

The Buffalo Sabres today announced the team has promoted Seth Appert to assistant coach.

Highlights

- Has served as head coach of the Rochester Americans (AHL) for the past four seasons and compiled a record of 123-94-32 in that span. His 123 wins rank fourth in franchise history and under Appert, the Amerks earned a playoff berth in each of the last three seasons.
- Rochester earned 35 or more wins in each of the last three seasons with Appert at the helm, which marked the first time the Amerks have earned 35 or more wins in three consecutive seasons since they did so from 2011-12 to 2013-14.
- Appert led the Amerks to the AHL Semifinals during the 2023 Calder Cup Playoffs, marking the deepest postseason run by Rochester since the 2003-04 season.
- Prior to joining the Amerks, Appert spent three seasons as a head coach at the United States National Team Development Program, 11 seasons as the head coach of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and nine seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Denver.

SABRES PROMOTE APPERT TO ASSISTANT COACH

The Buffalo Sabres today announced the team has promoted Amir Gulati to video coordinator.

Career Highlights

- Spent the last two seasons serving as the video coach and team manager for the Rochester Americans (AHL), where he oversaw all aspects of video operations and team travel.
- Prior to joining Rochester, he spent one season in the ECHL as the video coach for the Iowa Heartlanders during their inaugural season in 2021-22.
- A native of Buffalo, Gulati graduated in 2018 from the University of Michigan, where he served as a student video coordinator for the men's hockey team.
