SAN JOSE BARRACUDA BIOS

JON GUSTAFSON*President/SVP Governor

Jon Gustafson enters his fourth season as the Senior Vice President of SAP Center and Sharks Ice. For the previous eight years, Gustafson held the position of Vice President, Sharks Ice LLC, Sharks Minor Holding (San Jose Barracuda) & SSE Merchandise.

In his role, Gustafson oversees all venues under the SSE umbrellas including all areas of operation for the Sharks Ice family of ice rinks, including San Jose, Fremont and Oakland Ice Center, operated by Sharks Ice and the SAP Center. Gustafson also acts as the Governor for the San Jose Barracuda and Executive Committee member for the AHL, serving as the liaison between the Barracuda and the league.

Since 2000, Gustafson, 54, has served as Vice President and General Manager of the family of Sharks Ice rinks. Under his leadership, the operation has grown from one facility with two ice sheets to three facilities with 10 ice sheets and increased revenues ten-fold. Gustafson was also instrumental in the 200,000 square-foot expansion of Sharks Ice at San Jose which included the construction Tech CU Arena, the 4,200-seat home of the Barracuda. In June of 2013, the Jr. Sharks youth ice hockey program, which was founded by Gustafson and operates out of Sharks Ice, was named as a USA Hockey Model Program, one of only a handful of programs in the U.S. to receive the honor.

Gustafson, who serves on the board of directors for USA Hockey, works closely with organizations such as USA Hockey, USHL, NAHL, ISI and USF to bring national and world hockey events to San Jose. In April of 2016, Sharks Ice hosted the 2016 USA Hockey Boys Tier 1 U-16 and U-18 National Championships, the latest in a long line of national events to select the facility as the home for their events. In 2009, Gustafson was named the International Ice Skating Institute's "Facility Operator of the Year."

From 1996-99, Gustafson served as general manager and vice president of operations for the San Jose Rhinos of Roller Hockey International (RHI). The team, which played their home games at SAP Center at San Jose, won the Murphy Cup as league champions in 1995 and Gustafson was named RHI "Executive of the Year" in 1999.

A former goaltender, Gustafson spent five seasons playing with various teams in the AHL, ECHL, CHL, WCHL and IHL. On April 15, 1992, he dressed as the back-up goaltender to Grant Fuhr for the Toronto Maple Leafs at Maple Leaf Gardens in a 4-2 win over the New York Rangers. The Fort Frances, Ontario native also played collegiately for four seasons at Colorado College.

JOHN MCCARTHY*Head Coach

On May 18, 2022, McCarthy was named the second head coach in franchise history after serving as a development coach for the previous two seasons.

On Dec. 27, 2019, McCarthy made his coaching debut with the Barracuda as an assistant against the Stockton Heat after announcing his retirement from pro hockey earlier in the day. On Dec. 10, McCarthy suffered an Ischemic stroke due to a previously undetected hole in his heart. Following swift medical attention from the team's medical staff and the physicians at Kaiser Permanente, McCarthy was stabilized and has made a complete recovery.

McCarthy, who was selected by the Sharks in the seventh round of the 2006 NHL Draft, holds all major Barracuda franchise records including games played (275), goals (62), assists (76), points (138), and shorthanded goals (5). He served as Barracuda team captain from 2016-20 and also served as team captain for the Worcester Sharks for the 2012-13 season.

In 577 career AHL games with Worcester, Chicago, and San Jose, he has collected 297 points (130 goals, 167 assists), 233 penalty minutes and a plus-62 rating. He also posted 11 points (three goals, eight assists) in 27 playoff games with the Barracuda over a four-year stretch before his retirement.

In addition, McCarthy skated in 88 NHL games with the Sharks between 2009-2016, accumulating six points (three goals, three assists) and 22 penalty minutes.

In total, McCarthy appeared in 640 regular season games with San Jose's NHL and AHL franchises. In 2018, McCarthy was selected to the United States Men's Olympic Ice Hockey Team, appearing in five games at the Pyeongchang Olympics.

Prior to his professional career, McCarthy spent four seasons at Boston University where he won a 2009 National Championship as one of the team's co-captains.

KYLE HAGEL*Assistant Coach

Hagel, 38, is in his second season as an assistant coach with the San Jose Barracuda. He spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach with the Seattle Thunderbirds of the WHL after a nine-year pro-playing career between the ECHL and AHL. Hagel, who played mostly left-wing as a player, spent four years at Princeton before beginning his pro career. During his nine seasons as a professional, he spent time with the AHL's Rockford IceHogs, Peoria Rivermen, Hamilton Bulldogs, Portland Pirates, and Charlotte Checkers, amassing 43 points (15 goals, 28 assists) and 1,001 penalty minutes in 373 games. In the ECHL, he skated in 80 games between the Fresno Falcons, Reading Royals and Las Vegas Wranglers, totaling 28 points (14 goals, 14 goals) in 80 games.

The native of Hamilton, Ontario, won the 2015 Yanick Dupre Memorial Award, which is given out annually to the AHL's man of the year for service to his local community.

SAN JOSE BARRACUDA BIOS

LOUIS MASS

Assistant Coach

Mass, 46, is entering his second season as an assistant coach with the San Jose Barracuda. Outside of the AHL, Mass has 12 years of coaching experience between the ECHL, NCAA and WHL. Before joining the Barracuda prior to the 2022-23 season, the Anchorage, Alaska native spent four years with the Everett Silvertips, where he served as an associate coach in 2021-22 and the three prior years as an assistant. While in Everett, Mass, who worked predominantly with the defense corps, helped the Silvertips become one of the stingiest teams in the entire Canadian Hockey League. Before his time in Everett, he coached four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Alaska-Anchorage and the five campaigns before that as an assistant coach with the ECHL's Alaska Aces.

Mass, who was a defenseman as a player, skated four years in the USHL between the Rochester Mustangs and Lincoln Stars, winning a Clark Cup with Lincoln in 1997. After the USHL, he played four seasons at Bowling Green State University before turning pro. His pro career spanned five years in the ECHL with the Pensacola Ice Pilots, Pee Dee Pride, Louisiana IceGators and Alaska Aces, winning a Kelly Cup in 2006 with the Aces. In 312 ECHL games, he notched 51 points (nine goals, 42 assists), 452 penalty minutes and a plus-17 rating.

ERIC PINSKY

Video Coach and Coordinator of Hockey Operations

Pinsky, a native of San Jose and a former San Jose Jr. Shark, is in his second season with the Barracuda in 2023-24 after spending the last six years with the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads in various capacities. Most recently he served as the team's video coach during all home games and was even on the bench for select home games as part of his graduate program at Boise State in 2021-22.

Following his final year as a player with the Jr. Sharks 18U AAA, Pinsky would go on to play two games with the Aberdeen Wings in the NAHL in 2016-17 before playing four years of ACHA D II Hockey with the Broncos.

While at Boise State, Pinsky earned a master's degree in athletic leadership and a bachelor of arts with an emphasis in production. In his role with the Barracuda, he works hand-in-hand with head coach John McCarthy and his staff, assisting in various capacities, including cutting game clips, assisting with practice and more. Additionally, he books and organizes all team travel and lodging while on the road.

SCOTT BOGGS

Equipment Manager

Boggs, 50, a native of Halifax, NS, Canada, enters his first season with the Barracuda in 2023-24 as the team's head equipment manager. Boggs, who began his career in the mid-80s, has nearly 35 years of experience as an equipment manager across various leagues and levels, including 25 years as a head equipment manager at the professional ranks (UHL, ECHL, AHL, NHL).

Prior to spending the 2022-23 season with the ECHL's Orlando Solar Bears, Boggs worked 16 years as the head equipment manager of the NHL's New York Islanders from 2006 to 2022. On April 15, 2022, he worked his 2,000th professional game. Before his time with the Islanders, Boggs spent one year with the Chicago Blackhawks as an assistant equipment manager and five years as the head equipment manager of the AHL's Norfolk Admirals.

Internationally, he has been a part of multiple events including the IIHF World Championships for Team Canada and the 2016 World Cup of Hockey for Team Europe.

Boggs and his wife, Maria, reside in San Jose. His daughter, Mackenzie, is a recent graduate of Ithaca College in New York.

JAKE REARDON

Head Athletic Trainer

Reardon, 28, a native of Scituate, MA, enters his second season with the Barracuda in 2023-24 after spending one year in the ECHL with the Jacksonville Icemen in 2021-22. Prior to his time with Jacksonville, Reardon spent one season with the Northeast Generals of the North American Hockey League (NAHL). From 2018 to 2020, Reardon worked and earned a master's degree at Western Kentucky University, serving as an athletic trainer for several intercollegiate sports teams. In 2021, he assisted the New York Rangers during their training camp.

Reardon earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of New Hampshire, spending two and a half years as a student athletic trainer. He also played on the school's ACHA DII hockey team.

SAN JOSE BARRACUDA BIOS

EMI TAKAHASHI*Assistant Athletic Trainer

Takahashi returned to the Barracuda in 2022-23 after serving as the team's intern athletic trainer during the 2016-17 season, the club's most successful year in franchise history. From 2019 to 2022, she worked at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire, primarily assisting with the Women's Ice Hockey team, Lightweight Rowing team and Women's and Men's Squash teams.

Prior to her time with the Big Green, the native of Osaka, Japan, worked for USA Hockey (U18 Woman's National Team, USA U18 Select Camp), Washington State University, the Portland Winterhawks of the Western Hockey League (WHL), the University of Washington Medical School and volunteered with the Japan Paralympic Wheelchair Basketball Team.

Takahashi has a bachelor of science in physical education, a master's of athletic training at Texas Tech, and a doctorate of athletic training from the University of Idaho.

RACHEL LLANES*Strength and Conditioning Coach

Llanes, 32, a native of San Jose and a graduate of Northeastern University where she played NCAA DI hockey for four years, enters her second season with the Barracuda in 2023-24.

Following her collegiate career, she would go on to play nine seasons of pro between the Boston Pride (National Woman's Hockey League), Kunlun Red Star/Shenzhen and KRS Vanke Rays (CWL and Russian Woman's Hockey League). She was the first player in history to win a Championship in all three professional leagues. In 2022, Llanes represented China at the Olympic Games in Beijing, China and also served as the team's strength and conditioning coach. In 2023 she played for Team China at the Woman's IIHF World Championships in Shenzhen, China, collecting a pair of assists in five games.

Her training background began in 2013, as she served as the strength and conditioning coach for Dan Boothby Performance Training, which serves various prep and collegiate programs in the Boston area, along with current NHL players and prospects. While still working for Dan Boothby Performance Training, Llanes assisted the Buckingham Browne and Nicholas Prep School hockey programs. For the 2015-16 school year, she was a grad assistant strength and conditioning coach for Northeastern University Athletics, and from 2016-17, she was the head strength and conditioning coach and assistant coach for the New England Hockey Club (Junior Woman's Hockey League). From 2015-17, she was the head strength coach and on ice development coach/evaluator for Massachusetts Hockey Development under the umbrella of the USA Hockey. Since 2014, she has also owned her own performance training company, Train Perform Repeat. She still manages and coaches Chinese National Team players who are based out of North America.

NICK NOLLENBERGER*Sr. Broadcast & Public Relations Manager

Nollenberger, 32, returns for his eighth season as the Sr. Broadcast & Public Relations Manager for the Sharks top affiliate. A San Jose Jr. Sharks alum, Nollenberger was the Director of Broadcast and Media Relations for the Odessa Jackalopes of the North American Hockey League (NAHL) prior to joining the Barracuda. Before Odessa, he served as the Assistant Director of Broadcast and Media Relations for one season with the Kannapolis Intimidators, Class 'A' affiliate of the Chicago White Sox.

The Santa Cruz, Ca. native graduated from the University of Arizona in 2014, earning a degree in Broadcast Journalism. While at the U of A, Nick served as the radio voice of the school's hockey team for parts of three seasons and also called games for the school's basketball, football and baseball teams.

In addition to his work with the Barracuda, Nollenberger has called multiple NHL preseason games for the Sharks and has also called various sports on the Pac-12 Network.

Nick can be heard throughout the Barracuda season on AHLTV, at sjbarracuda.com/listen and on the Sharks + SAP Center App.

TECH CU ARENA

Tech CU Arena opened in August of 2022 and is the crown jewel of a 200,000 square foot expansion of the Sharks Ice at San Jose public skating facility.

Tech CU Arena has a capacity of 4,200 and included training facilities and executive office space for the Barracuda, an in-arena video board and LED display, 12 premium suites, eight loge boxes, one theatre suite, a 46-person party deck, three bar locations including one at ice level, seven food concession stations, a press room and press box and two team merchandise stores.

In January 2020, the San Jose City Council unanimously approved the 200,000 square-foot expansion of Sharks Ice at San Jose, adding two additional recreational ice sheets to the facility, increasing the building's total ice sheets to six and doubling the facility's footprint to just under 400,000 square feet.

The Barracuda played its first seven seasons in San Jose at the SAP Center at San Jose.

y - won division

x - clinched playoff spot

Beginning the season with a four-game win streak for the first time in franchise history after splitting their two-game preseason set against the Bakersfield Condors, the San Jose Barracuda narrowly missed a spot in the 2022-23 Calder Cup Playoffs. Led by a new coaching staff in first-year head coach and Barracuda alum John McCarthy and assistant coaches Louis Mass and Kyle Hagel, the Barracuda would see their first 30-win season since 2018-19, finishing with a 31-34-2-5 record.

Thirty-nine different skaters and three goaltenders would don the Barracuda sweater throughout the 72-game season as the team welcomed fans into their brand-new home at Tech CU Arena.

Hitting the road to face the Central Division's Iowa Wild on Fri., Oct. 14, the Barracuda would pick up a shootout win in the season opener. Rookie forward Tristen Robins would score the first goal of the season, and his first professional point, just 3:06 into the game. Fellow rookie forward Thomas Bordeleau would follow suit at the 5:47 mark. In the shootout, both Max Veronneau would find the back of the net while it would be newly named captain Andrew Agozzino, scoring in the seventh-round, who would seal the deal for San Jose. In the net, returning to the Barracuda for the first time since 2015-16, Aaron Dell would make 39 saves plus six more in the shootout to pick up the 4-3 victory. The Cuda would kick off a strong run on the penalty kill, going a perfect seven-for-seven.

The Barracuda PK would continue to a perfect 25-for-25 to begin the season.

Returning home on Sat., Oct. 22, the Barracuda would celebrate with fans in their first regular-season action at Tech CU Arena. From the pre-game block party to Dell's home-opener shutout, The Reef would be introduced to the AHL with a bang.

Nov. 22 would see the Barracuda pick up their first-ever win on the road in Henderson since the San Antonio Rampage relocated as the Silver Knights.

Back at The Reef on Nov. 29, the Barracuda would take on the Tucson Roadrunners with the two teams combining for 170 penalty minutes. Before the puck ever touched the ice, eight of the ten skaters slated to start the game would be ejected for a line brawl and tensions would remain high from there, with the Roadrunners claiming a 4-3 shootout victory. San Jose would fall to Tucson in the first three meetings of the season, but the Barracuda would finish the season victorious in the final five contests between the two. Tied in points at the end of the regular season, but with the Barracuda with one more win, the Roadrunners would advance to the Calder Cup Playoffs with the tiebreaker being regulation wins.

Three Barracuda players would record a hat trick, with Bordeleau picking up the first natural hat trick in franchise history on Nov. 20, on the road against the Tucson Roadrunners. The second would come off the stick of Barracuda veteran Jeffrey Viel in Bakersfield on Mar. 10. Rookie forward Ozzy Wiesblatt would pick up a penalty shot goal en route to his hat trick Apr. 5, on the road against the San Diego Gulls.

In total, 15 skaters and two goaltenders would appear in at least one game with both the Barracuda and Sharks in 2022-23. Three (D Nick Cicek, F Danil Gushchin and Robins) would make their NHL debuts with the Sharks while three (F William Eklund, F Kyle Crisculo and Gushchin) would pick up their first NHL goals.

Seventeen rookies would dress for the Barracuda at various points in the season. Eight players (Bordeleau, Robins, Eklund, Gushchin, D Darren Brady, D Will Riedell, F Nathan Burke and D Shakir Mukhamadullin) would score their first AHL goals.

The Barracuda would sign 11 players to either an amateur or professional tryout agreement throughout the season with both Brady and Riedell earning their way to Barracuda contracts midway through the year.

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER HIGHLIGHTS:

In his first season with San Jose, Andrew Agozzino was named the fourth captain in franchise history to start the regular season, replacing Jaycob Megna who spent the season in the NHL and was traded to the Seattle Kraken by the Sharks in February. Agozzino went on to set the franchise record for goals in a single season (26), previously held by Barclay Goodrow (25 in 2016-17), and points in a single season (61), previously held by Danny O'Regan (58 in 2016-17). The Barracuda captain would lead the team in goals, assists (35), points, power-play assists (16) and T-first for short-handed goals (2) with Jeffrey Viel.

Barracuda veteran forward Jeffrey Viel picked up career highs in points (31), goals (15), power-play goals (2) and short-handed goals (2).

Appearing in his first game since he last played for the San Jose Sharks May 12, 2021, defenseman Nikolai Knyzhov would skate in 12 games for the Barracuda before returning to the NHL and re-signing with the Sharks for two years.

Veteran defenseman, and first-year Barracuda, Patrick Sieloff led all Barracuda in games played (71), appearing in all but the final game of the season, led the team in +/- (+10) and was named the team's 2022-23 Most Inspirational player.

2022-23 IN REVIEW

Gushchin led all Barracuda skaters in shots (205) as well as rookies in games played (67) and points (45). He also finished 4/7 in shootout attempts and T-first with Bordeleau in rookie goals (22).

Bordeleau also represented the team at the 2023 All-Star Classic in Laval, QC, took home the inaugural Fan Favorite Award at the end of the season and finished T-first with Eklund in power-play goals.

Eklund would also be named the 2022-23 Barracuda Rookie of the Year, a recognition he also received from the Sharks.

Ozzy Wiesblatt would be named the first Hard Hat Award winner in Barracuda history.

All three netminders in rotation for the Barracuda picked up a shutout, with Dell notching two (4-0, vs HSK Oct. 22 and 4-0, @ BAK Mar. 10) while Strauss Mann (3-0, vs SD Nov 16) and Eetu Mäkinen (6-0, @ TUC Nov. 20) would each pick up one.

In net, Dell would pick up his first two career assists with Mäkinen also picking up his first.

Five players would hit a milestone number of games played:

-Adam Raška (100)

-Artemi Kniazev (100)

-C.J. Suess (200)

-Jeffrey Viel (200)

-Luke Johnson (300)

Three players would pick up milestones in career points:

-C.J. Suess (100)

-Martin Kaut (100)

-Kyle Crisculo (200)

-Andrew Agozzino (500)

One player would hit a milestone mark in career goals:

-Andrew Agozzino (200)

Frenzy is the official mascot of the San Jose Barracuda, created by SJ Sharkie in his secret hideout. Frenzy can be found at all Barracuda home games as well as in and around San Jose at a number of community events. School visits, youth hockey practices, birthday parties and private functions are just a few of the many places Frenzy will go.
