

MILITARY APPRECIATION GAME

PRESENTED BY  TOYOTA

FLYERS USO SKATE

On Friday, November 1, the Flyers and Toyota partnered with United Service Organizations (USO) for the third year to host nearly 30 active-duty service members from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and U.S. Marine Corps. Following the skate, the group was treated to a tour of the locker room and were gifted tickets to tonight's Military Appreciation Game presented by Toyota.

CHALLENGED ATHLETES FOUNDATION SKATE

On Sunday, November 10, the Flyers and Flyers Warriors teamed up with Toyota to host a special skate with Challenged Athletes Foundation at Flyers Training Center. Flyers Alumni Bob Kelly, members of the Flyers Warriors and Gritty joined the group on ice for the fun. All participants also received tickets to tonight's Military Appreciation Game presented by Toyota.

HAT GIVEAWAY & JERSEY AUCTION

FLYERS AND FLYERS CHARITIES CONTINUE PARTNERSHIP WITH TEAM FOSTER

Taking place as part of Military Appreciation Game, the Flyers will host staff and volunteers from Philadelphia-based Team Foster. Team Foster raises money to provide accredited, life-saving service dogs to injured and disabled Veterans. The evening's Ceremonial Puck Drop will feature Veteran Combat Engineer and Flyers Warrior Sergeant Josh Chilcote and his service dog Turbo.

MILITARY APPRECIATION GAME

On this Veterans Day, the Flyers will host their annual Military Appreciation Game presented by Toyota. With the help of Toyota, the Flyers will host hundreds of active-duty service members and veterans and hold a moment of honor to show thanks for their service along with additional in-game recognitions. All fans who attend the game will receive a camouflage Flyers hat courtesy of Toyota as well as 20% off their retail purchase with a valid military ID.
