The Philadelphia Flyers today announced its 2024 Training Camp roster and schedule, which will begin with on-ice sessions on Thursday, Sept. 19 at Flyers Training Center in Voorhees, N.J., according to General Manager Daniel Brière.

A total of 58 players are currently scheduled to attend training camp – 32 forwards, 20 defensemen and six goaltenders. The players will be sorted into three teams for the first three days, featuring both on-ice and off-ice sessions. Friday, Sept. 20 and Saturday, Sept. 21 will feature scrimmages between the teams.

On Sunday, Sept. 22, the Flyers will begin their 2024 preseason schedule with a game against the Washington Capitals at 3:00 p.m. (ET) at Capital One Arena, while opening up at Wells Fargo Center for the first time this preseason on Thursday, Sept. 26 vs. NY Islanders at 7:00 p.m. ET. All Flyers home preseason games will be televised on NBCSP and aired on the team's flagship radio station, 97.5 The Fanatic.
