KINGS NOTES

- Forward Quinton Byfield (1-0=1) scored his third goal of the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs, his fourth point (3-1=4) of the series, to open the scoring in tonight's Game 6 at Rogers Place. Per NHL PR, the center's goal came 1:19 into Game 6, marking the second-fastest to begin a potential elimination game in Kings history, trailing only Wayne Gretzky (0:52 in Game 7 of 1989 DSF vs. EDM).
- Defenseman Brandt Clarke (1-0=1) fired home his second goal of the postseason, tied for the second most among skaters selected in the 2021 NHL Draft with Carolina's Logan Stankoven (2G) and Dallas' Wyatt Johnston (2G) behind Toronto's Matthew Knies (3G). Clarke is the first blueliner among his draft cohort to find the back of the net in the Stanley Cup Playoffs and is joined by New Jersey's Luke Hughes (0-2=2) as the only defender with multiple postseason points.
- Defenseman Jordan Spence (1-0=1) scored his first career playoff goal, assisted by forward Samuel Hedenius (0-1=1), who recorded his first career postseason point on the play.
- Captain Anze Kopitar (1-0=1) scored his second goal of the 2025 playoffs, his ninth point (2-7=9) of the postseason.
- Forward Kevin Fiala (0-2=2) tallied his third and fourth helpers of the series, bringing him to seven total points (3-4=7).
- Fiala has recorded 30 points (14-16=30) in his 49-game playoff career and is one of just three skaters of Swiss nationality to record as many, joining Nashville blueliner Roman Josi (12-33=45) and Winnipeg forward Nino Niederreiter (17-21=38), both of whom have played over 90 postseason games.
- Forward Alex Laferriere (0-1=1) picked up his second assist of the playoffs, his fourth career postseason point (1-3=4) to tie for 10th most points and eighth most assists amongst skaters selected in the 2020 NHL Draft.
- Forward Phillip Danault (0-1=1) registered his sixth assist of the series on Clarke's goal. With the helper, the native of Victoriaville, Quebec, increased his postseason career total to 19 points (7-12=19). In doing so, he tied Steve Kasper (6-12=18) for fourth most assists and broke a tie with Kasper for sole possession of fourth most points by a skater born in Quebec in team playoff history.
- Defenseman Drew Doughty (0-1=1) registered his third assist of the postseason on Kopitar's closing-minute goal.
- Per NHL PR, the Kings and Oilers combined for four goals in the opening 5:55, marking the third fastest four goals to open a potential clinching game, following Game 6 of the 1965 Semifinals between the Canadiens and Maple Leafs (3:49) and Game 5 of the 2016 Stanley Cup Final between the Penguins and Sharks (5:06).
- Edmonton wins Round One, four games to two.
