AT A GLANCE

WE'RE GOING STREAKIN'

The Kings skate into Crypto.com Arena riding a nine-game point streak against the Senators (6-0-3), dating back to Nov. 7, 2019. It is the second-longest active point streak against any one opponent for the Kings, and one of five of at least seven games in length. Should the team collect a point tonight, it would mark the 15th different point streak of at least 10 games against any one opponent in franchise history. In their last 15 outings vs. Ottawa dating back to the 2016-17 season, the Kings have accumulated a record of 9-3-3 with 21 points and an .700 PTS % and have been held pointless in just three of those 15 matchups. In that same span (since 2016-17), the Kings have tallied 14 power-play goals in 42 man-advantage opportunities for a power-play percentage (PP%) of 33.3%, the fourth-highest against Ottawa.

SHE'S A BEAUT, CLARKE!

Defenseman Brandt Clarke faces off against the Senators riding a three-game point streak (1-2=3) after notching his 13th helper of the campaign yesterday at Honda Center to bring his season total to 16 (3-13=16) through 24 games played. Clarke is one of two Kings defenseman, aged 21 or younger, in the past 30 years with at least a dozen assists in a single season. The other: Drew Doughty (3x; most: 43 in 2009-10). He is also one of 12 different Kings blueliners to accomplish such feat overall.

MICHIGAN MAN

Goaltender Erik Portillo turned aside 28 of 29 shots faced in his NHL Debut yesterday afternoon against the Ducks at Honda Center to become just the second goaltender in NHL history to earn a win in his League debut where he started the game but had another goaltender on his team log an appearance, per NHL PR. David Rittich logged 1:23 of ice-time during an equipment fix for Portillo under Rule 65.2, which states "...If, however, a player or goalkeeper loses or breaks a skate blade, the Referee may allow the play to be completed and then stop play."
