NOVEMBER 2025

COMMUNITY HIGHLIGHT

The Columbus Blue Jackets Foundation is marking the milestone season with another year of giving back to the community. The Foundation announced Wednesday that it has awarded more than $1 million in grants to central Ohio nonprofit and youth hockey organizations for the 2025–26 season, continuing its commitment to improving the health and wellness of children and families through programs that expand access to education, promote active lifestyles, advance pediatric cancer care, and grow the game of hockey for all.

NEWS & UPDATES

Exclusive CBJ Library Card

The Blue Jackets have partnered with the Columbus Metropolitan Library to release commemorative library cards featuring the Blue Jackets logo. The cards are available at all 23 CML locations while supplies last.

Boone's Buddies

Blue Jackets captain Boone Jenner has launched Boone's Buddies, an initiative through the Columbus Blue Jackets Foundation supporting children and families facing medical challenges. This season, Boone is partnering with Ronald McDonald House Charities to host families at 20 home games, creating nights of joy and connection. Each family will meet Boone, or a teammate, after the game and receive exclusive Boone's Buddies hats.

25th Anniversary History Pucks

The Columbus Blue Jackets have installed 12 giant hockey puck sculptures across the city to celebrate 25 years of franchise history. Fans can join a scavenger hunt by visiting each puck and checking in at www.cbj.co/puck-hunt for a chance to win prizes and rewards.
