WHAT'S AHEAD

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1 FIRST RESPONDERS NIGHT

PRESENTED BY JET'S PIZZA

The Columbus Blue Jackets are proud to host a special evening dedicated to honoring the brave first responders of the community. On Friday, November 1, as the Columbus Blue Jackets take on the Winnipeg Jets, the team will host First Responders Night, presented by Jet's Pizza. The game begins at 7 p.m. with the first 5,000 fans in attendance receiving an exclusive First Responders hat.

Fans are encouraged to visit first responder booths stationed around the concourse. Participating organizations include the Columbus Fire Department, Columbus Police and Franklin County Therapy Dogs, Delaware County EMS, and more.

A special ticket package is available for the first 2,500 purchasers featuring an exclusive Blue Jackets First Responders jersey. A portion of every ticket package sold will support the Capital City Lodge Fraternal Order of Police Foundation.

Learn more about First Responders Night, presented by Jet's Pizza or purchase the special ticket package at BlueJackets.com/Responders.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23

HOCKEY FOR HER

PRESENTED BY BREAD FINANCIAL

The Blue Jackets will host Hockey For Her, presented by Bread Financial, on Saturday, November 23 ahead of the 7 p.m. game against the Carolina Hurricanes. Hockey For Her is a platform designed distinctly for female fans, offering insights into all aspects of the game of hockey.

The session includes a candle-making class with The Chandler. Each ticket package includes a candle making kit, a ticket to the game, a Q&A panel with hockey professionals, drinks and hors d'oeuvres.

Registration is open now with limited spaces available. For more information, visit BlueJackets.com/HockeyForHer.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27

70's THROWBACK NIGHT

PRESENTED BY TICKETMASTER

Join the Blue Jackets for a groovy night when the team throws it back to the 70's for one night only when the team hosts Montreal on Wednesday, November 27. The arena will be off the hook as we boogie down all night long!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21 HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER NIGHT

PRESENTED BY OHIOHEALTH

The Columbus Blue Jackets will honor and remember those who have experienced, or are currently experiencing, the journey of cancer by hosting Hockey Fights Cancer Night, in partnership with OhioHealth, on Thursday, November 21 when the club hosts the Tampa Bay Lightning at Nationwide Arena.

The first 5,000 fans in attendance will receive an exclusive Hockey Fights Cancer fleece blanket. Attendees are encouraged to wear lavender, the official color of Hockey Fights Cancer, which represents all cancers.

The Blue Jackets Foundation will have an auction, player autographed Hockey Fights Cancer jersey raffle, and merchandise available for purchase to raise funds for pediatric cancer initiatives.

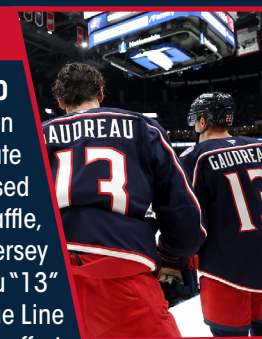

A special ticket package is available for the first 500 purchasers featuring a discounted ticket and exclusive Adam Fantilli bobblehead.

FOR EACH OTHER

The Blue Jackets raised more than $300,000 for the John & Matthew Gaudreau Foundation thanks to the generosity of fans, corporate partners, and community. The funds were raised from the Blue Jackets Foundation's 50/50 Raffle, presented by Kemba Financial, a special jersey raffle featuring player signed Johnny Gaudreau "13" jerseys, an auction, and sold lapel pins. The Blue Line team store also participated in the fundraising efforts by selling an exclusive '47 Brand t-shirt and Inglasco puck with 100% of the proceeds going to the foundation.

On Monday, October 28, the Foundation announced the investment of $1.1 million in 27 local charitable and youth hockey organizations during a pregame reception, presented by Jet's Pizza. This year's grants push the Foundation's cumulative support of youth health and wellness initiatives in central Ohio to more than $15 million since its inception in 2000.
