THAYER R. "TAD" POTTER
General Partner
Governor

Tad Potter begins his fourth season as top man in the Pittsburgh Penguin organization.

The 41-year old owner, one of the most dynamic and outwardgoing executives in professional sports, helped save the financially troubled franchise in 1971, when he, along with Peter H. Block, Elmore Keener and A. H. "Peter" Burchfield purchased the Penguins.

A graduate of Edgewood High School and Valley Forge Military Academy, he also holds a bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Penn State University.

Prior to joining the world of professional sports, he served as Director of Residential and Commercial Sales for the Peoples Natural Gas Company, where he spent eleven years in the marketing department.

As a previous Hockey Hound, Mr. Potter takes a deep rooted interest in the well-fare of his fellow fans and is trying to improve the Civic Arena surroundings with the most modern facilities, as well as patiently building a strong contender on the ice. Unlike previous owners, Potter is whole-heartedly against trading draft choice for a chance at instant success.

He also represents Pittsburgh as Governor on the NHL Board of Governors. He, along with his partners, are former recipients of the James Balmer Award in 1971-72.

JACK C. BUTTON
General Manager

Jack Button is starting his first full season as General Manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins, but he has already made his mark in hockey as far as Penguin fans are concerned. Jack, a 35-year old native of Rushville, New York took over as G.M. on January 14, 1974. Within three days, through a series of trades and player moves, Button turned the Penguins into one of the strongest young teams in the NHL. Jack began his hockey career as publicity director for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. He then moved up to the position of Secretary-Treasurer and publicity director for the AHL. In 1968-69 he was the general manager of the Amarillo Wranglers, the Pittsburgh affiliate at that time in the Central Hockey League. He later became Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager.

MARC BOILEAU
COACH

Marc Boileau brought a winning attitude to the Penguins last year and plans to carry it through this season to the playoffs. The 42-year old native of Pointe Claire, Quebec spent several years in the Western Hockey League with Seattle and Los Angeles, plus a year's stint with the Detroit Red Wings (1961-62) before becoming a coach in Fort Wayne (IHL). In Marc's first year as bench coach he led the Komets to the league and playoff championships. His easy-going manner and ability to handle players earned him a shot at the NHL. He was named to replace Ken Schinkel on February 6, 1974 and compiled a 14-10-4 record, moving the club from near last place to a fifth place finish. Marc and his wife, Lonnie, are the parents of five children and reside in Bethel Park. Marc goes by the nickname of "Popeye" and loves to hear the organist play "I'm Popeye the Sailor Man", which signals a Penguin victory in the Civic Arena. That song could become more popular than the song Kate Smith sang last year.

SYL APPS

Center 6'0" 195 lbs.
Age: 27 (August 1, 1947)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Shoots: Right

Syl Apps and the "Century Line" (Jean Pronovost & Lowell MacDonald) were the second highest scoring line in the NHL last year with 107 goals. Apps, in finishing seventh in scoring in the league with his second straight 85-point season missed being the West Division scoring leader by two points when he missed the last three games of the season. Besides winning his third straight club scoring title, Syl was one of the co-winners of the Most Valuable Player Award. His 61 assists last year were a new record and his 177 lifetime assists put him on top in that category. He has averaged a point a game since coming to Pittsburgh in 1971 from the New York Rangers, and is also the second highest all-time point scorer on the club. He holds the record for most points (6) in one game and last season tied the club mark by scoring at least one point in nine consecutive games. His 27 points in March also set a new standard. Besides being an alternate captain and a leader on the ice, he is the player representative. Syl is expected to be Pittsburgh's representative in the NBC Showdown Series this year. Prior to last year, Syl signed a five-year deal with the Pens.

THE PLAYERS

Traded to PITTSBURGH by N.Y. Rangers for Glen Sather, January 26, 1971.

CHUCK ARNASON

Right Wing 5'10" 180 lbs.
Age: 23 (July 15, 1951)
Born: Dauphin, Manitoba
Shoots: Right

Chuck Arnason came to the Penguins in January from the Atlanta Flames with the reputation of being a big goal scorer with a deadly shot. It took Chuck a few games to get acclimated, but once he found the range he scored 11 goals in 26 games, including four two-goal games. He scored 13 goals for the Pens and finished the year with 20 goals. Chuck also had a penalty shot, but was stopped by California's Gilles Meloche on February 16. Of the 41 games he played for Pittsburgh, only twice did he fail to get a shot on goal and in 14 games he had four or more shots on goal. Off the ice he is an avid golfer and scored a hole-in-one in Winnipeg during the summer. He also knows all of the songs recorded by the Mills Brothers. Chuck will be starting the second year of a three-year contract.

WAYNE BIANCHIN (Buy-an-chin)

Age: 21 (September 6, 1953)
Born: Nanaimo, British Columbia
Shoots: Left

A promising career of Wayne Bianchin was almost tragically ended in an off-season surfing accident in Hawaii, but doctors feel he will be back in the lineup before mid-season. Wayne suffered a broken neck when he displaced two vertebrae in the mishap. In his rookie season he scored 12 goals and 25 points in 69 games. Wayne missed the first six games of the season with a hairline fracture of the ankle and started the year in Hershey. He scored his first NHL goal on December 23 at Buffalo. Wayne was one of the most popular players last year for his all around hustle and desire. A complete recovery will give Pittsburgh one of the best young players in the game. Wayne is in the second year of a three-year contract.

DAVE BURROWS

Defense 6'1" 190 lbs.
Age: 25 (January 11, 1949)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Shoots: Left

It took Dave Burrows almost three years before he got the recognition he deserves, but the popular backliner was finally selected to the All Star game last year and finished high in the post season voting as one of the best defensemen in the NHL. Even playing in the All Star game in Chicago had its' pitfalls, as Dave suffered a dislocated shoulder and missed six games, the first time he was out of the Pittsburgh lineup in three years due to an injury. Dave scored just 3 goals and 14 assists last year, but was able to concentrate more on defense after the trades that brought some big scoring defensemen to the club. Dave was the Penguins' 1971-72 rookie of the year and was the most valuable player in 1972-73. Last year he shared the award with Apps, MacDonald and Pronovost. This past summer, Dave served as coach of the Pittsburgh team in the Special Olympics in Winnipeg. Dave is on the second year of a three year contract.

NELSON DEBENEDET (Dee-ben-ah-det)

Age: 26 (December 31, 1947)
Born: Cordenons, Italy
Shoots: Left
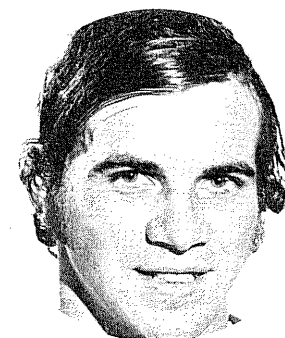

Nelson Debenedet is one of the two players acquired during the off-season via the trade route. A native of Italy, Nelson is rated as a strong two-way hockey player. He played defense in college while attending Michigan State and later Toronto University. In 1972-73 he scored 29 goals in the American Hockey League. Last year he split the season between Virginia (AHL) and Detroit where he scored 4 goals in 15 games with the NHL Red Wings. He was traded from Detroit to the Pens for Hank Nowak and a third round draft choice. Debenedet has two years remaining on his contract.

AB DEMARCO

Defense 6'0" 180 lbs.
Age: 25 (February 27, 1949)
Born: North Bay, Ontario
Shoots: Right

Ab DeMarco isn't exactly a "chip off the old block", but his smooth style of play reminds many people of the way his father played the game. Ab looks like a magician when he controls the puck with pin-point passing and a shot that accounted for 10 goals last year. DeMarco came to the Pens in January and scored 7 goals and 12 assists in 34 games, including a pair of two-goal games that gave the Pens victories over Chicago and Atlanta. Ab has had several serious injuries (broken ankle & dislocated shoulder) that have kept him out of the lineup in the past, but he didn't miss a game when he arrived in Pittsburgh. Ab underwent an off-season appendectomy operation. He has three years remaining on his contract with the Penguins.

STEVE DURBANO

Defense 6'1" 210 lbs.
Age: 22 (December 12, 1951)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Shoots: Left

You can write and talk all night about Steve Durbano's fistic abilities, but the one fact still remains, he is one of the best all-around defensemen in the game. He keeps his end clear of opposing forwards and at the other end is always a threat with his powerful slap shot. Despite playing only 33 games with Pitttsburgh, Steve was the team's penalty leader with 138 minutes and a total of 284 on the year. Steve scored a goal the very first game he played for Pittsburgh and also picked up 2 goals against his old mates from St. Louis. There isn't a fiercer competitor in hockey than Steve, and his overall ability will soon earn him respect as a player thoughout the league. Steve set one Pittsburgh mark last year when he picked up 27 minutes in one game against Vancouver. He spent the summer in Pittsburgh making public appearances. Steve also has four years remaining on his current pact with the Pens.

VIC HADFIELD

Age: 34 (October 4, 1940)
Born: Oakville, Ontario
Shoots: Left

After 13 seasons in a New York Rangers uniform, Vic Hadfield gets a new lease on life. The popular hard-hitting, high-scoring left wing came to the Penguins in an off-season trade for Nick Beverley. The former captain of the Rangers has played in over 800 games in the NHL and has scored over 250 goals, including 50 in 1971-72 when he was a second team All Star selection. Vic has scored over 100 goals in the past three seasons in the NHL, and an operation to cure an injured hand and thumb should put him back among the goal scoring leaders. Vic led the league in penalty minutes in 1963-64 and has five seasons in which he picked up 100 or more penalty minutes. In the off-season he runs a golf course in Oakville, Ontario with former Penguin Andy Bathgate. Hadfield has three years remaining on a five year pact he signed with New York, but is now a lot closer to playing for a Stanley Cup champion.

DENIS HERRON

Goaltender 5'11" 165 lbs.
Age: 22 (June 18, 1952)
Born: Chambly, Quebec
Shoots: Left
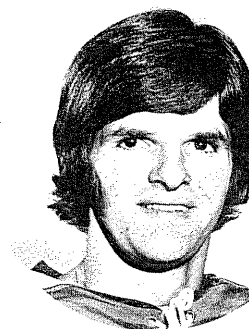

Denis Herron stands a good chance of being one of the top young goalies in the NHL this year. A 1972 draft choice, Denis broke into pro hockey at the top with the Pens and played in 18 games. He set a record by winning his first two starts away from home with shutout victories. This past year he started with Pittsburgh, but was loaned to Salt Lake City of the WHL on an emergency basis. He then was assigned to Hershey and helped lead the Bears to the Calder Cup title by defeating league champion Baltimore in four straight games. Just 22 years old, Denis figures to be around a long time. Denis has two years remaining on his current contract.

GARY INNESS

Goaltender 6'0" 195 lbs.
Age: 25 (May 28, 1949)
Born: Toronto, Ontario
Shoots: Left
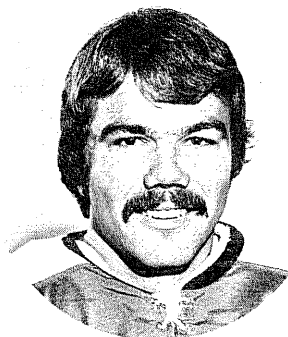

Gary Inness turned professional in October of last year and by January had earned a spot in the National Hockey League, thanks to his fine play in goal. The 25-year-old netminder played college hockey in Toronto before signing with the Pens. He started the year in Hershey and turned in a 2.89 average in 20 games for the Bears. His first NHL start came on the heels of the big trades of last year as he beat Vancouver 6-2 on January 18 in Vancouver. His first home start also resulted in one of the biggest victories of the year, a 4-1 decision over St. Louis. Gary had eight games in which he allowed two goals or less in compiling a respectable 3.26 average in 20 games. Gary was rewarded with a new contract that runs for the next four seasons.

BOB JOHNSON

Goaltender 6'1" 190 lbs.
Age: 25 (November 12, 1948)
Born: Farmington, Michigan
Shoots: Left

Bob Johnson has worked his way up the goaltending ladder with stops in Fort Worth, Denver, St. Louis and Hershey and is now ready for a chance at a regular job in the big time. The 25-year-old native of Michigan played college hockey at Michigan State University before turning pro in the St. Louis organization. In 1971-72 he helped lead Denver to the Western Hockey League title with a 2.83 average in 37 games. He then gave up just five goals in five games in the playoffs, including two shutouts. He got his first chance in the NHL with St. Louis in 1972-73 when he played 12 games. Prior to the start of last year he was acquired from the Blues for Nick Harbaruk. He played in 43 games in Hershey and then won 8 of 10 decisions in the Calder Cup Playoffs as the Bears won the title. Bob signed a new pact this summer that will run for at least three years.

Age: 23 (April 11, 1951)
Born: Vermillion, Alberta
Shoots: Left
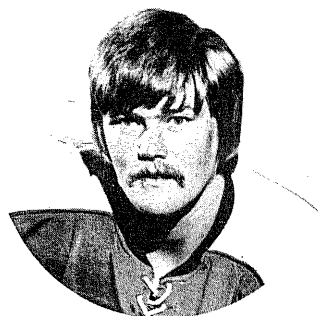

Injuries have sidelined Ron Jones for part of last season and part of the 1974-75 campaign. A separated shoulder in December put the young backliner out of action. He recovered in time to play almost 50 games with Hershey and played well for the Bears. An off-season skiing mishap required surgery for torn muscles and tendons and will probably keep Ron off the ice for at least two months of the season. Jones was a first round draft pick by Boston in 1971 and came to the Pens last year via the Intra-League Draft. Jones has two years remaining on his three year contract.

BOB KELLY

Age: 28 (June 6, 1946)
Born: Fort William, Ontario
Shoots: Left

Bob "Battleship" Kelly became an instant hero in Pittsburgh last year with his aggressive style of play and fighting ability. Bob got his first chance in the NHL last year with St. Louis, but was traded to Pittsburgh with Steve Durbano and Ab Demarco in one of the best deals the Pens have ever made. It took Bob a dozen games before he scored his first Penguin goal, but he finished with 7 in his last 18 games, including a three-goal hat trick against Detroit on March 24. A pinched nerve in his neck forced him out of the lineup for the last two weeks of the year, but an operation has Bob ready and willing to go again this year. When you hear "Anchors Aweigh", watch for one of the most exciting players in the game today, "Battleship" Kelly. Bob signed a new contract when he came to Pittsburgh and has three years left on the new deal.

Age: 29 (February 5, 1945)
Born: L'Abord a Plouffe, Quebec
Shoots: Right

Jean Guy Lagace still utilizes the hip-check to perfection and has sent many forwards crashing awkwardly to the ice after making contact. Last year he played in 31 games, missing part of the season with a broken rib. Lagace started his pro career with Pittsburgh in 1968 and returned to the Penguins in 1971, after being drafted by Minnesota and Buffalo in 1970. He had one of his best games on February 16 when he picked up a goal and two assists against California. Jean Guy is always ready to make a contribution to the team and is a very qualified defenseman. Jean Guy is in the second year of a three year contract.

Ron Lalonde needed just one season in the minors to develop into one of the hardest working players on the team. His on-ice leadership earned him an alternate captain honor after Marc Boileau took over as coach. "Newsy", as he is known by his teammates was drafted from Peterborough where he was the captain and led the Petes to the Memorial Cup Playoffs. Ron played in 73 games last year and scored 10 goals. Age: 33 (August 30, 1941)
Born: New Glasgow, Nova Scotia
Shoots: Right

A hard luck runner-up for the Lady Byng trophy last year, Lowell MacDonald continues to amaze experts with his comeback. After two years of inactivity through four knee operations, MacDonald has returned to score 77 goals and has not missed a game in two seasons. He won the Bill Masterton Memorial Award in 1973 and the James Balmer Award in 1974. He was a co-winner of the most valuable player award for the Pens and his club record 43 goals earned him the Equibank goal scoring trophy. Lowell has played in the past two all star games and scored last year in Chicago. Lowell had two hat tricks last year, both of them against Minnesota. MacDonald has two years remaining on his current contract, but plenty of goals and awards are still headed his way.

BOB McMANAMA (Mick-man-ah-mah)

Center 5'11" 185 lbs.
Age: 23 (October 7, 1951)
Born: Belmont, Massachusetts
Shoots: Left

From the campus of Harvard University to the ranks of the NHL is a big step, but Bob McManama made the transition without missing a step. He became Pittsburgh property because of a misspelling by another team and was one of the standouts in training camp last year. Bob started the year with the Pens and scored his first NHL goal on October 20 against California in his fourth big league game. A mid-season slump was corrected in Hershey where he established a club record by scoring at least one point in 18 straight games. He returned to the Pens following the changeover in January and he had a chance to play regularly for the rest of the year. One of the smartest youngsters in the game, Bob is a native of Belmont, Massachusetts and was an All American center in his final year in college. Bob has signed to play for the next four years with the Pens.

BOB PARADISE

Defense 6'1" 205 lbs.
Age: 30 (April 22, 1944)
Born: St. Paul, Minnesota
Shoots: Left

All he needed was a chance and that's just what Bob Paradise got when he came to Pittsburgh in a January trade with Chuck Arnason from Atlanta. The St. Paul, Minnesota native picked up two assists in his first game as a Penguin. He scored 2 goals in 38 games, but showed a great desire to play and win. With Dave Burrows and Steve Durbano, Paradise gives the Pens three of the best left defensemen in hockey. Paradise signed a multi-year contract that will run for at least five years.

Right Wing 6'0" 185 lbs.
Age: 28 (December 18, 1945)
Born: Shawinigan Falls, Quebec
Shoots: Right

When Jean Pronovost joined Syl Apps and Lowell MacDonald in January, he helped form the second highest goal scoring line in the NHL. Pronie had scored 15 goals through the first half of the season but picked up 25 more in the second half to finish with a career high of 40 and share the team's most valuable player award. Jean took over as the club's all time scoring leader this past season and will be the first Penguin to score 150 goals. Pronovost also won the Player's Play award for the fourth time since coming to Pittsburgh in 1968. Twice during his career he has scored goals in 7 consecutive games and set a club record for 11 goals in one month (March) this past year. The Century Line accounted for at least one goal through the final 29 games of the season. Jean turned in his finest performance on the last home game when he scored two goals and three assists in a 6-1 triumph over Philadelphia. Jean recently signed a new five-year contract with the Pens and should continue as one of the top scorers in the NHL.

RON SCHOCK

Center 5'11" 180 lbs.
Age: 30 (December 19, 1943)
Born: Chapleau, Ontario
Shoots: Left

Ron Schock is a veteran of over 600 NHL games and has scored 40 or more points for the last four years for the Penguins. Ron's overall hustle and on-ice leadership earned him the "big C" as team captain last year. He ranks as one of the best two-way hockey players in the game and is used consistently to kill penalties. He has scored a club high 10 shorthanded goals since coming to the Pens in 1969. Last year he was the winner of the Bill McCracken Unsung Hero Award. Schock has two years remaining on his contract.

RON STACKHOUSE

Defense 6'3 210 lbs.
Age: 25 (August 26, 1949)
Born: Haliburton, Ontario
Shoots: Right

Ron Stackhouse has been in the NHL for five seasons, but has yet to play in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. He plans to help remedy that situation this year as he begins his first full campaign with the Pens. Ron was acquired from the Detroit Red Wings in January and quickly showed why he is rated as one of the top defensemen in the game. He finished with 6 goals and 29 assists. Ron scored the winning goal for the Pens the first time he played for Pittsburgh. His strong shot and long reach make him a threat on both offense and defense. Ron has two years remaining on his latest deal.

BLAINE STOUGHTON (Stou-ton)

Right Wing 5'11" 185 lbs.
Age: 21 (March 13, 1953)
Born: Gilbert Plaines, Manitoba
Shoots: Right
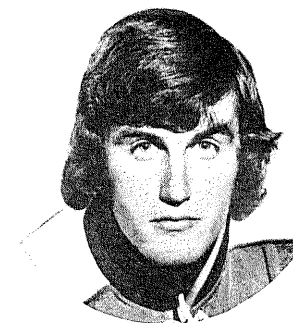

After one year of getting acclimated to professional hockey, Blaine Stoughton should break through and become one of the top youngsters on the club this year. A number one draft pick in 1973 after a sensational career with Flin Flon, Blaine spent part of the season with Hershey where he scored 23 goals in 47 games. He returned to the big club and finished with 5 goals in 34 games with the Pens. Blaine signed a three-year contract when he was drafted and has two seasons left on that agreement.
