RANGERS NOTES

BEGINNING NOVEMBER - The Rangers kicked off the month of November with their seventh win of the season and third at home. The Blueshirts have wins in six of their last eight games and points in eight of 10 games this year. New York hit the 15-point mark through 10 games for the 12th time in franchise history and third in the past 30 years following 2023-24 (8-2-0, 16 points) and 2008-09 (7-2-1, 15 points).

- Igor Shesterkin collected his fifth win of the season and allowed one or fewer goals for the fourth time in eight starts. Tonight was the 15th time in his career making 40 saves and when he does so, the Rangers are 13-1-1.

- Alexis Lafreniere recorded his second multi-point game of the season (1G-1A) and now has points (5G-5A) in eight of his 10 games to start the season. Lafreniere's (308 GP) goal was his 80th career tally. Among Rangers players to make their NHL debut in the past 30 years, only two others required fewer games to reach the mark: Chris Kreider (292) and Ryan Callahan (294).

- Artemi Panarin scored his seventh goal of the season to give him 16 points (7G-9A) in 10 games. Only three Rangers players in the past 20 years have had more through their first 10 games of a campaign: Jaromir Jagr (10 in 2005-06), Rick Nash (9 in 2014-15) and Brendan Shanahan (9 in 2006-07).

- Filip Chytil notched an assist. He has six points (3G-3A) in his last five games and eight points (4G-4A) in 10 games this year.
