OWNERSHIP

MARIO LEMIEUX Chairman and CEO

The greatest player in franchise history and already a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, Mario Lemieux enters his fifth season in the unique role as playerowner of the Penguins.

Lemieux's name has become virtually synonymous with the Penguins franchise, and he established himself as one of Pittsburgh's all-time sports legends even before he assembled a group of investors to buy the club out of bankruptcy in September 1999.

The first pick overall in the 1984 draft, Lemieux scored more than 600 goals and 1,400 points and led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups during the "first portion" of his career from 1984-97. He won six NHL scoring titles, three league MVP trophies and two Conn Smythe Trophies as MVP of the playoffs in addition to the two Cups – all this despite a stunning series of medical setbacks, including a battle with cancer and two major back operations, that led to his premature retirement in 1997 at the tender age of 31.

In honor of his prodigious feats, the Hockey Hall of Fame waived its normal three-year waiting period and enshrined Lemieux in November 1997, less than seven months after he'd played his "final" game.

But we hadn't seen the last of him.

It was a unique and dramatic set of circumstances that led him back to the game – and the business – at the very highest level in the late 1990s. The Penguins, faltering under enormous debt and financial burdens, filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in October 1998. And it was Lemieux, who'd agreed to defer much of the salary from his final contract, who was left as the largest unsecured creditor.

In a matter of months, he assembled and spearheaded a group of investors to buy the team out of bankruptcy and restore its financial health. They submitted a reorganization plan to U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge Bernard Markovitz in March of 1999, had it confirmed in June and – after several months of intense negotiations with partners and vendors – received final approval on September 3, 1999.

"No one could have done this but Mario Lemieux," said NHL commissioner Gary Bettman. "Our hats are off to Mario and his investors and his management team."

Lemieux thus became the first former player to own a professional sports team in the modern era. In his first season of ownership, he led a tremendous financial renaissance that saw the Penguins break even on an operating basis after losing $13 million the previous year.

And although Lemieux's background was on the ice, not in the boardroom, his stature in the community and deft touch in negotiations made him a major player on the corporate scene.

What no one knew at the time was that the competitive fires had started to crackle inside him again – and that Lemieux himself was seriously considering a comeback.

The seed was planted while he watched the Penguins' 2000 playoff series against the Philadelphia Flyers from the owner's box at Mellon Arena, and it continued to grow when he accompanied the team to Tokyo to begin the 2000-01 season with two games against the Nashville Predators.

By late November of 2000, several weeks after conducting private workouts with former teammate Jay Caufield, Lemieux had decided to make a comeback as a player.

The word leaked out in early December and became front-page headline news. The hockey world was abuz: Lemieux targeted a Dec. 27 home game vs. Toronto for his return engagement, and the Penguins had to order extra phone lines to accommodate the ticket demand.

OWNERSHIP

In his first game back, before a throbbing sellout crowd at Mellon Arena and a national television audience, Lemieux again displayed his amazing flair for the dramatic by recording an assist 33 seconds into his first shift (sports historians remembered how he'd scored a goal on his first NHL shot, on his first shift, as a teenager back in 1984). He finished with a goal and two assists in a 5-0 Penguins victory on that memorable night.

And he never let up. He rang up 12 points in his first four games and finished the 2000-01 regular season with 35 goals and 41 assists for 76 points in 43 games. Then, in the cauldron of the Stanley Cup playoffs, he paced the Penguins with 17 points in 18 games and led them to the Eastern Conference finals, where they finally were derailed by the New Jersey Devils. Still, it was the first time since 1996 that they'd reached the third round of the playoffs.

Lemieux had high hopes for a continuation of his success in 2001-02, but a hip injury suffered in training camp required surgery in late October and hampered him for the entire season. Although he was able to help Team Canada to a gold medal in the twoweek Olympic tournament at Salt Lake City, he was able to play just 24 games for the Penguins, recording 31 points, and missed the final month and a half of the regular season.

He started strong in 2002-03 and led the league in scoring for much of the season before eventually finishing eighth with 28 goals and 63 assists for 91 points in 67 games. A hip injury and subsequent surgery limited him to 10 games in 2003-04, although he became just the sixth player in NHL history to reach 1,700 points.

Lemieux represented Canada at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey in August and September. Entering the 2004-05 NHL season, which will be his 17th with the Penguins, Lemieux's career numbers stood at 683 goals and 1,118 assists for 1,701 points in 889

In addition to his feats in the hockey world, Lemieux continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its annual celebrity golf tournament, which raises millions of dollars for charity.

In February 2001, Lemieux announced that the foundation was making a $5 million gift to the UPMC Health System to create the Mario Lemieux Centers for Patient Care and Research.

Mario, his wife Nathalie and their four children live in the Pittsburgh suburb of Sewickley.

KEN SAWYER President and Governor

Ken Sawyer, a key member of the Penguins' executive management team since 1999, was named president of the Penguins in March 2003 adding to his previous responsibilities as president of Lemieux Group LP, the parent organization of the Penguins and related companies.

Sawyer now oversees all of the Penguins' business operations, including corporate planning, marketing, ticket and corporate sponsorship sales, communications, finance and legal matters. In addition to spearheading the team's bid for a new arena, he also represents the Penguins in all league matters and is a member of the NHL's Board of Governors.

"Ken brings a tremendous amount of experience at both the NHL and team levels to this new position," said team owner Mario Lemieux. "He already has done a great job of restructuring our organization on the business side, and I'll rely heavily on his expertise during the coming season."

Sawyer brought 20 years of professional sports experience to Pittsburgh when he arrived in 1999 – including 14 years as Chief Financial Officer of the National Hockey League (1979-93). From 1993-99, he operated his own financial consulting firm and served as a consultant to a number of professional sports organizations, including the Penguins.

A native of Montreal, the same hometown as Lemieux, he joined the Penguins as executive vice president and chief financial officer in September 1999 and became president of Lemieux Group LP two years later.

Sawyer is a graduate of McGill University in Montreal and is a chartered accountant. He and his wife, Shirley, reside in Pittsburgh. They have two sons, Scott and Christopher.

HOCKEY OPERATIONS

CRAIG PATRICK Executive Vice President/ General Manager

One of the most respected executives in professional hockey and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, Craig Patrick enters his 15th season as general manager of the Penguins.

Since taking over the hockey department in December 1989, Patrick has led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups, five division titles and 11 playoff berths. And although the Penguins missed the playoffs in each of the past two seasons, Patrick is energized and optimistic about the club's current rebuilding mode.

"We've got a lot of young talent in this organization, we've got a dynamic young head coach, we've brought in some quality veterans – and, obviously, we've got Mario back on the ice." he said.

"We're rebuilding, but we're still setting high goals. We've always set our goals high here in Pittsburgh."

The Penguins hadn't won any championships before Patrick arrived on the scene, but he changed the mindset – and the track record – quickly. In his first full season, 1990-91, he led the club to its first of two straight Stanley Cups, and since then a steady stream of successful and highly skilled players have proudly worn the black and gold.

Under Patrick, the Penguins posted the second-best record in the NHL during the 1990s, trailing only the Detroit Red Wings. That success continued into the new millennium, as the Penguins advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2000-01.

And even after missing the playoffs last year, Patrick generated some unique excitement by trading up for the first overall pick in the 2003 entry draft – which he used to select goaltender Marc-Andre Fleury.

As a testament to his skill and dedication, Patrick has been with his team longer than all but one current NHL general manager, Lou Lamoriello of the New Jersey Devils.

His induction to the Hockey Hall of Fame in the fall of 2001 made him the fourth member and third generation of his family to enter the Hall, joining his grandfather Lester, father Lynn and great-uncle Frank.

Craig was inducted for a lifetime of achievements in all facets and at all levels of the sport. And although he was a collegiate star and an NHL player, he has made his greatest impact as a manager in the NHL and on the international scene.

He was assistant coach and assistant general manager of the 1980 U.S. Olympic team that performed the "Miracle On Ice" and won an improbable gold medal, served as GM of the 1991 U.S. team at the Canada Cup and was GM of the star-laden 2002 U.S. Olympic team, which claimed a silver medal at Salt Lake City.

He parlayed his early Olympic service into a job as GM of the New York Rangers from 1981-86, leading the Rangers to the playoffs in each of his five seasons. But he is best known for his work with the Penguins since coming to Pittsburgh as general manager on December 5, 1989.

In addition to the two Cups and the five division titles, Patrick was named Sporting News NHL Executive of the Year in a vote of his peers in 1990-91, 1997-98 and 1998-99. He also won the 2000 Lester Patrick Award for contributions to hockey in the United States and was inducted to the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 1996.

Patrick played college hockey at the University of Denver and captained the Pioneers to the NCAA championship in 1969. He played eight NHL seasons with five different teams, registering 72 goals and 163 points in 401 games before retiring in 1979. He also represented the U.S. at the 1976 Canada Cup and appeared in numerous international tournaments.

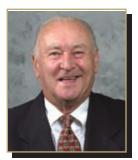

Born in Detroit, Patrick grew up in Boston and New Haven and was immersed in hockey because of his family ties. His grandfather, Lester, one of the legendary builders of the game, served as head coach and general manager of the New York Rangers and led his team to three Stanley Cups. His father, Lynn, was an all-star winger for the Rangers, became head coach of the club from 1948-50 and later served as GM of the Boston Bruins and St. Louis Blues. His uncle, Muzz, played defense for the Rangers and was GM/coach from 1954-64.

Patrick has four children - daughters Erin and  $\bar{\text{T}}$ aylor and sons CJ and Ryan - and two grandsons, Ryan and Reed.

Johnston has spent 20 seasons with the Penguins in a variety of roles, including general manager, head coach and assistant coach. He also has been involved directly with the Penguins' minor league operations.

"EJ" served as head coach of the Penguins from 1980-83 and again from 1993-97, posting an overall mark of 232-224-60 and leading the team to two division titles and a berth in the 1996 Eastern Conference Finals. He is the winningest coach in franchise history and also tops the club's list in games coached with 516.

Johnston served as general manger of the team from 1983-88 and had the distinction of drafting Mario Lemieux with the first pick of the 1984 NHL draft.

He also coached the Chicago Blackhawks in 1979-80, going 34-27-19. His overall NHL coaching record is 266-251-79 in 596 games.

Johnston played 16 seasons as an NHL goaltender with Boston, Toronto, St. Louis and Chicago, earning two Stanley Cup rings during his stint with the Bruins. He was the last NHL goaltender to play every minute of a season when he played all 70 games for Boston in 1963-64. He had a career goals-against average of 3.25 in 592 NHL games, posting a 234-257-80 record with 32 shutouts.

Johnston also served as general manager of the Hartford Whalers from 1989-92, reaching the playoffs in each season.

Ed and his wife, Diane, have three children, Michele, EJ Jr. and Joseph.

GREG MALONE Head Scout

Former NHL centerman Greg Malone enters his 14th season as the Penguins head scout, overseeing all junior, college, high school and European scouting efforts. He has been part of the club's staff since 1988 and logs thousands of miles on the road each season in his quest for young prospects.

Malone played 11 NHL seasons with the Penguins, Hartford and Quebec. During his Penguins career from 1976-83, he recorded 143 goals and 221 assists for 364 points in 495 games. He still ranks 11th on the team's all time list in points and 13th in goals. Malone's best season came in 1978-79 when he led the Penguins with 35 goals and 65 points.

Greg has two sons, Ryan and Mark. A proud moment for Greg came when the Penguins selected Ryan in the fourth round of the 1999 NHL Entry Draft.

Eddie Olczyk returns for his second season as head coach of the Penguins, after being named to his current position on June 11, 2003.

Olczyk, 37, led the Penguins to a 12-5-3-0 finish; the second best 20-game finish in club history. "We had a strong finish to the season last year and that was a testament to the guys believing in what we were trying to get accomplished,"said

Olczyk. "The players recognized we could have success in what we were doing if we were persistent and they started to believe in one another as the season went along. I enjoyed teaching our guys and we're only going to get better, and I believe the great people in the city of Pittsburgh are beginning to see signs that we're turning the corner and good things are on the horizon."

A 16-year NHL veteran, Olczyk scored 342 goals and recorded 794 points in 1,031 career games with the Penguins, Chicago, Toronto, Winnipeg, NY Rangers and Los Angeles, winning a Stanley Cup with the Rangers in 1994. The third overall selection in the 1984 Entry Draft, he was also a member of the 1984 U.S. Olympic team and represented the United States in numerous international competitions.

"Eddie and his staff did a tremendous job last season," said general manager Craig Patrick. "Eddie's excitement, passion and ability to teach the game helped make our young players better as the season went along. He's a dynamic individual that our players have responded very well to and I expect that will continue and we'll see even more improvement during the coming seasons."

MELLON ARENA

Since their inception in 1967, the Penguins have played their home games in a building nicknamed "The Igloo" – originally known as the Civic Arena and now renamed Mellon Arena because of a multi-year sponsorship deal with Mellon Financial Corp.

The Arena, now in its 42nd year of operation, is the oldest facility in the National Hockey League. Hockey seating capacity was only 12,580 in 1967, but a series of expansions and modernization programs over the past three decades have increased that capacity to its current 16,940.

Originally built for the Civic Light Opera, the Arena quickly evolved into a site for sporting events and concerts and was home to the Pittsburgh Hornets of the American Hockey League, as well as Duquesne University basketball and a series of pro teams ranging from indoor soccer to world team tennis. Teams such as the Pittsburgh Pipers and Pittsburgh Condors of the old American Basketball Association also called the Arena home in the 1960s and 1970s.

The Penguins are Mellon Arena's anchor tenant and feature attraction, playing more than 40 games here each season (two preseason games and 41 regular season games in 2001-02).

During its lifetime, the Arena has hosted the Stanley Cup Finals, the NHL All-Star game, the NCAA men's and women's basketball tournaments, the Harlem Globetrotters, professional wrestling, ice skating and gymnastics competitions and popular acts ranging from Elvis Presley and Frank Sinatra to Bruce Springsteen, Garth Brooks and the Backstreet Boys.

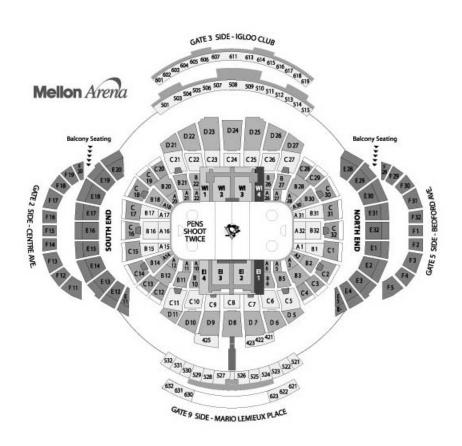

Featuring a retractable stainless steel roof, the Arena was built for a cost of $22 million. It was financed by a combination of public and private funds, including outright grants from the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County and Edgar Kaufmann.

The Sports & Exhibition Authority oversees Mellon Arena on behalf of the City of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. The Regional Asset District (RAD) Board also has provided funding.

HISTORY & RECORDS

Bob Johnson (1992)

Bob Johnson coached the Penguins to their first Stanley Cup Championship in 1990-91. An outstanding coach with the University of Wisconsin and the Calgary Flames, Johnson became head coach of Pittsburgh on June 12, 1990, and led the team to its first Patrick Division title with 88 points. The Penguins then went on to win the Patrick Division playoff title and the Wales Conference Trophy to earn the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals. The team claimed the Cup on May 25, 1991, with an 8-0 win at Minnesota, with Johnson becoming only the second American-born coach to win the championship. Just three months later, on November 26, 1991, Johnson passed away at his home in Colorado. Thanks in large part to Bob Johnson, it will always be a "Great Day for Hockey" in Pittsburgh.

Rick Kehoe (1992)

Acquired from Toronto on Sept. 13, 1974, Rick Kehoe played 11 seasons with the Penguins (1974-75 to 1984-85). A right wing, he scored a career-high 55 goals during the 1980-81 season - only Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr have tallied more goals in a single season with the team. With Pittsburgh, Kehoe led the team in goals and points on three occasions, recorded 25 or more goals in nine of his 11 seasons, and hit the 30-goal mark five times. Kehoe ranks third in club history with 636 regular season points, trailing only Lemieux and Jagr. He also ranks fourth in games (722), fourth in goals (312), sixth in assists (324), fourth in power play goals (95) and fourth in hat tricks (8). He played in the NHL All-Star Game twice and won the Lady Byng Trophy in 1981.

Jean Pronovost (1992)

Jean Pronovost played 10 seasons with the Penguins (1968 through 1978) and has played in more games than any other player in club history (753) with the exceptions of Mario Lemieux and Jaromir Jagr. A right wing, Pronovost became the first Penguins player to record 50 goals in a season when he tallied 52 in 1975-76. He led the team in goals five times and points twice, recorded 20-or-more goals in nine of his 10 seasons, and played in 70 or more games in eight of those 10. Pronovost ranks third in club history in goals (316), fifth in points (603), eighth in assists (287), fifth in power play goals (70) and third in gamewinning goals (42). He represented the Penguins in the NHL All-Star Game four times and served as team captain in 1977-78.

Syl Apps (1994)

Syl Apps was acquired from the New York Rangers with Sheldon Kannegiesser in January of 1971. He spent six full seasons and parts of two others with Pittsburgh, recording 151 goals, 349 assists and 500 points in 495 regular season games. Apps led the team in scoring three times, and currently ranks 10th on the Penguins career list in goals, fourth in assists, seventh in points, and fifth in short-handed goals. He led the Penguins in assists five times, including the 1975-76 season when he notched a career-high 99 points (32+67). He was also the MVP at the 1975 NHL All-Star Game in Montreal. For four seasons, Apps centered the famed "Century Line" that included right wing Jean Pronovost and left wing Lowell MacDonald. The trio combined for 203 points and 84 goals in 1972-73, 239 points and 107 goals in 1973-74, 214 points and 94 goals in 1974-75 and 276 points and 114 goals in 1975-76.

Dave Burrows (1996)

Dave Burrows was one of the survivors of a dying breed - the defensive defenseman - and his perfection of the art made him one of the most popular players in Penguins history. The Penguins selected Burrows from the Chicago Blackhawks in the NHL Intra-League Draft in June of 1971. He played in Pittsburgh through the 1977-78 season, before being traded to Toronto for Randy Carlyle and George Ferguson in June of 1978. He was reacquired by Pittsburgh in November of 1980, and remained with the team through the 1981-82 season. Overall, he played in 724 games with Pittsburgh and Toronto, collecting 29 goals and 135 assists for 164 points. Burrows totaled just 377 penalty minutes in his career, along with just six in 29 playoff games. With the Penguins, he recorded 132 points (24+108) in 573 games and four points (1+3) in 20 post season contests. Burrows played in the 1974 and 1976 NHL All-Star Games and was chosen to play for Team Canada in 1976.

Edward J. DeBartolo (1996)

Edward J. DeBartolo bought one-third ownership in the Penguins in 1977, then purchased the team outright one year later. With potience and perserverance, the DeBartolo franchise endured a streak of six consecutive seasons without a playoff berth before beginning to rebound in the late 1980s, coming within one game of the Conference Final in 1989. The brightest moment during Debartolo's tenure was the team's first Stanley Cup Championship in 1991. He was selected as the Vectors' Pittsburgh Man of the Year in 1983, was named Youngstown State's Distinguished Citizen in 1984 and was a 1985 recipient of the Ohio Governor's Award. In 1986, DeBartolo was among 80 people chosen to receive the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, presented to American citizens who have distinguished themselves and preserved the values of their heritage. He passed away on Dec. 19, 1994 at the age of 85.

Elaine Heufelder (1996)

Elaine Heufelder served the Penguins and Mellon Arena for more than 35 years. She was the executive assistant for the Civic Arena's first building manager, Charles Strong, and worked for Paul Martha, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., Roger Marino and Mario Lemieux. Throughout her career, she played a key role in the operation of the building and the team's front office. She retired at the conclussion of the 2002-03 season.

Mario Lemieux (1999)

Lemieux is simply the greatest player in Penguins history, the club's all-time leading scorer and the captain of Pittsburgh's two Stanley Cup Championship teams in 1990-91 and 1991-92. Drafted first overall in 1984, Lemieux recorded 613 goals and 881 assists for 1,494 points in 745 games during his first 12 seasons. He won six NHL scoring championships, three MVP trophies, two Conn Smythe trophies as MVP of the playoffs, and the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year in 1984-85. He also became the only player in NHL history to average more than two points per game for his career. Lemieux then led an ownership group that brought the club out of bankruptcy in 1999. In December of 2000, he made the greatest comeback in sports history when he re-joined the team's lineup after a 3-year retirement. He currently serves the team as Chief Executive Officer as well as its star player.

Jack Riley (1999)

Jack Riley was here at the very beginning. The original general manager of the Penguins, Riley assembled the first team in franchise history in 1967 and served two stints as general manager - from 1967-70 and again from 1972-74. He also was team president from 1970-72. A respected figure throughout the hockey world, Jack still serves as a consultant for the American Hockey League. "Jack was the one to pave the way for our organization," said Lemieux, his Hall of Fame classmate. "He gave us the opportunity to have a successful franchise."

Joe Mullen (2000)

As a youngster, Joe Mullen laced up his roller skates at the corner parking lot in the Hell's Kitchen section of New York City. Years later became the first American-born player to score 500 goals in the NHL. His 16-year NHL career is full of milestones including three Stanley Cup Championships (1989 with Calgary; 1991 and 1992 with Pittsburgh). He is currently the fourth leading American-born scorer in league history with 502 goals and 1,063 points in 1,062 career games. Since his retirement from play in 1997, Mullen has been honored with inductions into the Hockey Hall of Fame, the USA Hockey Hall of Fame, the Western PA Sports Hall of Fame and in the Boston College Hall of Fame.

Craig Patrick (2001)

In recognition of a lifetime of contributions to the sport on the local, national and international levels, including his outstanding work with the Penguins since 1989, Craig Patrick was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001. Patrick has led the Penguins to two Stanley Cups, five division championships, one President's Trophy and 11 playoff berths in his 14 full seasons on the job. He was honored in 2000 with the Lester Patrick Award for his contributions to hockey in the United States. On the international level, Patrick served as an assistant coach and assistant general manager of the 1980 U. S. Olympic team that performed the 'Miracle On Ice,' winning an improbable gold medal. He was also GM of the 1991 U. S. team at the Canada Cup and the 2002 U. S. Olympic team at Salt Lake City. Patrick played eight seasons in the NHL, registering 72 goals and 163 points in 401 games before retiring from play in 1979. His 14-plus seasons with the Penguins represented the longest continuous stint as general manager in team history.

Mike Lange (2001)

One of the most talented and unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange of Fox Sports Net Pittsburgh has spent 29 seasons as the Penguins' play-by-play voice. He has broadcast games throughout four decades, and his colorful style has made him a hit with hockey fans in Pittsburgh, the tri-state area and across North America. As evidence of his contributions to the sport, the Hockey Hall of Fame honred Lange with the Foster Hewitt Award in November of 2001. Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man. He left for one season, but returned in 1976-77, and has been a staple of the club's broadcasts ever since. Lange worked radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. He now serves as the Penguins' primary television announcer.

Anthony 'A. T.' Caggiano (2001)

A. T. Caggiano might not be a name that every Penguins' fan recognizes, but he played an important role in the organization's first 33 years. A. T. worked in the Penguins' locker room for more than three decades, and was an indespensable part of the team's staff behind the scenes. Looking after players' practice and game day needs and prepping the visitors' locker room, he was the first person in the office each morning and one of the last to leave after every game. Through 33 seasons, he never missed a Penguins' home game. A. T. passed away in May of 2003 and, in his honor, the Penguins Booster Club renamed their annual award the 'A. T. Caggiano Memorial Award' prior to the 2000-01 campaign.

Les Binkley (2003)

Les Binkley was originally purchased by the Penguins from the American Hockey League's Cleveland Barons in 1966 - a full season before the Penguins played their first National Hockey League game. One of the AHL's top netminders during his seven years in Ohio, Binkley played in Pittsburgh from 1967-68 through the 1971-72 season, appearing in 196 regular season games for the Penguins and seven playoff contests. He ranks second on the team's all-time shutout list with 11, and also ranks second for most shutouts in a season with six, which were recorded during the team's inaugural campaign.

Ulf Samuelsson (2003)

A Pittsburgh fan favorite for his rugged style of play, Ulf Samuelsson joined the Penguins on March 4, 1991 from the Hartford Whalers with Ron Francis and Grant Jennings, and went on to star as a member of the Penguins' two Stanley Cup teams. A physical defenseman for the Pens, he played 277 regular season games for the team from 1991 through 1995, recording 94 points and 804 penalty minutes, and added 16 points and 123 penalty minutes in 66 post-season contests. His crowning moment with the Penguins came when Samuelsson notched the series-clinching goal in Game Six of the 1991 Stanley Cup Finals in Minnesota.

Vince Lascheid (2003)

Vince Lascheid entertained Penguins' fans at the Igloo from 1970 to 2003 on the arena's organ. For more than 30 years his tunes survived the test of time with Pittsburgh sports fans. During his musical career, Lascheid also worked withe the Pittsburgh Pirates baseball team (1970 to present) and the Pittsburgh Triangles tennis team (mid-1970s).
