1996.

#11 Gilbert Perreault

Center (1970-71 to 1986)

Career Sabres Totals: 1,191 games played, 512 goals, 814 assists, 1,326 points (regular season) 90 games played, 33 goals, 70 assists, 103 points (playoffs)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first-ever draft choice and set the standard for all future Sabres to be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November, 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number eleven in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, will never be another.

#7 Rick Martin

Left Wing (1971-72 to 1980-81)

Career Sabres Totals: 681 games played, 382 goals, 313 assists, 695 points (regular season) 62 games played, 24 goals, 29 assists, 53 points (playoffs)

Buffalo Sabre fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number seven's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't even wearing a Sabres' uniform. On January 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two one-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories.

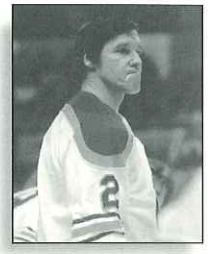
#14 Rene Robert

Right Wing (1971-72 to 1978-79)

Career Sabres Totals: 524 games played, 222 goals, 330 assists, 552 points (regular season) 47 games played, 22 goals, 17 assists, 39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabre mark by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on December 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number seven in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

#2 Tim Horton



Defense (1972-73 to 1973-74)

Career Sabres Totals: 124 games played, 1 goal, 22 assists, 23 points (regular season) 6 games played, 0 goals, 1 assist, 1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the Intra-League draft in June of 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days was eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

SABRES FACT

The Sabres named Michael Peca the team's 11th player to wear the captain's "C" on November 6, 1997. Actually, the team's 12th player also came from the 1997-98 season, as Donald Audette wore the "C" at Montreal on April 18, 1998, with Peca out injured (knee). Buffalo's former captains were Floyd Smith (1970-71), Gerry Meehan (1971-72 to 1973-74), Jim Schoenfeld (1974-75 to 1976-77), Danny Gare (1977-78 to 1981-82), Gil Perreault (1981-82 to 1986-87), Lindy Ruff (1986-87 to 1988-89), Mike Foligno (1988-89 to 1990-91), Mike Ramsey (1/91 to 10/92) and Pat LaFontaine (10/92 to 4/97). Alexander Mogilny served as captain following a season-ending injury to LaFontaine in 1993-94 (11/15/93 to 4/29/94).

RANDY CUNNEYWORTH
Roochester Americans Head Coach

When Randy Cunneyworth steps behind the Rochester Americans' bench this October, he will enter into an elite coaching fraternity. He joins the likes of Don Cherry and John Van Boxmeer and seven other former Amerks that moved from player to coach for the 45-year-old franchise. Cherry and Van Boxmeer both hold a place in the Rochester Americans' Hall of Fame.

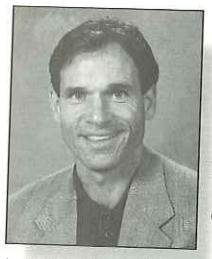
Cunneyworth takes over a team that he led as a player/coach to the Calder Cup Finals each of the past two seasons. The 39-year-old begins his head coaching career in a city where he started his professional playing career in 1980-81. In his 20-year playing career, he played seven seasons in Rochester, collecting 239 points (101+138) and finishing 19th on the Amerks' all-time point list. He is also 12th on the franchise's all-time games played list (366) and 17th in goals (101).

In 1998-99, he signed a free agent contract with Buffalo with the intent to play left wing for the Amerks and serve as assistant coach. Cunneyworth was called upon by the Sabres to play in the final three games of the 1999 Stanley Cup Finals against the Dallas Stars after competing in the Calder Cup Finals with Rochester.

Cunneyworth was named the team captain for Team Canada in the 2000 Kodak AHL All-Star Game held in Rochester, NY and was also the 1999-2000 recipient of the Fred T. Hunt Memorial Award. The award is voted upon by the AHL Broadcasters and Writers Association and honors the player that best exemplifies the qualities of sportsmanship, determination and dedication to hockey.

In 20 seasons in pro hockey, Randy spent 16 in the National Hockey League with Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Winnipeg, Hartford, Chicago, and Ottawa. In 866 NHL games, he collected 189 goals and 225 assists for 414 points. He was also a member of the Amerks Calder Cup championship team in 1982-83.

Randy and wife, Jenny, have two children, Gregory and Cameron and reside in Pittsford, NY.



JON CHRISTIANO
Assistant Coach

Jon Christiano enters his third season with the Rochester Americans and first season with Head Coach Randy Cunneyworth. With Christiano as an assistant coach, the Amerks have made two consecutive trips to the Calder Cup Finals (1998-99 and 1999-2000).

Prior to joining the Amerks, Christiano worked for four years with the Florida Panthers, where from 1995-97 he was the assistant coach for their American Hockey League affiliate, the Carolina Monarchs. Christiano worked for four seasons with Roger Neilson, in Flordia and with the New York Rangers as the video coordinator. Over his career, Jon has worked with eight past or present National Hockey League head coaches.

Christiano also spent 10 years in the Italian National League, working with teams in a variety of roles, including assistant coach, head coach and general manager. He was part of national championship teams in Cavalese, Bolzano and Varese.

Jon is currently the co-director of the Wolrd Hockey Institute, which runs an annual free agent camp for professional hopefuls. He also runs youth hockey clinics.

Christiano is a native of Buffalo, NY, and a 1980 graduate of Canisius College, where he played with current Windsor Spitfires (OHL) General Manager Michael Kelly. Jon and his wife Linda have two daughters – Christiana, 9, and Natalia, 3.

AMERKS FACT

Fans in the Buffalo area who wish to attend an Americans' game should head on the New York State Thruway East to Exit 47 (Leroy). From there, go on Route I-490 East, exiting at Plymouth Ave. Take a right on Plymouth, then take a left on to Broad Street. The Blue Cross Arena is located at Broad and Exchange Streets (two blocks down from Plymouth).

RADIO-TELEVISION INFORMATION

Beginning g this season, all Sabre games will be broadcast on the team's flagship radio station WNSA 107.7 FM. Calling the action will be the television tandem of Rick Jeanneret and Jim Lorentz. The Sabres will simulcast on radio each game televised on the Empire Sports Network.

The Empire Sports Network again serves as the team's television home, broadcasting 79 Sabres' games. Empire is a regional sports network that is in its tenth year of operation. The Network services millions of cable subscribers across the Northeast region of the United States and is also available on the DirecTV and Primestar home satellite systems.

Rick Jeanneret

Currently the longest tenured broadcaster in hockey, the 2000-01 season marks Rick Jeanneret's 30th year with the Buffalo Sabres. He began with the team prior to the 1971-72 season, serving as the club's radio voice and held that post until 1995. Jeanneret then became the television play-by-play announcer, beginning with the 1995-96 campaign. He broadcast his first game during the 1971 preseason for the Cincinnati Swords (the Sabres' minor league team at the time).

Jeanneret earned his start in 1963 while attending a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game in which he filled in for the regular announcer who had taken ill. He then went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

A native of St. Catharines, Ontario, Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Canada, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

Jim Lorentz

Versatility has been a trademark of Lorentz' career as a player and broadcaster for the Sabres. Beginning in 1981, he has been involved as the color commentator for radio and in his present role of television commentator since the 1992-93 season.

Lorentz played 10 seasons in the NHL with Boston, St. Louis, the New York Rangers and Buffalo. His 331 points rank him fourteenth in all-time scoring for the Sabres, totaling 134 goals, 197 assists in 487 games. He retired in 1978 with 399 points in the NHL and a Stanley Cup Championship with the Bruins in 1970.

In addition to his work with the Sabres, the Waterloo, Ontario, native runs a hockey program for youth each summer.

Danny Gare

This former Sabres captain is beginning his fourth season as an ice-level reporter for the organization, which drafted him in the second round in 1974. Prior to his current post, Gare served as the radio color analyst during the 1995-96 season.

After 13 seasons in the NHL, Gare retired in 1987 after compiling 354 goals, 331 assists for 685 points in 827 games with Buffalo, Detroit and Edmonton. He scored on his first shift in the NHL and ranks 9th in Sabre history with 500 points. Gare reached the 50-goal mark twice in his career with Buffalo, scoring exactly 50 in 1975-76, and later tied for the NHL's goal-scoring title with a career-best 56 in 1979-80.

A native of Nelson, British Columbia, Gare was elected in to the Sabres' Hall of Fame in 1994.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Requests for information should be directed to the Sabres' Communications Department, Buffalo Sabres, HSBC Arena, One Seymour H. Knox, III Plaza, Buffalo, NY 14203. The phone number is (716) 855-4100. Fax transmissions can be sent to (716) 855-4110.

Season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact Michael Gilbert (855-4526) or Gregg Huller (855-4509) by 5 p.m. the day before a game, and by 5 p.m. on Friday before a Sunday game. Requests for individual game seating should be provided on your media outlet's letterhead (via fax). Furthermore, freelance photographers will be admitted on an assignment-only basis, which must come from the photo editor. Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis.

The media entrance to HSBC Arena is located at the plaza area on the east (Illinois Street) side of the building, aligned with the middle of the parking ramp.

All requests for pre-game live shots should be coordinated through a member of the Communications Department and Director of Broadcasting Joe Guarnieri (855-4474) to assure location and transmission.

The Sabres' press lounge opens two hours before game time, and also serves as the media work room, it can be reached by turning right upon entering the building at the media entrance (mentioned above).

Press credentials can be picked up before 4:30 p.m. at the arena's security office. From 4:30 p.m. on, the passes will be at the media entrance described above (please note that pick up times will be adjusted for afternoon games).

To reach the press box, return back toward (and just past) the security office/media entrance and ride the freight elevator to the top/press level (indicated with a "P" in the elevator).

Credentials should be displayed at all times for admission to the press box, press lounge/work room, and dressing room areas. YOUR COOPERATION IS APPRECIATED IN MAINTAINING A WORKING ATMOSPHERE IN THE LOCKER ROOM(S). ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPH REQUESTS. VIOLATORS WILL BE ASKED TO LEAVE.

Please note that smoking is prohibited not only in both the press lounge/work room and the press box, but in the whole arena (under N.Y. State law).

There are electrical outlets and phone jacks at all seats in the press box, but phone lines are not active unless arrangements are made by calling Al Weissman at 855-4481. Please keep in mind that there is a minimum number of pool phones in the press box for use by visiting media as well as two pay phones.

Practices that cannot be held at HSBC Arena, will take place at the Pepsi Center. Practices are open to the media, and reporters should contact Gregg Huller in the Communications Department to verify times (716) 855-4509.

DIRECTIONS TO HSBC ARENA

HSBC Arena is on Buffalo's waterfront at the end of Washington Street. It is bordered by Main and Illinois Streets, and South Park Avenue. There are several parking lots in that area. For directions see below or for more detailed information, contact the Sabres at (716) 855-4100.

From N.Y. State Thruway (90): Take Interstate 90 to downtown Buffalo to 190 North (exit 53). Recommended: Take exit 5 (Hamburg St.), turning right onto Hamburg Street. Turn right onto Perry Sreet (first light) or South Park Ave. (second light). HSBC Arena is two blocks ahead with parking past Michigan Ave.

Alternate: From I90, take exit 6 (Elm Street). Stay to the right on exit ramp and exit onto Seneca Street. Take Seneca St. to first light and turn right onto Michigan Avenue (first light).Turn right onto Michigan Ave. (over bridge), turn right onto Perry Street (second street over bridge. HSBC Arena is one block ahead with parking available on either side of Perry Street.

From Canada and North: Take the 190 South heading toward downtown Buffalo. Exit at Niagara Street and head toward downtown. Turn right on South Elmwood Avenue (before City Hall) and continue until you cross Church Street, at that point Elmwood becomes Lower Terrace (Adam's Mark Hotel on your right). Travel on Lower Terrace and turn right on Washington. The HSBC is at the end of Washington.

DIRECTIONS TO THE PEPSI CENTER

(coming from Greater Buffalo/Niagara International Airport)

Exit the airport and follow signs to the Kensington Expressway (33 West). Take 90 East to 290 West. Exit 290 at Millersport North. Take Maple Road exit and turn right onto Maple Road. Turn left at first light onto North Maplemere. Pepsi Center is located at the end of North Maplemere.

HOW TO FIGURE ...

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender Win / Loss / Tie: A goaltender receives a win, tie or loss if he is on the ice when either the game-winning or game-tying goal is scored.

Penalty-Killing Percentage: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire a new advantage begins after such a power play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots against.

Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage due to a penalty. The same cases apply in a similar but opposite way for shorthand as for power-play goals.

Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout (Combined): If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ie: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.

Tie-Breaking Formula: In the event that two or more Clubs are tied for total points, the order of standings and draft order is determined as follows:

- the Club with the most victories will be placed higher in the standings.
- if Clubs remain tied, the Club earning the most points from the year's head-to-head competition will be placed higher in the standings. In the event an uneven number of home games against one another were played, the first game that created the disparity is discounted. Where more than two Clubs are tied in victories and points, the Club having the greatest percentage of available points earned among each other will be placed higher in the standings.
- if Clubs remain tied, each Club's "Goals Allowed" are subtracted from its "Goals For" during the entire regular season. The Club with the greater differential will be placed higher in the standings.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Abduction: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular Joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Adduction: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's Cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example, between a tendon and bone.

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the knee cap, which can occur in any knee cap injury.

Clavicle: Collar bone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

Coccyx: The 'tail bone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Corticosteroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

Disc Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).
Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.
Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.
Fascia: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.
Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.
Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.
Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.
Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.
Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.
Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.
Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.
Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.
Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.
Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of the same toe.
Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.
Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.
Hematoma: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.
Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.
Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.
Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.
Iliotibial Band: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.
Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.
Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.
Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.
Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.
Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.
Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.
Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability commonly used to control foot mechanics.
Osteochondritis Dessicans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.
Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.
Plantar Fasciitis: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.
Radius: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.
Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.
Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.
Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.
Scapula: Shoulder blade.
Sciatica: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.
Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.
Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.
Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.
Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.
Tarsals: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Tenosynovitis: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES (1970-2000)

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on December 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly-touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie-of-the-Year.

Another Junior Canadien, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would go on to become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970's.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record, still the best-ever numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs followed by a second round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. The Flyers went on to defeat the Sabres in six games, but it did not blemish the accomplishment of a team who had only been in the league for five years.

One of the most memorable moments in the franchise's first decade occurred on January 4, 1976 when the Sabres played host to the powerful Soviet Wings in an exhibition game at The Aud. With Cold War tensions still running high, the game had an intensity far beyond the average regular season game. Buffalo put on a dominating performance, defeating the Wings 12-6 in what ranked at the time as the worst-ever loss by a Soviet team in international competition.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as Head Coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost 4-2 to the eventual champion New York Islanders. Bowman still holds the Sabres coaching record for most games (404) and finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk, and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of some successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980's, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986 Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that teamed to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals from Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post their first playoff series win in ten years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarter Finals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game 1-0 in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 season was already one of the most memorable in team history. On a sad note, this season would represent the first without founder Seymour H. Knox, III, who passed away in the spring of 1996. It would also represent the first time in the team's history that they would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division, the team's first-such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981. Buffalo's performance seemed a fitting tribute to the memory of Seymour Knox.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Dominik Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shown brightly, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies. Earlier in the year, Hasek had also been instrumental in leading the underdog Czech Republic to an Olympic Gold Medal.

The year ended on a sad note when team co-founder Northrup Knox passed away in July 1998. The Knox brothers persistence in acquiring a franchise and their determination to keep it in Buffalo will forever resonate with hockey fans in Western New York. Shortly before his death, Knox orchestrated the sale of the team to John, Tim, Michael, and James Rigas of Adelphia Cable Communications.

Buffalo returned to the ECF the following year, this time facing their geographical rival, the Toronto Maple Leafs. In what would be know as the cross-border series, the Sabres defeated Toronto 4-1 to reach the Stanley Cup Finals for just the second time in team history. The Dallas Stars would be the Sabres finals opponent, and the two teams proved to be evenly matched in the lowest scoring Stanley Cup in history. With Buffalo trailing 3 games to 2 in Game Six, Brett Hull slid the puck past Hasek in the third overtime to clinch the Cup for the Stars. Replays would later show that Hull's skate was in the crease, but officials let the goal stand to the dismay of Sabres fans.

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-2000 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. Biron filled in for an injured Dominik Hasek for much of the season, and finished tied for third amongst NHL goalies with five shutouts, while Afinogenov contributed 16 goals in just 65 games. The two youngsters succeeded in pushing Buffalo into the playoffs for the 11th time in 12 seasons. The development of Biron and Afinogenov combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton should enable the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they begin their fourth decade of play in the National Hockey League.

HISTORY OF THE BUFFALO SABRES UNIFORM (1970-2000)

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into their new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest in which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October, 1970 until April, 1996, reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, it was a patch in honor of that winter's Olympic games in Lake Placid, New York, that was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the now legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting then that ten years later a Buffalo Sabres 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 NHL seasons in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jersey's. In their first season in the new uniforms, the team honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

Note: Jager Di Paola Kemp (JDK) Design - a Burlington, Vermont firm founded in 1987 - is the company responsible for the creation of the new Sabres logo and uniform design.
