AT A GLANCE

LAFF FACTORY

Forward Alex Laferriere picked up his fourth and fifth assists of the season to mark his sixth career multi-point game (0-2=2) on Tuesday at the Xcel Energy Center. Laferriere enters tomorrow as Kings' leading goal scorer, having found the back of the net four times in his last five games (4-0=4), including his second multi-goal outing on Saturday against the Blackhawks. As part of his performance, Laferriere collected his first power-play goal and seventh even-strength goal (EVG) of the campaign. Only Nikita Kucherov (9G), Leon Draisaitl (8G), and Tage Thompson (8G) have more EVGs than Laferriere's seven. Laferriere is one of 17 skaters in Kings history to record at least seven EVGs through the first 14 games to start a season, and is just the sixth to do so aged 23 years or younger.

FIALA CALLED FIVES

After scoring his seventh goal of the season on Tuesday in Minnesota, forward Kevin Fiala skates into Crypto.com Arena on a five-game point streak (3-4=7) dating back to Oct. 26 against the Utah Hockey Club. The Swiss-born winger has now tallied nine points (3-6=9) over his last seven matchups against the Wild. Tomorrow, Fiala looks to extend his point streak against the Vancouver Canucks to a third straight game (2-1=3) and add to the six points (3-3=6) he has recorded against the Pacific Division rival in as many outings since joining the Kings ahead of the 2022-23 season. In 17 career contests against the Canucks since 2016-17, Fiala has scored 10 goals and added five assists for 15 total points (10-5=15) with two power play tallies and three game-winning goals.

SAUCE LAKE CITY

On Tuesday, forward Trevor Lewis scored his second and third goals of the season for the 100th and 101st goals of his career to become the 21st skater, and fourth U.S-born skater, selected in the 2006 NHL Draft to reach the 100-goal mark. Lewis (101-129=230) is also the second Utah-born skater in league history to reach the 100-goal mark, joining fellow Salt Lake City native Steve Konowalchuk (171-225=396), who played in 790 games with Washington and Colorado from 1991-2006. Appearing in his 14th season with the franchise, Lewis has amassed 184 points (81-103=184) with the organization which place seventh-most by a U.S.-born player with the Kings while his 79 goals rank sixth.
