IT'S NOT OVER 'TIL IT'S OVER

- The Stars have defeated the Avalanche in overtime in each of their last two games played – 4-3 in Game 2 and 2-1 in Game 3 – erasing one-goal deficits in the third period in both games.
 - According to NHL Stats, the Stars registered consecutive third-period comeback wins in the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fourth time in franchise history, following 2008 (Game 2 & 3 of CSF), 2001 (Game 5 & 6 of CQF) and 1999 (Game 3 & 4 of CQF).
- According to NHL Stats, Dallas' Game 3 and Game 4 victories over Colorado is the first time in franchise history that the Stars have won consecutive overtime games in the playoffs.
- Three of the last four games that Dallas has played against Colorado in the playoffs have gone to overtime, dating back to Game 6 of the Second Round in 2024.
- If tonight's game goes beyond regulation, it will mark the fourth time in franchise history that the team has played three consecutive overtime games in the Stanley Cup Playoffs.
- The Stars last played three consecutive overtime games in the playoffs from April 15 to 19, 2001 in Games 3, 4 and 5 in their Conference Quarterfinals series against the Edmonton Oilers.
 - Dallas posted a 2-1 record in those games with Benoit Hogue scoring the game-winner in Game 3 and Kirk Mueller giving the Stars a 3-2 series lead in Game 5.
- Tyler Seguin scored the game-winning goal in Dallas' Game 3 overtime win over Colorado. The goal was the second overtime goal of his career and first since Game 6 of the 2012 Conference Quarterfinals when he was playing for Boston.
- According to NHL Stats, Seguin is the third player in NHL history to go more than 13 years between scoring overtime goals in the playoffs, joining Ray Whitney (16 years, 344 days) and Teemu Selanne (14 years, 23 days).
- Seguin's overtime winner was his sixth playoff game-winning goal with Dallas, which is tied for sixth in franchise history according to NHL Stats.
- Colin Blackwell scored the first overtime goal of his career in Dallas' Game 2 win. According to NHL Stats, Blackwell is the second player in franchise history to score an overtime goal in his first Stanley Cup Playoff game with the Stars/North Stars, joining Brian Propp who did so in Game 1 of the Division Semifinals in 1991.
- Blackwell, who was drafted by San Jose in the seventh round (194th overall) of the 2011 draft, also became the fourth active seventh-round pick to score an overtime goal in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, joining Nick Dowd, Erik Haula and Ondrej Palat.

KILLING IT

- The Stars have gone 11-for-13 on the penalty kill through the first three games of the series for an 84.6 percent success rate, which was the fourth-best mark in the NHL this postseason entering play Friday.
- Dallas went a perfect 6-for-6 on the penalty kill in Game 3 (10:17 of shorthanded ice time in total), which includes killing off 3:20 of a penalty kill to begin overtime.

- Since the NHL began tracking penalty kills in 1977-78, Dallas' Game 3 performance marked the 13th time that the Stars have been shorthanded for at least 10 minutes without allowing a power-play goal against in a Stanley Cup Playoff game.
 - The Stars last accomplished this feat on Sept. 2, 2020 against the Avalanche, going 5-for-5 on the penalty kill.
- Game 3 also marked the 17th time since 1977-78 that the Avalanche have not scored a power play goal in a postseason game while having at least 10 minutes of power-play time.
- Esa Lindell played 8:09 of Dallas' 10:17 of shorthanded time, the highest single-game total by a Stars skater in a Stanley Cup Playoff game since the NHL began tracking penalty killing in 1977-78.
- Entering play Friday, Lindell was leading the NHL in total shorthanded time on ice (16:12) and shorthanded time on ice per game (5:24) this postseason.
 - Lindell also led the NHL in total shorthanded ice time (287:02) and shorthanded ice time per game (3:35) during the regular season. His 287:02 of shorthanded ice time was nearly 10 more minutes than the second ranked player (Mike Matheson; 277:22).

BIKER GANG

- Thomas Harley recorded the primary assist on Jamie Benn's game-tying goal in Game 3 against the Avalanche to give him three points (1-2—3) through his first three games of the series. Harley's three points this postseason top all Stars skaters and were tied for the second-most among all NHL defensemen entering play Friday.
- A goal or an assist tonight would extend Harley's point streak to four games, which would tie his playoff career high that he previously set from May 9 to 15, 2023 when he has an assist in four consecutive games.
- Harley has totaled 93:15 of ice time and is also averaging 31:05 of ice time per game this postseason, both of which led all NHL skaters entering play Friday.
 - Harley set a playoff single-game career high with 35:54 in Game 2, which was also the highest time on ice by and NHL skater in a single game this postseason.
 - He also had 27:34 of ice time in Game 1, which was the most he's ever played in a Stanley Cup Playoff game that ended in regulation and topped all skaters from either team.
- Harley's three points against Colorado this series brings his playoff career total to 16 (2-14—16). He currently leads all players drafted in 2019 in playoff career goals (tied), assists and points.
 - Only Seattle's Kaapo Kakko (44) has played more Stanley Cup Playoff games among skaters selected in 2019 than Harley (42).
- The Stars have outshot the Avalanche 32-31 when Harley is on the ice during 5-on-5 play this series according to Natural Stat Trick. Entering play Friday, no player in the Stanley Cup Playoffs this year has been on the ice for more 5-on-5 shots for than Harley.
 - Dallas has also outscored Colorado 3-0 at 5-on-5 when Harley is on the ice.
 - Harley's defensive partner Ilya Lyubushkin was tied for second in the NHL in on-ice shots for with 30 entering play Friday.
- Harley finished Game 1 with six blocked shots, which was one shy of his playoff single-game career high and led both Dallas and Colorado skaters.
- Harley had a career year in 2024-25, finishing the regular season with 50 points (15-34—50), setting career highs in goals, assists, points, even-strength goals (15), power-play points (15), plus/minus (plus-32) and time on ice per game played (23:23).
 - His 50 points ranked 15th among all NHL defensemen this season.
- Harley became the third Stars defenseman in the last 10 years to reach the 50-point plateau (Miro Heiskanen, John Klingberg), and his 16 goals were tied for the sixth-most by a Stars defenseman in a single season in franchise history.
- The Stars outscored their opponents 93-59 when Harley was on the ice during even-strength play during the regular-season season, which topped the Stars and was tied for the sixth-best mark in the NHL.

PLAYOFF PROWESS

- Mikko Rantanen is a point-per-game player in the postseason in his career, totaling 102 points (34-68—102) in 84 Stanley Cup Playoff games.

- In all, the Stars have an 20-21 record against the Avalanche, which is their third-highest playoff win total against a single opponent, trailing only the St. Louis Blues (40) and the Edmonton Oilers (29).
- No franchise in NHL history has won more playoff games against the Avalanche than the Stars.
- The Stars also tops all NHL franchises in playoff goals scored against Colorado (117).

PARTY LIKE IT'S 1999

- The Stars enter the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs looking to win their second Stanley Cup in franchise history after defeating the Buffalo Sabres in six games to bring the team's first championship to Dallas in 1999.
- At the time of the Stars' first Stanley Cup win, eight players on the team's current roster had yet to be born: Oskar Bäck, Mavrik Bourque, Lian Bichsel, Thomas Harley, Miro Heiskanen, Wyatt Johnston, Nils Lundkvist and Jason Robertson had not been born yet.
 - Heiskanen (July 18, 1999) and Robertson (July 22, 1999) were both born about a month after the Stars hoisted the Stanley Cup.
- The Stars defeated the Sabres 2-1 on June 19, 1999 to secure the franchise's first-ever championship. On that day...
 - The number one song in the United States was "If You Had My Love" by Jennifer Lopez.
 - The number one movie was Disney's "Tarzan."
 - The 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup began. The United States would ultimately go on to win the tournament, led by superstars Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain.

CUP RUNNETH OVER

- Tyler Seguin and Mikko Rantanen are the two players on Dallas' roster who have previously won the Stanley Cup.
- Seguin was a part of Boston's 2011 championship run, winning the Stanley Cup in his rookie season. He recorded seven points (3-4—7) in 13 postseason games.
- Seguin has reached the Finals on two additional occasions: in 2013 with Boston (vs. Chicago) and in 2020 with Dallas (vs. Tampa Bay).
- Rantanen hoisted the Cup in 2022 with the Avalanche, finishing the postseason with 25 points (5-20—25) in 20 games, which was good for fifth in the NHL in scoring that year.

FOR PETE'S SAKE

- Head Coach Pete DeBoer has an 90-72 all-time playoff record. His 89 wins are the 10th-most in NHL history and top all active coaches.
- Those 90 wins have amounted to 17 series wins, which also ranks 10th in NHL history and sits one shy of the league lead among active coaches (Jon Cooper, 18).
- No coach in NHL history has a better record in Game 7s than DeBoer, who is a perfect 8-0 in his career.
- The 2025 postseason marks the 10th consecutive year in which a DeBoer-coached team has reached the playoffs, which trails only Paul Maurice (12) and Cooper (11) for the longest active run among head coaches.
- DeBoer is looking to reach the Conference Finals for the seventh time in his career after previously doing so with New Jersey (2011-12), San Jose (2015-16, 2018-19), Vegas (2019-20) and Dallas (2022-23, 2023-24).

- Entering this postseason, DeBoer and Cooper are the only active coaches to reach the Conference Finals six separate times, with DeBoer being the only coach to achieve that feat with multiple teams.

REGULAR SEASON RECAP

- The Stars finished the 2024-25 regular season with a 50-26-6 record, ranking in the top five in the NHL this year in wins (tied fourth), points (fifth), goals for (275, tied third), goals for per game (3.35, tied third) and penalty kill (82.0 percent, tied fourth).
- The 2024-25 campaign marks the second straight year that Dallas has finished the regular season with at least 50 wins and the third consecutive year that the team concluded the regular season with a points percentage above .640.
- This season also sits near the top in the franchise record book in terms of single-season success with the team's 50 wins tying for the fourth-most in franchise history.
- The team's regular-season success this year came in spite of logging 190 man games lost to injury, which includes significant stretches playing without Tyler Seguin (62 games), Miro Heiskanen (32 games), Nils Lundkvist (40 games), Mason Marchment (20 games) and others.
