AT A GLANCE

(OVER)TIME AND AGAIN

With their Saturday matinee matchup requiring an extra frame, the LA Kings and Boston Bruins have now played an overtime period in seven consecutive meetings at TD Garden, with LA winning five of those matchups. Per NHL PR, the streak of seven overtime games in a single building is tied for first in NHL history with the Detroit Red Wings and Edmonton Oilers, as the two teams played seven overtime games in the Skyreach Centre, Rexall Place from Jan. 28, 2002 – March 18, 2006. It is also the most in Kings' franchise history, surpassing a streak of six overtime games played in STAPLES Center from Dec. 3, 2007 – Dec. 23, 2010, against the Edmonton Oilers.

PENALTY KILLIN' IT

The Kings continue their season-long seven-game road-trip carrying a perfect 100.0% penalty killing percentage (PK%), successfully shutting down all 10 of their opponents' combined chances through the first two games of the season. It is just the second time in franchise history the Kings have killed held opponents scoreless on the man-advantage while contesting five-or-more power-play opportunities in back-to-back games to open the season (Jan. 14, 2021, vs. MIN, 6/6 & Jan. 16, 2021, vs. MIN, 5/5).

QB MAKING PLAYS UNDER CENTER

Forward Quinton Byfield skates into Canadian Tire Centre after picking up his second assist of the season, extending his point and assist streak to a second game (0-2=2) to open the season. It is the first point streak of Byfield's career to begin in the first game of a campaign and makes him the 10th different skater in franchise history to record a season-opening road assist streak before turning 23 years old. The young center is leading his own line this season, paired with Kevin Fiala and Warren Foegele, following a breakout campaign skating on the wing alongside Anze Kopitar and Adrian Kempe.
