KINGS NOTES

- Defenseman Jordan Spence (1-0=1) broke the open tonight's scoring late in the second period with his second goal of the season, his second point (0-2=2) in his last three outings.
- The goal marks Spence's first point against the Devils through two games played against the franchise.
- Through 28 games played so far this season, the 23-year-old blueliner has tied his single-season career high in goals (2), set twice before (2021-22, 24 GP; 2023-24, 71 GP).
- Forward Phillip Danault (0-1=1) set-up Spence's game-opener to earn his 12th assist of the campaign. Danault now has four points over his past two games against the Devils, powered by his second career hat trick in the Kings 5-1 victory on March 3, 2024.
- Forward Alex Laferriere (0-1=1) assisted on Spence's opening tally, his second point (1-1=2) in as many games against the Devils, dating back to March 3, 2024. In doing so, the native of Chatham, N.J., registered his first NHL point in his home state and now has seven points (4-3=7) in as many contests dating back to Nov. 27 v. Winnipeg.
