In Memory of Gann Matsuda

The entire LA Kings organization was saddened to learn of the recent passing of longtime writer Gann Matsuda.

Gann was a passionate member of the media corps covering the Kings for more than a decade. In addition to being respected at his craft, he was affable and well-liked among his peers and those he worked with. He was unable to attend games in recent years and his presence was sorely missed. It's with the utmost respect that we honor him tomorrow at our home opener. In his memory, a seat will be held in the press box to commemorate his devotion to shining a light on the Kings. To honor Gann, with consultation from the Matsuda family, the LA Kings are making a donation to the Manzanar Committee, an organization Gann generously donated his time and energy toward. Gann will always be Frozen Royalty in the LA Kingdom.

AT A GLANCE

HOME SWEET HOME

The Kings are set to take the ice at Crypto.com Arena for the first time this season as they play host to the San Jose Sharks. The team ended 2023-24 campaign having won nine of their last 10 home games, including eight consecutive victories at Crypto.com Arena from March 11 through April 13 to mark the team's longest home winning streak since the 2010-11 campaign (8-0-0 from Oct. 12 - Nov. 13, 2010). Following the team's All-Star Break and Bye Week (Feb. 10), the Kings became one of the best teams at home with a league-leading 14 wins (14-3-1) and .806 points percentage (PTS%). The team ended the season sitting in the top-five of multiple home categories and led the league in PTS% and wins.

KOPI GOING FISHIN'

Captain Anze Kopitar has consistently found the scoring sheet throughout his career against the Pacific Division rival Sharks with 70 points (27-43=70) in 93 career games vs. San Jose. Kopitar leads all active skaters in points and places fourth all-time, three points shy of tying Mike Modano (24-49=73) for third-most. Kopitar is one of two active skaters (Corey Perry, 28G) to eclipse the 20-goal mark against San Jose while he (43A, 28 PPP) and Drew Doughty (31A, 20 PPP) pace all active skaters in assists and power-play points (PPP) against San Jose.
