AT A GLANCE

GOOD TO SEE YOU, DREW!

Defenseman Drew Doughty made his season debut last night against the Panthers after missing the first 47 games of the campaign while recovering from a fractured left ankle sustained on Sept. 25, 2024, against the Golden Knights. Doughty played 23:51 in his return to action last night at Amerant Bank Arena. The defenseman finished the 2023-24 regular season second in the League in time-on-ice (TOI), averaging 25:48 minutes of TOI per game. The veteran blueliner accumulated over 25 minutes of TOI in 53 of the team's 82 games last season and over 26 minutes of TOI in a League-leading 43 of those games.

GETTING TAN-NER IN TAMPA

Forward Tanner Jeannot gets set to take the ice at Amalie Arena for the first time as a visitor in the building after spending the past two seasons as a member of the Lightning. The native of Oxbow, Saskatchewan, was acquired by the Kings via trade with Tampa Bay on June 29, 2024, and has recorded nine points in 45 games with his current club. The forward has also recorded 142 hits on the campaign, the most among all Kings skaters and tied for 17th most among all players in the NHL. During his stint on the Gulf Coast, Jeannot scored 18 points (8-10=18) in 75 regular season games from 2022-23 to 2023-24, 12 of which (7-5=12) came in the 36 games he played at Amalie Arena. Jeannot, who began his career with the Nashville Predators, has lined up against the Lightning six total times in his career and scored twice.
