THE MOOSE IS LOOSE

- Mikko Rantanen led all NHL skaters in postseason scoring entering play Monday, totaling 18 points (9-9-18) in 10 games. Rantanen's nine goals were also the most in the league entering play Monday and his nine assists were tied for fourth.
- Rantanen is the seventh different active player to record at least 18 points through his first 10 games in a postseason according to NHL Stats.
- Rantanen recorded his fifth three-point game of the postseason with a goal and two assists in Game 3 against Winnipeg. His performance in Game 3 tied Roope Hintz in 2023 for the most three-point games by a Stars skater in one postseason according to NHL Stats.
- Rantanen became the first player in NHL history with five three-point games through his first 10 contests in a postseason according to NHL Stats. The only players over the last 30 years with four were Leon Draisaitl, Evander Kane and Connor McDavid with the 2022 Oilers as well as Evgeni Malkin with the 2008 Penguins.
- Rantanen (9-8-17 in 6 GP) became the third player in the last 30 years with 17-plus points over a span of six postseason games according to NHL Stats, joining Leon Draisaitl and Connor McDavid during the 2022 Stanley Cup Playoffs.
- Rantanen has factored on each of the Stars' last five winning goals dating to Game 3 of the First Round, which marks the longest streak in franchise history according to NHL Stats. He bested the previous mark of four set by Joe Nieuwendyk en route to winning the Stanley Cup in 1999 (Game 3 of CQF to Game 2 of CSF).
- Rantanen factored in on 13 consecutive Stars goals from Game 5 of the First Round to Game 3 of the Second Round, which set an NHL record according to NHL Stats.
- With three goals in Game 1 against the Jets, Rantanen became the third player in NHL history to score a hat trick in consecutive Stanley Cup Playoff games according to NHL Stats, joining Jari Kurri who did so in 1985 and Doug Bentley who did so in 1944.
- All three of Rantanen's goals came in the second period, making him the first player in Stanley Cup Playoffs history with multiple three-goal periods in the same postseason and fourth to do so at any point during their career according to NHL Stats, joining Wayne Gretzky (3x), Maurice Richard (3x) and Tim Kerr (2x).

- According to NHL Stats, Rantanen is the first player in franchise history to score a natural hat trick in the playoffs.
- Rantanen is the third player in franchise history to score multiple postseason hat tricks with the team, joining Joe Pavelski and Dino Ciccarelli. Rantanen and Pavelski are the only players to do so while the team was located in Dallas.
- Rantanen became the second player in NHL history to have at least three points in four consecutive games, doing so in Games 5, 6 and 7 of the First Round and Game 1 of the Second Round. He joined Leon Draisaitl who had five-consecutive three-point games from May 18 to 26, 2022.
- Rantanen has tied the league record for points in a period in a playoff game twice this postseason, totaling four points in the second period of Game 6 (1-3-4) and again in the third period of Game 7 (3-1-4).
 - He is the first player in NHL history to have multiple four-point periods in a single postseason according to NHL Stats.
 - Rantanen is the first player in NHL history (regular season or playoffs) to record a four-point period in consecutive games according to NHL Stats.
 - He also became just the second player in NHL history to have a four-point period in a Game 7, joining Kevin Labanc who did so in 2019 according to NHL Stats.
- Rantanen recorded the first-ever hat trick in the third period of a Game 7 and the second Game 7 hat trick in franchise history (last: Joel Kiviranta in the Second Round in 2020 against Colorado).
 - According to Opta Stats, Rantanen is the second player in NHL history to score a playoff hat trick in one period when facing his former team, joining Reggie Leach who did so against the Boston Bruins on May 6, 1976.
- Eleven (5-6-11) of Rantanen's 12 points in the First Round were scored in Games 5, 6 and 7, making him the first player in NHL history to have 10 or more points in Games 5 through 7 of a series according to Sportsnet Stats.
- Rantanen's 12 points against Colorado were the most by a Stars skater in a single series since Roope Hintz also had 12 points (5-7-12) in the Stars First Round matchup against the Minnesota Wild in 2022-23.
 - His 12 points are his most-ever in a single series, surpassing the 11 points (4-7-11) he had against Dallas in 2020.
- Rantanen is over a point-per-game player in the postseason in his career, totaling 119 points (43-76-119) in 91 Stanley Cup Playoff games. His 1.31 career points per game are the fourth-most in NHL history among players that have played in at least eight Stanley Cup Playoff games.

2022 vs. Calgary	13	285	272	.954	1.81

- Oettinger has made a league-leading 278 saves this postseason, which was 64 more than the second-ranked netminder entering play Saturday (Logan Thompson, 214).
- According to MoneyPuck.com, Oettinger has saved 3.8 goals above expected against this postseason, which was the fourth-best mark in the NHL entering play Monday, trailing only Washington's Logan Thompson (9.3), Carolina's Frederik Andersen (9.2) and New Jersey's Jacob Markstrom (5.7).
- Since the start of the 2022 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Oettinger has posted a 29-26 postseason record with a .915 save percentage, 2.54 goals-against average and two shutouts. His 29 wins rank second to only Florida's Sergei Bobrovsky (38) during that span.
 - Among netminders to play in at least 10 postseason games since the 2012-22 season, Oettinger's save percentage was tied for ninth in the NHL and his goals-against average ranked 11th.
- Dallas' Game 3 win over Winnipeg was the 29th of Oettinger's career, which tied Tim Thomas and Ben Bishop for the sixth-most among U.S. born goaltenders in NHL history. He is three wins shy of tying Jon Casey and Frank Brimsek for fourth.
- With the Stars win over the Avalanche, Oettinger now has a 3-1 record in Game 7s, posting a .950 save percentage and a 1.75 goals-against average in those games.

- Oettinger made 204 saves against Colorado in the First Round, which was the second-highest total of his career in a series, trailing only the 272 saves he made in Dallas' 2022 First Round series against the Flames.

HOME COOKING

- The Stars enter tonight's game looking to win their fifth consecutive game at home this postseason after posting a 4-1 record at the American Airlines Center through their first five home games.
- If the Stars were to win tonight, it would give the team five consecutive playoff wins at home for the first time since the team won six straight Stanley Cup Playoff Games at the American Airlines Center from April 12 to May 7, 2000.
- Mikko Rantanen (5-5-10), Wyatt Johnston (4-3-7), Thomas Harley (3-3-6) and Roope Hintz (3-2-5) are all averaging a point per game or better this postseason when playing at home.
 - Rantanen's 10 home points were tied for the most in NHL this postseason entering play Monday.
- Johnston has recorded at least a point in each of the five home games Dallas has played this postseason and enters tonight's game riding a three-game home goal streak. If he were to score again tonight, it would give him goals in four consecutive playoff games at the American Airlines Center for the first time in his career.
 - His seven home points were tied for seventh in the NHL entering play Monday.
- Harley has also notched at least one point in each home game this postseason. Entering play Monday, his six home points were tied for the second-most among all NHL defensemen during the playoffs.
- Dallas logged a 28-10-3 record in home games this season, which includes 40 games played at the American Airlines Center and one game played at Nokia Arena in Finland as part as the NHL's Global Series.
- The team's 28 home wins were just one shy of matching the franchise record set in 1998-99, and their 59 home points and .720 home points percentage were tied for the fourth- and fifth-best marks in franchise history.

KILLING IT

- The Stars have gone 31-for-35 on the penalty kill this postseason for an 88.6 percent success rate, which was the second-best mark in the league entering play Monday (Carolina; 95.5).
- Entering play Monday, no team had been shorthanded more times than the Stars (35) this postseason.
- The Stars have been shorthanded at least three times in a game without allowing a power-play goal against this postseason five times: Games 3 (6-for-6), 5 (3-for-3) and 7 (3-for-3) of the First Round and in Games 1 (4-for-4) and 3 (4-for-4) of the Second Round. Entering play Monday, the Stars were the only team this postseason to be shorthanded at least three times without allowing a power-play goal against in five or more games.
- In Games 3 through 7 of the First Round, the Stars went 14-for-15 on the penalty kill, not allowing a power-play goal against in Games 3, 5, 6 or 7.
- Colorado's 13.6 percent success rate on the power play ranked 14th out of 16 playoff teams in the First Round. They finished the regular season having converted on 24.8 percent of their power-play opportunities, which was tied for the eighth-best mark in the NHL.
 - Since the Four Nations break (Feb. 22) through the end of the regular season, Colorado's power-play topped the NHL with a 33.9 percent conversion rate.
- Dallas went a perfect 6-for-6 on the penalty kill in Game 3 against Colorado (10:17 of shorthanded ice time in total), which includes killing off 3:20 of a penalty kill to begin overtime.
- Since the NHL began tracking penalty kills in 1977-78, Dallas' Game 3 performance in the First Round marked the 13th time that the Stars have been shorthanded for at least 10 minutes without allowing a power-play goal against in a Stanley Cup Playoff game.
 - The Stars last accomplished this feat on Sept. 2, 2020 against the Avalanche, going 5-for-5 on the penalty kill.
- Game 3 against the Avalanche also marked the 17th time since 1977-78 that the Avalanche have not scored a power play goal in a postseason game while having at least 10 minutes of power-play time.
- Esa Lindell played 8:09 of Dallas' 10:17 of shorthanded time in Game 3 against Colorado, the highest single-game total by a Stars skater in a Stanley Cup Playoff game since the NHL began tracking penalty killing in 1977-78.
- Lindell's 49:09 of total shorthanded ice time and 4:55 of shorthanded ice time per game this postseason led all NHL skaters entering play Monday.
 - Lindell also led the NHL in total shorthanded ice time (287:02) and shorthanded ice time per game (3:35) during the regular season. His 287:02 of shorthanded ice time was nearly 10 more minutes than the second ranked player (Mike Matheson; 277:22).
- Sam Steel totaled 32:45 of shorthanded ice time this postseason and has averaged 3:17 of time on the penalty kill per game, both which were the most of any NHL forward entering play Monday.
- Oskar Bäck leads all NHL rookies in total shorthanded ice time (24:32) and shorthanded ice time per game (3:04) this postseason. No other rookie played more than 1:35 of total shorthanded ice time.
 - Bäck's 24:32 of shorthanded ice time ranked third among all NHL forwards entering play Monday.
 - Since the NHL began tracking penalty killing in 1997-98, Bäck's 24:32 of shorthanded ice time is already the most by a Stars rookie in postseason franchise history, surpassing the 17:43 of shorthanded ice time Radek Faksa had in 13 Stanley Cup Playoff games his rookie season in 2015-16.

BASH BROS

- Lian Bichsel and Alexander Petrovic have played 31:15 at 5-on-5 together this series against the Jets. During that time, the Stars have outscored the Jets 2-0, outshot them 16-5 and have had 19 scoring chances to Winnipeg's 11.

- Petrovic scored the game-winning goal in Game 3, his first Stanley Cup Playoff goal since April 20, 2016 against the New York Islanders, which also stood as the game winner.
 - According to NHL Stats, Petrovic is the first Stars defenseman to score a game-winning goal in the playoffs since Miro Heiskanen did so in Game 6 of the First Round in 2022.
- Among defensive pairs that have played at least 50 minutes of 5-on-5 together this postseason, the Bichsel/Petrovic pairing ranked 10th in the NHL entering play Saturday with a 57.1 percent on-ice Corsi rating according to Natural Stat Trick.
- Additionally, Bichsel and Petrovic own a 62.4 expected goals for percentage, which was the sixth-best mark in the NHL among defensive pairs that have played at least 50 minutes together entering play Monday according to MoneyPuck.com.
- Bichsel has recorded 45 hits through the first 10 games of the postseason, which led all rookies and tied for fourth in the NHL entering play Monday.
- Bichsel recorded 13 hits in Game 3, the most by any skater in a Stanley Cup Playoff game this season. His 13 hits are tied for the seventh-most in a single playoff game in NHL history and rank second to only Brendan Morrow (19 on May 4, 2008) in Stars franchise history.
- Petrovic had a playoff career-high nine hits in Game 2, which at the time was the highest total by a Stars skater in a single game since Denis Gurianov also had nine hits on Sept. 8, 2020 against the Vegas Golden Knights. It marked just the sixth instance in franchise history in which a skater has had at least nine hits in a Stanley Cup Playoff game.

BIKER GANG

- Thomas Harley scored a goal and tallied an assist in Game 3 against the Jets to give him eight points (3-5-8) in 10 games this postseason, which was tied for third on the Stars and ranked third among all NHL defensemen entering play Monday.
- Harley's eight points this postseason are already the second-most in his playoff career, trailing only the nine points (1-8-9) he had in 2023 with Dallas.
- Between the regular season and postseason, Harley has scored 19 goals, which is tied for the second-most in a single season by a Stars defenseman in franchise history according to TSN Stats. He trails only Brad Maxwell (21 in 1983-84) and is tied with Phillipp Boucher (19 in 2006-07).
- Harley has totaled 271:53 of ice time this postseason, which led all NHL skaters entering play Monday and was over 20 minutes more than teammate Esa Lindell (250:00), who ranked second in the league. His 27:11 of average ice time per game topped all players still playing this postseason entering play Monday and ranked third to New Jersey's Brian Dumoulin (29:21) and Los Angeles' Drew Doughty (27:12) during this year's playoffs.
 - Harley set a playoff single-game career high with 35:54 in Game 2 against Colorado, which was also the highest time on ice by an NHL skater in a single game this postseason.
 - He also had 27:34 of ice time in Game 1 against the Avalanche, which was the most he's ever played in a Stanley Cup Playoff game that ended in regulation and topped all skaters from either team.
- Harley's eight points this postseason brings his playoff career total to 21 (4-17-21). He currently leads all players drafted in 2019 in playoff career goals, assists, points and games played (47).
- Harley was ranked fourth in the NHL with 27 blocked shots this postseason entering play Monday.
- Harley had a career year in 2024-25, finishing the regular season with 50 points (15-34-50), setting career highs in goals, assists, points, even-strength goals (15), power-play points (15), plus/minus (plus-32) and time on ice per game played (23:23).
 - His 50 points ranked 15th among all NHL defensemen this season.
- Harley became the third Stars defenseman in the last 10 years to reach the 50-point plateau (Miro Heiskanen, John Klingberg), and his 16 goals were tied for the sixth-most by a Stars defenseman in a single season in franchise history.
- The Stars outscored their opponents 93-59 when Harley was on the ice during even-strength play during the regular-season season, which topped the Stars and was tied for the sixth-best mark in the NHL.

JOHNNY B. GOODE

- Wyatt Johnston scored Dallas' fifth goal of the day in Game 3 against the Jets to give him eight points (4-4-8) in 10 games this postseason. The 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs are already the second-highest scoring postseason of his career, trailing only the 16 points (10-6-16) he had in 19 games during the 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs.
- Johnston's goal in Game 3 made him the third player in franchise history to record 30 playoff points before age 22 according to NHL Stats, following Brian Bellows (14-20-34 in 39 GP) and Miro Heiskanen (8-22-30 in 40 GP). Johnston also became the fourth active player to achieve the feat, following Sidney Crosby (24-39-63 in 49 GP), Patrick Kane (19-23-42 in 38 GP) and Heiskanen.
- Johnston's 18 career playoff goals are the fourth-most in NHL history by a player age 21 or younger according to NHL Stats, trailing only Sidney Crosby (24), Patrick Kane (19) and Jaromir Jagr (19).
- His 30 career playoff points (18-12-30) are the most of any player selected in the 2021 NHL Draft and rank third on Dallas' roster since he made his postseason debut in 2023.
- Johnston scored the game-winning goal in Game 7 to secure Dallas' series victory over the Avalanche. His goal came on the power-play with 3:56 remaining in regulation, which is the 11th-latest go-ahead goal in Game 7 history according to NHL Stats.

- With the goal, Johnston has now scored in each of the three Game 7s that he has played in in his career, which includes also notching the game-winner in 2023 against Seattle.
- Johnston is the first player in franchise history to score multiple series-clinching goals in a Game 7 according to NHL Stats.
- Johnston has now scored three series-clinching goals in his career, making him the second player in NHL history (Jeremy Roenick, 4) to have at least three series-clinching goals at age 22 or younger according to NHL Stats. He also became the first player in NHL history to score multiple series-clinching goals in Game 7s at age 22 or younger according to NHL Stats.
- Johnston tallied an assist in Game 6 against Colorado to pass Mike Modano (27) for the third-most career playoff points by a Stars/North Stars player before age 22 according to NHL Stats.
- Johnston scored two goals and added an assist in Game 5 against the Avalanche, marking the third three-point game of his postseason career.
- Johnston's first goal of the night came just nine seconds into regulation, which set the franchise record for fastest goal to begin a playoff game and was tied for the fifth-fastest goal to begin a game in Stanley Cup Playoff history according to NHL Stats.
 - His goal was the fastest to begin a playoff game since Derek Roy also scored nine seconds into regulation in Game 4 of the 2007 Conference Finals.
- Johnston's second goal of the night marked the third time in his playoff career that he has scored two goals in a game. According to NHL Stats, Johnston is tied for the third-most multi-goal playoff games by a player age 21 or younger in Stanley Cup Playoff history according to NHL Stats. The only players with more were Sidney Crosby (4) and Pierre Turgeon (4).
- Johnston also went 9-for-13 at the faceoff dot in Game 5, setting a single-game career high for faceoffs won in a Stanley Cup Playoff game.
- In Game 2 against the Avalanche, Johnston earned his 10th playoff assist in his career on Evgenii Dadonov's goal, making him the sixth player in Stars/North Stars history with at least 10 playoff helpers before age 22 according to NHL Stats. The others: Miro Heiskanen (22), Brian Bellows (20), Mike Modano (15), Craig Hartsburg (13) and Tom McCarthy (11).

POWER UP

- The Stars have gone 9-for-30 on the power play this postseason for a 30.0 percent success rate, which was tied for the fourth-best mark in the NHL entering play Monday.
 - The Stars scored at least one power-play goal in eight of the 10 games they played this postseason.
- The Stars' nine power-play goals were tied with Carolina for the most in the NHL this postseason entering play Monday.
- Dallas' eight power-play goals were scored by five different skaters: Roope Hintz (3), Wyatt Johnston (2), Mikko Rantanen (2), Jamie Benn and Tyler Seguin.
 - Hintz's three power-play goals were tied for the most in the NHL entering play Monday.
- The Stars finished their series against Colorado going 7-for 23 on the power play for a 30.4 percent success rate. Their performance against the Avalanche was their best on the power play in a series since 2023 when the team went 9-for-24 for a 37.5 percent success rate against the Minnesota Wild.

FOR PETE'S SAKE

- Head Coach Pete DeBoer has a 94-75 all-time playoff record. His 94 wins are tied for the sixth-most in NHL history and rank second among all active coaches (Joel Quenneville; 121).
 - He is two postseason wins shy of tying Mike Keenan for fifth.
- Those 94 wins have amounted to 18 series wins, which is tied for sixth in NHL history and is also tied with Tampa Bay's Jon Cooper for the second-most among active head coaches (Quenneville; 23).
- No coach in NHL history has a better record in Game 7s than DeBoer, who is a perfect 9-0 in his career. His nine Game 7 victories are the most of any head coach or skater in NHL history.
- The 2025 postseason marks the 10th consecutive year in which a DeBoer-coached team has reached the playoffs, which trails only Paul Maurice (12) and Cooper (11) for the longest active run among head coaches.
- DeBoer is looking to reach the Conference Finals for the seventh time in his career after previously doing so with New Jersey (2011-12), San Jose (2015-16, 2018-19), Vegas (2019-20) and Dallas (2022-23, 2023-24).
- Entering this postseason, DeBoer and Cooper are the only active coaches to reach the Conference Finals six separate times, with DeBoer being the only coach to achieve that feat with multiple teams.

LUCKY NO. 7

- The Stars defeated the Avalanche 4-2 in Game 7 to advance to the Second Round with goals coming from Mikko Rantanen (3) and Wyatt Johnston. With the win, the Stars became the first team in NHL history to trail by multiple goals in the third period of a Game 7 and win in regulation according to Opta Stats.
- The Stars also become the fourth team to rally from a multi-goal deficit in the third period to win a Game 7 in NHL history according to Sportsnet Stats. They were joined by the Winnipeg Jets the following day.

- The Stars final tilt with the Avalanche marked the fourth time in franchise history that Dallas has faced Colorado in a Game 7, going a perfect 4-0 in those games.
- The team's victory over the Avalanche marked the fourth time in franchise history that the Stars have overcome a deficit to win a Game 7 according to NHL Stats, also doing so in 2020, 1984 and 1980.
- The Stars trailed entering the third period in three of their eventual four wins in the series, down 3-2 in Game 2 (a 4-3 overtime win), 1-0 in Game 3 (a 2-1 overtime win) and 1-0 in Game 7 (a 4-2 regulation win). According to NHL Stats, the Stars are the first team to win three games in a series after trailing to begin the third period since the Anaheim Ducks did so in the First Round of the 2015 Stanley Cup Playoffs against the Winnipeg Jets.
 - The Ducks won the first three games of the series after trailing each contest entering the third period.
- With the win, Head Coach Pete DeBoer is now a perfect 9-0 in Game 7s in his career. His nine Game 7 wins are the most by any skater or coach in NHL history.
- The Stars have now won at least one series in each of the last three seasons and have improved to a 5-2 record in seven playoff rounds over that span.
- Dallas' streak of three consecutive postseasons with a series win is tied for its second-longest in franchise history according to NHL Stats behind a stretch of four straight from 1998 to 2001 (also 3 from 1983 to 1985).
- The Stars improved to 3-0 in their last three series against the Avalanche and 5-2 in seven all-time postseason rounds versus Colorado dating to the 1999 Conference Finals according to NHL Stats. The Stars' five series wins against the Avalanche are tied for their most versus one opponent since relocating to Texas in 1993-94 (also 5 vs. EDM).

PARTY LIKE IT'S 1999

- The Stars enter the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs looking to win their second Stanley Cup in franchise history after defeating the Buffalo Sabres in six games to bring the team's first championship to Dallas in 1999.
- At the time of the Stars' first Stanley Cup win, eight players on the team's current roster had yet to be born: Oskar Bäck, Mavrik Bourque, Lian Bichsel, Thomas Harley, Miro Heiskanen, Wyatt Johnston, Nils Lundkvist and Jason Robertson had not been born yet.
 - Heiskanen (July 18, 1999) and Robertson (July 22, 1999) were both born about a month after the Stars hoisted the Stanley Cup.
- The Stars defeated the Sabres 2-1 on June 19, 1999 to secure the franchise's first-ever championship. On that day...
 - The number one song in the United States was "If You Had My Love" by Jennifer Lopez.
 - The number one movie was Disney's "Tarzan."
 - The 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup began. The United States would ultimately go on to win the tournament, led by superstars Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain.

CUP RUNNETH OVER

- Tyler Seguin and Mikko Rantanen are the two players on Dallas' roster who have previously won the Stanley Cup.
- Seguin was a part of Boston's 2011 championship run, winning the Stanley Cup in his rookie season. He recorded seven points (3-4-7) in 13 postseason games.
- Seguin has reached the Finals on two additional occasions: in 2013 with Boston (vs. Chicago) and in 2020 with Dallas (vs. Tampa Bay).
- Rantanen hoisted the Cup in 2022 with the Avalanche, finishing the postseason with 25 points (5-20-25) in 20 games, which was good for fifth in the NHL in scoring that year.

REGULAR SEASON RECAP

- The Stars finished the 2024-25 regular season with a 50-26-6 record, ranking in the top five in the NHL this year in wins (tied fourth), points (fifth), goals for (275, tied third), goals for per game (3.35, tied third) and penalty kill (82.0 percent, tied fourth).
- The 2024-25 campaign marks the second straight year that Dallas has finished the regular season with at least 50 wins and the third consecutive year that the team concluded the regular season with a points percentage above .640.
- This season also sits near the top in the franchise record book in terms of single-season success with the team's 50 wins tying for the fourth-most in franchise history.
- The team's regular-season success this year came in spite of logging 190 man games lost to injury, which includes significant stretches playing without Tyler Seguin (62 games), Miro Heiskanen (32 games), Nils Lundkvist (40 games), Mason Marchment (20 games) and others.
