KINGS NOTES

- Defenseman Joel Edmundson (0-2=2) posted a pair of assists tonight, bringing his total on the season to nine. With his effort tonight, Edmundson surpasses captain Anze Kopitar (8 A) for third most assists amongst all Kings skaters behind only Adrian Kempe and Quinton Byfield, each with 13 helpers to date.
- Edmundson has three multi-point performances on the 2025-26 campaign, one shy of a career-high four such games set a year ago. Only Byfield (6) and Kempe (5) have recorded more multi-point games in a Kings uniform this season.
- Forward Warren Foegele (1-0=1) scored his fourth goal of the season, his ninth point (3-5=9) in 15 career games played versus the Atlantic Division's Senators.
- Defenseman Brandt Clarke (1-0=1) scored his first power play goal of the season to seal the Kings victory, 2-1. The native of Nepean, Ontario, now has four points (1-3=4) in five career contests against his hometown club.
- Edmundson (1-9=10) and Clarke (3-7=10) became the first two Kings blueliners to reach double-digits in points on the season with the former providing the primary assist on the latter's tally.
- Forward Joel Armia (0-1=1) provided the primary set-up on Foegele's game-opening goal to extend his point streak to three games (2-1=3), dating back to this past Thursday, Nov. 20, in San Jose.
- Forward Corey Perry (0-1=1) recorded his sixth helper of the campaign on Clarke's go-ahead tally. The native of Peterborough, Ontario, played in his 1,409th career regular season NHL contest tonight, tying Hockey Hall of Famer and former Kings defenseman Paul Coffey (1,409 GP) for the 42nd most regular season games played in NHL history.
- Goaltender Darcy Kuemper made 28 saves on 29 shots on goal to earn his eighth win of the season and help the Kings extend their point streak against the Senators to 12 games (9-0-3).
- This is the club's longest active point streak against any one opponent and marks the sixth different point streak of at least 12 games against any one opponent in franchise history. Among all NHL teams, the Kings' 12-game run against the Senators is tied for the 10th longest point streak against any one opponent.
