FEBRUARY 2026

COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHT

On January 9, Columbus Blue Jackets staff hosted Avondale Elementary for the Winter Pen Pal Party at Nationwide Arena. The Pen Pal Program is a special tradition that pairs Blue Jackets staff with Avondale 4th and 5th grade students to exchange letters throughout the year. For students, it's more than just a letter—it's a chance to strengthen writing and communication skills while building a meaningful connection.

Skills and Drills

Presented by PNC Bank and Energy Transfer

The Columbus Blue Jackets are excited to announce the return of their street hockey program, Skills & Drills, presented by PNC Bank and Energy Transfer. The hockey program is open for registration with the puck dropping this spring. Available for kids ages five to 10, the program is designed to introduce the basics of hockey to first-time players and further improve the skillsets of current players.
