PLAYERS TO WATCH

Tonight, the New York Islanders host the Edmonton Oilers in the second and final meeting between the two clubs this season. The last time these teams met was November 12, 2024 in Edmonton, when Anders Lee, Jean-Gabriel Pageau and Kyle Palmieri each recorded two points to help the Islanders capture a point in an over-time loss. The Islanders enter tonight's game with a 4-1-0 record in their last five home-ice meetings against the Oilers, including a 3-1 win when the Islanders last hosted Edmonton on December 19, 2023. They will also look to earn their third straight win at UBS Arena, as they begin a stretch of six home games in 13 days.

BO HORVAT #14

Islanders forward Bo Horvat has recorded points in 10 of the club's 11 home games since January 16, tallying 12 points (seven goals, five assists) at UBS Arena in that span. The 29-year-old scored the game-winning goal on the power play when the Oilers last visited on December 19, 2023. Horvat leads active Islanders with 29 points (12 goals, 17 assists) in 41 career games against Edmonton, including eight points (three goals, five assists) in his last seven meetings against them. It is his second-highest point total against a single franchise he has faced in his career (San Jose, 31).

LEON DRAISAITL #29

Oilers forward Leon Draisaitl enters tonight's game on a 16-game point streak, the second-longest by an NHLer this season (Pastrnak). He has 24 points (12 goals, 12 assists) since January 27. Draisaitl, 29, leads the NHL in goals (47), and is second in points (98) in 65 games, and will look to reach the 100-point mark for the fourth straight season. The Cologne, GER native scored twice, including the overtime game-winner, when these teams last met in November, and he has nine points (five goals, four assists) in his last four meetings against the Islanders.
