AT A GLANCE

LAFF FACTORY

Forward Alex Laferriere skates into DTLA riding a three-game point streak (2-3=5), including multi-point efforts in two of those contests. It is the third different point streak of at least three games for Laferriere this season. In last Saturday's contest vs. Ottawa, Laferriere scored his second goal in as many games for his 11th on the season and team-leading 10th at even-strength. The young forward is one of only four skaters aged 25 or younger to have double-digit even-strength goals so far this season, joining Connor McMichael (11), Nico Hischier (10) and Kirill Marchenko (10). He is also one of seven players in team history to have as many through the first 25 games to start a season before age 24, and is just the second to do so in over 30 years.

GAVY KEEPS DANCING

Defenseman Vladislav Gavrikov has averaged 23:43 of time-on-ice (TOI) per game and accumulated a +12 plus/minus rating, leading the Kings in both categories through the first 25 games of the season. Among skaters logging at least 20:00 of time-on-ice per game played, only six players League-wide have accrued as high of a net plus/minus rating or higher as Gavrikov (+12) has, and no skaters have done so while playing as many minutes or more each night.

LIKE FINE WINE

LA Kings skaters have a cumulative 46 multi-point player games amongst their roster so far this season, which is tied for seventh-most in the league with Dallas. Of their 46 combined multi-point performances, 10 have come from Adrian Kempe and nine from captain Anze Kopitar. Kopitar has recorded the most such instances in Kings history by a forward his age or older, with the next closest behind being Larry Robinson (1989-90) and Luc Robitaille (2002-03), each with four occurrences. Kopitar is one of just eight skaters in League history to have at least nine multi-point games through the first 25 games of a season at age 37 or older, and is the first since Martin St. Louis (10 GP) in 2012-13.
