KEVIN CHEVELDAYOFF

GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Cheveldayoff is entering his 15th season as General Manager of the Winnipeg Jets after being named to the position in June 8, 2011, eight days after the franchise relocated to Winnipeg from Atlanta, and has held the position ever since. He signed a multi-year contract extension on Sept. 7, 2017.

The Jets have posted a winning record in 12 of his 14 seasons as General Manager and have reached the Stanley Cup Playoffs in seven of the past eight seasons. The Jets advanced to the Western Conference Final for the first time in franchise history in 2018 and won a franchise record 56 games during the 2024-25 regular season while capturing the Presidents Trophy for the first time. Winnipeg has reached 40 wins in five of the last six seasons. Cheveldayoff has been named a finalist for the NHL's GM of the Year Award twice, finishing second in 2017-18 and third in 2024-25.

Prior to his time in Winnipeg, Cheveldayoff spent two seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks serving in the role of Assistant General Manager/Senior Director, Hockey Operations. During Cheveldayoff's tenure, the Blackhawks won the 2010 Stanley Cup championship.

Before joining the Blackhawks in 2009, the Blaine Lake, Sask. native spent the previous 12 seasons as the General Manager of the American Hockey League's Chicago Wolves, guiding the franchise to four league championships, which included the 2002 and 2008 AHL Calder Cup championships and 1998 and 2000 IHL Turner Cup championships. Overall, Cheveldayoff has been a part of seven league championships during his management career, which includes two Turner Cups in three seasons as the Assistant Vice president of Hockey Operations and Assistant Coach for the Denver and Utah Grizzlies.

Originally drafted by the New York Islanders with their first pick (16th overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Cheveldayoff began his career in the AHL with the Capital District Islanders, serving as the alternate captain from 1991 to 1993. He held the same role with the Salt Lake Golden Eagles in 1993-94, earning the team's "Unsung Hero Award" after racking up a career-high 216 penalty minutes in 73 games. Known as a defensive defenceman during his playing days, a knee injury cut his professional career short after five seasons.

Cheveldayoff spent four seasons with the Brandon Wheat Kings of the WHL where he played in 214 games and collected 81 points (12G, 69A), as well as 759 penalty minutes.

Cheveldayoff resides in Winnipeg with his wife Janet. They have a son, Chase, and daughter, Lexi.

CRAIG HEISINGER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT &
DIRECTOR, HOCKEY OPERATIONS/
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Craig Heisinger is in his 15th season with the Winnipeg Jets in his role as Senior Vice President & Director, Hockey Operations/Assistant General Manager. In his role, Heisinger also serves as the General Manager of the Manitoba Moose, the American Hockey League affiliate of the Winnipeg Jets.

In July 2017, Heisinger was honoured with the Thomas Ebright Award in recognition of career contributions to the AHL.

Heisinger joined the Jets organization after working with the Manitoba Moose in different capacities throughout the team's initial 15-year existence in both the International Hockey League and American Hockey League. Most notably, he served as Manitoba's General Manager for nine seasons and reached the Calder Cup Playoffs in eight of those years, including a berth in the Calder Cup Final in 2009.

Heisinger began his tenure with the Manitoba Moose as the team's Equipment Manager in 1996. "Zinger" then transitioned to a managerial position when he became Assistant General Manager of the hockey club in 1999. Three years later, Heisinger was appointed General Manager of the Moose on July 15th, 2002, succeeding Randy Carlyle. Zinger retained that position until the end of the 2010-11 season. During that time, Heisinger was named the winner of the James C. Hendy Memorial Award as the outstanding executive in the American Hockey League following the team's most successful season in 2008-09. That season, the Moose finished first overall in the AHL and reached the Calder Cup Finals.

Heisinger received his start in hockey as the Equipment Manager of the Fort Garry Blues of the Manitoba Junior Hockey League during the 1978-79 season. In 1988, after his final year with the Brandon Wheat Kings, he represented Canada as the trainer for the Gold Medal winning World Junior Team in Moscow. After the championships, Heisinger joined the Winnipeg Jets as Assistant Equipment Manager. In 1990, he became the Jets' Senior Equipment Manager and was with the team until their move to Phoenix in 1996. In 1997 he worked with the Gold Medal winning Canadian Team at the World Championships, and in 1998 he was selected as the equipment manager for the Canadian Olympic Team in Nagano, Japan.

Heisinger and his wife Vickie, have four sons, Jake, Mack, Tucker, and Zachery.

LARRY SIMMONS

VICE PRESIDENT &
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Larry Simmons is in his 15th year with the club, joining the Jets upon their return to Winnipeg.

In his position as Vice President & Assistant General Manager of the Winnipeg Jets, Simmons assists Executive Vice President & General Manager Kevin Cheveldayoff in all facets of the daily management of the hockey operations department, including player personnel decisions, management of staff, player contracts and salary cap management, scouting, and statistical and competitive analysis.

Simmons held the position of Vice President & Assistant General Manager with the Atlanta Thrashers from 2004 through the team's relocation to Winnipeg in 2011. Simmons, who originally joined the expansion franchise in Atlanta before play began in 1999, held various roles within the hockey operations department prior to 2004, including player contract research and negotiations, player transactions and personnel management, salary arbitrations, strategic planning, budgeting, scheduling, and the administration of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Simmons also served as the direct liaison between the Thrashers and the organization's top development partners and was instrumental in developing and managing the minor league affiliations with the 2002 and 2008 AHL Calder Cup championship-winning Chicago Wolves and the 2001 IHL Turner Cup champion Orlando Solar Bears.

Prior to joining the Thrashers organization, Simmons spent six years working for RDV Sports in Orlando, the parent company of the NBA's Orlando Magic and the Orlando Solar Bears, where he served as a key member of the start-up efforts of the Solar Bears IHL expansion franchise.

Simmons holds both a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Business Administration degree.

He and his wife, Cheryl, reside in Atlanta with their daughter, Maci, and son, Rylan.

MATT PREFONTAINE

SCOTT ARNIEL

HEAD COACH

Scott Arniel is entering his second season as head coach after being appointed as the Winnipeg Jets head coach on May 24, 2024. His first season as head coach saw the Jets set new franchise records in wins (56) and points (116) while earning the Presidents trophy for the first time in franchise history.

Arniel, 63, previously served as associate coach for the Jets for two seasons. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach of the Washington Capitals for four seasons. The Kingston, Ont. native's Capitals made the Stanley Cup playoffs in each of those four seasons.

Arniel was drafted by the Winnipeg Jets in the second round (22nd overall) in the 1981 NHL Draft. He played his first five seasons with the Jets and returned to Winnipeg for another stint in 1990-91. The left winger played 730 games for Winnipeg, the Buffalo Sabres, and Boston Bruins and recorded 338 points (149G, 189A) and 599 penalty minutes. Arniel also played 34 playoff games and posted six points (3G, 3A) and 39 PIMs. He spent the latter part of his career in the AHL and IHL, including playing his final three seasons for the Manitoba Moose where he recorded 171 points (67G, 104A) and 233 PIMs in 222 games.

Arniel's playing career highlights included winning a pair of Memorial Cups (1980 and 1981) with the Cornwall Royals on a roster that also featured Winnipeg legend Dale Hawerchuk. He also played for Canada in the 1981 and 1982 World Junior Championships and won the gold medal in 1982. As a professional, his 1995-96 Utah Grizzlies won the IHL's Turner Cup.

Arniel's first experience in coaching was as a player/assistant coach with the Houston Aeros in 1995-96. After his 1999 retirement as a player, he served as an assistant coach for Manitoba for the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons. He spent three seasons as an assistant coach for the Buffalo Sabres before returning to the Moose and serving as their head coach from 2006-10, including a trip to the Calder Cup Final in 2009. Arniel was hired as the head coach of the Columbus Blue Jackets on June 8/10 and was dismissed midway through his second season. He returned to the AHL as head coach of the Chicago Wolves in 2012-13 before serving as associate coach of the New York Rangers for five seasons (2013-18). Arniel's NHL experience is highlighted by a trip to the Stanley Cup Final with the Rangers in 2014. He also made the Eastern Conference Final on two other occasions (Buffalo – 2006 New York Rangers – 2015) and the Rangers also won the Presidents' Trophy in 2014-15.

MARTY JOHNSTON

ASSISTANT COACH

Marty Johnston is entering his fourth season as assistant coach of the Winnipeg Jets after being named to the role on July 21, 2022.

Johnston, 46, served as an assistant coach for the Manitoba Moose for five seasons from 2017-2022. The Gloucester, Ont. native previously served as the head coach of Carleton University Ravens men's hockey program for seven seasons and coached them to a 129-49-12 record.

As a player, Johnston spent three seasons with the QMJHL's Hull (Gatineau) Olympiques and won the Memorial Cup in 1997. He played for Dalhousie University before starting a professional career with the AHL's Lowell Lock Monsters in 2002-03 where he recorded four points (2G, 2A) and 20 penalty minutes in 17 games. He suited up for 177 games in the ECHL for four different clubs before spending his final pro season with the Edinburgh Capitals in 2004-05.

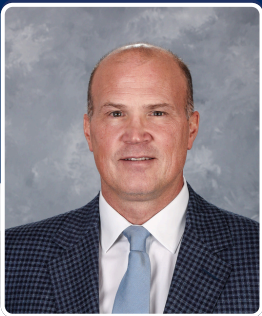

DEAN CHYNOWETH

ASSISTANT COACH

Dean Chynoweth is entering his second season as assistant coach of the Jets after being named to the role on June 17, 2024.

Chynoweth, 56, previously served as an assistant coach for the Toronto Maple Leafs for the three seasons. The Calgary, Alta. native also previously served as an assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes (2018-2021) and the New York Islanders (2009-2012).

Chynoweth also worked as a head coach for the AHL's San Antonio Rampage in the 2015-16 season and for the Lake Erie Monsters (2012-2015). Chynoweth also worked in several roles in the WHL since 2000 and as an assistant coach/assistant GM for the IHL's Utah Grizzlies from 1998 to 2000.

DAVIS PAYNE

ASSISTANT COACH

Davis Payne is entering his second season as assistant coach of the Jets after being named to the role on June 17, 2024.

Payne, 54, previously served as an assistant coach for the Ottawa Senators for five seasons. The product of Kamloops, B.C. also worked for the Buffalo Sabres (associate coach, 2017-2019), Los Angeles Kings (assistant coach, 2012-2017), and St. Louis Blues (head coach, 2009-2012). Payne won a Stanley Cup with the Kings in 2013-14. He also served as an assistant and head coach for the AHL's Peoria Rivermen from 2007 until he was hired as Blues head coach during the 2009-10 season. Payne got his coaching start working in the ECHL as an assistant for the Greenville Growl in 2000-01 before he worked as a head coach for the Pee Dee Pride (2000-03) and the Alaska Aces (2003-2007), where he won the 2006 Kelly Cup. Payne has worked with forwards and power plays during his NHL coaching career and has produced a number of successful players and top-10 power plays along the way.

WADE FLAHERTY

ASSISTANT COACH

Wade Flaherty is in his sixth season as an Assistant Coach after spending seven seasons with the Winnipeg Jets as Goaltending Coach. Flaherty, 52, came to Winnipeg following three seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks as Developmental Goaltending Coach where he worked with Stanley Cup winners Antti Niemi and Corey Crawford. He was instrumental in helping Connor Hellebuyck post a franchise record 44-win season in 2017-18.

The Terrace, B.C. native ended his playing career in 2008 after 19 seasons of professional hockey between the pipes. During his pro career, Flaherty played in the IHL, ECHL, AHL and NHL, including 120 games between the San Jose Sharks, New York Islanders, Tampa Bay Lightning, Florida Panthers, and Nashville Predators. Flaherty won the Calder Cup with the Milwaukee Admirals in 2004, earning playoff MVP honours.

Flaherty has a close connection to Winnipeg, having spent three seasons with the Manitoba Moose in the AHL from 2004-2007. In that time, Flaherty played in 112 games, compiling a record of 62-36-9 and nine shutouts. The Moose reached the second round of the Calder Cup Playoffs in two of three seasons with Flaherty.

MATT PREFONTAINE

VIDEO AND ANALYTICS COACH

Matt Prefontaine is in his 11th season with the Winnipeg Jets as video and analytics coach. The Winnipeg native is responsible for all the video needs of the Jets coaching staff, including pre-scouting upcoming opponents, analyzing game tape and producing game-day preparation videos.

Prior to joining the Jets, Prefontaine spent four seasons with the Rockford IceHogs of the American Hockey League. He originally joined the IceHogs organization as a Broadcast Intern in 2010-11 and became their Video Coach the following season.

Prefontaine attended Brock University in St. Catharines, Ont. before joining Rockford. Matt and his wife Lisa reside in Winnipeg.
